New City Seeks Sewage Solution Through HRSD

PRINCESS ANNE—The County Board of Supervisors and Virginia Beach City Council in separate actions Monday passed resolutions asking the Hampton Roads Sanitation District to include the entire new City of Virginia Beach in its system.

Arthur Godfrey New Resident?

A rumor with foundation was circulating throughout Virginia Beach Wednesday that this resort is about to attract a nationally known television and radio personality, who would become a part-time and possibly a full time resident.

The rumor that has had wide circulation is that Arthur Godfrey, the popular radio and television star, is considering the purchase of a luxury-type oceanfront home here.

The home Godfrey is expected to purchase is one of Virginia Beach's showplaces that was constructed three or four years ago. The home is complete down to a private swimming pool.

ROADS REFUSED FOR BRIDGE-TUNNEL AREA

CHESAPEAKE BEACH—The Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel Commission informed the County Board of Supervisors Monday that chances are pretty slim for an egress and ingress road south of the future bridge-tunnel into Chesapeake Beach.

Such a road might jeopardize the future bridge-tunnel connecting roads into the interstate highway system, they said. Chesapeake Beach residents had requested a road that would allow persons coming off the future bridge-tunnel toll plaza to enter the beach area without going all the way to Shore Drive and doubling back.

Ruritan Minstrels Promise Most Colorful Show Ever This Year

PRINCESS ANNE—The sixth Annual Princess Anne Ruritan Minstrel Show is well under way with rehearsals, staging and costuming and will prove to be one of the most colorful ever to be presented to a local audience, according to its director John McFall, Jr.

The theme of the 1962 Minstrels is to be "memories" and will feature many familiar songs of yesteryear made famous by such great names as Al Jolson and Eddie Cantor.

Once again the show is based on America's earliest forms of original entertainment and is to be supported by a cast of over 125, including the Princess Anne High School chorus. Back again as interactor will be Jack Etheridge to keep the ten veteran end-men in their proper places. Etheridge's professional pacing and quick wit has contributed to the success of previous show since 1956.

Returning from last year's show are the popular "Chesapeake Bay Bear Cats", Dixieland band featuring their ragtime piano of Phil Johnson, without a doubt an outstanding hit of the 1961 show.

This year's staging will take the audience on a musical trip down the Ohio and as the show boat pulls in with all of its brilliant color of its day the air will rock with the tenor banjo of Ira Jacoway and many other specialty numbers.

Due to the unprecedented success of last year's production, the show will play four nights at Princess Anne High School. Opening Wednesday, March 21 and continuing thru Saturday, March 24th.

Tickets for each performance may be purchased from any member of the Princess Anne Ruritan Club or from the following locations: Ivan Mapp's office at Princess Anne Court House, Oceana Drugs, Malbon Motors, Kellam & Eaton Insurance Co. at Va. Beach and London Bridge Supply Co.

Curtain time for all performances will be 8 P.M.

New City Bill Becomes Law

The Virginia Beach Sun-News received word just before deadline Wednesday afternoon that Gov. Albertis Harrison had signed the charter for the new City of Virginia Beach.

This is the final step in merging Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County into one city of 100,000 persons. The new city will become effective January 1, 1963.

New City Tax Study Group Is Formed

VIRGINIA BEACH — A committee to study tax equalization problems that may arise from the Princess Anne-Virginia Beach merger on January 1 was named this week.

Named by Virginia Beach City Council were Commissioner of Revenue W. H. Phillips, F. M. Durham city accountant and Richard Woolling, the city's real estate appraiser.

Representing Princess Anne are County Treasurer V. Alfred Etheridge, Commissioner of Revenue Ivan D. Mapp and Comptroller Giles Dodd.

Princess Anne has had state appraisers working out new appraisals on all property in the county for more than a year. County officials have indicated the new appraisals will not be used for tax purposes until after the merger.

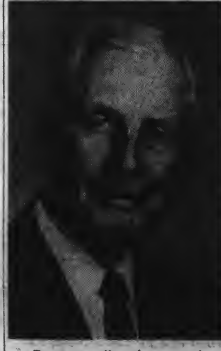

Neither city or county officials said whether the committee's work will be confined to real estate taxes.

Supply Water Now, Norfolk Is Told by Official

New City Contract Would Be In Order After Careful Study

PRINCESS ANNE — "As far as I'm concerned there are two water contracts," Sidney Kellam, head of the Princess Anne County Water Commission, said today in answer to Norfolk City Council's proposed new water contract.

First Citizen

Former railroad executive George Brooks was honored at a banquet Tuesday night at the Black Angus Restaurant as Virginia Beach's first citizen of 1961. The award dinner was sponsored by the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce. Brooks was named as First Citizen for his work on the General Hospital of Virginia Beach drive and many other civic contributions.

"First is the contract which is already established between Norfolk and Princess Anne County that would provide water to the five housing developments denied city water lines last fall. Second is the new contract that would apply to the merged City of Virginia Beach."

Long-Time Tie

Norfolk City Council approved a water contract Tuesday that would provide water service to Princess Anne County if the county agrees not to build its own water supply system for 25 years.

As an enticement to get the Board of Supervisor's approval on the contract, Norfolk promised to supply water immediately to five housing developments that have been waiting for city water since last fall when the first merger plans were announced.

"If the board rejects this proposal," Norfolk City Manager Thomas F. Maxwell told the Council (as quoted in a Norfolk newspaper), "it would appear to indicate that it has presently unknown plans for a supply of water for the proposed new City of Virginia Beach, and that it would be the Board's responsibility to explain to residents who are inconvenienced... why they reject this proposal."

The subdivisions caught in the middle of the water controversy are Bartow Heights, Lake Smith Terrace, three sections of Carollanne Farms, a portion of Huntington on New Kempsville Drive and a section of King's Grant.

Builders of these five developments had made arrangements for a water supply from the City of Norfolk but City Council denied them service after the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne County merger news broke. One developer had even sent his check to the Council to pay for the water lines only to have his check returned un-cashed.

Under the proposed contract Norfolk "protects its investment" by asking the county to agree to:

1. Not set up a new water supply system or allow other than Norfolk water to be supplied its residents for a period of 25 years unless Norfolk consents in writing.
2. Pay the city, if it gives its consent, "the then fair-market value for all city-owned water distribution lines in the county. These facilities are estimated to be worth about $4 million now."

The contract also states that the 25-year period will begin only after the last bonds from a $9-million issue to expand Norfolk's water supply system have been issued.

Since only one-third of the bonds have been sold, and it will probably take several years to sell the rest, the contract would tie up Princess Anne County into the 1980's.

Local Mail Being Processed At 32nd Street Station

VIRGINIA BEACH — J. T. Crosswhite, Jr., Acting Postmaster of Virginia Beach Post Office, announced today the consolidation of all mail processing activity at Seapines Station on 32nd Street.

The move is in conformity with Departmental policy of closer coordination of mail handling to provide better mail service, effecting all possible economy measures, Crosswhite said.

Under the new plan all incoming and outgoing mail will be processed at the Seapines facility. This will eliminate duplication in handling all classes of mail. Concentration at one point will speed up the flow of mail to all outlying areas served by the Virginia Beach office.

The movement of necessary equipment from the Main Post Office to Seapines has been made with no interruption or delay in service. Crosswhite emphasized the fact that the change will not affect the service offered at the Main Post Office on 24th Street and Atlantic Avenue. The Postmaster and his assistant will continue to use their present offices in the Main Office and a complement of clerks sufficient to render all postal services will be maintained.

According to Crosswhite the consolidation of mail handling functions in one building will afford his key supervisors a better opportunity to supervise the entire postal operation which covers a very large area. The Postmaster and supervisors will have more time, resulting from eliminating many duplicate procedures, to anticipate and plan for the constant changes which are brought about by the rapid population increase.

PANCAKE SUPPER

VIRGINIA BEACH — The Young People's Fellowship of Galilee Episcopal Church will sponsor a Pancake Supper on Shrove Tuesday, March 6, at 6:30 in the Parish Hall of the church.

Volunteers Get Odd Fire Call

VIRGINIA BEACH — Intruders are usually apprehended by the Police Department but the Virginia Beach Volunteer Fire Department was called on recently to handle just such a case.

The intruder was a most unhappy opossum who found himself in quite a predicament when he was caught in a bird house at the corner of Cavalier Lane and Holly Rd. Thanks to the firemen's efforts, the bird family was soon able to move back into their hastily vacated home.

Children also needed the services of the Fire Department. They rescued a youngster from a locked bathroom February 12 at 587 Abingdon Road and located a lost child February 17 about 11:30 p.m. at Pallets Rd. in Point O' Woods.

Other calls included an inhalator at 710-13th Street, Feb. 13 at 11:30 a.m.; oven grease fire at 320-26th Street, Feb. 14 at 10:07 a.m.; house trailer at 1010 17th St., February 15 at 5:28 p.m.; electric short circuit at 209-36th Street, February 17 at 3:17 p.m.; and just two minutes later a smoke scare at 218-69th Street.

Kiwians Aid Youngsters

BAYSIDE LIONS CLUB HEAR TALK ON PROGRESS OF BRIDGE-TUNNEL

The Bayside Lions Club held their regular meeting Wednesday night, February 21, at 7:00 P.M. at Shore Drive Inn. The president, Gordon Hughson, presiding.

The feature of the evening was a talk given by Mr. Edward G. Joyner, Project Information Director of the Chesapeake Bay-Bridge Tunnel Commission. According to Mr. Joyner there has been ferry service across to the Eastern Shore since 1880. The present ferry started operation in 1934. At present carrying 2,000,000 passengers and 750,000 vehicles a year.

From an engineering standpoint, the Bridge-Tunnel will be one of man's greatest achievements. 55,000 tons of steel and 550,000 cubic yards of concrete will be fashioned into 17.5 miles of bridge-tunnel structure. 3000 piles will be driven into the bed of the bay. The two lines crossing will extend for a total of 17.5 miles, will consist of low level trestles and two tunnels—one under the Thimble Shoal Channel and one beneath the Baltimore Channel. Bridge will span the North Channel and Fisherman Inlet Channel. All grades in the tunnels and on bridge approaches are designed to keep even the heaviest truck traffic flowing at normal speeds. The bridge to the first island, off of Chesapeake Beach is almost completed and will soon be in use to take the workmen out to the island.

Mr. Joyner told of the complications in building the artificial islands. The date for the bridge-tunnel completion is the fall of 1963.

At their regular February meeting on the 13th, the Woman's Club of Chesapeake Beach met at the Shore Drive Inn.

Mrs. Harry W. Fulford, Chairman of the nominating Committee submitted the following slate of officers for the coming two club years: President, Mrs. Thomas B. Petty, First Vice President, Mrs. Colon L. Powers, 2nd Vice President, Mrs. Roy M. Harkens, secretary, Mrs. George Robbins, and treasurer, Mrs. Ronald K. Irving.

Mrs. Powers was elected delegate to the Tidewater District meeting which is to be held at the Chamberlain Hotel at Old Point on March 7. Mrs. Roy M. Harkens was elected alternate delegate.

Mrs. Elwood A. Hudson reported that 127 reservations were honored at the recent dinner held by the Club as a farewell party to the Chesapeake Beach Community Center. Special guests included County dignitaries, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll G. Clough and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan D. Mapp. Past presidents and First Citizens receiving special invitations were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Dillon, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Meekins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hedley, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Spruill and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harrell.

YOUR CONGRESSMAN REPORTS

By THOMAS N. DOWNING

Democrat, 1st District of Va.

From time to time during sessions of Congress, I have written news reports about various measures which affect you and which are pending before Congress.

I fully realize that some of the things I write are already well known to you, but I write in the belief that even if they are repetitious, my purpose will be served if they better inform the people that I have the privilege to represent.

The Second Session of the 87th Congress has been under way for about a month, and, as is always customary in Washington this time of year, the big subject on Capitol Hill is the Dollar.

A new year, as far as the Dollar is concerned, fiscal year 1963, will begin in about five months. This new spending year for the Federal Government will affect the daily lives of every man, woman, and child in the country.

A review of the six Presidential messages already sent to the Congress from the White House makes this observation a virtual certainty, and in the early days of this Congressional Session, I have been carefully studying every Administration proposal, trying to determine its total impact on residents of the First District.

This, frankly, is not an easy determination to make, because the Administration does not break down its program recommendations by Congressional Districts.

Of course, we all know that the demands of our economy, defense, and well being make some spending absolutely necessary, but never in all history has the single word "spending" assumed the magnitude that it now has in Washington. Intuitively, we know it will have a massive impact on every facet of our lives. After all, in one year, fiscal year 1963, the budget provides for spending $92,537,000,000. If we add trust fund expenditures for items like social security and highways, and there's no reason why we shouldn't, the total is $115 billion. This spending proposal will cost every man, woman, and child in the First District about $400 a year in taxes.

As has been so widely discussed these past few days, the Administration presented Congress with a balanced fund request for fiscal 1963. Like so many of my colleagues in the House, I am delighted that the President has proposed a spending program that matches revenues. The new budget proposal estimates that federal income will be $93 billion-$95 billion more than the $92.5 billion in the outgoing column. I must confess, however, that I believe that this revenue estimate is overly optimistic. It is based on far too many "ifs". This becomes clear after a careful reading of the President's message on the expected state of our economy. Without going into details, every phase of our society's economic structure will have to function with near-perfection to produce $93 billion in revenue. One protracted period of bad weather, one severe strike—say, in the steel industry, one more international crisis, and the revenue figure will dip, and dip drastically.

Apparently, the Administration is aware that its fiscal 1963 revenue estimate is somewhat shaky. The President recently announced that he would ask Congress to raise the temporary ceiling on the national debt from $298 billion to $308 billion. It may be necessary, but the national debt is already much too high; it is now right at $298 billion. In interest payments alone, our nation spends almost $9½ billion. Remember, that's interest; we haven't spent anything to retire the principal in years.

With this in mind, I am convinced that we should strike for a budget surplus for fiscal 1963, and we should immediately use the surplus to retire part of our shameful national debt. Apparently much of the Congress is in agreement, because two important bills advanced here in Washington in recent days are both calculated to stabilize our nation's fiscal program.

In the House of Representatives, in an extremely controversial and far-reaching development, a bill was recently passed that will increase postal rates in every category—with the exception of educational, charitable and non-profit mailings. Unless provisions of the bill are altered by the Senate, a 4c stamp will soon cost you 5c; an air mail stamp will cost 8c; a post card will take a 4c stamp. Newspapers and magazines will Commemorative Stamp pay 1c per piece more than at present. Third class mail—what some call "junk mail"—will be increased to a 3½c piece rate. This was not an easy bill to pass; almost everyone is against increases in the postal rate. But without passage of this postal bill this year, our nation would have gone another $690 million deeper in debt. I am convinced that our nation's best interests make a higher postal rate for all of us preferable to a staggering national debt for our grandchildren.

In recent years, many new Executive departments have been established at the Federal level of government. And, while there have been many re-organizations over the years, the power of our centralized Federal government has never been diminished and as all of us well know, it has never been greater than it now is. In fact, there are many of us who believe it is too great. Our form of government is not designed to establish the Executive branch as a supreme authority on our lives. Our Constitution is precise on this point. We are supposed to have a government of checks and balances. The Legislative branch of government is empowered by the Constitution to act as a brake on power seizures by the Executive branch. My very deep belief in the importance of this braking function, even though I do believe that a properly courageous executive is good for the country, leads me to voice serious reservations about the establishment of a cabinet-level department of urban affairs and housing.

I have an open mind about the needs of our nation's rapidly expanding urban and suburban areas. After all, Congress created a Department of Agriculture to assist our rural areas; it might well be that Congress would soon create a department of urban affairs to assist our city areas. But, in my view, the creation of a new department is a proper function of the Legislative branch. I do not believe that Congress intended for the Reorganization Act to give the President authority to create another new cabinet-level department. Therefore, even though I am fully aware of the problems faced by our urban areas in the coming years, I believe that proper remedies should be Legislative remedies. And I frankly regret that President Kennedy is attempting to by-pass the Constitutional prerogatives given to Congress in this area.

In two other areas that are equally important, if not more so, the President has asked Congress for new authority to exercise Executive prerogatives. In one area, he has asked Congress to make it possible for him to reduce income taxes in periods of economic depression. In the other, he has asked for general authority to reduce tariffs on imports by fifty percent. On imports coming here from the European Economic Community, the so-called Common Market, President Kennedy has asked Congress for authority that amounts to the virtual elimination of all tariffs. This is unprecedented trade authority, but in his recent trade message, President Kennedy cited justification for it, including an improved balance of payments position, acceleration of economic growth, strengthening of unity among Atlantic Market powers, and, finally, the absolute necessity that exists for meeting the red bloc trade offensive on the Atlantic, and elsewhere.

Your mail leads me to believe that you support the premise that something must soon be done to combat the tremendous economic power of the European Economic Community. Trade expansion is absolutely vital to our continued prosperity and, while there are many unique items in our economy that will continue to demand application of peril point procedures, escape clauses, and the national defense clause, I believe the potential of the European Common Market will force Congress into granting the President some of the special trade authority that he has requested.

However, I do not believe Congress is likely to give the President authority to reduce taxes, as he recently requested. In the view of many, authority to reduce is too short a step from authority to increase; and the authority to raise revenue is clearly vested in the Congress by the Constitution.

Many significant issues will come before Congress this Session. Most of them will affect you in one way or another. I urge you to keep abreast of the news and please let me hear from you from time to time.

The Two-Pronged Water Question

The water question is back in the news and it would appear that Norfolk City officials are again confusing the issue, as we see it. Norfolk is proposing a new contract with reservations.

In the meantime five subdivision builders in Princess Anne County are being held up for lack of water. This holdup is working a tremendous hardship on these contractors and according to Princess Anne County officials there exists a contract whereby Norfolk City should provide this water.

It appears that the question concerns two water contracts. The present contract between Norfolk City and the County of Princess Anne which would release the needed water to the five county builders and a new contract yet to be negotiated between the new City of Virginia Beach and Norfolk City.

Now Norfolk City has proposed a 25-year contract with Princess Anne County IF the county agrees not to build its own water supply system for 25 years.

It looks like a repeat performance that flared when the proposed merger of the Beach and County came up several months ago. A county official has stated that water should flow to the five county builders under the existing contract between the county and Norfolk City, but Norfolk has injected the matter of a new contract for the enlarged City of Virginia Beach.

It is a two-pronged question and we believe that a new contract should have nothing to do with supplying water to the present developers in the five areas adversely affected at this time. Norfolk City should fulfill its obligation to these builders and negotiations should proceed, toward a new water contract that would become effective January 1, 1963, when the area becomes the City of Virginia Beach.

Mr. George D. Brooke

Our Newest "First Citizen"

This week the Sun-News proudly salutes this city's newest First Citizen in the person of Mr. George D. Brooke, who was honored with this coveted award at a special banquet tendered him Tuesday night by the Virginia Beach Junior Chamber of Commerce.

For Mr. Brooke this is another well deserved honor in a distinguished career in business and in civic affairs. He was singularly honored for his outstanding leadership in the successful campaign to establish the General Hospital of Virginia Beach last year. He headed the fund raising drive and is now president of the hospital.

Mr. Brooke has enjoyed an illustrious career in business after his graduation from the Virginia Military Institute in 1900. He taught school for a short period then entered the railroad field. In 1937 Mr. Brooke was made president of three of the Nation's leading railroads and was made chairman of the board of the Virginian in 1943. He retired from active business in 1959 and turned his talents to helping his community. This he did in heading the hospital movement.

Mr. Brooke's name has now been added to a long and respected list of Virginia Beach "First Citizens". He is well deserving of this honor.

Farm Front

During the school year 1960-61 we started with 61 boys enrolled in Agriculture. 58 of these boys completed 201 enterprises. This is the first year we have counted farm labor as a productive enterprise. Ten boys earned from $50.00 to as much as $714.00 during the summer and on Saturdays. Joe Mattox III, our Toastmaster earned $714.00 doing custom work with his tractor. He added this tidy sum to his savings for his college expenses.

Twenty boys grew 38 acres of corn. James Davenport was our champion grower this year with 97 bushels per acre. Sixteen boys grew 155 acres of soybeans. Joe Pecsek grew 40 bushels per acre, but Alan Smith made the most profit per acre which was $75.00 with a yield of 36 bushels. Alan also produced 825 peck baskets of tomatoes on one acre with a profit of $440.00.

Al Basniet fed a litter of 9 pigs to market size for a profit of $290.00. Stanley Luger made over $50.00 on two market hogs: John Osmundson made $89.00 by taking good care of 30 turkeys. Kenny Lenherr is over $200.00 better off for raising two cattle. One heifer he raised was called Sam. That might account for his good fortune.

Alan Spence made, close to $200 on one dairy cow. Jim Porter cleared $191.00 egg profit on 137 hens. Joe Mattox III averaged $130 per hen 1200 Egg Factory hens over a six months period. Larry Johnson cleared $165.00 on cord wood sold.

Three of our graduates were honored with the State Farmer Degree by the Virginia Association Future Farmers of America last June. These young men are: Bonney Bright, Eddie Vaughan and Bobby Vaughan. They all did another outstanding job of farming this year. Bruce Clark won the Local Chapter Public Speaking contest.

Profit is more difficult to make farming today, but we have had a pretty good year. We wish to thank our administrators, our teacher Mr. Myers, but most of all our Dads for making it possible for us to have Vocational Agriculture.

Shrinks Hemorrhoids Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dynal)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in a suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. At all drug outlets.

FUNERALS

MRS. ALICE L. SYKES—Funeral services for Mrs. Alice L. Sykes, 71, of 216-50th Street, were conducted in Holomon-Brown Funeral Home Saturday afternoon with the Rev. W. Kenneth Haddock of Virginia Beach Methodist Church officiating. Burial was in Riverside Memorial Park.

Mrs. Sykes, a former school teacher and realty firm operator died last Thursday in a Norfolk hospital after a short illness.

A native of Mathews County, she lived in this area 60 years, she lived at Va. Beach. She was a daughter of Thomas and Mrs. Virginia Thomas Laddie.

She was a member of Virginia Beach Methodist Church.

She was a 1932 graduate of Mercer University, Macon, Ga., and taught in Norfolk schools 17 years before entering the real estate business.

She operated Alice L. Sykes Realty Co. in Norfolk until 1955. The last year, she was associated with Higgins Realty Co.

Surviving are her widow, Clarence J. Sykes; a daughter, Mrs. N. H. Palmer III; and three grandchildren, N. H. Palmer IV, Miss Susan Leigh Palmer, and Julian Whitney Palmer, all of Virginia Beach.

Mrs. Josephine Mercer Watson—Funeral services for Mrs. Josephine Mercer Watson, 45, of Thalia's Shores were held Tuesday afternoon in Holomon-Brown Funeral Home by the Rev. Irving R. Stubbs of Thalia's Trinity Presbyterian Church of Norfolk.

Mrs. Watson died Sunday in De Paul Hospital from injuries received in an automobile collision last Wednesday.

Police said Mrs. Watson was driving across Virginia Beach Blvd. at Kellam Road when her car was struck by another driven by Harold James, 24, of 102 Robin Road, Virginia Beach.

Assistant controller of Norfolk Redevelopment and Housing Authority for 17 years, Mrs. Watson was the wife of Allen C. Watson, vice president and cashier of the Southern Bank of Norfolk.

She was a native of Beaulieu, N.C., the daughter of J. Frank and Mrs. Betty Turner Mercer, and had lived in the Norfolk area for the past 30 years.

She was a charter member of Thalia's Trinity Presbyterian Church where she was active in the Women of the Church and the choir. She also was a member of Elizabeth Eastern Star Chapter 45 and Ladies Auxiliary of the Elks 38.

Besides her husband, she is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Osco Kennedy of Norfolk, Mrs. Jay Kennedy of Jacksonville, N.C., Mrs. Wells Thomas of Pink Hill, N.C., and Mrs. Walter Rhodes of Beaulieu; five brothers, Ashley Mercer of Princess Anne, Raymond Mercer, Ralph Mercer and Coy Mercer of Beaulieu and Frank Mercer of Pink Hill.

An Open Letter

We are about to run out of the most cherished morsel, THE OYSTER! Also one of the biggest assets to this whole Tidewater area.

The Oyster business employed several thousand people. The amount of money derived from this business alone amounts to millions of dollars each year. Up to now there has been nothing done about it except talk, and that is in the wrong direction.

Now, fellow citizens, I would not bother to publicize this situation, but in view of the fact nothing is being done by Science except kill the sale on what few oysters we have left by claiming N.S.X. or fungus disease of one kind or another, until a large majority of the people are afraid to eat them, and you can't blame them. If I didn't know what the real trouble was, I wouldn't eat them either.

I am 65 years old, and I can tell you what the trouble is. I have opened oysters all my life, more or less. So I think I am in a position to explain what is killing our oysters. I have always been a close observer of what takes place as the years go by. Twenty five years ago there was on the Chesapeake Bay and its rivers and shore lines 5,000 fish nets, haul seines, and gill nets combined. These people were making a living at fishing. Now imagine if you will, this amount of fish traps being fished six days a week during the fishing season, and taking 20% of good fish, and destroying seventy five per cent that were too small to use, but dead. After the fish are hauled into the boat they are dead anyway. Those people fished until they couldn't catch enough to make a living.

So a lot of them quit at that time. We still had enough fish coming in the Chesapeake Bay and its rivers and harbors, to keep the worm down to a certain degree. Then 12 to 14 years ago the people in the Carolina's discovered they had shrimp. Now the sounds and fresh water rivers in Carolina, are the spawning grounds for the entire East Coast.

So, in order to catch the shrimp, they had to use a smaller mesh net than we ever dared use here. So in catching the shrimp, they caught everything.

The people in Carolina, told me, on one occasion when I was down there, that we would never have any more fish in Virginia, unless they outlawed the shrimp boats. I asked why they didn't do something about it, and they said we can't. So I asked them why again, and the reply was big business. That's alright, too. But when big business put Virginia and Maryland, Delaware and Jersey out of the biggest business of it all, the oyster business, then I think it is time something was done about it. As I said before I have opened a lot of oysters. In the beginning of my opening oysters, I could open a barrel and maybe you would see one oyster with this black blister in it. As

Industrial Future Planning Will Be Subject of Meeting

PRINCESS ANNE — Industrial potentials and recreation and park facilities for the new City of Virginia Beach will be discussed at a dinner meeting of the newly created Area Development Committee March 14 at 7 p.m. at Princess Anne High School.

Participating in the meeting will be Garland A. Wood, executive director of the Southeastern Virginia Regional Planning Commission, and Clarence H. Osthagen, executive director of the Tidewater Virginia Development Council.

Six persons have been named to the ADC executive committee, according to County Agent E. R. (Dick) Cockrell Jr., temporary chairman of the group. They are Frank Keilam, Princess Anne businessman; Richard Webbon, executive secretary of the Board of Supervisors; John McCombs, Virginia Beach councilman; Mrs. R. B. Tynes; civic leader and member of the County Welfare Board; Keister Evans, assistant county agent and acting secretary for the group; and Cockrell.

A nominating committee to prepare a slate of permanent officers will be appointed at the meeting. There are presently 58 Virginia Beach and Princess Anne community leaders on the development committee.

The ADC, organized to determine what potentials lie in the new City of Virginia Beach, is under the supervision of the Princess Anne County Extension Service.

Some of the areas of study to be undertaken by the group, other than the scheduled industries and recreational facilities, include a coordinated health program, the potential of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel and its approaches, the suburban movement of people, and the potentials of the areas waterways, such as the Atlantic Ocean, Chesapeake Bay, Back Bay and Intracoastal Waterway.

After the program has been set up, the Extension Service will turn the operation over to the committee and act only in an advisory capacity.

County Will Study Present Water Contract With Norfolk

PRINCESS ANNE — The County Board of Supervisors have asked Commonwealth's Attorney Robert L. Simpson to study the water contract between the county and Norfolk.

This may be the first step in resuming contract negotiations with Norfolk on water for new subdivisions in the county.

Several applications by county contractors for water service to five housing projects have been held up by Norfolk City Council since the move to merge Princess Anne and Virginia Beach started last fall.

Lynnhaven Supervisor James Darden, who made the motion that the contract be studied, asked that no new applications for water be processed until those pending have been cleared.

The Princess Anne Water Commission, headed by Sidney S. Keilam, has figured in negotiations with Norfolk in the past.

Last June, Norfolk tentatively agreed to furnish water to about 2,000 homes in Bayside, west of Lynnhaven Inlet. Two months earlier Norfolk said it might buy a surplus Navy pipeline running from the Norfolk waterworks to the U. S. Naval Amphibious Base to serve part of this area.

Negotiations Halted

However, these negotiations broke down after Princess Anne and Virginia Beach announced plans to hold a referendum on the merger of their two political subdivisions.

After months of negotiations by the Princess Anne County water committee and Norfolk a partial solution to some of the water shortage in Princess Anne seemed about to be solved last summer. The agreement, had it been consummated, would have provided city water for such subdivisions as Ocean Park, Baylake Pines, Thoroughgood, Lake View Shores and other areas.

"The door was closed by Norfolk and it is up to us to return to Norfolk and see if anything can be worked out," a county official said.

The plan was for Princess Anne to buy bulk water from Norfolk, install mains and retail it to the 2,000 homes. The project would have been financed by a bond issue if persons in the areas affected approve.

NO STRONTIUM-90 DANGER IN MILK

"There is no reason whatsoever for the public to reduce consumption of milk or other dairy products due to fear of radioactive contamination," Dr. James M. Hundley, Assistant Surgeon General, Public Health Service, told a recent U. S. Department of Agriculture conference on milk and nutrition. Nor is there any need to worry about the purity of the milk supply this Spring, when peak levels of strontium-90 are expected, Dr. Hundley said. The strontium-90 levels will still be below those considered acceptable by the Federal Radiation Council.

In fact, Dr. Hundley intimated that it might be well for Americans to drink more rather than less milk—as an active combatant against strontium-90. He reported that animals with good calcium intakes absorb less strontium and conversely animals that are calcium depleted absorb more strontium. Since milk and milk products supply about 4% of the calcium in our diets, the importance of milk consumption is obvious, he said.

NOW—FRAY-DEIFYING COLLARS AND CUFFS

The day of the "turned" shirt collar is fast disappearing. U. S. Department of Agriculture scientists have found a way to make longer lasting collars and cuffs for men's cotton wash-wear shirts.

An interliner of wash and wear fabric is bonded to outer layers of untreated cotton cloth. Together, these give shirt collars and cuffs the wash-wear qualities of the interliner and the high resistance to fraying and abrasion of the untreated cotton.

Laboratory samples made with the treated interliner were somewhat stiffer than the usual soft collars and cuffs of wash-wear shirts, but they were less stiff than acceptable starched cotton collars and cuffs.

The wash-wear qualities of the interlined sample were excellent.

HOW TO CHANGE A FUSE

People often ask about the man who's so unhandy he can't even change a fuse. Actually, this is no joke. Many people don't know how to replace a fuse.

For their protection—and yours—the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Rural Electrification Administration lists these five simple steps:

1. Disconnect the lamps and appliances in use when the circuit went out.
2. Open the main switch to cut off the current while you work at the fuse box.
3. Replace the fuse with a new one of the proper size. (Keep a dry board at the fuse box to stand on while you work. Be sure your hands are dry.)
4. Close the main switch and restore the current.

KEEP CAROTENE IN LEAFY VEGETABLES

To keep the vitamin A locked in green leafy vegetables, the U. S. Department of Agriculture advises homemakers to store them at low temperatures until they are used.

Kale, collards, turnip greens & rape should be moved quickly from the store to the refrigerator.

Wilting, according to marketing researchers, causes a big loss in carotene, the substance which supplies three-fifths of the vitamin A in a normal diet. Kale, for example, loses a fourth of its carotene content when held at 70° F. for one day. If it wilts, it loses another 30 to 40 percent.

Although tests are not complete for the other vegetables, researchers expect similar losses for turnip greens and rape—and even greater ones in collards.

TEXAS—THE SHEEP STATE

If Little Bo Peep is still looking for her sheep, she had best head out Texas way. Texas has more sheep—and shears more sheep and lambs—than any other State.

In 1961, ranches in the Lone Star State had nearly 6 million sheep and lambs—about 2½ times as many as the next biggest sheep State, Wyoming.

Altogether, there were close to 33 million sheep and lambs in the country last year, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Statistical Reporting Service. Production of these animals gives each of us around 3 pounds of cleaned wool and 5 pounds of lamb and mutton annually.

WASH—WEAR COTONS

Brightly colored cotons that can be washed and worn yet stay crisp and colorful after repeated launderings...

That's the prospect in store for American women—and it may not be too far away. Scientists in the U. S. Department of Agriculture's utilization laboratory in New Orleans have developed a single chemical treatment that can give cotton all of these properties in a single operation. They do it with divinyl sulfone derivatives. These chemicals have the unusual ability to react with cotton's cellulose molecules to produce a good wash-wear finish and at the same time to attach other finishing materials permanently to the cellulose.

In the past, the textile industry has had trouble getting many inexpensive—yet beautiful—dyes to penetrate cotton. Researchers now find that when the dye is added to a solution of divinyl sulfone derivatives, the color goes in without difficulty. And it stays there. Laundering tests show that fabrics dyed in this way are highly resistant to damage from chlorine bleach.

Starch can be added at the same time as the dye, giving fabrics permanent crispness. This same process that dyes, starches and treats the fabric may possibly be used to make cottons resistant to fire, heat, rot and mildew—even make them repellent to water and oil.

For the American woman this will mean brighter and better cottons—cottons that laugh at an iron yet stay bright and starched even after many washings.

Congratulations again to the members of the Princess Anne High Debate Team. Two-thirds of the team received speaking awards after debating on the question, "What should be in the role of the federal government in federal aid to education?" Those to receive awards were: Miss Nancy Budnick, Fred Keene, Miss Sue Benbow and Harold Rubell.

Congratulations are also in order for David Claude. David is a finalist in the National Merit Scholarship contest.

Princess Anne Happenings

By Leslie Russell

Exactly six months of the school year has passed and again the month of March is upon us.

March, named for Mars, the war god of Roman mythology, is a month of many superstitions. The most well-known of course, is "If March comes in like a lion, it will go out like a lamb." Another is that the last three days of March are unlucky. Let's hope it's a lucky month for students!

With the basketball season drawing to a close, one of the most important games of the season has yet to be played—The men and women of the faculty versus the girls and boys of the student body will be presented by the Coronet Tri-Hi-Y March 2 in the Princess Anne High School Gym at 7:30.

The women's team composed of Miss Diane Keel, Mrs. Doris French, Mrs. Edith Shields, Miss Roxanne Dark, Miss Ida McMath, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Miss Annette Hasty, Mrs. Betty Barco, Mrs. Verna Frey, Miss Shirley Jacobs, Miss Frances Hughes, Miss Peggy Moffett and Mrs. Breedlove.

In the next game of the evening the men's faculty team composed of Mr. Jim Mounie, Mr. Claude Gimbert, Mr. Peter Sachon, Mr. J. W. Littleton, Mr. Ronnie Davis, Mr. Tom Garrou, Mr. Jim Spencer, Mr. Dan Butler, and Mr. Hoffman face the talents of these students: Clayton Krechji, Dave Young, Doug Miller, Bob Morgan, Henry Harrell, Ben Cartwright, Charles Johnson, Steve Roberts, Bobby DeMille, Cecil Myers, Jerry McConnell, Bill Smith, and Bill Smith.

Cheering the faculty teams to victory will be: Miss Anna Bland Faison, Miss Mary Lyndea League, Miss Betty McCauley and Mrs. Merium Liveridge.

Teacher to Marine

On March 12, one of Princess Anne's favorite faculty members will be leaving for Quantico, Va., to undergo Marine Officers Training.

Mr. Ronnie Davis, junior varsity wrestling coach, track coach and biology teacher, will certainly be missed by both the members of the faculty and the student body.

Congratulations again to the members of the Princess Anne High Debate Team. Two-thirds of the team received speaking awards after debating on the question, "What should be in the role of the federal government in federal aid to education?" Those to receive awards were: Miss Nancy Budnick, Fred Keene, Miss Sue Benbow and Harold Rubell.

Congratulations are also in order for David Claude. David is a finalist in the National Merit Scholarship contest.

STEPHEN MILLARD

Chances are Roger White never mastered the trombone nor Stephen Millard never grew so much as a potted plant but the Sun-News last week put Millard's picture over White's story stating that he had received the American Farmer certificate, the highest degree awarded by the Future Farmers of America. Millard, a Princess Anne High School senior, won the Oceana Lions Club Bland Memorial competition with his trombone accomplishments. The Sun-News regrets the error.

World's Rotary Clubs Observe Special Week

During club meetings, some 500,000 Rotarians in 124 countries, from Aabenraa, Denmark, to Zarate, Argentina, will simultaneously observe World Understanding Week, March 18-24, 1962. Rotarians have long been dedicated to the advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through their world fellowship of business and professional men.

Virginia Beach Rotarians will take part in this world-wide observance by bringing in qualified speakers to discuss world understanding to local clubs and by asking other civic clubs to participate.

These leaders of their business and professional communities feel that since modern communications and transportation methods have helped create a world community, the world's peoples must come to know and understand each other and to live as neighbors should.

An exchange of correspondence, club programs, tape-recorded messages and color slides, and the sponsoring of international students are some of the many year-round activities of Rotary clubs in their quest for world understanding.

Traveling Rotarians make up their attendance at clubs in many different parts of the world, thereby intermingling different cultures. Other examples of Rotary action in international understanding are: an international film festival in Florida, U.S.A.; Australian Rotarians entertainment of recent immigrants; an international exhibit in Massachusetts, U.S.A.; and into-their-shoes conferences with large numbers of people discussing major world problems from the viewpoints of countries other than their own, in Brazil, Ceylon, China, France, and India.

These are some of the ways Rotarians observed World Understanding Week in 1961.

President Thomas Jefferson, who had a personal interest in the U. S. Marine Corps, selected the site for the present-day Marine Barracks in Washington, D.C., in June, 1801.

AAA Advises Look 'All Ways' To Pedestrians

WINNER, AAA TRAFFIC SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

The wise pedestrian looks "all ways," not just right and left for approaching traffic before stepping off the curb, according to Frank Cox, Local Director, Tidewater Automobile Association.

"Each year, hundreds of pedestrians are killed and injured at intersections by turning cars," the AAA Club Official said. "Many of these lives could have been saved, if the victims had taken the precaution of looking behind them for cars approaching the intersection from the side street."

A safety poster illustrating the theme, "Look All Ways Before Crossing," is being distributed to schools in Virginia Beach as part of the regular monthly safety education program of Tidewater Automobile Assn.

The new poster, designed by Helene Gianatiempo, 17, a 12th grade student at Northport High School, East Northport, New York, was a first prize and grand award winner in the American Automobile Association's National Traffic Safety Poster Contest. The prize was awarded by a panel of nationally-known judges, and the poster will be reproduced and distributed by AAA Motor Clubs throughout the country.

Formal Opening Set for Church

LONDON BRIDGE — A service of consecration and the formal opening for worship of the newly constructed Francis Asbury Methodist Church will be held this Sunday, March 4, at 11 a.m.

The building, located on Great Neck Road near John B. Dey Elementary School, will be consecrated by the Rev. Dr. Joseph S. Johnson, District Superintendent of the Norfolk District of the Methodist Church.

The present structure is the first of three units planned by the congregation and consists of eight church school rooms, the pastor's study, and a sanctuary-social hall designed to hold 185 persons. The Rev. Edward J. Taylor is pastor of the church and Philip Lyons is chairman of the building committee.

The congregation was chartered as a Methodist Church in October, 1959, and has been meeting in the John B. Dey School. It is being sponsored by the Norfolk District Board of Missions.

In addition to the service of consecration next Sunday, the sacrament of Holy Communion will be administered at 9 a.m. and church school will be held at the regular time, 9:45.

BAYSIDE P-TA WILL SPONSOR SUPPER

BAYSIDE—The Bayside Elementary School P-TA will sponsor a ham dinner Saturday from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the school cafeteria.

Plates will be sold at $1 for adults, 60c for children or 25c for hamburgers. Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. J. A. Stepha, 464-1912; Mrs. Audrey Thomas, 464-1906; Mrs. Helen Schlaus, 464-0161; or Mrs. Edna Williams, 464-1964.

The monthly meeting of the Bayside P-TA was held Monday, February 19th at 8:00 in the school auditorium.

Founders Day was observed and during this time Mrs. Lois Holland was presented a Life Membership in the Virginia Congress of Parents and Teachers. Mrs. Holland was President of Bayside P-TA in 1958 and 59.

Mrs. W. G. Reese presented Mrs. Ruby Webber with a gift for not missing a day of school during the last eight years.

The program for the evening was on Parent Education, conducted by Miss Patsy Porter and Mrs. Norman Cloutier. The name of the film shown was "Learning Communicative and Number Skills and the Practical Fine Arts."

Seahawks Fold In District Play

NANSEMOND COUNTY—Virginia Beach's Seahawks were rudely and unexpectedly knocked out of the District One, Group Two basketball tournament Friday night at Frederick College by and alert and aggressive James Blair quintet from Williamsburg. The winners topped the Hawks 59 to 45.

The Seahawks, winners of the regular season play of Division A of the District, defeated the Jaybees twice during the season. But, they could not match the near-perfect shooting of the victors Friday night. The contest was a semi-final game. James Blair was to meet Franklin for the championship Saturday night.

The Hawks stayed within range of the Jaybees for three periods and were trailing by only two points at halftime, 26 to 24. However, the ultimate winners pulled away fast in the final quarter. The score stood at 49-37 at the end of the third period.

It was a "cold" night for the Virginia Beach lads. In a winning effort on Wednesday night the Hawks' Jay Horton and Chester Branscom each tallied 19 points. By contrast on Friday night Branscom had 12 points while Horton garnered eight.

Billy Skinner led the winning Jaybees with 16 points followed by Hogg and Van Ausdale with 12 and 11 points, respectively. The Seahawks had compiled a conference record of 11 wins and one loss.

Goals and Dribbles

Saturday's Games

Lions 32, Blue Angels 29
Hawks 60, Beachcombers 24

The sixth and last game of the regular season gave the Hawks first place in the League and the highest scoring—sixty points—of the year. Bill Mayo out-did himself with 20 of these points. All the Hawks looked good with nearly everyone hitting the basket and moving the ball well. The first unit is something like spectacular, the way they work together and move down the floor. If teamwork is what we're striving for, these boys are the perfect example. They should be remembered as a team, so here's who they are: Bill Mayo, Zack Clement, Buddy Matthews, Ronnie Billingsley and Malcolm Ragan. Congratulations, boys, we're sorry you won't be together but this one season.

The Beachcombers played hard and Cosh Dobbs, Towney Brown and Mike Jenkins were particularly outstanding for their effort.

The first game was hard-fought all the way with the Lions forging ahead in the fourth period. Steve Clark, Dickie Miller and Ricky Hangar looked real good for the Lions. John Evans, Doug Compton and Willie Shipp were more than mentionable. Willie managed 12 points and played fine defensive ball as well for the Blue Angels.

The standings for the regular season are:

	Won	Lost
Hawks	5	1
Blue Angels	3	3
Beachcombers	2	4
Lions	2	4

Saturday at Cox marks the first day of tournament play. Because the Beachcombers and Lions are tied for third place, they will flip a coin to determine which team plays the Hawks in the opener. This will be at 2:00 p.m. The winner of the coin toss will meet the Blue Angels at 3:00 p.m. Then the following Saturday the winners of these games will play for the Linkhorn League championship and the losers will have a consolation game.

Little League to Register Players

VIRGINIA BEACH—Registration for the National Little League will be held Friday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the City Council Chambers on 19th St.

Boys between the ages of 9 and 12 who live between 31st Street and Camp Pendleton are eligible to register.

For further information call the league's player agent, J. H. Armsworthy, at GA 8-6232.

ALLEY CLOSED

VIRGINIA BEACH—The alley between Albano Cleaners and Duck's Real Estate, 31st St., was closed from 6 p.m., Feb. 10 to 8 a.m. Feb. 12 so that the owners could preserve their rights on the property and it would not become a public thoroughfare.

Rinaldi Plaza Bowl Major League. For the second time during the week, Warren Hiteshew, bowling for Coach's Sporting Goods, shot a 700 plus series. Tuesday night, bowling in the Rinaldi Plaza Bowl Major League, Warren shook up the maples to the tune of 241-210-276-727. Brother, that is scoring! Other high series rolled during the night were 664 and 617 by Frank Loner and Art Leimbach — in that order. Coaches Sporting Goods in bowling a nights high team game of 964 and high team series took 4 points from the league leaders, Kraus Construction Company.

Wednesday Morning Ladies

Individual laurels go to Mildred Gurganees for taking high individual game and set for the morning in rolling 204-480; nice going Millie. Rose Vena registered a game of 179 to take the runner-up game spot.

As to team action—Birchwood Forest in taking 4 pts. from Marie's Hairstylists No. 1 scored high team game and series — 368-927. Dodie's Beauty Salon made it 3-1 over the Odd Balls as the "Ones" team duplicated this point spread over Marie's Hairstylists No. 2.

Let me infect a bit of news about here. Summer Leagues are now being formed — Men's, ladies, and/or mixed. Choice times are available if you hurry. I would like to personally contact all league Secretaries & team captains as soon as possible. You will be pleased with the information I have to pass on to you! See me ("Pappy") as soon as you get the opportunity.

SENIOR CITIZENS

Your own league, constructed around men and women 55 years of age and over, will soon be ready to roll. If you are 55 years young and want to engage in a competitive sport against persons your own age, call me ("Pappy") here at 341-1313 for details. This program is going to be loads of fun—I'm in it too —you see, your old "Pappy" is 58 himself.

MIXED DOUBLES TOURNAMENT SOON

Plans have been finalized for conducting a Mixed Doubles Tournament here at Rinaldi Plaza Bowl. It will be conducted on Saturday and Sunday weekends for 5 weeks. Guaranteed prizes in the amounts of $200.00 for first, $100.00 for second, and $50.00 for third place. An additional $25.00 prize will be awarded the high scoring couple each week. Entry fee will be $6.50 per couple. This will be a handicap tournament—based on 200, the men will roll off on 75% and the ladies 85%. ABC and WIBC highest averages as of January 31 (authenticated) are acceptable. Persons who are not ABC or WIBC members may establish an average by bowling 12 games over a period of 2 days. Although this is an open tournament, ABC playing rules will be observed. You bowl 3 games in the tournament across 6 lanes. Enter as often as you like, provided you change partners. There are to be many "surprises" during the meet — but they are secret, nyaa!

JOHNNIE'S GIRL

Cecelia Russell chalked up the day's individual high game with her 180, while Terri Blankenship was busy tallying a nice fat 500 series for players high — for the record it was 159-163-178-500. High team series went to the Navettes with a 1810 score—and still not satisfied, took high team game with a total of 629 pins. A summary of the league action is as follows: Sparked by the 600 series rolled by Terri Blankenship and the 480 shot by Alice Rhodes, the Navettes took the purr out of the Alley Cats 4-0. Man, did the fur fly! The Bay Jewelers, in spite of their 2 convealing (broken arms) teammates (bless their hearts), rolled over Team No. 4, 3-1. The Queen Bees swarmed all over the Sleepers — with stingers flashing — and came up with 3 pts. won to one point lost. The Jokers after losing the first game to the Lazy Four by 9 pins, took the second by 30 pieces of wood, split the 3rd game 600-600, but had a 21 pin edge to take the total pin count. Results: 2½ points to 1½ points.

Sunday Nite Mixed League

Paul Rutherford, with an individual high game of 221, added a 180-172 and came up with a high series of 573. His running mates Rick Easton with 211-175-580 — 572, Mary Hammett's 530, and Gay Easton's 502—all combined toward GEX Auto's 4-0 win over the not so lucky Lucky Four. The Bunny Millers team took the measure of the Marquettes 4 to 0. Ted McLaughlin was high for the short ends—Don Windemiller led the way for the winners. Also getting on the 4-nl bandwagon was Buddy's Texaco who made the name Bill Keith starred for the winners with 154-167-214-555 while Dick Taylor led the scoring for the E.M.'s. Micky Baron's 511 series fell just short of Mike's 522—she did beat hubby on the 1st and third games. All "Ells Bells broke loose the first 2 games of their match with the Lonesome Four, taking 3 out of 4 points. It just wasn't in the cards for the Four Aces to win over the four hands of the No Trumps with nothing up their sleeves but bowling balls, they took 3 out of 4 tricks—let's play spares wild. G.E.X. Paints, bowling with a blind, nearly whitewashed the Capital Auto team taking 3 out of the quartette of points. The Liskey Printers, after a bad start, came back to take games one and two, plus total points for a 3-1 victory. Ray Craven of Liskey's rolled 191-178-562. Sandy Wingfield of the losing Imps team scored 162-209-187-541.

The Chapman's picked on the Pea Pickers to the winning tune of 3-1. Freddy Fink "rode again" and gave his team a 561 series —Tom Myatt of the P.P.'s tossed a 215-161-178-552. The Flintstones left their cave dwelling and moved in on the Wayside Homes taking 3 out of 4 points. Roy Bolton just missed the charmed number when he registered a high game of 199 with his 174-165 to go 538 for the series. Carl DeLew of the "Shacks" had a 197 for his high game.

ST. GREGORY'S LEAGUE

It was just a case of the Saints marching in and taking matters into their hands and proving they are not afraid of Ghosts—the Holy Ghost team that is. St. Jude made it a clean sweep, 4-0. St. Aquinas found that the smog created by the Holy Smokes got so bad they couldn't see the lanes. Yep! They went under to the tune of 4-naught. Led by D. Santavasi's 498 series the St. Gregory's 5 took the first and second games that gave them a 98-pin margin for total pieces of wood and a 3-1 win over St. Joseph's. Jim Guidon sparked the St. Martin's to a 4-0 win over Los Cinco Ladrones (Malo Suerte). Jim gathered in 519 pins for his series with games of 182-153-184. After dropping the first game by 5 pins, St. Bonaventure bounced back to take 2 games plus total wood, leaving St. Ignatius looking at the figures 3-1, realizing they were on the short end. THURSDAY NITE MIXED

The Beals and the Middletons made it 4-0 over the Woodchoppers. Team No. 7 duplicated the 4-0 routine over Team No. 3—Ken Thomas rolling 166-130-199-495 and Bill Kathey topped a series of 164-162-167-493. Dan Santavasi furnished the inspiration for his team by rolling 185-202-208-595 as Nationwide rode over the Gutter Dusters 3-1. Rose Vina had a 201 high game in her 465 series—George had a 513 for himself—as Nell picked up 446 chunks of wood. Team No. 1 topped Team 18 by a score of 3-1. Team No. 10 and Team 12 split 2-2. Marion Becker knocked down 516 pins for his series. Point 'O Woods made it 3-1 over Team No. 11. Oceana Drivers swamped Team No. 5 making it 3-1. Roy Wallace had 179-160-201-540 for the night.

Tommy Dennis Signs U. Va. Grant-in-Aid

Tommy Dennis, the 6-3 standout senior tackle on the Virginia Beach Seahawk football team, has signed a grant-in-aid scholarship with the University of Virginia, according to his father, A. John Dennis.

The senior Dennis reports that he and son Tommy visited the University in Charlottesville recently and after a talk with Head Coach Bill Ellis a grant-in-aid pact with the Atlantic Coast Conference school was signed.

"Tommy was greatly impressed with Coach Ellis and the University in general," the senior Dennis stated.

The outstanding athlete was also a member of the winning Seahawks basketball team. He is an excellent student and has been active in many phases of student life at the local school.

Tommy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. John Dennis and the family resides on Rolfe Lane in Bay Colony.

Va. Beach Transfer keeps on trucking along. This week they put Team No. 3 in storage by taking 3 out of 4. Jim Vrabec fired a big 591 and "Dad" Holder added a nice 554 to lead the winners. Don Johnson shot a 533 and Don Schaeffer a 541 in Team No. 3's losing cause. Sealy Posturepedic kept a grim hold on second place by burying Kelly Supply deeper in the cellar. Bob Beck with a great 609 and Neil Boucher with a 597 provided just too much punch for the winners in spite of a 612 series by Charley Bolten and a 555 by sponsor Paul Goldman of Kelly Supply.

Team No. 8 is still refusing to be counted out of the race. This

McDowell Gets Top Sportsman Award for 1961

VIRGINIA BEACH—Young Charles McDowell, a standout junior golf star, received the Virginia Beach Sports Club's "Sportsman of the Year" award in absentia last week at the club's annual jamboree held at the Cavalier Golf and Yacht Club.

The award was accepted for Charles Mac by his proud father, William F. McDowell. The youngster is a student at Phillips Exeter Academy in New Hampshire and could not get home to receive the award in person.

"Charles Mac" is the youngest recipient of the yearly award. He is 16 years old and is the current United States Golf Association National Junior champion. He won the title last summer in upstate New York.

Young McDowell has won four national pee-wee golf titles. He has won the junior division of the Norfolk City golf tournament for the past three years.

The elder McDowell, in accepting the award for his son, explained that a lot of the club members had helped "Charles Mac" when he was seven or eight years old by taking him on the golf course with them. He said this had as much to do with his development as anything else.

Speaker for the annual Jamboree was Bob Cooke, Director of Circle of Sports, Schaeffer Brewing Co., New York. He was introduced by Billy McClean, Jr., a past president of the Virginia Beach Sports Club.

Previous winners of the Sportsman award were McClean, Fred Isaacs, Tom Daley, Leo Kerman, John Tucker, B. M. Stanton, Dickie Mumford, Claude King and Harold James, Jr.

In the past she has been a member of the Future Homemakers of America and the Science Club, this year she once again finds her hours packed with things to do. She is the secretary-treasurer of Mrs. D. Robinson's senior home room, and is a member of Epsilon Tri-Hi-Y. During school she is reporter for the "Beachcomber", the school paper, and sings in the high school chorus.

When she has some time to herself she generally enjoys a good book or a favorite television program. Being interested in most everything that is going on, the choice of a book is not difficult.

During the summer she swims and plays basketball (and attempts water skiing). In the winter she is an avid fan of the Seahawks and all the sports in which they participate.

The First Presbyterian Church plays an important role in Barbara's life. She is the past secretary of both the Senior High Fellowship and the Senior High Sunday School Class. These jobs prove her to be an interested as well as responsible member of the church.

Wine Scholarship
Barbara is a member of the Beta Club, an honor society, and has maintained a 92.913 average over the past four years. She will graduate eighth in the class of '62. Her scholastic achievements have not gone unnoticed by Mary Baldwin College of Staunton, Va. She is the first student from Virginia Beach High School ever to be accepted at Mary Baldwin. Not only has she been accepted, but she will receive a scholarship from the college ranging from $1,000-$1,500. When asked about her acceptance she said: "I cried, I was so happy. It was the best thing that ever happened to me."

Summer will find Barbara busy making money for her adventure into the realm of higher education. Virginia Beach High School is certainly proud of her high school performance, and is confident that it will be equally as proud of her in college.

High Schoolers On Panel Group

VIRGINIA BEACH—Virginia Beach High School Principal James M. Helmer will moderate a panel of four high school students. In a discussion on "How to use Elementary Education in Preparing for High School" Monday at a meeting of the Linkhorn Park School P.T.A. The students and their topics are: Marian (Lynn) Costenbader, ninth grade, "Significant Changes"; Stephen Strickler, tenth grade, "Psychological Preparation"; Kitty Bosher, 11th grade, "Long Range Planning"; and Bill Hubbard, twelfth grade, "Academic Excellence."

Each student will speak on the individual topics and will be joined by Helmer in a question-and-answer discussion from the audience.

The meeting will start at 8 p.m., but teachers will be in the classrooms to confer with parents at 7:30 p.m.

Students from the fourth and fifth grades at Linkhorn Park heard a concert by the Fieldman String Quartet Tuesday at 9 a.m. The sixth and seventh grades will have the same opportunity March 20 when the Quartet will again appear at the school.

Parents are also invited to the concert, Gordon-Baskin, principal, said.

Oyster Dinner Set for Park

OCEAN PARK—The Ocean Park Volunteer Firemen will sponsor an Oyster Dinner to be served March 3, 1962 from 12 Noon to 7 P.M. in the Ocean Park Volunteer Fire Dept.

The menu will consist of Clam chowder, Roast oysters, fried oysters, French fries, Baked beans, cole slaw, ham sandwich, dessert and coffee. Hot dog plates and soft drinks will be served to the children who wish them and Ham plates will also be served to those who do not wish to eat oysters.

The Fire Department is located approximately 1/4 mile west of the Lynnhaven Inlet on Shore Drive (Route 60).

A donation of $1.75 for adults and $1.00 for children is being asked and tickets can be obtained from any of the firemen, auxiliary members, local businesses displaying a poster and at the door.

Proceeds will go to the Fire Dept. treasury to assist in the maintenance of the equipment and the building, which is to a great extent done by donation and contributions.

As the department signifies, the personnel of the department renders their services on a completely volunteer basis.

Regardless how large or small the emergency, the firemen are always ready and only to willing to respond, regardless of the weather any hour of the day or night.

Beach Erosion May Get Federal Aid for 25 Years

VIRGINIA BEACH — A project to pump replenishment sand onto Virginia Beach from Lake Rudee and Owl Creek received a boost toward possible federal support this week.

The Bureau of the Budget approved a federal contribution of $500,000 to a 25-year plan for erosion control at the beach. Certainty of the support now depends on congressional appropriations.

The federal contribution will be the first Virginia Beach has received since 1956 when the Commission received $229,000 for work done in 1952 and 1953 when erosion control first started.

The project, which will cost about $1.5 million in all, will not allow federal funds for pumping "drift sand" from south of Rudee Inlet to the beach north of the inlet, E. H. Church, chairman of the Virginia Beach Erosion Control Commission, said.

If the project receives congressional approval the beach will probably not receive the money for about three years, Church added.

According to Church, state and local funds have been running more than $100,000 a year to preserve the wide beach. The 1963 fiscal budget includes $86,000 in Virginia Beach funds and $40,000 in federal funds.

Federal participation in the erosion project will amount to one-third of the total cost. For each of the first three years $104,000 will be spent followed by $54,000 per year for the next 22.

Daughters of America Officials

Mrs. Bradie Ballance, Councilor of Virginia Beach Council No. 8, Daughters of America (at left), welcomed the State Councilor of Virginia, Mrs. Betty Garrett, of Virginia Beach at right, on her official visitation. A dinner was held prior to a business meeting. Ninety-One members were present, including Deputy National Councilor, Miss Isabelle Williams, of Norfolk, a number of visiting members from Richmond and local members from the Tidewater area. Two Daughters of America Plaques were presented to Mrs. Garrett by her husband, in keeping with her Motto for the year which is "Publicity". The Plaques will be displayed at the City limits in the near future.

SURFSIDE '62

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

A large group of theatre goers turned out Tuesday night for the Virginia Beach Little Theatre's production of "The Heiress" and if there was one disappointed person in the audience they kept quiet. Each scene was met with enthusiastic applause and occasionally a performance during the proceedings was given the same show of appreciation.

The play was beautifully done and each role was performed with convincing confidence.

Having seen "The Heiress" twice before (many years ago), I have often said it was far from one of my favorites. But the Virginia Beach group brought it to life in such a way that before the first scene was over I found myself captivated by the sad plight of drab Catherine, professionally portrayed by Penelope Martin, and was eager to see Morris, equally well-done by Sam Hakim, get his comeuppance in the last act.

Occasionally the prompter chimed in from the sidelines but it was scarcely noticeable and never broke the spell woven by the cast. A word must also be said for the outstanding sets designed by Suzanne Whitehurst. The living room of the Sloper home was rich in the luxury of the late 1800 period and gave the actors just the background they needed.

To pinpoint one performance as the best would be impossible. They were all excellent. Norrie Martin's portrayal of Dr. Austin Sloper, Catherine's domineering father, was so convincing that I altered my reactions to him between hate and sympathy.

For poor Catherine, however, there was never anything but sympathy. Mrs. Martin actually seemed to live and feel the emotional torment she experienced through her love for the fortune hunting Morris.

Hakim gave Morris' part the touch of charm and suspense the audience needed to wonder until the very last act if he really loved the hapless girl or if it was only her money he was after.

Ann Henry, as Catherine's Aunt Lavinia Penniman, flittered in and out of the play like a breath of fresh air and teen-ager Jill Mowen turned in a performance as the efficient maid, Maria, with a talent that far surpasses her years.

Other members of the cast, all equally as good, were Alice Dubois, Rich Newman, Mary Douglas and Jane LaGiglia.

The costumes, complete with bustles, shawls and all the frills typical of the period, were lovely, thanks to Jean Sulton and Toni Hyde and all the persons in the area who donated items from their attic trunks.

But with all the laurels there is one who deserves a special word of praise—Mrs. Elizabeth Sills, the director. Through her efforts, the show went without a hitch from start to finish.

"The Heiress" was a job well done. Each member of its staff, from those on stage to those working inconspicuously in the background, should receive a vote of appreciation from local theatre goers for bringing such a professional production to Virginia Beach.

For those of you who missed "The Heiress," watch for the Little Theatre's next production of "The Philadelphia Story" in May.

VIRGINIA BEACH, VIRGINIA, THURSDAY, MARCH 1, 1962

Cancer Crusade Workers Aiming At $18,685 Goal in Annual Campaign

VIRGINIA BEACH—Committee chairmen for the Cancer Crusade, to be conducted through the Princess Anne Unit of the American Cancer Society, held an organizational meeting recently at the Black Angus Restaurant.

Set Goal

Crusade Chairman Dr. Howard Kahn announced that the goal for this year's drive will be $18,685. During the 1961 campaign, the local unit collected $17,174.02.

Attending the first meeting were A. B. Crews, hotels and motels; Doug Davenport and J. B. Wood, special gifts; C. B. (Neil) Owens, businesses; Mrs. Wyndham Brown, secretary of the Princess Anne Unit; Bill Phillips, industries; Mrs. B. J. Phillips, publicity; Mike Savvides and W. G. Saunders, distributors; and Dr. Kahn.

Chairmen already assigned but not present at the meeting were Dr. J. A. White, professions; Bob Ghez, radio publicity; and Lawrence Sancilio, builders and contractors.

Other special committee chairmen will be announced later, Dr. Kahn said. The campaign will be conducted through this month and will end with a house-to-house solicitation in April.

Through the local ACS office, located at 2603 Pacific Avenue, which serves the entire Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County area, many free services are available to any cancer patient. Last year the Princess Anne Unit distributed 12,212 dressings, 82 pieces of sickroom equipment, made 89 trips to the tumor clinic in Norfolk and supplied information service to 94 persons.

Working with Neil Owens on his committee will be Rhae Adams, Virginia Beach; William D. Robertson, Oceana; Maynard O. Payne, Hilltop; Thomas N. Fletcher, London Bridge; Drew P. Whitfield, Bayside; Thomas Chown, Kempsville; John Weindel, Aragona Village; Bill

Heart Sunday To Close Drive

The month-long 1962 Heart Fund drive will climax this Sunday, designated as Heart Sunday, when local volunteers will carry the fight against heart diseases to the threshold of every family in this community.

Mr. William M. Campbell, chairman of the City of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County Heart drive, is an active member in the Fraternal Order of Police Lodge No. 7, and Elks Lodge 82. A native of Portsmouth, Mr. Campbell, his wife Geraldine and their two children now live in Virginia Beach. He has spent the past ten years in police education and police patrol and investigation fields and is presently with the law firm of Brydges and Broyles.

Mr. Campbell urges every family to support the Heart Fund generously when the volunteer calls on them this Sunday.

For families away from home, volunteers will leave pre-addressed envelopes. Contributions can be inserted and, with a minimum of effort, mailed to the local Heart Fund Headquarters.

DINNER AND BAKE SALE

The P-T-A of W. T. Cooke School will hold a spaghetti dinner and bake sale, today, 5:00 to 7:30 p.m. in the school's new cafeteria. Tickets may be purchased at the door. "All you can eat." Adults $1.00, students 50 cents.

Post Office Issues Orbital Flight Stamp Simultaneously With Return of Astronaut

VIRGINIA BEACH — A 4-cent stamp commemorating the first orbital flight of a United States astronaut was issued Feb. 20, upon the completion of the successful flight of Col. Glenn, according to Jose, Crosswhite, Jr., Postmaster.

The stamp portrays a capsule in space with a portion of the earth in the lower left corner of the design. The wording "4c U. S. MAN IN SPACE" is superimposed over the globe and "PROJECT MERCURY" is across the bottom of the stamp. The 4-cent Project Mercury commemorative stamp is 0.84 by 1.44 inches in dimension, arranged horizontally, printed on the Giori presses in blue and yellow on white paper and issued in panes of 50. An initial printing of 100 million has been authorized.

This stamp was released at 300 of the larger post offices throughout the country immediately upon the successful conclusion of the flight. However, the official first day cancellation will be Cape Canaveral, Florida, a temporary station of the Cocoa, Florida, post office, being established for the one day.

Provision has been made for collectors to obtain envelopes bearing the new stamp with the cancellation "Cape Canaveral, Florida," the date and hour of recovery of the capsule, and the wording "First Day of Issue," from the Philatelic Sales Agency, Post Office Department, Washington 25, D.C., at 1-cent above the face value of the stamps involved. Thus the cost of a cover bearing a single stamp will be 5-cents, a block of four 17-cents, etc. Orders to the Philatelic Sales Agency for these special covers must include no other issues and outer envelopes should be endorsed "4c Project Mercury Covers," to expedite service. Orders for first day covers should not be sent to Cape Canaveral, Florida.

Creeds Ruritans Ready for Minstrel Show March 2nd

CREEDS—On March 2nd at 8 p.m., the house lights of the Creeds Elementary School Auditorium will dim and the curtain will go up on the Creeds Ruritans Minstrel. The show will consist of much of the finest talent in the area and will feature a variety of entertainment ranging from blackface solos to hit songs and dances from some of the greatest Broadway hits. The show will also be presented on March 3rd at 8:30 p.m., in the Courthouse Elementary School Auditorium.

Marion Bright will be in the spot light as the show's interlocutor and the first act will feature such solos as John Wilson singing "Lucky Ol' Sun"; Elwood Robinson singing "Flick Me to Sleep"; Lytle Pugh, "Deep River"; H. Eugene Arrington, "Ole Man River"; Jack Fentress, "Five Foot Two"; and Dick Cockrell will bring back memories of the "Master of Blackface," the late Jolson, when he sings "Mammy".

The blacked face End Men will bow out after the first act and the second part of the show will pay tribute to the New York stage. There will be quite a contrast as the appearance of the stage will lose its decor of magnolia and spanish moss and take on such scenes as palm trees for "South Pacific," cold water flats for "Porgy and Bess," blinking theatre marquees, and an English courtyard for "Camelot."

One of the highlights of the second act will be when Virginia Aygran adorns the dress of a Tonkinese woman and sings "Bali Hal," from "South Pacific" will be Lynda Kelly singing "Honey Bun" and "There is Nothing Like a Dame," to be performed by a group of young men from the chorus. Gershwin fans will enjoy Virginia Aygran singing "Summertime," and Roy Bonney singing "I Got Plenty of Nuttin'" from the folk musical "Porgy and Bess." Morris Roebuck and the chorus will give the show a touch of Lerner and Lowe when singing the title song from "Camelot." Frances Etheridge will sing "Follow Me" from the same.

Other songs from the shows of "The Great White Way" will include "I've Grown Accustomed to Her Face" sung by Pat Kelly, "September Song" by Margaret Williams, "Getting to Know You" by Marilyn Wilson, "Tonight," by Uta Schmidt and "Heat Wave" to be sung and danced by Cynthia Williams, Charles Burgess and Bobby Morris. The chorus will also sing "You'll Never Walk Alone," "Everything's Coming Up Roses," and "Make Someone Happy."

The cast of approximately 60 is under the direction of Hunter Spence and will be accompanied by Welton Ewell at the piano and Pat Kelly on the drums.

PANCAKE SUPPER

VIRGINIA BEACH — The Young People's Fellowship of Galilee Episcopal Church will sponsor a Pancake Supper on Shrine Tuesday, March 6, at 6:30 in the Parish Hall of the church.

Captain Kessler Ruritan Speaker

CAPT. KESSLER

PRINCESS ANNE — Captain Charles L. Kessler, who represented the Marine Corps with Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd on the North Pole Expedition in 1926, will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Princess Anne Ruritan Club.

The group will meet Tuesday at 7 p.m. at the Princess Anne Courthouse Elementary School.

At "Little America"

A native of Washington, D.C., Capt. Kessler enlisted in the U.S. Marine Corps in 1922. After making the North Pole exploration he served in Guam, Philippines and China before again accompanying Adm. Byrd on his first South Pole Expedition of 1928-30 when "Little America" was founded.

During World War II Captain Kessler returned to active duty as a Lieutenant in the Navy and was put in charge of Navy recruiting in Virginia. He attained the rank of Commander in 1945 and returned to inactive duty in 1946.

From 1954 to 1952 he was as commanding officer of the Naval Reserve Public Relations Company in Richmond and in 1956 attained the rank of Captain.

For 11 years, from 1949 to 1960, he served as State Adjutant for the American Legion in Virginia and returned to active duty as Director of Selective Service System for the state in 1960. For 25 years he has served on "speakers committees" in various cities throughout the state for Community Chest, Cancer and Heart Fund Drives.

MALIBU CIVIC LEAGUE

MALIBU—The Malibu Civic League will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Lynnhaven-Little Neck Civic League Building. A speaker from the Norfolk Park Commission will discuss horticulture and a committee report on stop signs on the Feeder Road will be given.

Plans will also be announced for a Girl Scout Troop to be sponsored by the Civic League.

Girl Scouts Treat Mothers

Kempsville Principal

'TV Teaching Will Come Into Own In Time' - Mrs. Charles

(This is one of a series of articles to appear each week in this paper on the men and women who serve as principals of Va. Beach and Princess Anne County Schools.)

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

KEMPSVILLE — When Astronaut John Glenn went into orbit last Tuesday every child at Kempsville Meadows Elementary School was seated before a television set to watch history in the making.

This opportunity was provided by interested parents and teachers, who brought television sets, through the encouragement of the principal, Mrs. Josephine Charles.

"Even first and second grade students came in to watch it," Mrs. Charles said. "They may have gotten wiggly and will perhaps forget all about it but in years to come I want them to be able to say they saw the first orbital flight."

A Great Day

Proof that the youngsters had been impressed with the flight came the following day when the mother of a first grade student told Mrs. Charles that her daughter had written the date down on a piece of paper, and put it away for safekeeping so she "could remember the day she saw man go into space."

Using television to an advantage in the schools is probably one of the next changes in teaching methods, Mrs. Charles said.

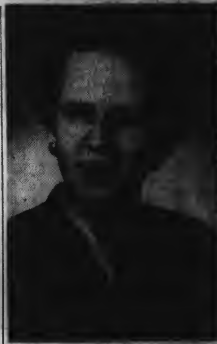

"Two of our teachers followed Glenn's flight on the world globe so that the youngsters had a complete picture of the route the capsule made. Just think what an advantage it would be to students and teachers alike to have television combined with classroom teaching!"

As a teacher of many years standing, Mrs. Charles feels that teaching is an individual thing; each teacher may make use of the great variety of materials supplied her but she must teach her own way.

"I have always said give a good teacher a piece of chalk, a blackboard and children to teach and they will learn."

Her experience as a teacher has been a great advantage to her as a principal in understanding classroom problems, but being a mother has helped her understand and appreciate the children's problems.

Remembering some of the crises her own son and daughter faced in their early ages, Mrs. Charles keeps spare items of clothing in her office for emergencies. Her thoughtful-ness has saved many a child emotional stress and embarrassment.

Team of Educators

Mrs. Charles is the wife of Edwin Charles, assistant principal of Princess Anne High School, and their children are Robert, a graduate of Purdue University in mechanical engineering and now associated with U.S. Steel in Pennsylvania and Mrs. Carolyn Cox, a senior at Duke University where her husband is in law school. The Charles' also have a two-year-old grandson and a 10-month-old granddaughter.

A native of Lexington, Ky., Mrs. Charles did undergraduate work at historic Transylvania and graduate work at the University of Kentucky. She is presently working on her master's degree at the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg.

Her first teaching position was in Kentucky where she taught for six years before retiring for 12 years to raise her family. After her children reached the higher grades, she returned to the teaching profession for 10 years. She served as principal of Thoroughgood School before accepting the principalship of Kempsville Meadows when it opened three years ago.

Her school duties and work on her master's allow little time for hobbies but when she finds time she enjoys reading and sewing for the grandchildren.

ALANTON GARDEN CLUB
ALANTON — St. Valentine's Day was the meeting for the Alanton Garden Club. The refreshments, and, arrangements brought by the members were all in keeping with the mood of the holiday.
Mrs. W. Emmet Kyle, a long-time resident of Alanton, was the speaker. Her subject was "roses".
The soil in this area is particularly suitable for the growing of roses and they will almost grow "in spite of you," she said. However, the proper procedure for planting and the subsequent care to produce really good flowers was outlined. She advised strongly to buy good plants from good nurseries. A rose bush should be planted with future generations in mind. This is evidenced by the fact that she has growing in her garden some bushes that are 100 years old.

Mrs. Kyle then showed colorful slides from her recent trip to Europe. They included gardens in England, Holland and Germany.
The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. L. D. Walker with Mrs. C. T. Deary and Mrs. R. S. Stroud assisting.

Seashore Park Nature Trails Open Saturday

The nature trails in Seashore State Park, near Cape Henry, will be open for free public visitation on Saturday, March 3, Ben H. Bolen, Commissioner of Parks for the Virginia Department of Conservation and Economic Development, announced today.

The self-guided trails are approximately two miles in length and wind through the semi-tropical wonderland of the park. A self-guided booklet is available to visitors at the trailhead, which will inform hikers about the mysteries of nature as they follow the winding trails across heavily forested sand dunes and foot bridges over pools filled with cypress trees that are draped with ancient Spanish moss.

New additions to the nature trails system this year include a visitors' center where park visitors may obtain detailed information about the area; a parking lot, which will accommodate more automobiles than formerly and several additional miles of unmarked hike trails where visitors may roam at will through the semi-tropical area.

Visitors along the trails will see many species of birds and animals which inhabit the area, including the handsome pileated woodpecker, blue heron and the great bald eagle.

FEED GRAIN SIGNUP AHEAD OF SCHEDULE

Norman T. Beal, Manager of the Princess Anne ASCS Office, has announced that the 1962 Feed Grain Program signup is running well ahead of last year's progress in the same program. He said that of 585 eligible corn farmers in the county, 150 have contracted to divert part or all of their corn acreage for 1962. They agreed to divert 3,000 acres from corn production for a total remuneration by the government of 135,000 dollars. Of this amount, producers have received an advance payment of $63,000.00.

The above figure represent 22% of the County corn acreage and 26% of the eligible producers. The signup period will run through Friday, March 30. Last year, 48% of eligible farms were enrolled in the program to divert 56% of the county corn acreage.

By Rev. J. Paul Vondracek,
Asst. Pastor First Presbyterian
Who are You? What do you want most of life?

These appear to be very simple questions and yet how many of us can really answer them? The predicament in which so many of us find ourselves... the feelings of futility, frustration and fear that haunt us... can often be traced to an inability to answer these basic questions. So often we do not know who we are and we live in a land of make-believe. Not knowing who we are we do not know exactly what it is that life is about.

A prominent psychologist in preparing his analysis and evaluation of persons who come to him for counseling, after giving all the standard psychological tests, always asks his patients one question. The question is simply "Who Are You?" The client is instructed to answer the question by giving the first three things that come to mind that would describe himself.
The psychologist reports that the answer to this question is often more revealing than all the other tests given. If a man answers: "I am president of the National Bank; I make $25,000 a year; I am married," this reveals certain things about him.
If another man should answer:
"I'm a man; I'm an engineer;
I'm married," this indicates something else again.

In all his years of experience the psychologist stated that the most completely adjusted person that he had ever interviewed was a man who answered this question thus: "I am a child of God; I am the husband of a loving wife and we have three wonderful children; I'm a college professor of English."
How many of us can make a like answer? Do we think of ourselves first as a child of God?
Would we describe ourselves as living in a circle of the loved and loving? And do we rate our vocational calling high on the list in describing who we are?

As for the question, "What do you want most of life?" Is it to be successful? Is it to become wealthy? Or perhaps you want to find a peace of mind and happiness. Laudable as these may be all these could be ours if we would but take seriously the advice of Jesus Christ to "seek God's kingdom and all these things will be yours as well."

Yes, here is the answer to our haunting predicament of futility, frustration and fear... to know that you are God's and to seek His kingdom.

Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you shall eat, nor about your body, what you shall put on.
For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing.
And which of you by being anxious can add a cubit to his span of life... your Father knows what you need. Instead, seek His kingdom, and all these things shall be yours as well."

The lion that can roar the loudest and bite the hardest usually gets what he wants.

That's the way it is in the animal kingdom, and sometimes the system creeps into man's world too!
Most of us have too much RELIGIOUS AWARENESS to believe that such a system is the best one. We would rather live in a world in which kindness and peace and unselfishness were the rule.

Our Churches can help us build such a world.
They can turn our religious awareness into SPIRITUAL GROWTH.

On Sunday morning, the man in the armchair knows just as well as the man in the pew what is wrong with the world. But the man in the pew will be busy doing something about it!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values.
Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1)
For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4)
For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The MIXING BOWL...

IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food facts and tables... for practical, down-to-earth recipes that please both palate and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

Shrovetide Hot-Cakes Do Double Duty!

Call them what your section of the country prefers—griddle cakes, flapjacks, or pancakes... make them from a mix or from "scratch"... in any case you'll find this double-duty recipe a special treat for Shrovetide days as well as all during Lent. The off-the-griddle treat in the photo shows an Apple-Nut filling, for which you might like to substitute crushed pineapple for the apple sauce, for the sake of variety. The breakfast-type filling, with an accompanying fruit or chopped vegetable salad, would make a wonderful quick-'n'-easy luncheon or supper dish. The perfect topping—Log Cabin Syrup, of course.

Shrovetide Hot-Cakes

Prepare pancake batter using a pancake mix. Bake on hot griddle, allowing about 1/2 cup batter for each cake. Spread one pancake with either of the fillings given below and cover with a second pancake, in the form of a sandwich. Serve hot with butter and maple-blended syrup.

Apple-Nut Filling: Spread lower pancake with hot spiced apple sauce and sprinkle with toasted chopped pecans.

Scrambled Egg Filling: On one pancake spread scrambled eggs and sprinkle with minced cooked bacon, chopped ham, or fried dried beef. Top with another pancake.

Shrovetide Hot-Cakes Do Double Duty!

Shrove Tuesday is almost here again—in fact—March 6th is the day. If you'd rather make pancakes from a favorite recipe you may do just that. If you do not have one, here are some are some from the Ladies Home Journal Cook Book.

Pancakes

2 cups flour
3 teaspoons Baking Powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 1/2 cups milk
1/4 cup melted shortening or salad oil
Sift flour, baking powder, salt and sugar together. Beat eggs very light and add the milk. Beat this into dry ingredients and add melted shortening or salad oil. Beat thoroughly, if batter isn't thin enough to spread out on griddle, add a little more milk. Bake on hot griddle.

Apple Pancakes

1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1 tablespoon sugar
1 egg
1 1/2 cup milk
3 tablespoons melted butter
1 cup chopped apple (peeled and chopped fine)
Sift dry ingredients together. Beat egg until light, combine with milk and melted butter—add to dry ingredients and mix thoroughly. Add chopped apple. Bake on lightly greased griddle, turning once.

Blueberry Pancakes

2 eggs
2 cups buttermilk
1 1/2 cups flour
2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking soda
2 cups fresh or frozen blueberries

sweeten blueberries

Beat the eggs and add the buttermilk. Sift together flour, sugar, salt and baking soda. Combine with liquids.

Fold in the blueberries. Lightly grease griddle—wipe off with paper toweling. Drop batter by spoonfuls on griddle. Cook until brown on one side, turn and cook on other. Pancakes are ready to turn when they bubble in the center.

Even though pancakes are cooked on top on the range, the method is referred to as baking. Perhaps this is because little or no grease should be used on the griddle. If the griddle has never been greased, none will be necessary. If it has—wipe it with oiled cloth or paper between each batch of cakes you bake. The griddle should be hot enough to "bounce" a drop of water. Drop batter by spoonfuls onto hot griddle.

Many griddles have temperature controls to keep heat right for baking when bubbles appear on top of cakes, the cake is ready to turn. Pancakes should be served as soon as they are baked. If they have to be held, keep them in warm oven, covered with a towel.

gram and was doing a fine job of preparing the steer that he obtained in September for the 1962 Show and Sale when a case of pneumonia set in. Extreme care and consideration by Jimmy along with veterinarian services were not enough to pull the calf through the pneumonia period, and in December the calf died.

Last month a replacement calf was purchased from Mr. Chris Krahenbill and Jimmy is now back into the swing of feeding and training a steer. It is quite obvious that with such a short period of time left before the Show and Sale Jimmy must exert extreme time and effort in order to put his calf in the running. Jimmy is a 4-H'er with a lot of interest and drive and is already making much progress. Hats off to a good 4-H Club Member!

BAYSIDE SCHOOL 4-H'ers PLAN FOR CIVIL DEFENSE INSTRUCTION

The Bayside School 4-H Club members, along with leaders Miss Sarah Behrens and Miss Pat Litchfield, have agreed to devote the entire club meeting time for the next two meetings to the instruction of Civil Defense.

During these two periods they will see film strips on many phases of Civil Defense with primary emphasis on Atomic disaster. I now have in my possession an excellent film strip with printed narration that gives a very good broad concept of the total Civil Defense Program. This material has been made available to me from the office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, and I will be glad to make it available to other groups who may have a need for it by appointment.

Courthouse Community 4-H'ers Plan Civil Defense Display For National 4-H Club Week

The Courthouse Community Club, under the leadership of Mrs. Ralph Moulton, are planning to set up a Civil Defense display in the show window of some local business firm as a part of their observance for National 4-H Club Week, which is March 3-10. This ties in very nicely with their Club Project on Civil Defense, as well as giving them an opportunity to promote their Club during National 4-H Club Week.

What can you do to promote the 4-H Club Program during the week of National observance?

Ministers Must Decide on S.S.

Ministers have an important decision to make by April 15, 1962, if they want social security coverage. That is the final date for filing a waiver certificate to elect coverage if they have not already done so.

If a minister files a waiver certificate by April 15, 1962, he will receive coverage for 1960 and 1961 providing he has at least $400 net earnings from his profession. There is no coverage for those who have less than $400 net earnings.

Ask Internal Revenue Service for Form 2031 (Waiver Certificate to Elect Social Security Coverage for Use by Ministers, Certain Members of Religious Orders, and Christian Science Practitioners). This form must be filed with the Director of Internal Revenue.

For further information contact your local social security office and ask for pamphlet OASI-33.

ROY MATTISON

Roy Mattison, aviation boat-swin's mate third class, USN, son of Mrs. Sarah J. Mattison of Oceana, Va., is serving aboard the anti-submarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS Antietam which participated in the recovery operations of the "Project Mercury" orbital space flight.

The Antietam is one of the more than 40 U.S. Navy ships and units which were on station in the Atlantic for the operation.

The "Friendship 7" capsule which carried Marine Lt. Col John H. Glenn, Jr., on the history-making three-orbit flight was retrieved at sea by the destroyer USS Noa approximately five hours after launching.

Noted Editors on House Panel

PRINCESS ANNE — Judith York Newman, associate editor of architecture for "House and Garden" magazine, is the second of three editors of leading publications announced as panel moderators for the Women's Housing Conference March 26 at Princess Anne High School.

Mrs. Newman believes that the design of a family's home not only reflects its way of life but actually helps to shape it. Not venturing so far as to say that poor home design is a root cause of juvenile delinquency and marital break-ups, Mrs. Newman nevertheless thinks that architects concerned with residential design can help to eliminate these problems by providing a stimulating and gratifying environment.

Individual Design
Basic to her architectural philosophy, is individuality in home design. "Families should feel that their homes were designed specifically for them," she says and goes on to explain that through such technical advances as synthetic or manufactured materials and construction using component parts, individuality can be made consistent with economy. She believes that the many developments in the building field allow a new freedom and richness for architectural expression. Her advice to House & Garden readers is to demand the best whether assaying a prospective house purchase or embarking on a complete home project. Homeowners often do not realize, she feels, that good design has no price tag.

Mrs. Newman is a graduate of the College of Architecture at Cornell University. She holds membership in Alpha Alpha Gamma, the Women's Honorary in Architecture and is an Associate Member of the American Institute of Architects. After practicing with several New York Architectural Firms, she joined Living for Young Homemakers and then "House & Garden's" Editorial staff.

A born New Yorker, Mrs. Newman is one of those rare people who lives and works in Manhattan. Despite some exposure to the far corners of the globe, she strongly feels that the disadvantages of city living are well overcome by its many fascinating and diverse facets. She and her Architect husband are searching for an oasis in the form of a brownstone. Their primary need is to find space to accommodate all of the equipment which their activities necessitate. Both of them are avid tennis players (Central Park) and skiers (Vermont). Mrs. Newman is also a sport car enthusiast. She owns an old but cherished automobile and bemoans the fact that city-living and driving just don't mix. Among her more domestic endeavors are photography and painting, cooking and knitting. Her concept of the ideal home is a balance of elements which combine functional flexibility with well-designed spaces.

The three editors will moderate discussions by separate panels, each of which will consist of 10 women from various Tidewater organizations. They will have specific subjects related to what they desire in a home, such as air conditioning, floor covering, neighborhood and other points.

Norfolk decorator Neal Thomas will completely decorate the high school stage in motifs ranging from contemporary to traditional. This phase of the program will start at 6 p.m. Refreshments will be served from 7 to 7:30 p.m., followed by the panel discussions.

Television personality Warren Hull will serve as master of ceremonies.

Community Center

Reluctantly Forsaken

CHESAPEAKE BEACH—The Chesapeake Beach Community Center building has fallen before the wheels of progress as it has been taken over by the Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel project.

The Community Center was conceived a few years ago and was incorporated by the Chesapeake Beach Woman's Club, the Men's Club and the Volunteer Fire Department.

Just recently the Woman's Club voted to purchase a lot and construct a building for the club.

CAN'T understand why it is so important for NBC to land Johnny Carson for the Jack Paar replacement. . . In our humble opinion he is the least of the capable comedians who were considered. . . Carson cannot take the post until he is released from his present contract and NBC is willing to wait for him by either convincing Paar to stay on in the interim or using guest performers. . . What's so special about Carson?
 As Taylor stopped all the stork rumors by adopting a baby. . . Debbie Reynolds, meanwhile, is still leaving the "expecting" . . . Wonder if she'll go to adoption, too, to prove she isn't friends with Natalie Wood and Warren Beatty will ever really marry. . . The boy's stock is booming and he doesn't especially care for the aggressive type of gal which Natalie certainly proved to be in this instance. . . Time will tell. . . Next marriage headed for the rocks appears to be the Janet Leigh-Tony Curtis idyl.

CAPITOL: Bobby Edwards revives the old Finky Lee hit of yesterday, "What's the Reason" and does well by it. . . Flip side has "Walk Away Slowly," one of those tear-jerking country style tunes that always go big. . . Another old favorite that enjoys a fine revival is "I'll Get By" as done by Jerry Keller. . . "My Year of Love" is the reverse offering and he does a good job with his own composition.
 The Twist is all the rage on records and, of course, Texas showboos always has to get into the picture. . . Latest disk on this twisting dance is "Texas Twist," cut by Roy Clark. . . Just to keep everyone on their toes.

AREA DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE TO MEET

March 14 is red letter day for the official opening for the Area Development Program of Virginia Beach. The kick-off meeting will be held with dinner at the Princess Anne High School, at 7:00 p.m.

It will be my pleasure to open this program officially with the statement of the fundamental objectives and purposes of this program.

Only two areas of development will be discussed formally, first being Industrial Development, and the second Recreation and Parks.

After these two presentations, all members of the Committee will be requested to offer further suggestions for areas which need work in the City. These suggestions will be studied by the Executive Committee, consisting of Mr. Richard Webbon, Mr. Frank Kellam, Mr. John McCombs, and Mrs. R. B. Tynes.

I am extremely pleased with the interest and progress of Area Development at this time. I personally feel that this is a program which will have great significance upon the progress of the city. The people are behind the program to the fullest extent. I am more than pleased with the opportunity of working with these people.

FERTILIZING SMALL GRAIN

It is now time to topdress small grain with nitrogen. Everett Sawyer, of Princess Anne, is going to use 40 lbs. of pure nitrogen. At planting time last fall, Sawyer used 300 lbs. of 3-18-18.

He is going to fertilize in this manner because of the result of an Extension demonstration conducted on his farm last year showing that the greatest net profit was received from wheat fertilized in this manner. This might be a pretty good idea for others to follow.

FERTILIZING PASTURES

When you ride by the farm of M. R. Adams, at Princess Anne, you always get a beautiful picture of fine Hereford cattle grazing on green pastures. Mr. Adams always seems to have the best pastures in the area. The reason for this is, first, he has a number of different pastures that he rotates his cattle between, plus having sufficient temporary pastures during the winter and summer months.

He is most proud, however, of his permanent pastures and uses 600 to 800 lbs. of 5-10-10 topdressed about this time of year. He tells me that he wants to get his fertilizer on his pasture before March 15.

This is real close to VPI recommendations. You may want to substitute 3-18-18 or 2-12-12 or even 0-14-14, depending upon the balance grasses & legumes. If the balance is about half and half, you may use 0-14-14, 2-12-12, or 3-18-18. 5-10-10 is better for grass pastures or pastures that were grazed late last summer and fall.

FERTILIZING ALFALFA

There isn't much alfalfa left in Princess Anne, and I suspect that Bayville Farms, at Bayside, Virginia, has more on their farm than all the rest of the County put together. Mr. Clark Fleming, President of Bayville Farms, uses from 800 to 1,000 pounds of borated 0-10-20 annually. He always tries to get this on between February 1 and March 1. Now, if you have ever passed by Bayville Farms you can readily see that this pays off extremely well.

TIME TO SEED RED CLOVER

Now is the time for all good farmers to seed red clover for their hay crop. There are two leading varieties of red clover being used now. John Potter, at Oceana, says that Chesapeake does a good job for him, and Andy Harshberger seems to like Kenland. Overall, there doesn't seem to be too much difference between Kenland & Chesapeake.

You can seed red clover now alone or in small grain, at the rate of 15 lbs. per acre. Try to get it seeded before March 15.

FEED GRAIN PROGRAM

Norman Beal, of the ASCS Office at Princess Anne, Va., is still accepting applications from you for the 1962 Feed Grain Program. You have about three weeks left to sign up and I would like to encourage you to come by his office and find out any additional information you would like to have so that you will be well informed on the program.

If you would like to discuss with me the differences in income from producing corn in comparison to placing the corn acreage in the Feed Grain Program, just drop by the office. I will be glad to sit down with you and plan this Program out in detail.

Extension Program Projection

Meetings are being held now with farmers and industry representatives on all phases of agriculture in Princess Anne. Some 65 farmers sit down annually with me to plan the Extension program on a long-time basis for precisely what will be done in the coming year.

Walter Munden is the Chairman of the Corn, Soybeans, and Small Grain Committee; W. R. Malbon Jr. is the Chairman of the Sweet Potato Committee; R. H. DeFord, Jr. is Chairman of Forage Crops Committee; Capt. C. J. Lee, Chairman of Livestock Committee; and Al MacKay is Chairman of the Dairy Committee.

Later reports will be coming from each of the Committees on Extension activities for the year.

YOU CAN'T READ IN THE DARK

Farmers know that they can't fertilize and lime their crops properly without a soil sample. Soil samples are coming into my office now by the hundreds for analysis and recommendations for the planting of corn this spring. May I urge you to do like so many others are doing. Go out now and take soil samples of every field that you are going to produce corn in this year and bring it into my office, and we will have it analyzed and make recommendations for you. Don't read in the dark.

LINKHORN PARK 4-H'S SET OUT PINE SEEDLINGS ON SCHOOL GROUND

If anyone traveling on Laskin Road, last Tuesday, February 20, spotted Dick Cockrell and Yours Truly, along with a group of school children in front of the Linkhorn Park School, digging into the soil, I might inform you that we were not digging for bait to go fishing on such a pretty day, although it might not have been such a bad idea.

Truthfully, the 4-H Club members of Linkhorn Park School, under the leadership of Mrs. Carolyn Hawhurst, have selected "Forestry" as a Club Project, and have seen fit to follow through with a suggestion by Principal, Mr. Gordon Baskins, that they plant pine seedlings on the school grounds. These pine seedlings, which are donated by the Virginia Division of Forestry, will serve different purposes. One row of pines along the border of the front of the school grounds, which parallels Virginia Beach Boulevard, will serve as a noise barrier, and help to cut down on much noise and distraction from traffic in future years. Pines set along the edge of the playground will serve as wind barriers and will add much comfort to outdoor activities. In the front of the school building pines planted in a diagonal pattern will add much to the beauty of the landscaping. In other areas on the school grounds the pine will serve in the capacity of controlling soil erosion, preventing glare into some of the class rooms, and to provide pleasant, shady areas in hot weather.

This particular project, which was done entirely by the 4-H Club members, shows them just how easily pine seedlings may be obtained and planted, and shows them just how many advantages there are to setting out pine seedlings on vacant plots.

AWARDS ANNOUNCED FOR SHARE-THE-FUN WINNERS

Winners in the County Share-the-Fun Contest, which is to be held on Friday, March 9, at Kempsville Junior High School, will have much to look forward to. Many awards and opportunities for higher achievements have been announced by the Virginia Agricultural Extension Service.

The Virginia Assn. of Electric Cooperatives sponsors the Share-the-Fun Program in Virginia. The awards offered are as follows: County—one scholarship to the State 4-H Short Course; one subscription to National 4-H News. District: 12 $25 Savings Bonds. State: Five portable radios; Ribbon of award to all participants! Participants considered for selection to appear on programs in Virginia and other states.

Plans for the Princess Anne County Share-the-Fun contest are well underway, with many clubs holding their own talent shows to select participants for the County contest. I have been privileged to see many of these local 4-H Share-the-Fun Programs, and have been quite amazed at the amount and variety of excellent talent that is possessed by so many of our County 4-H members. The public is cordially invited to the County Share-the-Fun Contest, which is to be held at the Kempsville Junior High School, on Friday, March 8.

JIMMY JOHNSON WORKS WITH NEW 4-H CLUB STEER

Jimmy Johnson, well-known to our local people because of his feeding out and showing the Grand Champion Steer at the 1961 Portsmouth Junior Steer Show and Sale, now has a new calf in his possession to feed out for the 1962 Show and Sale. While many 4-H Club members in the County area are now in the final stages of their feeding program, and have their calves well trained for showing, Jimmy is just in the beginning stages.

Pneumonia Fatal to 1st Steer

As the pace of life in our nation accelerates, so apparently does our crime rate. According to the F.B.I.'s latest annual report, crime is increasing four times faster than our population growth. There were four serious crimes committed every minute last year, and almost twice as many crimes were recorded in 1960 as a decade ago. Robbery and burglary, larceny theft, and auto theft, in particular, have maintained a steady upward trend, increasing 18%, 14% and 9% respectively in a year. Approximately three hundred million dollars in money and property was stolen last year, a large portion of which was taken from business establishments and residents.

Price, spice and everything nice!

Who ever thought a car that saves like this could have so much sizzle? Chevrolet engineers, that's who! Liveliness and luxury for a low, low price were exactly what they had in mind to begin with. And they began from scratch with a whole load of ingenious new ideas designed to give you more for your money. That spunky 6 with gas-sipping stinginess is just one example. Another: a new unitized Body by Fisher that's fit for a full-size family inside, easy to park outside. Still another: tough but gentle one-piece Mono-Plate rear springs that outdo many a bigger car for quiet comfort. Any wonder Chevy II won Car Life magazine's 1962 Engineering Excellence award hands down? Virginia Beach Band to Begin Concert Tour

VIRGINIA BEACH—Sunday, March 11, the Virginia Beach High School Band will unveil the repertoire for its 1962 Spring Concert Tour, in a concert in the Virginia Beach High School Auditorium at 3 p.m.

The concert is a beginning and an end for the band. It is the end of weeks of extra rehearsals and preparation, and it is the beginning of a series of spring concerts to be given from Virginia to Florida. The band director is Mr. Dale G. Browder.

After Sunday the first important date is March 17, the date of the Eastern District Band Festival, in which bands from all over Tidewater compete against perfection. Next on the agenda is a tour of the South Atlantic states, beginning Mar. 29, and including Sumter, S.C.; Brunswick, Ga.; and sites in Florida such as Jacksonville, St. Augustine, Cocoa Beach, Miami, Daytona, and Key West. On returning home in April, the band has commitments in the Tidewater area.

Boardwalk Damaged by Angry Surf

The beach area was hit hard by Wednesday's storm and high tides and extensive damage was inflicted on the concrete boardwalk. High waves pounded the boardwalk through the height of the ravaging storm.

A section of the front of the boardwalk near 22nd street completely collapsed under the incessant pounding of the angry surf. A 60-foot section of the boardwalk collapsed about 8:45 a.m., which was probably the peak point of the storm.

Officials of the Virginia Beach Erosion Commission said they were not in a position to evaluate the extent of damage, but indicated it was quite extensive. They did report that the commission's bypass pump at Rudee Inlet was damaged. The engines & pumps reportedly had been wrenched free from the structure.

There were many estimates of the overall damage from the storm here and the best guess was that it could reach $5,000,000.

Beach Chosen For '63 Meeting By Young Demos

Wilder Culverhouse

VIRGINIA BEACH — The City of Virginia Beach was voted unanimously as the 1963 state convention site of the Young Democratic Clubs of Virginia.

Three Contenders

Winning out over Norfolk and Roanoke, Virginia Beach received its approval vote at a meeting of the executive board at the 1962 state convention held Friday and Saturday in Richmond.

A large group of Young Democrats are expected at the 1963 convention, to be held next April, since there are now at least 9,000 members in Virginia. At the Richmond meeting three local men were named to state offices.

E. A. "Sonny" Culverhouse, president of the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne County Club, was elected National Committeeman. He served last year as assistant to the State President.

Jack Wilder, second vice president of the local group, was appointed press secretary to the State President, L. E. DeBerry of Richmond. Wilder served as executive secretary of the State organization last year.

Giles Dodd was elected chairman of the First District which includes clubs in Virginia Beach-Princess Anne, Newport News, Accomack and Northampton.

Etheridge Will Again Serve in Role Of Interlocutor for Ruritan Minstrels

PRINCESS ANNE—The sixth annual Princess Anne Ruritan Minstrel Show will be held at the Princess Anne High School Auditorium on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, March 21, 22, 23 and 24th at 8 p.m.

V. Alfred "Jack" Etheridge will return as Interlocutor, a role he has ably served since 1956. The production will feature ten talented men, all of whom have had many years experience in minstrel shows.

Dean of End Men, Graham Dalton, a veteran of over 45 years minstrel experience will be billed as "Premiere" End Men and will sing "Yes, Sir, She's My Baby".

Director and End Man John S. McFall, Jr., has furthered his extensive research in minstrelsy and is on tap to sing "Pretty Baby". Production Chairman & End Man John Skillman, locally known as "Master of Magic," doubles with a vocal number in addition to his usual variety of magic.

End Men Frank Malbin and Murray Malbon will return to the 1962 Show singing "Baby Face" and "Cuddle Up A Little Closer" respectively. Frank and Murray are mainstays in the annual Princess Anne Ruritan Minstrels.

George Mullen, a veteran showman, will add to the production another familiar song, "By the Light of the Silvery Moon". Mullen's crafty dance routines also add greatly to the show. End Man Pete Scoppa, a big hit in the 1961 Minstrels, is again expected to be one of the show's highlights and will sing "I'da, Sweet as Apple Cider".

Henry L. Lam will sing "Wrap Your Troubles in Dreams". Lam has performed in six previous shows and is a favorite of local audiences. Veteran performer, Joe White, will make his debut as an End Man and is expected to add greatly to the overall show balance. He will sing "When the Red, Red, Robin Comes Bob, Bob, Bobbing Along".

End Man Richard B. Kellam, better known as the "Preaching End Man" will deliver another informative sermon. Judge Kellam is regarded as the show live wire and contributes greatly to the fast pace of the production.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Princess Anne Ruritan Club and may be purchased at Oceana Drugs, London Bridge Supply Company, Malbon Motors and Kellam and Eaton at Princess Anne and Virginia Beach.

The schedule now includes the Virginia Beach Boat Show, March 16-18; Virginia Beach Dog Show, March 30; Princess Anne-Virginia Beach Librarian Association's Book Festival, April 4-5; Scoutarama, April 13-14; Virginia Junior Chamber of Commerce Convention, April 18-20; Virginia National Guard Convention, May 25-27; Virginia

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the people of Virginia are dependent upon the natural resources — soils, water, forests, grasslands, minerals and wildlife — to sustain life and contribute to the commerce, agriculture and recreation of future citizens of the City of Virginia Beach, and,

WHEREAS, there is growing concern about the future continental waterfowl population and especially the destruction and drainage of wetlands which provide nesting areas for waterfowl and other wildlife, and,

WHEREAS, these natural water storage areas may be of infinite value to man in the conservation of water resources for an expanding population, and,

WHEREAS, the week of March 18-24, 1962, will be observed across the nation as NATIONAL WILDLIFE WEEK, this being a time set aside to alert all the citizens of the nation to the need for wise and proper use of all the natural resources.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Frank A. Dusch, of the City of Virginia Beach do hereby proclaim March 18-24, 1962, as NATIONAL WILDLIFE WEEK.

Motels, Homes Suffer Severe Tidal Damage

Loss to Run Into Millions; Luxury Homes Tumble Before Angry Surf

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

VIRGINIA BEACH — A severe winter storm brought the worst flooding conditions since 1933 to Virginia Beach Wednesday causing untold damage to oceanfront homes and property.

Gales of over 30-miles-an-hour lashed Atlantic Ocean into a wild froth that roared into streets at the north end of the beach and undermined expensive homes. More a 40-foot stretch of the seawall loose at 32nd Street and completely demolished the wooden fishing pier at the south end.

Local Officials Notify State of Disaster Needs

Mass Evacuation

Families were evacuated from 54th Street up through the mid-60's, Rudee Heights and Croatan and Sandbridge Beaches. Nearly every home along the ocean suffered some damage.

A tide cresting eight feet above normal trapped automobiles on Atlantic Avenue near 60th Street where they rolled and lurched in water nearly submerging them.

Homes in the $100,000 price range were undermined by the battering surf to the point of breaking in half and many residents stood helplessly by and watched their home crumble and their furniture float off down the street.

The Surfside Restaurant at the south end of the beach was completely demolished, its roof laying in the vicious ocean and the water forcing its way into the dining room.

Another oceanfront building in the same area had the ocean running in its front door and out the back into Atlantic Ave.

Pacific and Atlantic Avenues were impassable south beyond 17th Street due to the high water and debris from the destroyed fishing pier. Pieces of the pier were floating in Lake Holly.

Homes Buckled

The force of the ocean around 44th Street was so great that home windows were knocked out and the water rushed in to destroy the furnishings. A 53rd St. residence was demolished by the pounding surf, leaving the furniture float about the street.

But flooding conditions were not limited to oceanfront areas. Sections of Linkhorn Park and Bay Colony were several feet under water and boats at Laskin Road Marina were swamped. A crane and truck working on fill project in that area were also submerged.

Lynnhaven Bridge was impassable by noon and the nearby 7 Seas Restaurant was completely flooded.

The Virginia Beach Police & Fire Departments were besieged with calls from frightened residents but by mid-morning Civil Defense Headquarters had been set up at the Fire Department to assist with emergency measures. Red Cross volunteers, workers and members of the National Guard were called in for additional help.

Power failure was experienced in many sections of the beach and county but everything south of Pungo was completely out. Flooding conditions were so bad that the Virginia Electric & Power Co. crews were unable to get into some sections.

Most of the power failure was caused by poles loosened by the

Audrey Furnal Becomes Bride

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Goodwin of Oceana announce the marriage of her daughter, Miss Audrey Rose Furnal, to William Burl Smith of Stockton, Calif.

The wedding took place Feb. 17 at England Air Force Base Chapel, Alexandria, La. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William P. Connelly. The reception was held at the Non-Commissioned Officers Club. The couple are residing in Alexandria, following a short wedding trip. The bride is an Air Force nurse, and the bridegroom is a dental technician.

THALIA WOMEN TO SERVE AS HOSTS

THALIA — The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Thalia Methodist Church will serve as hostess to other churches in the area Friday at 8 p.m. for the World's Day of Prayer Service.

The following churches will participate: Thalia Trinity Presbyterian, Plaza Presbyterian, Plaza Methodist, Lynnhaven Methodist, Leakes Methodist and Thalia Methodist.

The public is cordially invited to attend the special service, the Rev. B. J. Garrett, pastor, said.

Thalia Methodist Church is located at Pine Avenue and Virginia Beach Boulevard.

Miss Kuhl Becomes Bride Of Anthony A. Less

OCEANA — The Chapel of the Good Shepherd Oceana Naval Air Station, was the setting Saturday for the marriage of Miss Leanne Carol Kuhl and Anthony A. Less. The ceremony was performed at 4 p.m. by the Rev. Father Gerber of Peoria, Ill.

The bride is a daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Joseph Howard Kuhl of Quarters "E", Naval Air Station, Memphis, Tenn.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Less of Salem, Ohio.

Capt. Kuhl gave his daughter in marriage. Miss Gerrie Kuhl of Memphis was maid of honor and Mrs. Alfred Magill Randolph of Virginia Beach was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Gale Artz of Washington, D.C., and Miss Jeanette Elmore of Norfolk.

Fred Less of Salem, Ohio, was best man. Groomsmen were Jim and Joseph Less of Salem, and Joseph Kuhl of Norfolk.

A reception was given at the Officers' Club of the Oceana Naval Air Station. After a wedding trip to Pennsylvania the couple will live at 114 Karen Lane, Hill Top, Virginia Beach.

Riera-Perault Vows Are Exchanged in Oceana Chapel

The Chapel of the Good Shepherd on the Oceana Naval Air Station was the setting at 11 o'clock Saturday morning for the marriage of Miss Mary Porter Riera to Lt. David Joseph Perault.

The Rev. George Witt performed the ceremony.

Capt. and Mrs. Robert Emmett Riera of Arlington are the bride's parents. The naval lieutenant is the son of Mrs. Agnes Perault of Long Beach, Calif.

Capt. Riera gave his daughter in marriage. Her honor attendants were her sisters, Mrs. W. J. Riedemann of Virginia Beach and Miss Gay Riera of Arlington, and her bridesmaids were Misses Valeria Dowd of Pensacola, Fla.; Winifred Drake of Arlington and Carolina Christian of Bethesda, Md.

The reception was held at Oceana Officers Club. The couple will take a wedding trip to New York and Vermont and then to Florida where they will reside in Jacksonville.

Witnesses to Petersburg Meet

VIRGINIA BEACH — Sixteen congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses from Virginia Beach, Elizabeth City and Roanoke Rapids, N.C., will journey to Petersburg, Va., the weekend of March 16-18, to attend a 3-day intensive ministerial training conference, a spokesman for the local group said today.

E. H. Jacobs, presiding minister of the Virginia Beach congregation, said the purpose of the meeting, sponsored by the Watchtower Society of Brooklyn, N.Y., is to train congregational and individual ministers to evaluate and improve their group and personal teaching techniques.

The Witnesses, he explained, specialize in door-to-door ministry rather than pulp preaching. Last year in 185 lands the Witnesses devoted 132,685,540 hours to this type of ministry.

A similar training conference was held in Norfolk, in October and was attended by over 700 ministers and their families from Virginia Circuit No. 1.

Charles V. Henry, Watchtower Society official from Brooklyn, N.Y., will direct the sessions. Climaxing the convention at 3 p.m. Sunday, March 18, when he will deliver a public Bible lecture on the subject, "Who Will Rule the World?"

The sessions will be held in the Bolling Junior High School, Sycamore and Fillmore Streets in Petersburg.

Seahawk TID-BITS

By DARLA SUE DESKINS

Always on the go and hard to find, aptly describes Hazel Tucker the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. John Tucker. She is the third & youngest daughter of the Tuckers, the other two left Virginia Beach for college after participating in many of the school's functions. Haze has not gone back on tradition!

Sue Deskins

Young Editor

She is editor of the six-page high school paper, "The Beachcomber". If you happen to mention how much time and hard work it takes to put a newspaper together you will probably get her favorite reply, "Yes, it's hard, but anything really worth having is worth working hard to attain."

Leading cheers for the Seahawks has been a favorite outlet for Haze's endless energy. She was a member of the Junior Varsity cheering squad for two years. Now, during her senior year she is completing her second year as a member of the varsity squad.

It takes more than strong lungs to be a member of the cheering squad—it takes work. Work is certainly not an occupation from which this, gal shrinks. Her school work proves this to be true. Haze, with her 92.091 average ranks 13th in the senior class, and is an active member of Beta Club.

Being a soprano in Mr. Miller's high school chorus and a member of Jr. Civitan leave little time to just "goof-off."

When there is a spare moment Haze can generally be found curled up with a good book or a crossword puzzle, or bent intently on her sewing. These "spare moments" are few and used wisely.

Hazel is a member of the Galilee Episcopal Church of Virginia Beach. She is the past corresponding secretary of the Episcopal Young Church, at present she is serving as President of her Sunday School class.

The leadership qualities so powerfully part of Haze have not gone unnoticed. In her Junior year she was chosen as a delegate to Girl's State. She not only represented Virginia Beach, but was elected to the city council of her city! Haze was also chosen as the most outstanding teenage girl at Va. Beach High School.

Library Ambitions Since the opening of the Virginia Beach - Princess Anne County library, Haze has either volunteered her services or has been employed. Her acceptance at William and Mary in Williamsburg along with this experience are sure to pave the way toward her goal—to be a librarian.

Virginia Beach extends the hope that Haze's future accomplishments will glitter as the golden ones of her high school career.

Darla's Darlin': To know the youth of today is to know the leaders of tomorrow.

VEPCO Awarded Mail Improved Service Plaque

RICHMOND — The Virginia Electric and Power Company has been awarded a certificate of membership by Nationwide Improved Mail Service, a program conducted jointly by American business firms and the Post Office Department.

Acting Richmond Postmaster J. F. Bates presented the certificate to S. E. Ratcliffe, Vepco Vice President and Treasurer, and cited Ratcliffe's personal efforts and the company's cooperation in furthering the program.

The NIMS program, launched in June 1961, is designed to create more efficient mail service through the re-scheduling of daily mail to the post office by business firms, and by a mutual information and suggestion exchange.

A Richmond Post Office spokesman explained that the practice of delivering business mail to the post office at the end of the working day had resulted in 80 to 85 percent of the city's business mail being received between 5 and 8 p.m.

On the local level, 100 of the largest business mailers were contacted by post office representatives in July 1961. Almost unanimously they pledged their support. Forty-seven local business representatives volunteered to serve on the Postmaster's Advisory Council, which maintains liaison with the post office.

As a result of the program, the approximately 7,000 pieces of business mail formerly received at the post office prior to 5 p.m. now has grown to about 125,000 pieces. This eliminates the previous 5 to 8 p.m. jam.

The spokesman pointed out that early delivery to the post office during the day often results in the mail reaching its destination 24 hours earlier.

United Women Plan Program For World Day of Prayer

VIRGINIA BEACH—On Friday, March 9th, Christians in more than 150 areas of six continents and the islands of the sea will participate in the observance of World Day of Prayer. Rejoicing in the remembrance of last year's seventy-fifth anniversary of this important day in the Christian calendar, men, women and children will gather again this year for services of worship in their own communities.

United Church Women of Princess Anne Council, announced plans today for the local observance. "Ours will be one of thousands of communities in the United States which will be holding a World Day of Prayer service on the first Friday in Lent," Mrs. R. G. Holloman, President of Princess Anne Council of Church Women, said.

"For God So Loved the World" is the theme of the 1962 observance," she said. The service this year comes from Christian women in Uruguay where it was written by Miss Violeta Cavallero and Mrs. Eudexia Perez de Svetagorski, both of Montevideo.

In Virginia Beach, Virginia the World Day of Prayer service will be held at Virginia Beach Methodist Church at 11:00 o'clock A.M. Participants will be members of choirs of Virginia Beach Churches. A dramatic presentation, "In Unbroken Line". The cast from Church of Our Saviour, Bay Lake Pines. Speech Choir from Bayside Presbyterian Church. Other churches taking part will be Lynnhaven Colony United Church, Diamond Springs Christian Church, Old Donation Episcopal Church and Va. Beach Baptist Church.

World Day of Prayer is sponsored annually by United Church Women, a general department of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., representing 12 million Protestant and Orthodox women.

The day begins at dawn on the Tonga Islands in the Pacific where Queen Salote leads her subjects in prayer. This service has become almost a tradition in observance of World Day of Prayer. Following the sun around the world, the women's prayers will be offered in cathedrals, in churches of brick and of thatch and out of doors. They will also be conducted by church women in hospitals, schools, business offices and factories. The final service is held on St. Lawrence Island, Alaska, where fishermen stay home from their nets to observe the day with their families.

Offerings received on World Day of Prayer in this country are divided between the Divisions of Home and Foreign Missions of the National Council of Churches, which carry on the interdenominational work for which the offerings are designated. In the United States the prayers and gifts help to recruit, train, and supervise staff and volunteers for many and varied types of Christian service. In the Migrant Ministry, funds are provided for recreational centers, vocational and homemaking schools, day care centers, and programs for responsible citizenship. Help is also provided to pastors in poor rural areas to continue their education. Religious work directors are provided for Indian American youth and guidance is also given to churches serving Indians moving into industrial centers. In Alaska the World Day of Prayer is furnishing specialists in church planning and social welfare, counseling to U. S. Service families and Alaskans "in transition" and supporting a chaplaincy a service in government hospitals in Anchorage and Sitka.

Overseas the offering helps prepare men and women of many nations for Christian Service in home and community through World Day of Prayer support of twelve interdenominational Christian colleges. They are located in Africa Hong Kong, Korea, Japan, Pakistan and India.

Gifts to the African Literacy and Writing Center at Kitwe in Northern Rhodesia and for a new program of Chinese literature are the Committee's latest ventures. The Committee on Friendly Relations Among Foreign Students is helped in extending the hand of friendship in ports of entry and exit to some 40,000 foreign students who come each year from abroad to attend college in the United States. Home, family and community life is shared freely with these potential ambassadors of good will.

"Our oneness in Christ will be expressed around the world all year," said Mrs. L. D. Ledbetter, chairman of World Day of Prayer. There is great need for Christians to understand world problems and to work and pray for their solution.

In many communities Prayer Fellowships will be held during the two or three weeks prior to World Day of Prayer. The plan of Prayer Fellowship is one of the creative ideas born of last year's seventy-fifth Anniversary. International, interracial and interdenominational teams of 3 or four women led Prayer Fellowships in 5 countries abroad. In addition there were thirty-two in this country and Canada.

This year many local communities are planning to hold similar Prayer Fellowships so that through prayer and study the World Day of Prayer may become more meaningful in

Housing Meet Drawing Crowd

PRINCESS ANNE — Tickets for the Women's Housing Conference have been in such great demand that reservations must be made in advance, it was announced this week.

"If we don't set it up on a reservation basis the turn out will be too large for us to handle," Mrs. William E. Witt, president of the Tidewater Association of Home Builders Auxiliary, the sponsoring organization, said.

Tickets will be distributed through women's groups throughout Tidewater and the TAHB office in Norfolk.

Reservations may be made with the general co-chairmen, Mrs. Horace Flier, MA 5-2213 or Mrs. Henry Rodgers, JU 7-3621.

The Conference will be held March 26 in the Princess Anne High School Auditorium and will be sponsored by Climate Makers.

Norfolk decorator Neal Thomas will discuss "The '72 Look in '62" and Warren Hull will act as master of ceremonies.

Three leading magazine editors will moderate panels of local women in discussing home building ideas.

EDITORIAL SPEAKING

This Community Should Heed The Call For Blood

A letter to the editor this week calls attention to the fact that President Kennedy has designated this month to be "Red Cross Month." The letter also points out a community deficiency that no resident of the greater Virginia Beach can be proud. That is the failure of this community to meet its rather meager quota of blood giving each time the Red Cross Bloodmobile visits this area.

The Bloodmobile visits here about every eight weeks and, as the writer states, nearly every time the volunteer workers return to their headquarters with less than the desired number of pints of blood from Virginia Beach. The quota of 125 pints of blood here has been reached so seldom that the staff has almost reached the point of knowing that when the Bloodmobile visits Virginia Beach the quota will not be made. This is indeed a sorry picture.

The Red Cross Blood program is one of the finest functions of that organization. Many lives have been saved by calling on the Tidewater Blood Center. This blood is only available because there are those individuals who are thoughtful enough to visit the Blood Center or the Bloodmobile and donate a pint of blood. One need only give once to realize how simple the process is and how little time it takes.

It might be hoped that residents of Virginia Beach would respond more readily the next time the Bloodmobile visits here. There are some here who give a pint of blood every eight weeks. There are many more who could donate. Remember the Red Cross Blood program and visit the Convention Center the next time the Bloodmobile visits. You will feel better for having given.

An Angry Sea Takes Its Toll

Mother Nature made a rude, sudden and unexpected attack on Virginia Beach, Wednesday and left in her wake damage to property that will probably run into millions of dollars. The fierce storm and high tides came upon this community with devastating suddenness and now leaves us with much rebuilding for the summer season ahead.

It is early for a clear-cut estimate of damage, but it is not too early to recognize the work of the civil defense groups in the city and county and the way in which city and county officials turned to when the storm hit. The work of these groups was outstanding.

This community has been dealt a heavy blow by this quirk of Mother Nature, but it only means that we must put our shoulders to the wheel and restore what we have lost. We have suffered before and survived and Virginia Beach will emerge again from the ravages of a winter storm that came without warning.

Farmers, Look to the Forests

Let's see, it was "1930 by the latest" that turn-of-the-century economists set as a time when one great Southern industry—perhaps the greatest of them all—was to peter out.

Back when Herbert Hoover was in mid-term, the greed of the Robber Barons and the vandalism of campers were supposed to have destroyed the lumbering business of the 12-State South where nearly every town had its "sawmill" and the mountain woodlands were being pillaged or frittered away.

The Southern Pine Association, headquartered in New Orleans, recently recalled the predictions of calamities that did not happen, and indulged in some excusable exaltation over the bouncing health of its once languishing industry. Looking ahead to 2000, Richard McArdle, Chief of the U.S. Forest Service, says that the South by then will surpass the Pacific Northwest as a timber producer and will provide most of the forest products for the nation.

There is an explanation of this amazing natural and business revival, a very heartening explanation. In the first place, the great swath of emerald pine which sweeps from Virginia, through the southern highlands of hills of Alabama and Georgia, into the lowlands of Louisiana and Mississippi, into the arid territories of Oklahoma and Texas, was always both more substantial and more vigorously reproductive than the economists understood. But more important than that, some very long-headed businessmen in lumbering began a quarter-century ago to build up tree farms. Lumber companies started giving saplings to farmers. People with no more than a few worn out fields began turning them into woodlots. The result is that today there are some two million individual owners in the South whose timber holdings are six times greater in acreage than the holdings of the lumber and paper companies.

The big incentive, of course, is the advancement of the technology. The old saying that every bit of the hog is used, except the squeal, now applies to the timber tree. Except for possibly the breeze in the boughs, the whole tree goes to market.

There is room for some agricultural optimism here. One of these days, private enterprise is going to find a way to make use of this country's ability to grow all that wheat, cotton and rice we don't need.

Then, in another thirty years or so, perhaps we won't need the Agriculture Department except as an agency like the Forest Service, to compile statistics and pass congratulations to the producers-for-profit.

Freedom Bond Drive

United States Savings Bonds have two purposes; one to provide financing for the government, the other to help people save money. The first purpose brought the bond program into being in the first place. But as a practical matter, it is the latter function that sells the bonds.

It becomes an extremely personal thing, when the bond buyer realizes he is putting a solid financial foundation under his home, his family and especially the prospects of his children. That is what Savings Bond buying does for millions.

This leads into something currently important. For two months, next May and June, the impact of Savings Bond buying will be felt in the lives of most of our people. That will be the period of the 1962 Freedom Bond Drive. The 1962 goal will be the sale of $4.75 billion in E and H Savings Bonds.

There will be other objectives. One is to have as many people as possible—actually every American, if that is possible—be Savings Bond buyers during the period. Another is to increase the number of payroll savers; they now number over 8 million. A third is to build up over-the-counter bond sales in banks.

If past experience means anything, the public will respond. There have been no exceptions to this record since the first World War, when all the Liberty Loans and the wind-up Victory Loan was oversubscribed. In the present sequence, there have been three periods, the Defense Bonds of pre-World War II, the War Bonds during the war, and since then the Savings Bonds. All have accomplished the basic purpose, to give the government working capital. But the greater profit has been in the millions of people made conscious for the first time in their lives of the road to personal solvency and security to be found in systematic saving.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Sun-News:

Dear Sir,

Our President has designated the Month of March to be "Red Cross Month". The National Red Cross does many jobs well, but it needs help to accomplish the monumental tasks it undertakes, one of which is the Blood Program.

Every seven or eight weeks the people of Virginia Beach have the opportunity to support this all-important program. The Bloodmobile from the Tidewater Blood Center comes to Virginia Beach so that the citizens of this community may do their civic duty. To the people, the cost is nothing in a monetary sense, and very little time, but the reward is a wonderful feeling in the heart if a little time is used to contemplate what has happened. Invariably, the staff of the Bloodmobile must return to the Blood Center very disheartened, for the quota of a mere 125 pints of blood is usually not filled.

Won't you, through the pages of the Sun-News, urge the people, during the month of March, to resolve to support this Program which does so much good, and saves so many lives?

I hope and pray that no family in Virginia Beach will ever need blood or its derivatives, but in the event that they do, then I am sure that that family will then realize what the Blood Program means.

Sincerely,
BERNARD H. McNAMARA

FUNERALS

Mrs. Bertie Dubsky Norwalk

VIRGINIA BEACH — Mrs. Bertie Dubsky Norwalk, manager of the Horatio Motel at 14th Street and Oceanfront, died last Wednesday afternoon in a Norfolk hospital.

The rosary was recited in H. D. Oliver Funeral Apartments Thursday night and the body was sent to Blue Island, Ill., for funeral services and burial.

Mrs. Norwalk was a native of Chicago but had lived in this area for 25 years. She was a member of Star of the Sea Catholic Church.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. Robert Posner of New York City and Mrs. Anne Husenberger of Blue Island, Ill.

Beach Art Enthusiasts Visit Richmond Museum via Bus

VIRGINIA BEACH—It was a busy day Saturday when members of the Virginia Beach Art Association went on a Safari to the Virginia Museum of Art in Richmond by chartered bus.

The group was given a tour of the galleries by a member of the museum staff, enjoyed lunch in the private "Member's Room" and were treated to a matinee performance of the "Limbo Kid" by a Little Theatre cast in the Museum Theatre.

The Safari was arranged by the program chairman, Mrs. W. W. Vail, who worked closely with the museum staff in scheduling the day's outstanding events. The Safari group included Mrs. Vail, Dr. and Mrs. John Anderson, Mrs. Donald Hood, Mr. and Mrs. Drewry Smith, Miss Charlotte Dodum, Mrs. Cornelia S. Terry, Mrs. William Ridgwell, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Wise, Mrs. John Tucker, Miss Mary-Taylor Gwathmey, Mrs. Gilmore Lee Tilbrook and Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Molloy.

Also, Mrs. Lawrence Tucker, Mrs. W. Carey Penington, Mrs. Robert Peabody, Norman Willlett, Miss Ruth Epperson, Capt. and Mrs. Earl Heaton, Mrs. John F. Marshall Jr., Mrs. N. W. Drewry, Mrs. A. C. Wood, Mrs. Joseph Toth, Mrs. S. L. Hakim, Mrs. John H. Doyle Jr., Carol Mac Williamson, Mrs. Dorothy E. Stanley, Mrs. T. H. Stewart and Miss Ida Mae Esmond.

saturated ground and toppled by high winds, J. W. Parker, district supervisor for VEPCO, said.

The power company lost several street light poles along the greatly damaged boardwalk and lost an entire pole and transformer unit at the Sun & Fun bath house.

Aragona Village, Kempville, and other sections of the Indian River District were without power early Wednesday morning but most of the trouble was limited to the southern part of the county and individual homes that were stricken.

Wires and poles blocked roads in some sections of the county but there was little danger of high-voltage accidents, Parker said.

Telephone service continued in most of the areas with only about 100 services out. Most of the trouble was at the south end, local Chesapeake & Potomac Telephone Co. manager Floyd Patrick reported and there was some cable trouble at Seatack.

Because of the over-loaded circuits from people calling for help the dial tones on most of the services were extremely slow, he said.

High waters began receding by Wednesday afternoon but the forecast for Wednesday night was for tides equal to or higher than the earlier ones.

Local police and National Guardsmen were preparing for the looting of damaged stores and homes that often comes in the wake of such devastation.

Sea Scouts Here Conduct First Bridge of Honor

VIRGINIA BEACH—The first formal Bridge of Honor, of re-activated Sea Explorer Ship No. 63 of Virginia Beach, was held at the Youth Activities Building last Wednesday at 8:00 p.m. Parents and guests were invited for the function.

After the opening ceremony of boarding a ship, the district scout executive, William King, spoke to the boys and parents of the value of senior scouting, and surprised all those present by stating that this district was number one in the nation for scouting growth last year.

James Oglesby, the ship's institutional representative, presented the ship's charter to Mr. William N. Petersen, skipper. The skipper then presented the awards to the following sea scouts: (ship's and scout rat-

Recognition was also given to Joseph Bowman, for his efforts to become a Sea Explorer, when he becomes of age within a few months, by showing his willingness to work along with the ship's crew.

Before the conclusion of the ceremony, the skipper, Mr. Petersen, mentioned to the parents about the three 30' boats the unit has acquired from the Navy, that the boys are working on. Also noted was the units plans to go to scout camp "Kiwahis" in August.

The meeting was brought to its final conclusion by "piping" the skipper and scout executives over the side, then the closing ceremony of the crew.

National Wildlife Week Is Being Observed This Month

All citizens of Virginia should know and understand the status of waterfowl resources of their local areas, declares J. Stoney Drake, Jr., as chairman of this year's National Wildlife Week observance.

National Wildlife Week, first proclaimed by President Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1938, is being observed March 18-24 through- out the state. The theme this year is "Waterfowl for the Future." Conservation of Wet- lands, which Benefit Man and Wildlife.

Working through more than 2,000,000 individuals who are interested in the welfare of ducks and geese, chairmen in all states are organizing local educational campaigns to alert the general public to complex and diverse problems relating to waterfowl. Educational pro- grams during the Week will take the forms of talks, exhibits and demonstrations, field trips, and special newspaper articles and radio-TV interviews. Gov- ernors and mayors in many states are issuing appropriate proclamations.

Mr. Drake urges everyone to join him in an attempt to de- velop long-range planning for waterfowl management by:

1. Reviewing conditions of waterfowl wetlands such as marshes, swamps, potholes, lakes and streams, noting avail- ability of food, presence of wa- ter pollution, etc., as well as de- velopments which might reduce the areas in size or effective- ness. This review may be ac- complished individually or through study groups in local, civic, conservation, agricultural, fraternal and service organiza- tions.

2. Calling upon services of wildlife and agricultural pro- fessionals in the region to help coordinate plans to protect wa- terfowl wetlands. The state agency managing wildlife re- sources should be kept fully in- formed on all developments be- cause it is cooperating with the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service in acquiring waterfowl wet- lands.

3. Cooperate with proper of- ficials in stamping out illegal kills of waterfowl. So-called "market" hunters could not profit from their unlawful op- erations if people would refuse to purchase the birds.

4. Assist newspapers, radio, television and other news sources, in obtaining factual in- formation about waterfowl and their needs, stressing the great public interest.

Thunderbird Major League

Team No. 3 continues to crowd the leaders, this week with a 3-point win over Coaches. Clarence Husk was the headlin- er with a 266 game and 641 series. His 266 becomes high single game of the league. He got assistance from his Team 3 mates Chuck Runyon with 575 and Artie Watkins with a 541. Jim Johnson of Coaches, sport- ing a new ball, came up with a 550 set in their losing cause.

League leading Va. Beach Transfer dropped 3 to Team No. 8. Mal Bishop with a 580 set and Tom Crowley with a 565 pro- vided just enough power to squeak by. For the truckers Paul Holder was high with a 561.

Sealy Posturepedic moved in- to a first place tie by downing the sagging Tastee Freeze team 3 points. Glenn Holloman with a 554 and Andy Holland with a 561 were the big guns for the winners and Lee Amundson rolled a 579 for the losing squad.

Chix Restaurant got even in the won-lost column with a 3 pointer from Kelly Supply. Dick Long led the attack with a 560 series aided by Tom Moore with a 531 (Sponsor Dick Dickens also rolled). The losing Kelly Suppliers came up with a new Father-Son combination with John and Jim Drews who came up with the two biggest scores on the team. Jim (son) had a fine 577 and John (dad) a 534.

Next week is the middle of the round position night which should bring about a juggling of the standings.

Phone System Honors Architect

A Richmond architect, Alan McCullough, is one of the recipients of an architectural award for producing good build- ing design at reasonable cost for the Bell Telephone System.

W. E. Vellines, Jr., chief engi- neer of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Virginia announced that McCul- lough is being honored for his design of C&P's Upperville Com- munity Dial office in Northern Virginia.

There were 39 awards chosen from private architectural and Bell System personnel who de- signed the more than 2,000 buildings erected for Bell Com- panies during the past two years.

The Bell System, the nation's largest corporate builder, con- ducted this second architectural review on all types of buildings ranging from small repeater stations to large headquarters buildings with 370 buildings en- tered in the competition.

The award in form of a cita- tion will be presented to McCul- lough.

Potato Meeting Called by ASC

Russell Dudley, Chairman of the Princess Anne County ASCS Committee, announced today that copies of a Notice of Hear- ing regarding a proposed Na- tional Potato Marketing Order and a leaflet explaining the pro- posed National Potato Market- ing Order have been mailed to all farmers in the county known to have produced more than two acres of potatoes in 1961. Copies have also been mailed to all dealers and handlers of pota- toes.

The Notice of Hearing con- tains a reprint of the proposed National Marketing Order as developed by the National Po- tato Advisory Committee ap- pointed by the Secretary of Ag- riculture. The leaflet outlines in simple language the terms of the proposed order and the proposed order and procedure that must be followed before it is put into effect.

A county hearing will be held at the School Administration Building at Great Bridge at 8:00 P.M., Friday, March 9. Anyone desiring to do so may appear at the public hearing and present views and recommendations with respect to the proposed or- der, Mr. Dudley said.

Six, Eight Man Football Coming to Virginia Beach

By J. F. BRYANT, JR.
Virginia Beach Sports Club

VIRGINIA BEACH—The youth of this area for the past several years have been playing eleven-man football and although eleven is the proper number of players it is often difficult to organize the teams and at the same time give everyone the opportunity to play.

Too Complex
Football with eleven men is a very difficult game to play especially if the participants are in an age group from ten to fourteen years. There is a tendency to expose the young footballer to plays, formations and intricate defenses that are much too complicated for him to learn and properly execute as a team. It is the Sports Club's belief that if six and eight man football were played the youth would be taught the fundamentals of the game, and that each man would have a job to do; therefore, reducing considerably the confusion after found in eleven man football.

The ground work has been laid for the formation of the league and the committees have been formed that will offer to our youth a football program second to none. Football today is a game that requires much concentration football player and coach. There are coaches for each position as well as defensive coaches. The assistant coaches must determine who the best man is for a particular job and in turn give this information to a head coach who will then decide on what, he feels should be his starting lineup for a particular game.

This weekly procedure is highly organized and thoroughly rehearsed prior to actual practice. The coaches read scouting reports and review game films for hours in order to minimize as much as possible the chance for errors.

Job Too Big
Coaching an eleven man team is a job much too intricate for one man to handle properly. Fundamentals must be taught, and although learning fundamentals is not the most enjoyable way to practice it is done nevertheless from sandlots to the pros. It is a part of the game that requires hard work on the part of the individual, and the time to learn these fundamentals is at an early age.

We, the members of the Virginia Beach Sports Club feel that if six and eight man football were played in this area that the smaller squads would be easier to organize and coach. It is difficult for one man to hold the interest of twenty-two young boys, and at the same time discipline them to keep quiet while explaining to an end or a back his particular duties. By reducing the number of players to six or eight men you are also reducing your disciplinary problems.

Increased Interest
Prior to this year a youth was a guard or tackle because there were already 4 or 5 good backs and since this youth was a little ruggeder than the average they tend to make a line-man of him; therefore, causing him to lose interest in the game.

In 6-man football this cannot happen because every man on the field is a potential ball carrier. Everyone is eligible for a pass including the center and as a result the game becomes more interesting to the boy. If a youth plays 6-man football say from his tenth to twelfth birthday this time will give him an opportunity to decide whether or not he wants to become a line-man or a back.

Six-man football is played on a field 80 yards long and 40 yards wide and the teams are composed of three linemen and three backs. There must be a lateral on each running play from scrimmage. Formations range from the T-formation to the single wing, and defenses accordingly. No lateral is required on pass plays and all players are eligible to receive passes.

Squads will be limited to 12 men per team. The boy cannot weigh more than 90 pounds and cannot have reached his 12th birthday prior to January 1st. He will be required to weigh in only once during the season. The age and weight requirements tend to balance the league and reduce the tendency for the older and heavier boys who might run rough shod over the league.

If the lad weighs over 90 lbs. then he will move into the next higher classification which will be 8-man football. Eight-man is very similar to 6, except there are 5 linemen instead of 3. A boy cannot have reached his 13th birthday prior to January 1st. The weight limit will be 110 lbs. The requirements for weighing in will be the same as 6 man. The teams in each league will be allowed to have an age exception provided his weight conforms to league requirements.

KEGLER'S KORNER

By "PAPPY" IRISH

We were collared the other day by a very nice person, who shall remain nameless, as to the possibility of putting on a tournament (Mixed Doubles) for the folks who bowl in leagues here at Rinaldi's Plaza Bowl. The reasoning behind the question was to give the Rinaldi league bowlers a chance to compete against one another without outsiders coming just to win the prize money, depriving the home guard from winning, and not returning again until the next tournament.

This tournament can be run—and will be—at an opportune time. But we will need the assistance of interested personnel. The party mentioned above suggested the tournament be held at the end of May. Do you have any suggestions?

Summer Leagues are now forming. I believe that I have news of interest for the League Secretaries and Team Captains in reference to this matter.

Again let me remind you. Don't get so wrapped up in your own bowling that you forget to tell the Senior Citizen bowler in your family, the one that lives next door, or one who works beside you on the job—that he or she over 55 can join a league sanctioned by the U.S. Senior Bowling Assn. We are going to start the ball rolling as soon as we have a few more names.

Thanks from the Management. We mean it sincerely. Thanks a million for your patronage. We are enjoying an increase in business that can only be attributed to your patronage and interest in bowling.

TECH. REP. LEAGUE

Monday nites action saw Larry Oller tally 215-559 for individual high game and series for the men—Angela Rush scored a 178 high game for the ladies while Norma Meek had 171-173-174 for a 518 high series. The Misfits picked up 788 pieces of maple to cop high team game, and went on to add 759-768-2315 and a high team series. Don Evans, Warren Kirby and Moody Shields scored 500 series for the Misfits.

Rolly Mouhat and Betty Jugo split high honors during Thursday's meeting—Rolly scoring a 191 for individual high game as Betty collected 542 pins for tops in the series department. Mary Hammett rolled a nice 182 game. Her partner Jinx Chisholm led the Bay Jewelers with a 453 series. Rose Fiore of the Queen Bees topped 465 pins. Alice Rhodes of the Navlettes put together 148-145-159-432 for her series. The Alley Cats tallied 1997 pins for high team series. It took 635 pins to cinch high team game for the Bay Jewelers.

PLAZA LADIES

(Doubles)
Lola Darden of Marie's Hairstyling picked up 187 pins in her second game to rate high game. Rose Vina put 173-165-166 together for a high individual series of 504.

SHIRTS AND SKIRTS

Quint White registered high game and series Friday night with 214-505. For the ladies it was JoAnn Neathery with 169-498. The second half standings started off with the Lester Construction Company and the Sooners taking all 4 points from their opposition.

BANTAM LEAGUE

Curtis Kemp and Terri Chisholm were outstanding as the Boy and Girl bowler of the day. Curtis put 155-139-167-461 together for high individual game and series for the boys. Terrie topped Curtis for high game with a 178 and knocked down 429 pins for girls high series. Rose Vina had a 160-413.

THURSDAY MIXED

Artie Watkins, bowling for Point O' Woods, rolled a 211 for the night's high individual game. Roy Nelson of Team 13 took high series honors with 180-181-181-542. The Woodchoppers built up a total of 1978 pins to cop the high team series. High team game was taken by Oceana Drugs with a 695. Other games rolled for the night were Marvin Beckers 205 and Bob Beals 201.

ST. GREGORY'S LEAGUE

St. Ignatius swamped St. Aquinas 4-0 last Sunday. The Holy Ghosts took 3 points out of four from the Holy Smokes. St. Gregory's lost 3 marks to Los Cincos Ladrones—the latter chalking up high team game and team series 805-2300. Dick Bockleman hit 200 on the head, winning the high individual game. Dan Santivasci had the day's high series with 511. St. Jude downed St. Joseph 3-1. St. Bonaventure split 2-2 with St. Martins. Pat Boccumini of St. Bonaventure and Bob McKenna had 489 series.

In signing off may I remind my readers that the last meeting of the Hampton Roads Bowling Proprietors' Association 3-6-9 Weekly Tournament (2-4-8) for the ladies, will be held at Rinaldi's Plaza Bowl March 9, 10 and 11. This tournament is for both the handicap and scratch bowler.

Jim Brown Is School Speaker

Jim Brown, the all-pro full-back in the National Football League for the past several years will be the featured speaker at the Awards Day Program for the Princess Anne County Recreation Department and the Union Kempsville High School. R. L. Barco, Assistant Director, Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, has announced that the program will be on March 22, in the gymnasium of the Union Kempsville High School.

Awards for the recreation basketball championships for the 1962 season will be given at this time. Awards for the 1961 football and the 1962 basketball seasons of Union Kempsville athletes will also be given at this time.

Jim Brown, the leading ground-gainer for the Cleveland Browns during the winter, is a promotion man for Pepsi-Cola in the off-season.

American Little League to Register

VIRGINIA BEACH—Registration for the American Little League will be held March 16 at the Virginia Beach High School Auditorium at 7 p.m., according to League President Newton Thomas.

To be eligible, boys must live within the boundaries of 31st St., north to 89th Street and from the Atlantic Ocean west to Great Neck Creek. They must be eight years of age and will not reach the 13th birthday before August 1 of this year.

All boys must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian, Thomas said.

Registration forms are being distributed through the area schools.

Major and Bie Gets Appointment

RICHMOND, Va.—Major and Bie, Inc., Norfolk-based advertising agency, has been appointed to conduct the promotion program of the Richmond (Va.) Oil Heat Association according to Marshall Field, Executive Vice-President of the group.

The agency has been employed in a similar capacity by the Tidewater (Va.) Oil Heat Association for nearly 5 years. Both programs are conducted with the cooperation of the National Oil Heat Institute.

Saturday's Games
Hawks 46 Lions 18
Blue Angels 34, Beachcom's 17
The first round of the tournament came out pretty much as was expected with the first place Hawks and the second place Blue Angels victorious. These two teams should provide some real fine basketball when they meet for the Linkhorn championship next Saturday.

The Hawks' first unit continued to play well together with Ronnie Billingsley and Bill Mayo running neck and neck in the scoring. Ronnie got 13 pts. & Bill 12. Buddy Matthews probably played his best game of the season, helping to move the ball and showing good defensive work.

We are overjoyed to see one of our favorite people play up to his potential. Fred Jordan hit for 8 points and looked like the player he is. Let's see some more of that. Fred, this Saturday. Mike Strickler and Ricky Hangar played fine games too.

In the second game, another favorite just couldn't be stopped. Blue Angel Billy Pendleton came through with nine points and seemed to be all over the court at once. You should feel real good. Billy, and rightly so! Angel Shipp beat out Billy for high scoring with 11 points and played his usual good game.

The Beachcombers just could not get going. Craig Waring and Dickie Miller being off in their shooting. It's a shame, but everyone has those days. Congratulations to Kendall Miller. Ken got two in a row and we bet he was happy.

This Saturday brings to a close the Linkhorn League season. We implore you parents to come out, for your own sakes. Your boys have worked hard to acquire a truly difficult skill. They are proud and would like to share their deserved pride with you who chestily passed out cigars and beamed so saintly when they were born.

The first game Saturday will be a consolation one between the Beachcombers and the Lions at 2:00 p.m. The big one follows at 3:00 p.m. with the Hawks vs. the Blue Angels for the championship.

Princess Anne Happenings

By Leslie Russell

Another eventful week at Princess Anne High School has ended and again an equally busy one is about to begin.

Princess Anne finished their basketball season by placing 8th in the Eastern District Basketball Tournament after dropping the first contest between Newport News, with a score of 49-30.

Girls of P.A., Leslie Russell have you been thinking about who would make a "dandy date" for the Varsity Club-sponsored Geek Week Dance for which you must ask a boy? This annual dance highlights the week that the Varsity Club initiates those that are about to become new members. The date for the dance has been set for March 30.

The Modern General Assembly sponsored by the YMCA is to be held the first week-end in April. At this time Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y delegates from all over the state take over the state capital in Richmond to vote on bills that have been previously prepared by the various clubs.

Those to represent Princess Anne High School are Frances Sachon and Diane Rainier, Trinity Tri-Hi-Y; Elaine Thornton and Vernell Heusel, Coronet Tri-Hi-Y; Lou Ann Legum and Carol Flannigan, Athena Tri-Hi-Y; Pat Pleyvack and Dorothy Greenwood, Quo Vadis; Anna Shaefer and Celene Hodges, Scepter Tri-Hi-Y; Barbara Stanford and Sherry Breen, Theta Tri-Hi-Y; and Gary Miller and Mike Matton, Sigma Phi Hi-Y. Leslie Russell of Trinity Tri-Hi-Y and Sandra McNeil of Theta Tri-Hi-Y will represent Princess Anne High School as their reporter and page.

Plans for the annual Senior Play are underway. Three one-act plays have been selected to fill the program. The plays are "Submerged Apartment for Two," and "Balcony Scene." The casts have not been selected.

Under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Raquel Weyse, Bill Pennington, Lee Blehm, Lewis Barlow and Pete Theriault will present "The Boor" by Anton Chekov at the drama festival to be held at Deep Creek High School.

Congratulations to Chuck Sherman who won the State Oratorical Contest sponsored by the American Legion. Chuck was awarded a very impressive gold plaque.

There is only one more week left in this grading period at Princess Anne so there is not too much time left for those "ole book reports." Betty hurry!

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

The day was cold and overcast. The wind blowing in off the frothy Atlantic Ocean made pedestrians walking along 17th St. bury deeper into their heavy coats for protection against the bitterness.

Laura Ann Tillett, who lives in the Prince Charles Hotel where her mother, Mrs. Lillian Tillett is a desk clerk, hurried along the street to cash her mother's pay check so she could buy some shoes.

Three small children scammed along the street in Laura's path scantily clothed, shivering from the cold. One little two-year-old had no shoes to protect his feet from the icy sidewalk.

Laura looked down at her own shoes. They were worn, of course, but they kept her feet warm and protected from the penetrating temperatures.

With tears running down her face she took the money back to her mother and told her of the barefoot child.

Within minutes Mrs. Tillett had organized a full scale welfare drive for the unfortunate children.

Mrs. Lela Spruill, who is employed at the near-by Compeco Dry Cleaning office and her friend, Mrs. Alma Barnes, joined Mrs. Tillett in soliciting clothes and money for the youngsters. They talked to the oldest child on the street and learned that there were 8 children in the family living in a 3-room apartment in the neighborhood.

"Why aren't you in school?" she asked him. "None of us go to school," he told her, "because we don't have enough money to buy clothes or books."

Another Prince Charles desk clerk, Miss Linda Morgan, remembered a few days previous seeing one of the smaller girls carrying a baby in her arms in just a light blanket. The infant's arms and feet were exposed to the cold, she said.

About 9 a.m. Friday the three women started their drive to help the family. They talked to residents and guests in the hotel and businesses in the area.

By 3 p.m. they had collected a supply of clothing and about $50 in cash.

After getting approval and a list of sizes from the children's mother, the women went to Russell & Holmes Shoe Store on Atlantic Avenue to buy footwear for the eight tots. Store manager Buddy Woods contributed socks for the group.

With the money that was left over the women bought the children a supply of underwear.

It was a day well spent. The mother and children were happy with the clothing they needed so desperately and Mrs. Tillett, Mrs. Spruill and Mrs. Barnes were happy from the pleasure of giving.

Too often the more fortunate are too busy to be aware of the needs of their less fortunate neighbors. But eight Virginia Beach youngsters are sporting new shoes this week because one teen-age girl could not bear the thought of their cold, bare feet and three women decided to act on the problem rather than talk about it.

party to give? Why a Poster Party of course! The party given at G. Robert Jones house in order to clean-up posters for the school and was sponsored by Trinity Tri-Hi-Y and Semper Paratus Hi-Y. Who were the most talented "poster painter?" Why all of the girls and boys in Trinity and Semper Paratus.

It may seem a little early to start talking about football but for those who are interested here is next year's P.A. football schedule.

The women's faculty basketball team was no match for the energetic students last Friday night as the students trounced the teachers with a score of 26-19. In the second game of the evening, wit undermined skill as the boys battled a losing one against the men's faculty team. With four or five basketballs on the court, it was a race to who could get to a basket first. The final score was 58-44 in favor of the teachers.

The new Key Club officers were elected for the coming year. The new officers are David Etheridge, president; Tom Keuster, vice-president; Pat Sidel, treasurer; and Buddy Treaskle, secretary.

'62 Heart Fund Tops Last Year

Incomplete returns on the Heart Fund campaign in Virginia total $267,146 as of Feb. 28. This figure shows an increase of $39,727 over the $227,419 total at the end of February last year.

Because contributions were still being received by Virginia Heart Assn., Chapters, and other campaign units when the figures were compiled, it is impossible to give a complete total at this time.

Officials of the Heart Assn. hope that people who have not yet made their contribution will do so as soon as possible. Checks should be made out to "Heart Fund" and mailed to "Heart, c/o Local Postmaster."

Funds are needed urgently to continue the heart program already in progress. These programs include heart research at both the University of Virginia School of Medicine and the Medical College of Virginia. In addition to heart research already being conducted at these two institutions and elsewhere in the United States, Va. Heart Assn. and Chapters last year established a Chair of Cardiovascular Research at MCV. If funds are available from the 1962 campaign, a similar Chair will be established at the University of Virginia.

Although the financing of heart research is the major undertaking of the Heart Assn., it is only one of three programs, the other two being education and community service. Information gained through research is passed to people who can use it. In this connection, the Heart Association sponsors symposia for physicians and symposia for nurses, and heart education meetings suited to the general public.

In its work with the youth of the state, Virginia Heart Assn. and Chapters show heart films in schools and furnish other teaching materials.

In so far as funds are available, oxygen equipment is donated to rescue squads and life saving crews that prove the greatest need.

Boat Show Here March 16 to Present Late Models Plus Many Other Attractions

VIRGINIA BEACH — Boats, bathing beauties, a Redstone Mercury capsule and Virginia travel information will be the basic components of the 1962 Virginia Beach Boat Show.

The three-day event will open Friday, March 16, and run through Sunday, at the Alan B. Shepard Convention Center in this resort city.

Sponsored by the Convention Center in cooperation with the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce, supporting organizations include, Davis & Lee, Inc., Beach Marine, Coaches Sporting Goods, Beach-Bay Marine and Princess Anne Sales & Services. William B. Lillyman, Director of Convention Sales for the City, states that the show will offer exciting events for both young and old.

Some 15,000 square feet of boats will be on display inside the Dome. Inboard, outboard cruisers too large for the floor display will be on exhibit in the Center's parking area.

Of particular interest to the youngsters will be the showing of the "Freedom 7" movie, which re-lives the countdown and actual flight of Virginia Beach resident, Alan Bartlett Shepard, first of the seven astronauts to make the sub-orbital ride into outer space. This unique documentary film was loaned to the Convention Center by NASA.

A special feature, for the ladies will be a travel section on the Old Dominion's many historic sites. These booths will be manned by state-wide representatives of the travel profession who will offer tips on scenic week-end trips for the warm, summer months.

Door prizes and many other special attractions will also be offered.

Admission to all events will be adults, 50c, and children, 25c.

Seaboard Principal Has Had Varied Teaching Experience

(This is one of a series of articles to appear each week in this paper on the men and women who serve as principals of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County Schools.)

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

PRINCESS ANNE — When Mrs. Lelliah Holloman took over the principal duties of Seaboard Elementary School when it opened in April, 1956, it culminated a teaching career that had started in 1932 — a span of years that had taken her from one-room schools in North Carolina and Virginia to a plant of spacious, modern design.

Before her appointment she had been teaching 38 students ranging from first through fourth grades in a single room building at Pleasant Ridge. Only a few years prior she had been the lone teacher of grades one through seven in the same schools.

Little Difference

"I wondered how teachers here at Seaboard would teach a class of all one grade," she said, "so I watched the classroom at work. You know, there really wasn't much difference. In my one-room school I separated the different grade levels into groups and divided my time between them. These teachers do the same thing even though they teach only one grade. Each child must be taught individually. If there are 38 in a classroom then the teacher divides them into groups, usually according to their learning ability, and teaches them accordingly."

From teacher of a one-room school to principal of a first through seventh grade facility was a great adjustment for Mrs. Holloman but, in keeping with her soft, quiet personality, she took it in her stride.

"Fortunately I had from April until September, when the school actually started operating in a full capacity, to become adjusted to the change," she laughed.

Being a teacher at heart, Mrs. Holloman's principalship often keeps her from the thing she loves most—the children. Because of this she spends much of her time in the halls or in the classrooms where she can have close contact with youngsters. As in all schools, many challenging situations confront the elementary principal: how to cope with the growing population, how to keep students interested in academics, how to determine the truth when conflicts arise and how to keep parents interested in their child's progress or problems.

But one problem that has caused the school great concern, Mrs. Holloman said, are the children whose parents are unable to buy books.

"What can you say to a child who cries that his parents can't afford to buy his books? The welfare department furnishes some books and this year the P-TA bought a limited supply but there are still some children who go without. This is quite a problem with us," she said.

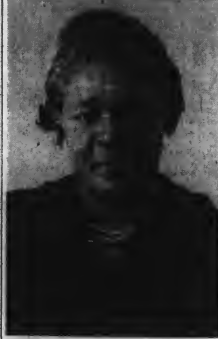

Mrs. Holloman takes a personal interest in each of the present 554 students at Seaboard. When a child comes to her with a problem that possibly stems from the home, she goes into that home and talks with the parents.

"After I've visited in the home and have seen what troubles the child I am better able to understand the situation and cope with it," she explained.

A native of Currituck County, Mrs. Holloman graduated from State Normal School at Elizabeth City, which is now known as State Teachers College. She is presently working on her master's degree at Hampton Institute.

She lives in Princess Anne with her husband, Ralph C. Holloman, an insurance agent, and their adopted daughter, Jean, 10, a fourth grade student at Seaboard.

Flowers are a very important part of Mrs. Holloman's life. During the summer she raises her own but when bitter temperatures call a halt to her gardening she resorts to the life-like artificial ones. Her neat office is always bright with colorful bouquets. With snow falling outside the windows a vase of waxed yellow jonquils bring a touch of spring to Mrs. Holloman's room.

EDUCATORS RETURN FROM CONFERENCE

KING'S GRANT — Several members of the faculty and administration personnel of King's Grant Christian Day School returned this week from a two-day conference in Pensacola, Fla.

Attending the conference were the Rev. and Mrs. Harold E. Richards Jr., Miss Phyllis Williams and Miss Mary Jo Dillon.

Over 20 Christian Day Schools in the Southeastern region were represented at the Southeastern States Christian Teachers Fellowship.

Among guest speakers who conducted workshops were Dr. Walter Fremont, Dean of the School of Education at Bob Jones University; John Blanchard, from the National Association of Christian Schools who is also principal of Culver Academy in Los Angeles, Calif.; and Prof. Howard Hendricks of Dallas Seminary.

Princess Anne Plaza Shopping Center Opening

PRINCESS ANNE PLAZA —

On March 15, seventeen firms will formally open for business at the Princess Anne Plaza Shopping Center on the Virginia Beach Boulevard. An additional 75,000 square feet will open on or before May 1, making a total of 395,000 square feet. The opening, therefore will mean that 50% of the center will be in operation, 25% will open on or before May 1, and the remaining 25% will be completed in September.

Originally planned as a U-shaped center of service outlets, the shopping center was developed by John Aragona Enterprises, Inc., and designed by architect Paul D. Woodward and his associate in charge of the Plaza office, M. Harold Baldwin.

The center incorporates a variety of features. Foremost among these is the design itself. Walking distance from store to store is made shorter because of the U-shaped design. As the shopper promenades through the merchandise zone, he may see several innovations for the Tidewater area: a liberal use of mosaic tile and brick for exterior and interior walls; acoustic ceilings throughout all the stores; exterior planters, some of which are large enough to hold full-growth trees; a distinctive use of plate glass.

Wives Get View Of Hubby's Day

OCEANA — Rarely does the wife of a Naval Aviator have the chance to view and accompany her husband throughout a day's work. But on Monday, February 19, 1962, a full day of activity and instruction was given to such a group of Utility Squadron FOUR wives.

At 11:00 a.m., lectures on the squadron's mission, procedures, and assigned aircraft as well as a general discussion of the Navy's mission, terminated with luncheon at the Bachelor Officers Quarters mess.

During the afternoon, a trip was made to the squadron's maintenance area where flight gear, maintenance procedures and the FB-1 itself were viewed. Through the courtesy of RATCC's "Blue Room", a demonstration of actual Approach Control functions brought the day to a close.

A day free of operational commitments had served a double purpose. It provided a welcome respite from a normally heavy schedule, and an opportunity to give the wives, important members of the Navy family, a view of the day to day tasks their husbands face.

Executive director of the festival is Logan Turrentine, president of the Florida Bandmasters Assn. and chairman of the music department of Hialeah High School.

Peter Schenkman Opening Norfolk Concert Series

NORFOLK — Guest soloist to appear with the Norfolk Symphony Orchestra on Monday evening, March 12, at 8:30 p.m. at the Center Theatre, is a dynamic young man well known to Norfolk audiences. Peter Schenkman, violinist, will make his farewell appearance with the Norfolk Symphony before joining the cello section of the famed Boston Symphony.

Tickets to this sixth concert of the season will be on sale at the Box Office of the Norfolk Municipal Arena all day Monday, March 12. They may be purchased at the Center Theatre Box Office on Monday from 7:30 until 8:30 concert time. Tickets for students and enlisted personnel are specially priced at $1.00.

Peter Schenkman, son of Conductor Edgar Schenkman, is a young energetic musician who has grown up with the Norfolk Symphony. He was a charter member of the Youth Orchestra and began performing with the Symphony at age 15. When he was 18, Peter won a scholarship to Curtis Institute, and there he studied under Leonard Rose, famous 'cellist, and played in several Philadelphia area orchestras. After graduation, he entered the army and served in the Armed Forces orchestra. So well did he manage his military career that frequent performances with the Norfolk & Richmond Symphonies were possible, as well as several successful recitals at the Norfolk and Richmond museums. Peter is the only new 'cellist accepted by the Boston Symphony for next season, and is one of only three new musicians to join that orchestra. In May, Peter will play a recital at Randolph-Macon in Ashland.

Peter will be playing his first performance on a wonderful new cello just purchased after his acceptance by the Boston. It was made in Venice over 200 years ago by Matthew Goffriller. He will have an opportunity to display all its rich, full-throated tone when he plays the lovely Concerto No. 1 in A minor for Violoncello by Saint-Saens.

The Orchestra will play a favorite Beethoven Symphony—No. 6 or Pastoral, and will perform for the first time the symphony No. 33 by Mozart to round out a charming and melodic program of truly great music.

Final concert of the season will be held April 9 at 8:30 p.m. at the Center Theatre when the Norfolk Civic Chorus will present Haydn's "The Seasons". Tickets will be on sale at the Arena box office.

Organized on Feb. 20, 1942, the force lead every major Allied amphibious landing in North Africa and Europe during World War II.

Today, nearly 17,000 men assigned to 58 ships and supporting units make up the force, which teams with the Atlantic Fleet Marine Force to provide a vital amphibious striking capability for the nation. Combat-ready units range the Atlantic, Indian, Arctic and Antarctic Oceans, as well as the Caribbean and Mediterranean Seas.

Wildlife Week Being Observed

Cameron Munden, Game Warden in Princess Anne County, reminds citizens of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County, that this week, March 18-24, is being observed through the country as National Wildlife Week. "This observance," Warden Munden explained, "is sponsored by the National Wildlife Federation and its state affiliate, the Virginia Wildlife Federation, to bring important wildlife problems to the attention of the public."

"The Virginia Game Commission supports this worthwhile activity which this year is emphasizing the problems of the Nation's waterfowl," he said.

"This year's theme, 'Waterfowl for the Future,' is an especially important subject for all sportsmen," Warden Munden emphasized. "Our waterfowl have suffered setback after setback in the past few years until their continued existence depends to a great extent upon the action sportsmen take this year in their behalf."

"Plagued by drought, a natural disaster," Warden Munden continued, "our waterfowl are also being crowded out of the picture by the drainage of wetland areas both on their breeding grounds and along their migration routes in all of our four great flyways." "A positive program backed by all sportsmen and nature lovers is needed to stop the unnecessary drainage and destruction of wetlands and to preserve and improve wetland areas for waterfowl," he concluded.

Warden Munden stated that he would be glad to supply information materials and assistance to any individual or groups that wanted to organize special programs or meetings during Wildlife Week.

Union Kempsville List Honor Roll Students

Listed below are students of Union Kempsville High School who have earned honor roll recognition for the 1st Semester of this school year 1961-62.

To encourage better scholarship, the school has recently upped its honor roll requirements. In addition to an overall average of "B" or better, a student must have no grade mark less than a "C". Heretofore, it was possible for a student to earn an average of "B" with a grade mark of "D". Hence, our honor roll requirements have been up-graded, deleting the "D" from this honor.

These students are to be congratulated for this achievement, and we hope they will continue this excellent record.

Let's go to Church Sunday

Virginia Beach SUN-NEWS
Thursday, March 8, 1962

By The Rev. LeRoy Davis, Pastor
Tabernacle Methodist Church

Lent is a period of time during which disciplined Christians are motivated to re-evaluate their witnessing and to rediscover how they may better respond to the revelation of God in Christ. The Lenten season affords a period of time during which spiritual preparations for Easter are effected, and the calling of the earthly families of God's children in Christ to sacrificial penitence.

I believe the Lenten season embodies a threefold plea to each of us. What is our response to these calls?

I. "Come Unto Me."
All of us are involved in a swirl of loyalties, demands, and forces of uncertainties. We need to get off this merry-go-round of confusion and despair, but for most of us the "when?", "where?", and "how?" go unanswered.

When we, like the Prodigal Son, come to ourselves, that is, when we see ourselves in the floodlight of God's nature and will as reflected in the totality of Christ, we shall see whom we are contrasted against the backdrop of whom we can and ought to become. We are called to give an affirmative and positive response to the clarion call of Christ, "Come Unto Me."

Over the worship center in our parsonage hangs one of the most beautiful, though less familiar of Warner Sallman's paintings—"Follow Thou Me."

What does this mean in the every-day language of man? Within each of us there is a set of core values, sometimes far different from those bared by our oral and overt witnessing. To "follow Jesus" is to: 1. examine these basic values within us to ascertain if they are compatible with the nature and will of God as revealed in the total life of Christ; 2. bring into harmony with the highest claims of the Christian faith those values within which we are in disharmony; and 3. express through the utterances of our lips and the activities of our hands the activities of our hearts to the nature and will of God.

"Happy is this thought:
There is a guide for me,
Who in his living flesh
Has given me the perfect
Image that I seek of God."

By—Toyohiko Kagawa

We know we are reconciled to God in Christ when His spirit witnesses with our spirit that we are His.

III. "Learn of Me."

Apart from the idealistic laws by which He is well known, Jesus remains relatively unimportant until we answer one question to the satisfaction of our highest and noblest drives—"Whom do you say that I am?"

In the record of his affirmations, Jesus, the Son of God, declared, "I am the door and the way." . . . "the truth" . . . "the true vine" . . . "the good Shepherd" . . . "the light" . . . "the resurrection and the life" . . . "the alpha and the omega," etc. It is not until we accept by faith Jesus' declaration that Father and I are one; it is not until we accept by faith that His teachings, His ministry, His total life was the full and perfect expression of God's nature and will; it is not until we accept by faith that peace without cannot be had until there is peace within, that the fullness of our insufficiency is acknowledged. One of the frescoes in the Rockefeller Center in New York contains these words, "Man's ultimate destiny depends not on whether he can learn new lessons or make new discoveries and conquests, but upon his acceptance of the lesson taught him close upon two thousand years ago."

The whole Christian interpretation of Lent may be summarized in the shadow of the "Old Rugged Cross." The vertical shaft pointing skyward calls all hearers and believers to "love the Lord they God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind." The cross members calls our attention to the second half of the Great Commandment "love thy neighbor as thyself."

"Is it (Lent) nothing to you, all ye who pass by?"
"Let us exalt His Holy Name, And sing with one accord; This gospel to the world proclaim."

That JESUS CHRIST IS LORD!

Let us pray: Almighty and everlasting God, whose love for all Thy children is shown by Thy forgiving grace, grant mercy unto everyone who calls upon Thee in the name of Thy Son. Help us, O Lord, to walk uprightly, following the living example of our blessed Lord. Protect us as Thy children, disturb us as Thy disciples, seek us as Thy erring sheep, and unite us with Thy bonds of redeeming love. As we approach the threshold of this Lenten season, reconcile us unto Thyself that our lives may glorify Thy Son, our Lord and Saviour; through Jesus the Christ we pray. Amen.

In the quiet safety of her own home she is learning to pray, to trust in God. As she grows older she will learn that other people pray too; that other people have faith.

Sunday School will thrill her from the very first day, and her faith will grow as she learns more of the Heavenly Father's love. The Church, with its beautiful sanctuary, its inspiring music, its worshipful atmosphere, will give her a sense of reverence, of nearness to God.

As she grows, her love for the Church and for God will grow too. All through life the faith she learned when she was a tiny girl will provide a sanctuary and protect her during the many trials of life.

Are YOU helping YOUR child acquire this abiding faith?

music, its worshipful atmosphere, will

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in the life of the individual. It is a place where one can find the answers to the questions of life. It is a place where one can find the love of God and the love of his fellow men. It is a place where one can find the peace and the joy of the Christian life. It is a place where one can find the strength and the courage to face the challenges of the world. It is a place where one can find the hope and the faith that are the foundation of the Christian religion. It is a place where one can find the light and the truth that are the essence of the Christian faith. It is a place where one can find the life and the meaning that are the purpose of the Christian existence. It is a place where one can find the love and the grace that are the gifts of the Holy Spirit. It is a place where one can find the peace and the joy that are the fruits of the Christian life. It is a place where one can find the strength and the courage that are the gifts of the Christian faith. It is a place where one can find the hope and the faith that are the foundation of the Christian religion. The MIXING BOWL ...

IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food fads and fables... for practical, down-to-earth recipes that please both palate and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

The Lenten season brings to many a homemaker a big challenge of her culinary talents. She must follow the fasting rules during the 40-day period, yet keep her family happy with interesting and nourishing menus.

It's easy to create variety with just four items that store conveniently on the pantry shelf... canned tuna, pimiento-stuffed olives, macaroni products and evaporated milk. They combine beautifully into substantial main dishes the family will relish.

With evaporated milk, a smooth creamy cheese sauce can be prepared in only three minutes because of the butter blending qualities of this concentrated form of milk. Adding both delicious flavor and extra nutrients, the sauce is excellent used in a Lenten Loaf or baked with other ingredients of the "magic" 4 in casserole dishes.

Parsley-Lenten Loaf

(Makes about 8 servings)
4 eggs
1/2 cup sliced pimiento-stuffed olives
2 tablespoons grated onion
2 cans (6 1/2 to 7 ounces each) tuna, drained and flaked
1 cup soft bread crumbs
1 tablespoon salt
3 quarts boiling water
2 cups elbow macaroni (8-ozs.)
2 1/2 cups 3-Minute Cheese Sauce
1/4 cup melted butter
1/2 cup chopped parsley
Beat eggs slightly. Add olives, onion, tuna and bread crumbs. Add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add macaroni so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander. Combine egg mixture, macaroni, cheese sauce, butter and parsley. Line bottom of 9"x5"x3" pan with aluminum foil. Butter foil well. Turn macaroni mixture into pan. Bake in moderate oven (350°) 1 hour to 1 hour, 55 minutes. May be served warm or cold. Garnish with additional sliced olives and parsley, if desired.

Tuna in Noodle Nest

(Makes 6 servings)
1 tablespoon salt
3 quarts boiling water
8 ounces wide egg noodles (about 4 cups)
2 cans (6 1/2 to 7 ounces each) tuna, drained and flaked
1/2 cup sliced pimiento-stuffed olives
1/4 cup chopped celery
2 1/2 cups 3-Minute Cheese Sauce
2 tablespoons fine dry bread crumbs
1 tablespoon butter
Add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add noodles so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander.

Combine tuna, olives, celery and cheese sauce. Turn noodles into buttered 2 1/2-quart casserole and press against sides to form "nest". Fill center with tuna mixture. Top with bread crumbs and dot with 1 tablespoon butter. Bake in moderate oven (350°) 30 minutes or until lightly browned.

For 2 1/2 cups 3-Minute Cheese Sauce: Simmer 1 1/2 cups (large can) undiluted evaporated milk with 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon dry mustard and 1 tablespoon prepared horseradish in saucepan over low heat to just below boiling (about 2 minutes). Add 2 cups (about 8 ounces) grated process Cheddar cheese. Stir over low heat until cheese melts (about 1 minute longer).

TUNA AMANDINE

2 7-oz. cans tuna
2 1/2 tablespoons flour
2 1/2 tablespoons butter
2 1/2 cups milk
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper (optional)
1/4 cup grated Cheddar cheese
1 8-oz. package medium wide noodles
1/4 cup chopped pimiento
1/2 cup toasted sliced almonds

Makes a thin cream sauce using flour, butter and milk, season with salt and pepper. Remove from heat and blend in 1/2 cup of the grated cheese. Cook noodles in boiling salted water until tender. Rinse in hot water and drain. Add noodles to sauce with pimiento and 1/4 cup almonds.

Drain the oil from the tuna and break apart. Fold into noodle mixture gently. Pour into 6-cup casserole. Sprinkle 1/4 cup of cheese and the rest of the almonds. Bake in moderate oven (375°) for 20 minutes or until bubbly.

ARMED FORCES LEGAL CONFERENCE SLATED

WILLIAMSBURG — The Second Annual Conference on Legal Assistance to Armed Forces will be held next Thursday at 10 a.m. at the Williamsburg Lodge in Williamsburg.

The conference will be presented by the Virginia State Bar Committee on Legal Service to the Armed Forces; the Federal Bar Association's Fourth District; the American Bar Association's Standing Committee on legal assistance for servicemen; Armed Forces Legal Assistance Chiefs and the Judge Advocate General's School of the U. S. Army.

CIVIC ORCHESTRA PLANS PROGRESS

VIRGINIA BEACH — A Virginia Beach Civic Orchestra is in the making through the efforts of the Virginia Beach Civic Chorus. The group meets each Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the Hardin School of Music, 312-35th St., to discuss plans for the new project.

Residents and military service personnel are invited to join the orchestra. Instruments in demand are violins, bass fiddles, guitars, clarinets, saxophones, trumpets and drums.

The orchestra's first undertaking will be to assist the Civic Chorus in the presentation of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Trial by Jury" early this spring.

Frank Ferrigno, business manager of the Virginia Beach Civic Chorus, stated that preparations for the new City of Virginia Beach should include plans for developing a Civic Orchestra and Civic Chorus that would be second to none.

Home Show Committee

Key Personnel Named as Directors For Annual Home Show May 11-13

NORFOLK—S. P. Cominaki, general chairman of the Tidewater Association of Home Builders Home Show, has announced the appointment of special directors for the forthcoming home show to take place at the Municipal Arena in Norfolk on May 11, 12 and 13.

They include William E. Witt, director of a local booth sales; Lawrence J. Goldrich, director of booth sales at a national level; William Sutton, director special advertising displays; George Clayton Shoemaker, director of door prizes and special gift promotions; Thomas Matthews, director of the complete advertising program; Ben Britt, director of the model home contest in secondary schools; Estelle Dolgins, home show director.

Frederick Napolitano, past president of TAHB, is acting as special advisor to the Home Show Committee.

Cominaki reports that booth sales have been going very well, but some exhibit space is still available. Anyone interested in participating in the show can contact the special home show office at 625-0381 or Rear Adm. L. T. Newall, USNR (Ret.), executive director of TAHB, at JU 7-6062.

This will be the 4th Annual Home Show to be presented by TAHB as both a consumer and trade show.

'Fireball' Roberts Must Win Charlotte 600 to Set Record

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — One of NASCAR's all-time great race drivers, Glenn "Fireball" Roberts, said this week he hopes to become the first "grand slam" winner of major league late model automobile races.

Roberts needs a win in the third annual World 600 race at Charlotte Motor Speedway on Sunday, May 27, to become the first NASCAR driver to score victories at all 4 of NASCAR's super speedways. The World 600 is a 600-mile marathon and is the longest late model auto race in the world. It carries a purse in excess of $100,000 for the drivers.

The Fireball completed the third leg of his "grand slam" bid when he won the 1962 Daytona Beach, Fla. Previous wins for the 31-year-old Roberts came at Atlanta, Ga. in 1960 and at Darlington, S. C. in 1958. Both of these were also 500-mile races.

Roberts describes his Daytona win before his hometown audiences as his "greatest thrill so far in racing," but the veteran of 14 years on race tracks is quick to add, "My ambition now is to win the World 600."

Roberts has come close in only one of four long-distance races at Charlotte. He finished second to 26-year-old David Pearson of Spartanburg, S.C. in the 1961 World 600. Three other bids for victory on the mile-and-a-half Charlotte course ended in badly-wrecked cars for Roberts, even though he has led every Charlotte race to date.

Meanwhile, as Roberts prepares a 1962 Pontiac for this year's World 600, speedway officials report that the advance sale of reserved grandstand tickets is running ahead of 1961 sales. Tickets and ticket information are available through the speedway's main offices, 108 Liberty Life Bldg., Charlotte, N.C.

TAHB Ladies Hear Kellam

NORFOLK — The February meeting of the Tidewater Assn. of Home Builders Women's Auxiliary was held February 21 at the Black Angus Restaurant on Little Creek Road.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. W. E. Witt, President, and much of the discussion concerned the Women's Housing Congress to be held March 26 at Princess Anne High School.

Mrs. Witt explained that over 1,000 women were expected and that the help of each member would be needed.

Also discussed were plans for a St. Patrick's Day dance to be held March 17 at the Admiralty Motel. An Irish jig contest will be featured.

"Work Together": Kellam Following the luncheon, a delightful speech was made by Sidney Kellam, Democratic Chairman of Princess Anne County. Mr. Kellam painted a glowing picture of the beauty and "advantages of Virginia and foresaw an even greater future for the state. He said that each area should work together towards that goal and an even greater Tidewater would be the result. "Only by working together will we be strong," asserted Mr. Kellam.

Mrs. Horace Cistola presented Mr. Kellam with a copy of the current best seller, "Chairman of the Board," along with the Auxiliary's thanks for attending.

Sales Rally Set In Norfolk April 4

Recently the Norfolk-Portsmouth Sales Executive Club announced their annual Sales Rally to be held on April 4, 1962, at 8 P.M. at the Center Theater, Norfolk.

Henry T. Rogerson, Chairman Ticket Sales, said headline speakers are being flown to Norfolk from New York and Mexico City for this event. Featured will be Benjamin U. Dugas, National Director of Training, Pepsi Cola Company and Dave Johnson, President, Future Unlimited, respectively.

This year's theme is, "Words and Actions that Sell For You" and is open to everyone interested in sales at $1.75 per ticket. Rogerson will inaugurate club activities at a special Coffee Rally at 8:30 A.M. on March 7, 1962, at the Lafayette Yacht Club in Norfolk.

BEACH MUSIC CLUB MEETING MARCH 16

VIRGINIA BEACH — The Virginia Beach Music Club will meet March 16 at 3 p.m. at the home of Mrs. W. F. Crockett on Pochontas Drive with Mrs. Goldsborough Robinson, president, presiding. Mrs. Roland Thorp will serve as co-hostess.

The entire program will be devoted to a showing of stereo projections of bell towers and carillons in this country and the Netherlands by Virginia Beach composer Johan Franco who for the past ten years has been particularly busy writing music for carillon and was honored by the Guild of Carillonneurs in North America with an Associate membership.

THE business of working in ABC-TV's "Leave It to Beaver" is one of those things that separate the men from the boys. The men are the boys who, toward the end of each day, can be found collapsed on dressing room cots between scenes, hopefully munching pop pills. The boys, such as 18-year-old Tony Dow, can very likely be found leaping vigorously about on the basketball court set up in one corner of the sound stage that housed the "Beaver" sets.

Despite his daily eight-hour grind before the camera and in the schoolroom, which is also located on-stage, Tony always has plenty of vim left over for basketball, vaulting the furniture and other energetic forms of skylarking. Not surprisingly, Tony's chief interest, besides acting, is sports, which account for his lean, wiry frame and fine conditioning. His specialty is aquatic. He has been swimming since age three and is an ardent body surfer, surfboarder, skin diver and water skier.

He is a championship-caliber springboard diver and, on terra firma, also excels at tumbling and trampolining. More in the show biz line, he plays piano and accordion and can dance with considerable authority. Tony's favorite weekend and vacation spot is Catalina Island, off the Southern California coast, where he's buying a cottage under the supervision of his parents. His 16-foot power boat there sees frequent water-skiing duty. Tony, a native Hollywoodian, was "discovered" when he was 12 by actor-neighbor, Bill Bryant, who was influential in having him cast in two pilot TV films. But it wasn't until he was chosen by Joe Connelly and Bob Mosher for his role of Jerry Mathers' (Beaver) elder brother that he began acting regularly.

As the pace of life in our nation accelerates, so apparently does our crime rate. According to the F.B.I.'s latest annual report, crime is increasing four times faster than our population growth. There were four serious crimes committed every minute last year, and almost twice as many crimes were recorded in 1960 as a decade ago. Robbery and burglary, larceny theft, and auto theft, in particular, have maintained a steady upward trend, increasing 18%, 14% and 9% respectively in a year. Approximately three hundred million dollars in money and property was stolen last year, a large portion of which was taken from business establishments and residents.

Area Development Progress
Princess Anne and Virginia Beach citizens are getting big ideas for developing area potentials. Telephone calls and letters are received each day with ideas which need attention by the Area Development Committee.

If you have an idea of a potential which may be developed for the future success of the City, please write me your thinking.

The official opening of this program will be presented to the committee members at Princess Anne High School at 7:00 p.m. on March 14th.

Plans For Wheel-Track Planting of Corn

At the Extension Agronomy Planning Committee held this week plans were made for three demonstrations to be conducted by the Extension Service in Princess Anne this year, showing the wheel-track method or minimum-tillage method of producing corn.

One demonstration will be held on Pungo Ridge, one in the Blackwater District and one on the five-mile stretch near Princess Anne Courthouse.

The same method will be used on all three locations and at each location there will be a comparison made with the conventional method of corn production.

The same variety of corn will be used in all six tests and this will be furnished by Paul McKown of Bayside, Virginia, who represents the DeKalb Company in this area. Many thanks to Paul for his contribution in the demonstrations.

COPPER SULPHATE DEMONSTRATIONS STARTED

Farmers have been reading a lot about fabulous results in North Carolina with the use of copper sulphate on small grain.

Two demonstrations were started last week. One on the farm of Robert White, the other on Howard Salmons' farm. These two demonstrations will show the effect of copper-sulphate and zinc applied to small grain in the spring. All other practices will be the same.

At this time it is not recommended that farmers apply either of these trace minerals to their small-grain crop.

MORE DOLLARS FROM CORN THROUGH HOGS

Last week Roger Sawyer attended with the Extension Agents a swine meeting in Suffolk to determine the future potential of hogs in Southeastern Virginia. At this meeting it was found that more dollars could be received from a corn crop by feeding it through hogs than by selling it as a cash crop.

A meeting will be held in the not too distant future on various means of handling corn in Princess Anne County. To be discussed at this meeting will be not only the various methods of putting corn through hogs but also feeding steer.

The marketing of corn through livestock seems to be the best way of receiving the greatest net profit from your corn crop.

Extension Program Planned

Extension Planning Committees have completed conducting the Annual Planning Meetings for the various commodities of economic importance. Yesterday the various committee chairmen met with Joe Burroughs and John Salmons, the agricultural council chairman and vice-chairman, and coordinated these committee programs into one agricultural Extension program. This program will be presented to all committee members on March 15th.

300 GILTS FOR SALE

On March 14th at the Tidewater Sales Pavilion in Courtland, Virginia, there will be the biggest hog sale ever held in Virginia to my knowledge. There will be straight-bred gilts and crosses from all the major breeds for sale. In addition to the gilt sale, there will be a special spotlight sale featuring thirty of the top boars available in the State of Virginia.

This is an excellent opportunity for hog producers to secure top quality U.S. No. 1 gilts at reasonable prices. I recommend this sale very highly because of its quality and very strict health requirements to be eligible for the sale.

MINIMUM-CORN TILLAGE MEETING FOR FARMERS

On March 22nd there will be two meetings for farmers on Minimum-Corn Tillage and Wheel-Track Planting. One meeting will be in the afternoon and the other at night. The same information will be presented at both meetings. You choose the time most convenient to you. Times and places will be announced later.

W. W. Lewis, V.P.I. Agronomist, will discuss the reduction in cost in using minimum tillage and the actual production practices.

Easley Smith, V.P.I. Agricultural Engineer, will discuss with the aid of slides changes necessary in equipment.

Allen Kates, V.P.I. Weed Specialist, will discuss new weed control materials and practices.

BEEF IMPORTANT TO THE COUNTY

Beef cattle is increasing in economic importance of late. Several new herds are coming into being. The most recent being to be established in Princess Anne were started this winter by Howard Salmons of Back Bay and Ernest Hardee. Both are Angus Herds of extremely good quality. Ernest has recently purchased two tremendous Angus bulls and he has a couple of other bulls there at the farm that are for sale.

Mr. Ernest Edmondson also has an excellent pure-bred, registered, short-horn bull which he would like to sell or trade to another farmer for a Hereford bull. Anyone interested in bulls see me or these boys.

FEED GRAIN MEETING

Farmers had an opportunity to learn the latest information on the 1962 Feed Grain Program. Norman Beal of the ASCS Office conducted the meeting for all farmers on March 6th.

FEEDER CALF SALE PLANS MADE

Beef cattle producers from Princess Anne made plans Tuesday for the 1962 Petersburg Feeder-Calf Sale. R. P. Midgett, the county's leading calf producer, is director of the Feeder-Calf Producers Assn.

MERGER TREND HITS 4-H

Timely 4-H's in Princess Anne and Norfolk counties are keeping up-to-date with the current merger moves.

This small scale merger, however, involved only one 4-H activity. 4-H's from both counties have agreed to work together on the Annual 4-H Rural Life Sunday observance.

This event, which will occur in late spring, will be a joint affair of the two counties to recognize the spiritual goals of 4-H by conducting special services at 4-H Camp Farrar at Virginia Beach.

GOVERNOR'S GREETINGS

To the 4-H Members of Virginia:

It is a pleasure to send greetings to the seventy-one thousand Virginia 4-H members and four thousand, six hundred adult volunteer leaders who are observing national 4-H Club Week, March 3-10. The theme: "Learn, Live, Serve," through 4-H offers many opportunities to tell the 4-H story in your community and your State.

As you develop new skills, as you test new ideas, and as you find better ways of applying science to agriculture and to home economics, you are both learning and growing in stature. Your work in the 4-H clubs will help develop maturity of judgement, good citizenship and qualities of leadership for successful citizens tomorrow.

PRINCESS ANNE ALL-STARS MEET

On Monday, February 26, a group of All Stars from Princess Anne County met in the County Agent's Office to draft a plan of work for the coming fiscal year. Lankford Malbon, Stanley Oliver, and Rev. Eugene Arrington, all 4-H Alumni All Star representatives, along with Virginia Kelly and Ginger Oliver, present 4-H Club members & the county Extension Agents, worked together in planning the role of the Princess Anne County All Stars. Major items of business to be brought out at this meeting were the nominations of new members for the All Star Chapter for the coming year, a discussion of the role of the All Star chapter, in connection with a 4-H Honor Club, which is in the planning stages in Princess Anne County. Other matters such as: making plans for 4-H Rural Life Sunday, All-Star Week-end, and other 4-H events were also on the agenda. The Princess Anne County All-Stars are a select group in our midst. In order to become a member of the All-Star chapter, a member must have done an outstanding job in 4-H Club work as well as meet rigid requirements of outstanding character, personality, loyalty, honesty, morality, and many other qualifications.

COMING EVENTS

"What About Fallout Shelters in the Suburbs?" This question was the obvious choice for the first topic in our Round Table series, in the course of which we plan to get local, firsthand reports on subjects of vital concern to the 50,000,000 of us who live in the suburbs. We queried a panel of editors and publishers of suburban newspapers selected from various parts of the country and then asked reporter George Fielding Eliot to pull together the answers. In future issues we will hold similar Round Tables on other problems, such as air and water pollution, open spaces, and public health.

There's still plenty of time left before the spring holidays to send for the printed patterns—created by four famous designers for us alone—and sew yourself a new wardrobe. Estévez' coat-and-dress ensemble, Davidow's three-piece suit, Hulitar's sheath, and Gothé's dress with jacket will adapt beautifully to a variety of silks, cottons, and lightweight wools.

Everything's Coming Up Rosy . . . page 18

This year, says garden editor John Brimer, why not produce a perfectly pink garden, from the first spring flowers to frost. It's tricky, but there's great fun in watching the results.

GETTING AROUND

. . . to Our Pleasant Places and People

WHATEVER ELSE he plans to do this year to mark the occasion, it's a pretty safe bet that on St. Patrick's Day Warren Weber will not be giving out any free car washes to green automobiles. Mr. Weber, who owns a chain of automatic car washes in Manchester and Wethersfield, Connecticut, offered to wash, free, any all-green car between the hours of 8:00 a. m., and 5:30 p. m., last March 17. At closing time, that fateful day, the dazed Mr. Weber discovered his organization had washed 1,600 automobiles, or $3,000 worth of greenery.

It's hard to keep up with the latest catchwords among the stag line on the junior-high beat. Though it may be out of date by the time we go to press, we learn from David Black and Alan Betha, of Grosse Pointe, Michigan, that the hippest term for dates, girls, dames, skirts (all old hat), is "waste."

Mrs. G. K. Martin, Sr., of Harris County, Texas, writes to tell us about a party at which a $25 prize was offered to any man who had a picture of his mother-in-law in his wallet. There were, says Mrs. Martin, no winners.

One thoughtful boy at the Bradley School in Montgomery County, Maryland, celebrated his own birthday some months ago by giving a book to the school library. Since then, so many other scholars have followed suit that the gesture has become a new Bradley tradition. It's a happy way to keep a school library up-to-date, and we hope it spreads like wildfire all over the country.

Mr. I. E. Smith, of Berkeley, California, learned a valuable lesson in semantics while listening to a conversation between a prekindergartener and his younger friend. "Okay," Mr. Smith heard the first boy say, "you can come along if you'll cooperate. And cooperate means you have to do what I say."

A friend who lives near South Orange, New Jersey, was as amused as we were by the information on the door of a government building. Neatly lettered, it reads (up and down): 4156, General Services Administration, Region 3, Public Building Service, Buildings Management Division, Utility Room, Custodial. Our friend informs us that anyone opening this impressive door will find a broom closet on the other side.

Mrs. Jeanne K. Barnett, of Alexandria, Virginia, writes to tell us about a government employee friend of hers who has found an ingenious way to avoid morning-traffic jams on the bridges leading from his Montgomery County, Maryland, home to his office in Langley, Virginia. He simply bought a canoe. Now each morning, while others fight the traffic, he parks his car near the Potomac River, paddles across in his boat, and strolls leisurely through the woods to his nearby office.

The automobile, according to a Westbury, New York, reader, has proved to be a great moral force in America because it has stopped a lot of horse stealing.

Here's a great idea that should comfort any Dade County and Broward County, Florida, mothers who may have to spend some time in Miami's Mercy Hospital. Although the rules against children visiting in their parents' rooms are still strictly enforced, the hospital has rigged up a closed-circuit television system whereby a child takes a seat in the reception room and a tv camera in the ceiling picks up his image and beams it to a set by his mother's bedside. He and Mom then visit on the telephone, while Mom watches him on the screen. The youngster, in turn, sees himself on a monitor, so it's great fun all around.

Although he's in Japan with the U. S. Air Force, Airman 2-c William H. Blakely, of Randolph, Massachusetts, won't feel lonely for a long time to come. Whenever he misses home, all he has to do is whip out his letter and read it for a few days. It all started some time ago when two of Airman Blakely's pen pals decided to start a letter to him on a roll of wallpaper. Everyone who came into the house was invited to add to the letter, which finally turned into a long chronicle of recent events in the lives of Airman Blakely's family, neighbors, and contemporaries. The pen pals then rolled up the wallpaper, put it in a cylinder (after filling the empty space with a candy and nut dividend), and sent it off to the lucky serviceman stationed way around on the other side of the world.

Editors' note: Here are the men who make up this round table on the question of fallout shelters in the suburbs—a select panel of editors and publishers of leading suburban papers chosen from communities that are representative of their regions from New England to the Coast, from Michigan to Florida. The answers to our questions were impressive in terms of concern over the problem, and just as impressive was the wide variety of opinions. A well-known reporter and military analyst gives you the gist of their findings here, against a background of the national picture as observed by the writer. We hope it will help you in reaching your own conclusions.

What About Fallout

Newspapermen report from all over the country in SUBURBIA TODAY'S

Edited by GEORGE FIELDING ELIOT

WHAT DO YOU think about building shelters in which you and your family could seek protection against radioactive fallout if a nuclear attack should be launched against this country? Should each family have its own shelter where this is possible? Should there be large community shelters? Shelters in schools and public buildings? Does the whole idea of fallout shelters represent reasonable disaster insurance, or is it an illusion, a giant boondoggle, even a cruel hoax?

We have asked newspaper people and housewives and commuters for their opinion and for a report on what their towns are doing, and their answers, from all over the country, make three points clear at once:

1. There is no solid consensus for or against a shelter program.
2. The climate of interest yo-yos with the temperature of the cold war.
3. There is a fairly widespread tendency to ascribe lack of interest to absence of strong federal direction and federal funding.

The Ready-Made Shelter

Several editors, however, noted some quickening of interest when teams of the National Shelter Survey appeared locally. The 1961 Congress appropriated federal funds for these teams to identify and mark spaces in existing buildings, tunnels, and other structures which, with minor alterations, would be suited for fallout shelters, and to stock these spaces with nonperishable rations, water, first-aid kits, and radiological detection devices. It is estimated that 50,000,000 people could be sheltered in such spaces, many of which are located in suburban areas and within easy reach.

And how many new shelters are the towns going to build, with state and federal help? As an example of the present confusion in suburban plans, consider the records of four Midwest suburban communities, all in the same county: Community No. 1 announced eagerly, "We are planning a crash program"; No. 2 cut its civil defense budget by nearly two-thirds—"No need for more"; No. 3 tripled its civil defense spending; No. 4 reported "No plan, no funds."

As the replies to our questionnaires came in, we found much controversy on one central question: Will nationwide building of fallout shelters make a nuclear attack on this country more likely, or less likely? In one form or another, this question was obviously present in the minds of many editors and others whose opinions were noted. To this reporter, who has been writing on military subjects for a third of a century, it was encouraging indeed to see how clearly, from coast to coast, people seem to understand the root-element of our nuclear defense policy: to deter the Soviet leadership, who alone can launch a nuclear attack on the United States, from ever considering such an attack by keeping them convinced that they cannot hope to escape devastating retaliation in kind.

One editor said bluntly we'd do better to spend our money for retaliatory force or for developing a reliable antimissile weapon such as the Army's projected Nike-Zeus. Other comment echoed this view. Several thought that a shelter program would downgrade our national morale—perhaps encourage the Soviet leaders in their nuclear blackmail tactics. "We're unwittingly building a panic-button psychology" . . . "If shelters become a national obsession, they'll damage American moral fiber more than communism ever could."

Yet quite a number of thoughtful replies faced up to another aspect of the problem—that if, despite the threat of our retaliatory forces, a nuclear attack does come, fallout shelters would save many lives, perhaps many millions of lives, which would otherwise be lost. There seemed general understanding that people within the blast and fire radius of a thermonuclear explosion would certainly be killed. But comparatively simple shelters could give protection against the otherwise lethal effect of radioactive fallout, which could spread over thousands of square miles, covering a far greater area than that of blast and fire. "We ought to give these people a chance," was one comment, typical of several others supporting President Kennedy's statement: "We owe that kind of insurance to our families and our country."

After Survival, What?

But what happens to these survivors when they emerge from their shelters after, say, two weeks—the period usually mentioned for allowing the worst of the fallout to deteriorate? "What kind of world will they survive into? Where will they find uncontaminated food and shelter? To whom will they turn?"

Behind such questions was apparent the feeling that fallout shelters might not mean too much unless linked with a national survival program involving far more elaborate planning and spending than is at present proposed. Two editors sent clippings quoting Senator Stephen M. Young (D, Shelters in the Suburbs?

first Round Table on the questions that concern 50,000,000 of us

Ohio) on civil defense—"a billion-dollar boondoggle." Another, following the same approach, feared that once everyone had shelter against fallout, there would develop irresistible demands for shelter against blast and fire—to satisfy which might absorb the bulk of our national resources, wrecking both our military power and the economy that supports it. Another comment inquired what was the real difference between "death-day now and death-day two weeks or three weeks from now—if the bombs come, we're all lost." One meeting called to consider shelter building wound up with everyone present taking refuge in song—"We'll all go together when we go."

There was a tendency to prefer community shelters to private (do-it-yourself) shelters, as likely to give better protection. Also, "There'll be some sort of leadership, some emergency skills in a group, people will come out better prepared to face what comes next." This opinion wasn't universal. Three comments pointed out that ill or otherwise handicapped people might not be able to get to a community shelter. One southern lady cherished family privacy—"No enemy is going to compel me and mine to tend to our basic bodily functions in public for two minutes, let alone two weeks." Another, owner of a cooperative apartment in California, said firmly: "I'll take my chances with fallout sooner than be cooped up for two weeks with the rest of the people in this house."

There was concern as to what would happen if the warning came when the family was separated—children at school, father at work, mother out shopping, etc. Would everyone be able to get home and into the shelter in time? A suggestion: Each family should have alternate meeting points arranged, so that if they were separated by having

"Wilson, as the newest addition to our executive staff, I hereby present you with a key to the company fallout shelter."

to take shelter in different places, their reunion could be assured after the danger had passed. Other comments touched on the question of whether the owner of a family shelter has the right to turn away shelterless neighbors. Of a group of West Coast ministers queried by a suburban daily, half said No, 11% said Yes, the others seemed uncertain. A southern comment: "How safe will anyone be in a private shelter if there is no other, with shocked, angry, savage, hungry people outside?" Several editors noted a tendency to keep the building of private shelters secret, perhaps because of such fears as this.

A vocal minority opinion opposed a shelter program of any kind on the ground that once you accept the idea of shelters you are accepting the feasibility of nuclear war and reinforcing those who believe war is inevitable. All effort, in this view, should be directed toward the abolition of nuclear weapons by agreement, and the settlement of international disputes by peaceful means.

Thus, having boxed the compass of opinion, we come back to the fundamental truth that the interests of America will best be served, not by seeking survival after nuclear attack for X% of our people but by preventing any such attack.

On balance this appears to represent a fair mean of opinion amongst the inhabitants of our suburban communities. They are aware of their vulnerability; they know that living in heavily peopled metropolitan regions increases that vulnerability to some extent. They see some sense in trying to save lives if war should come—as one editor wrote, "We would not want to have it on our conscience to advise against shelter building." But in the final analysis, the prevention of war rather than partial survival afterward is the purpose which seems likely to be given the highest priority in suburbia as elsewhere in the nation.

Tips on WOOD FINISHING

Floors never need rescrapping

When you put the finish in the wood—not just on it—your floors will last a lifetime. Minwax goes deep into the wood . . . leaves no brittle surface to scratch or mar. You have a choice of Natural Minwax or a wide range of color tones. Maintain with liquid wax and you never have to refinish your floors.

Today's trend is to paneling

Easy-to-use Minwax brings out wood's natural beauty. Simply apply Minwax Wood Finish to the panel after sanding it thoroughly. Then add a light touch of Minwax Finishing Wax. The result is a rich, hand-rubbed look. For authentic Colonial effects, try Cherry, Ipswich or Puritan Pine. Modern effects include Driftwood, Straw or Spruce Gray.

Unfinished furniture

Minwax imparts a rich, warm glow to unfinished furniture . . . cabinets . . . new shelves and wood trim. Choose wood with uniform grain and sand silk-smooth. Finish as above in your choice of Minwax quick-drying colors.

For over 50 years Minwax Wood Finishes have been the standard of quality with architects, custom builders and antique dealers. Also economical and easy to use are Minwax Finishing Wax, liquid or paste, and that wonderful new repair stick for surface scratches—Blend-Fit.

ESTÉVEZ' coat and dress (below and bottom), a lovely ensemble—or they can be worn separately. The coat has a cape effect because of the deep side pleats and is designed with optional slits at the waist through which the dress's wide belt may be passed. The dress has a jacket effect in back and a princess line in front.

Sew Your Own Spring Wardrobe

The outfits you see on these pages come from top fashion designers Hulitar, Estévez, Gothé, and Davidow, and we are happy to be able to offer them to you through printed patterns that are ours alone. They all adapt beautifully to flowered silks and dramatic cottons and lightweight wools, and there's time to order the patterns and to make them up, fitted to the last perfect inch, for Easter and your spring holiday. Use the handy coupon below.

DAVIDOW makes this easy-fitting suit with a straight skirt and a box jacket that has twin flap pockets. The lining of the jacket matches the waist-length overblouse with the big tie, which completes the three-piece outfit. Suit-M139, blouse-M150.

Along the road to growing up, many girls face the Tampax decision. It's a very personal decision, and one that the girl must make herself. Certainly no one else can insist that a girl use Tampax, if she doesn't want to. If she does want to, it's because she realizes the advantages of internal sanitary protection are very real. Invisible in place. No belts, pins, pads. No bulk, no odor, no disposal problems. Can be worn while bathing or showering. Almost eliminates differences in days of the month.

Tampax® is far and away the leading brand of internal protection. Made of pure surgical cotton, lock-stitched for safety. Fastidiously guarded by a satin-smooth applicator. Nicier, neater, easier to use. Your choice of 3 absorbency sizes (Regular, Super, Junior) wherever such products are sold.

We Have These Slides

Hi, Ethel! Hi, Fred! Come in!
You're a sight for sore eyes . . .
Well, we have a surprise—
Now, just let me tell them, dear.

We've been on a tour of the world!
We've been on a marvelous trip!
And we have slides which portray
Our seventeen-day
Cruise on a luxury ship!

Hm? . . . Well, we have these slides, as I say.
No—we're not playing bridge, as expected,
For since someone must look At the pictures we took,
You and Fred are elected.

[Slight pause]

The first slide is in!
The fun can begin!
Just douse that light, will you, Freddie?
Are you folks all set?
Pull your head back, my pet . . .
Okay. I think we're all ready.

[First slide]

Now, this is St. Thomas . . . St. John? . . . No! St. Croix!
As you see, the bay is quite brown.
Our ship pulled in here—
What's that you say, dear? . . .
It's a picture of you, upside down?

[Second slide]

We saw the Bahamas;
We rode upon llamas;
We climbed up Las Los in the dark.
We viewed Martinique;
We had tea with a sheik—
And that's me with one foot on a shark.

[Third slide]

We ran into Milton
At the Guadeloupe-Hilton—
His head is cut off, but that's him!
Boy! That's the life!
And—who? . . . Oh. That's his—er—wife.
They were just going in for a swim.

[One hour passes]

Well, we have plenty more
(Did I hear someone snore?)
But how did you like the first fifty?
. . . Fred! . . . Wake him up, dear,
We have plenty more here
And the next two thousand are nifty!

PAELLA (Spain)

Fine sherry paired with hot clear broth makes a delightful prelude to Paella. Accompany this Spanish favorite with a salad of crisp greens lightly dressed with oil, vinegar, and a suspicion of freshly ground pepper, or a tray of relishes typical of other countries.

TO PREPARE: 25 MIN.

TO COOK: 45 MIN.

- 1 cup olive oil
- 1 2-lb. broiler-fryer chicken, cut in serving-sized pieces
- ½ cup diced boiled ham or smoky sausage
- 1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
- 2 cloves garlic, crushed in a garlic press or minced
- 2 ripe tomatoes, peeled and coarsely chopped
- 1½ lbs. fresh shrimp, shelled, deveined under running cold water, and drained
- 12 small clams in shells, shells scrubbed
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- 2 cups uncooked rice
- 4 cups hot water
- 1 cup fresh or frozen green peas
- ¼ cup coarsely chopped parsley
- Few shreds saffron
- 1 rock lobster tail, cooked and meat cut in pieces or 1 pkg. frozen crab meat, thawed, drained, and bony tissue removed
- 1 7-oz. can or jar whole pimientos

1. Heat the olive oil in a paellera or a large skillet. Add chicken and ham and cook about 10 min., turning chicken to brown on all sides. Add onion and garlic and cook 2 min.
2. Add next four ingredients; cover and cook 5 to 10 min., or until clam shells open. Remove clams and keep warm.
3. Stir rice into mixture. Add water, peas, parsley, and saffron. Cover and cook 25 min., or until rice is just tender, stirring occasionally.
4. Mix in the lobster or crab meat, half of the pimiento, and the clams in shells; heat until very hot. Serve garnished with the remaining pimiento.

8 to 10 servings

Note: The ripe olive garnish in the photo is for eye-appeal.

SWISS CHEESE APPETIZER TARTS (Switzerland)

TO PREPARE: 40 MIN.

TO BAKE: 10-15 MIN.

- Pastry for a 2-crust pie
- 1½ teaspoons butter
- 2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
- ½ cup (2 oz.) grated Swiss cheese
- 1 egg, slightly beaten
- ½ cup thick sour cream
- ½ teaspoon prepared mustard
- ½ teaspoon salt
- Few grains cayenne pepper

1. Set out muffin pans having twenty-four 1½-in. wells.
2. Prepare pastry. Roll dough on a lightly floured surface about ¼ in. thick; cut 3-in. rounds and fit into muffin-pan wells. Press edges with a fork and prick shells thoroughly.
3. Bake at 450°F about 10 min., or until pastry shells are golden. Remove to a baking sheet.
4. Heat the butter in a small skillet. Add the onion and cook over medium heat, stirring occasionally, until onion is soft; mix thoroughly with the Swiss cheese.
5. Blend together the remaining ingredients. Stir in cheese mixture and spoon about 2 teaspoonsful into each tart shell.
6. Bake at 350°F 10 to 15 min., or until filling is light golden. Serve piping hot.

LIMPA (Sweden)

TO PREPARE: 25 MIN.

TO BAKE: 30-35 MIN.

(allow time for rising)

- 2 pkg. active dry yeast
- 1/2 cup warm water, 110°F to 115°F
- 1/2 cup firmly packed dark brown sugar
- 1/2 cup molasses
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 2 teaspoons caraway seed
- 1/2 teaspoon ground mace seed
- 1 1/4 cups hot water
- 3 1/2 to 4 cups flour
- 2 cups rye flour

1. Soften yeast in warm water; let stand 5 to 10 min.

2. Meanwhile, put the next six ingredients into a large bowl. Immediately pour the hot water over ingredients in bowl; stir until butter is melted.

3. Cool to lukewarm; blend in 1 cup of the flour, beating until smooth.

Stir softened yeast and add, mixing well. Add the rye flour and beat until very smooth. Beat in enough of the remaining flour to make a soft dough.

4. Turn onto a lightly floured surface and allow to rest 5 to 10 min. Knead until dough is smooth and does not stick to the surface. Form dough into a large ball and put into a greased deep bowl. Turn to bring greased surface to top. Cover with waxed paper and a towel and let stand in a warm place (about 80°F) until dough is doubled, about 2 hrs.

5. Punch dough down with flat, pull edges in to center and turn dough completely over in bowl. Cover and let rise again about 1 1/2 hrs., or until nearly doubled. Punch down dough and turn onto a lightly floured surface. Divide dough in half and shape into balls.

6. Place in greased 9-in. round pans; cover and let rise until dough is doubled, about 1 hr.

7. Bake at 375°F 30 to 35 min., brushing with milk the last 3 min. of baking. Cool on a cooling rack.

All-Brass Fittings

Under their covering of gleaming chromium there's a lot of difference in fittings (faucets, valves, drains and so forth). Among people who make fittings there is general agreement—the best are made of brass. So we won't and don't make any other kind—every Kohler fitting is a Kohler All-Brass fitting.

Everyday use proves that brass wears better. And use over the years shows that brass is highly resistant to the chemical action of water-borne minerals. It also happens to be the ideal base for the chromium finish, another lasting virtue.

All-Brass fittings fit right into the Kohler attitude toward quality. It has never even occurred to us to make a fitting that wasn't All-Brass. After all, in more than seventy-five years we've learned that quality can be built into products selling at reasonable prices.

You will find all of this true when you make Kohler All-Brass fittings your choice.

CRABGRASS:

How the Agrico Lawn Plan helps you wipe it out once and for all!

You can stop the annual invasion of crabgrass—and keep this crab-shaped monster out of your lawn for keeps. But you can't do it with just a crabgrass killer—not even one as effective as Agrico Pre-Emergence CRABGRASS CONTROL. Complete control—year in, year out—calls for a two-pronged attack:

1. Kill crabgrass seedlings now

They're already in your lawn—ready to sprout as the soil warms. One application of Agrico Pre-Emergence CRABGRASS CONTROL now will prevent these seedlings from becoming full-grown lawn-cheaters. AGRICO CRABGRASS CONTROL kills crabgrass even in the 2-leaf stage (about 1" high), but for best results, apply it now!

2. Next—Feed your lawn

Grass scientists say the biggest enemy of crabgrass is a thick, healthy lawn. This kind of lawn will crowd out crabgrass because this lawn-cheater needs sun, growing space and air to germinate and survive.

To build a dense lawn, you must feed it a balanced diet of nitrogen, phosphorus and potash. AGRICO GRASS FOOD (60% organic with urea-form) contains these vital elements—and more. Agrico gives you up to 30% more lawn foods per bag than many other fertilizers. So Ag-rico feeds grass longer. Be careful of short-lasting fertilizers that give out just when crabgrass is at full striking power.

This 2-step, common sense approach assures you a good healthy lawn that can keep crabgrass out. Agrico products are formulated for your local soil and climate in our 39 plants. They go through all spreaders—settings are on every bag.

Agrico Lawn Plan for Spring

First—make sure all your grass is exposed to sun and air by vigorous raking.

Next—feed with AGRICO GRASS FOOD for early dense growth.

Same day, apply AGRICO CRABGRASS CONTROL. For best results, the soil should not be disturbed following this application.

Water deeply; mow no lower than 1½". Bents and southern grasses should be cut ¾" to 1" high.

If you're re-seeding, seed at a heavy rate—3 to 4 weeks after applying Crabgrass Control.

Insects or weeds? Use AGRICO INSECT CONTROL or AGRICO WEED CONTROL.

Get AGRICO where garden supplies are sold. If your store is not stocked yet, write: The American Agricultural Chemical Company, New York 7, New York.

You can have nothing but pink in your garden and still have plenty of variety, masses of color

Keeping Your Garden "in

HAVE YOU EVER tried sticking to just one color in your garden, from the first spring flowers to frost? It's tricky but rewarding, and once you work out a good scheme you can get the greatest variety and ring the most appealing changes on it.

Let us take pink — not only because it is color news at the moment, but also because it offers such a wide choice, such a range of possible combinations and subtleties.

First come the annuals, since they should be planted early to get the showiest possible bloom in all areas. Let us begin with the brand-new pink Polynesian Zinnia for the center of the bed—it grows 2 to 2½ feet tall—and work outward from there. It is a "hot" pink, Cut-And-Come-Again zinnia, so we shall choose Salmon Rose, of the same class, to place harmoniously beside it. In front of them, let's put Peach Blossom and Salmon Lilliput zinnias, growing to 18 inches; and let us edge the bed with 12-inch dwarf bedding petunias: Peach Red, Fire Chief, or Cheerful, the first two in warm red shades and the last in salmon-pink. Backing up the bed, we shall use the 4-foot larkspur Steeplechase Pink (salmon-rose), 3-foot snapdragon Venus (soft pink), or cleome Pink Queen, growing to 4 feet. By now you see how to work, choosing tall, medium, and low-growing plants with flowers that are spikes, round or lacy, to give variety to the picture.

Perhaps a word of caution may be in order, though, to guide you in achieving harmony with pink. You will have noted that we have not used just one shade of pink, but that we have interpreted pink broadly so as to include pastels as well as deep tones that verge on red. This will give your flower beds considerably more impact and interest than would be the case with the one-color, one-tone scheme. Vary the quantities, too, with small "blobs" of one variety, a huge one of another, and a medium-sized quantity of a third, repeating the varieties in another part of the border or garden but reversing or changing the common sense approach to lawn beauty: AGRICO LAWN PLAN

the Pink”

BY JOHN BRIMER

quantity ratio. This composition of color will help to tie the whole thing together.

In mixing pinks, we must remember that we have warm and cool pinks and that it is not always pleasant to place a lavender-pink next to a glowing salmon, a cyclamen-pink with a rich coral, or a scarlet beside a magenta. It is a good plan to keep to either the warm or the cool side of pink, or else to separate the two with sizeable areas of palest pastel pink. A little forethought will assure a basic harmony.

TAKE YOUR CUE from your pink-flowering trees and shrubs because they are permanent, then build your warm or cool scheme for the flower beds from there. If your garden is new, then you can choose shrubs and trees for the pink of perfection. Some you'll want to consider are: Pink-flowering dogwood or the new near-red 'one, Cherokee Chief. Crab apples and flowering cherries are available in a vast range—single, double, pastels, and rose-pinks to nearly red—and in heights from a few feet to about 30 feet. The Judas tree (redbud) and saucer magnolia also bloom very early in spring, while tamarix blooms in summer. Shrubs also extend bloom time from earliest spring to late summer with dozens of pink, red, and in-between shades to choose from: weigelas, flowering almond, Carl's viburnum, hawthorn, pink-flowering quince, beauty-bush, butterfly-bush, and the summer spireas, Anthony Waterer, and Billiard's. Among the broad-leaved evergreens—where these are hardy and soil is right—are found myriads of pinks: rhododendrons, azaleas and camellias offer wide choices of colors, heights, and even blooming time. For those in warm climates, hibiscus in rose-pink, salmon, peach, and red are good choices.

You can start the garden year with the early bulbs in pink: tiny chionodoxa Pink Giant, scillas in rose-pink, tiny species tulips of many kinds but particularly the cherry red and white clusiana type. There are several daf-

Are We Wiser Than Our Children?

*We've got a lot to learn at their knees, says this famous

BY BEN HECHT

I'LL SKIP what sort of a fellow I was prior to the improvements introduced by my daughter Jenny, except for one item. I was an adult (not entirely); rather, I had acquired an Adult World. I had tacked it on to my character, willy-nilly, with the years.

This Adult World is an odd structure. It is called Wisdom and Judgment, which it is, sometimes. It is also a shantytown of arthritic notions and lopsided whims.

As we move deeper and deeper into this patchwork world of adulthood, one certainty sustains our ego—that we are wiser than our children, know more about living (and everything else) than they do. Never mind our ever-increasing murder and divorce rates, lunacy and suicide statistics; our staggering load of prejudices, frustrations, regrets, and atom bombs. Never mind the fact that juveniles, although they play a bit with matches, have never set fire to the world, never started a war; that they have never darkened the earth with injustice or confused it by writing bad books. Whatever the facts, we adults are, if nothing else, smarter than our kids. And one of our most important functions is to guide them—to become like us.

Also very potent in most adults is the notion that children are an alien breed, startling and incomprehensible and misinformed. No memories of their own childhood are in such adults. The child-they were has been removed from their consciousness as completely as a troublesome gall bladder is plucked out of their interior by a surgeon. And they are the surgeons.

Jenny began pointing out to me the many flaws and fallacies of adulthood when she was nine. She used no books and indulged in no lectures. She enlightened solely by example.

I NOTED that my daughter was able to fall asleep without the aid of barbiturates, bottled beer, or deep massage. I noted that she never boasted or told lies, that she never wasted any time trying to earn anyone's esteem. I noted that she was fond of nearly everyone she met (under 12) with the exception of a few boys whose legs were too fat or who couldn't do any tricks on her trapeze. I had rigged one up in her bedroom, a sort of memorial to my early his girl, who has been an example to him since she was nine.

career (at 14) as a performer in a small-time circus.

I noted also that Jenny believed happily in God, although neither I nor her mother Rose had ever urged her on; that she was able to entertain herself by merely running down the beach—we lived then on the sea front in Ocean-side, California.

I noted that she had almost no prejudices or fears. She had earned the companionship of an eight-foot snake. This had required sitting for two days in front of the snake's small cave and playing tunes to it on her recorder. She appeared triumphantly for lunch with her eight-foot admirer coiled around her neck.

I noted that she preferred lying lonely on the sunny beach to meeting a parlor full of celebrities; that each day that dawned was like a surprise party; that when anyone started talking global politics and the chances for a World War III, Jenny always left the premises. And I began to note that she considered herself a sort of Empire of One in which all newspapers and other information dispersers were an intrusion.

And there was no greed in her for money or awards of any kind. She was engaged only in the feat of living. The only emotion that marked her day was gratitude. Her belief in God was mainly her gratitude for His having created so many things of wonder for her to enjoy.

Noting these and other fine points, I began an ego inventory. I decided, after this stock taking, that I was less in-bringing up baby*

Why so shy, little one?

Hints collected by Mrs. Dan Gerber,
Mother of 5

Even the friendliest baby may suddenly turn shy at the sight of a relative or friend whom he's cheerfully accepted before. (Usually a passing stage at 5 months of age.) One reason for this shyness may be the fact that baby has come to realize that other people are different from mother. Your baby knows he can count on you . . . he's not sure about the others. Suggested helps:

- Let baby study visitors from the "protective custody" of your arms. A favorite hold-toy provides added security.
- If you tell cuddle-loving friends to hold off 'til baby makes his own advances, chances are he'll socialize sooner.

Shy babies or sociable babies benefit from the special care the Gerber people take to make quality, nourishing foods. Mr. Dan Gerber gives you an example of Gerber care:

Fruits with a college education. "It may seem strange, but in many cases Gerber Strained and Junior Fruits do get the benefit of a college education. Gerber Agricultural Researchers work with agricultural colleges and growers to improve orchards, growing methods and the quality of your baby's fruits. What's more, once harvested, the fruit must pass rigid 'entrance examinations' for juiciness, ripeness, flavor and color."

Two new Gerber delights for your darling:

1. Strained Orange-Apricot Juices. A delightful companion to the 6 other Gerber Juices. Delicate and distinctive in flavor . . . high in vitamin C. And if baby hasn't yet tried Gerber Apple-Cherry Juice, why not treat him to this delightful sipping pleasure.
2. Gerber Meat Sticks. The perfect finger food for toddlers. Made from selected Armour Pork and Beef, nonfat dry milk solids, they're extra rich in body-building protein. Mildly seasoned for wonderful flavor . . . low in fat for easy digestibility.

"Play with your baby," say the child specialists. Aside from the fun baby gets from participation, 2-way games help teach him the 3 big C's: concentration, co-ordination, co-operation. Then too, if baby learns to play with you, he's less apt to be shy when others want to play with him.

Important: Gerber makes over 100 baby foods: cereals, strained and junior, to meet your baby's nutritional needs. We're proud to say:

"Babies are our business . . . our only business!"

Fabled Dining In Minutes

Now the world's legendary banquet dishes are ready to heat and serve and so astonishingly good they were cheered as "a milestone" by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch and saluted from coast to coast.

Just minutes away from your table, for instance, is the noble Beef Stroganoff of old Imperial Russia. "Generous thick slices of tender beef . . . sauce thick with mushrooms, flavored delicately with sherry," drooled the Seattle Times. "A natural for a buffet supper," suggested the NY Herald Tribune.

Famous Foods of the World make magnificent dining for guests, an inspired change for the family. Three generous servings of Stroganoff, Italy's Chicken Cacciatore or Swedish Köttbullar cost less than a dollar. Try them soon, and the two remarkable soups as well. Live gloriously!

formed than Jenny in many human matters. I was full of useless indignations, immodesties, boastfulness. And, worst of all, one of my basic attitudes was that of winning the esteem of people who meant nothing to me.

There came to me then a revelation I still cherish—the perfection of youth and the imperfection of adulthood. It was not a new sign in the heavens that I saw, for I had chronicled the revelation first when Jenny was three days old. I had written it in a preface to my book, "A Guide for the Bedevilled," as follows—

To Jenny, Aged 3 Days

Old woman, were you ever like my daughter, newly born?

Old man, did such contentment ever star your brow? What a difference appears to all the world when I look on my daughter, newly born.

Where is the world gone that has lost her face?

I marvel that statesmen, once had hands so small and spirits so divine.

I marvel that warriors came all to being with a helpless, trusting gurgle much like hers.

I marvel that all the crude, half-mad, half-evil cry of men with things embattled—began thus,

Began with soft enthusiasm for nothing but the air and light;

Began with graceful look at things unknown, Began with clear eyes and with tiny, clownish innocence believing in the warmth of God.

All the soldiers dying were like her,

All the angry and tormented ones,

All the fools and scoundrels and all the ogres of unreason

Were like her—

With face no larger than a heart,

Began like her, no more ruffled than the dew tiptoeing on the grass.

Where did the robbery take place?

Where was she stolen from the world, and all the world left without an elfin bugle blowing,

Without a breath of Eden stirring except on my daughter's face—newly born?

It is, of course, impossible for any adult to acquire the virtues of childhood, however apt a pupil he is and however stirring a teacher he has. I had to compromise—stick to my sleeping pills and deep massage; to my lying and bragging; to my prejudices and battle for esteem. But I could look on my flaws with Jenny's eyes and thereby edit and lessen them.

Now that Jenny is 18, she has less to teach me. She is coming to Broadway in a play called "Simone." She plays the part in it of a little girl in the France of 1942 who dreams that she is Joan of Arc. Watching her rehearse, noting her devotion to her first big theatrical chore, my heart applauds something other than her talent as an actress.

I note in the 18-year-old-Jenny that her childhood is still half her soul, that its ways still guide her. And I have one deep wish for her—that she remain herself rather than change into an adult who never knew her.

I have written sincerely, for I think one of the world's chief sicknesses is its divorce from the memory of youth.

I have an increased faith in the prospect of peace because our President has two young children. What fine collaborators for a statesman! Two wells of truth, two admirers of life, two aficionados of sky, sun, moon, wind, and earth.

TO SUM UP—instead of us adults tackling the problem of how to raise our children, a more profitable activity lies in letting our young ones lure us out of our habits of mis-living. I imagine that I taught Jenny many things during her first 10 years. She was an accomplished eavesdropper, which is always an important branch of learning for the young. But her return instruction makes us even as educators.

I'm sure that mothers of girls will find my "revelation" naïve. For good mothers enroll automatically as pupils of their children and keep young and wise by basking in the spirit of their offspring. My message, however, is not for them. It's for fathers. It's this—note your daughter's virtues—the ones you had no hand implanting in her. Observe her superior use of daylight, her disdain for cluttering her head and heart. Take heed of her childhood, and you will find she has vastly more to give you than you have to offer her.

"Class dismissed," says Jenny, "and stop mooning about childhood. We both have a play to get going on the stage. And I'd appreciate your most adult aid."

If you love children, your heart will go out to Tommy Little, a 9-year-old American Indian boy who is attending school off the reservation for the first time. Going to school in town frightens Tommy. He is afraid that his non-Indian schoolmates are laughing at his tattered clothing, at his faulty English.

He yearns to join the school club, to buy personal books, clothing, go out for a soda with the other boys. But his parents are too poor to give him pocket money. And so Tommy wanders off by himself and dreams that someday he will have the money to do what his non-Indian schoolmates do.

if you love children

Make a dream come true! You, your school or group can make this dream come true for an Indian child like Tommy. Contribute $10 a month and provide one Indian youngster with suitable clothing, personal books and a cash allowance. You will receive the photograph and story of the child you help and enjoy a warm person-to-person relationship through an exchange of letters. Please give one Indian youngster an even break—and the sense of security and confidence he needs to join the mainstream of American life.

New Universal dress form, perfected by former Hollywood dress designer, provides many work-saving short-cuts

First Dress Form with Full Length Skirt adjusts to "gain" or "lose" when you do. Being bendable and flexible, dresses slip on and off without opening seams. You save needless hours of sewing time. Custom fit is guaranteed or no cost.

The only full length dress and skirt form you can use together or separately. You can hold the upper section right in your lap to fit a blouse.

For fitting bodice and skirts, you need use only the belt and skirt section. Special feature allows you to measure hems without the aid of a hem marker.

New Type Adjustable Dress Form Gives A Full Length Skirt Form And Hem-Measurer! ONLY $3.98

By DOROTHY WARING, Fashion Editorial Writer

RECENTLY I saw an eye-opening preview demonstration of the new 1962 Universal Dress Form. I saw it provide sewing shortcuts and do things I never dreamed a dress form could do. Women who wear by the previous model — and over half a million bought one — will have cause to be really enthusiastic when they see this one!

Skirt Form and Hem-Measurer

First of all, this dress form is the only one I've ever seen that gives you a full-length, completely adjustable skirt form and hem-measurer, too. What a boon when you're making or shortening skirts! You simply slip the skirt on... pin up the hem, following a line of measurement points at the skirt-length you want... then stand back and look!

Instantly, you see how the skirt will look on you because the form's measurements are your measurements. No longer will you have to rip out seams or re-do hems because a skirt hangs too high in front or sags in the back.

Takes Guesswork Out of Sewing

Perhaps the biggest thing about this dress form is that you can make it "gain" or "lose" when you do — thanks to its simple adjustments that let it duplicate all your basic measurements.

Women who have used some of the more expensive forms know how they have to rip and re-sew in order to fit clothes on them. But not with this new time-saver! Because it is bendable and flexible, you simply bend in the shoulders to slip a dress on. This saves hours of needless work. The real satisfaction, however is when you put the dress on yourself! You have the thrill of seeing a "custom-fitted look," just as though your dress had been made for you by your favorite seamstress!

Saves time, temper, tears... a dozen ways

Every woman knows it's the needless mistakes, the temper-provoking extra work and the petty exasperation that take the fun out of "making your own." Believe me, ladies, this new form is so virtually mistake-proof it puts the fun right back into making your own clothes.

With it, you can quickly make your too-tight or too-loose clothes really fit like new again.

You can remodel last year's alterable suits and dresses into chic new Spring fashions.

You can even make yourself a brand new Spring wardrobe... and do it in much less time than it usually takes! With a terrific saving in dollars, too!

Completely Adjustable

Imagine this! You can widen or take in the diaphragm... even raise, lower, flatten or fill out the busts individually!

It comes with a separate belt-fitter that adjusts to duplicate your own midriff.

In fact, all the form's measurements adjust to duplicate your measurements so exactly that whatever fits it will also fit you!

Made of unwoven fabric bouded to sturdy Kraft stock, this is one dress form that's both light-weight and durable. It stands on its own "skirt" — requires no extra costly stand! Yet when not in use, its nine sections fold out flat and tuck away in a bureau drawer.

30-Day Home Trial

Previous models of this remarkable dress form have won editorial praise from such distinguished magazines as VOGUE PATTERN BOOK, LOOK, AMERICAN MAGAZINE and McCALL'S PATTERN BOOK. Yet for the same low price of only $3.98, this new 1962 model is vastly superior — and much easier to use!

We know you will be truly delighted once you try it. This is why we are making this generous trial offer. Mail the coupon today. Use the dress form for a full month. Then if you can honestly bring yourself to part with it, we'll mail you a full refund... Don't put it off. Be the first in your area to own a new 1962 Universal Dress Form!

fodils with salmon-pink trumpets, hyacinths of both pale and deep pink, and the early-to-late flowering tall tulips will carry pink through April and May, the Darwin, Cottage, Lily-flowered and spectacular Parrot tulips offering dozens of possibilities.

You can fill in the time between bulbs and annuals with early flowering pink perennials. Tree peonies bloom quite early, while the herbaceous peonies start about mid-May to sport their flesh or lilac-pinks, their deep rose and salmon or crimson and other red shades. Bearded iris offer many pinks, not only the familiar lavender-pink but glowing flamingo or soft flesh tones, while dwarf bearded iris varieties, Rose Blush and Heather-bloom, can edge the bed rosily. Japanese iris Flamingo, Pink Frost, Rose Anna, and other pinks carry color toward midsummer and day lilies offer June and July bloom with pinks too numerous to mention. Many lilies, too, particularly the speciosum and their hybrids, are splendid rosy companions for other plants.

IN LATE SUMMER and in autumn we end the season with chrysanthemums, the pinks being among the best hybrids in all types.

In annuals, of course, the choice is unlimited. To make sure you don't overlook any special opportunities, we suggest that you search your seed racks or your catalogs for the following in pink: Hollyhocks, cosmos, scabiosa, cleome, larkspur, zinnias, and snapdragons among the tall growers; Canterbury bells, asters, cockscomb (Celosia), cornflowers, medium-height snapdragons, zinnias, and scabiosa, as well as salvia among the medium growers. Low-growing annuals and bed edgers: Ageratum Fairy Pink, bush-balsam, sweet alyssum, pinks, calendula Apricot Beauty, phlox drummondii, and its even dwarf varieties, pansies and wine-red shades, impatiens dwarf Sultan, verbena, vinca, dwarf sweet-william, portulaca, California poppy Sweetheart, and dwarf asters.

It's a rosy prospect—yours for the planting.

Of all the Englishmen who drink gin... how many drink Gordon's?

Most of them. And it's been that way for 193 years. To be blunt about it, Gordon's is England's biggest selling gin—as it is America's and the world's. Why? Probably because we have always refused to tamper with a good thing. Gordon's still harks back to Alexander Gordon's original formula—conceived in London 193 years ago—so its distinctive dryness and flavour remain unchanged and unchallenged to this day. "Sports Afloat" Opening Friday

Cmdr. Alan Shepard to Visit Boat Show On Friday Evening

VIRGINIA BEACH — A show for every member of the family will be offered this weekend with the opening of the 3-day 1962 Virginia Beach Boat Show at the Alan B. Shepard Convention Center.

The show, which will carry out a "Sports Afloat" theme, will be sponsored by the Convention Center in cooperation with the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce.

Boats of every description, from sailboats to cruisers, will be on display and exhibits of water-sports equipment, such as fishing, deep sea diving and skiing, will be shown.

Of special interest to women will be the travel section which will offer literature and information on points of interest in the state of Virginia.

Representatives of Shenandoah Acres, Northern Virginia, Caverns of Luray, Roanoke, Colonial Williamsburg and other tourist attractions will be on hand to help set up a summer itinerary or short week-end trips and promote travel in Virginia.

Shepard May Visit

America's first Astronaut, Cmdr. Alan B. Shepard, has said he may be on hand at some time during the week-end to greet the boat show visitors, Bill Lillyman, director of Convention Sales, said. The exact time of his appearances have not been announced.

Youngsters from 1 to 100 will enjoy the 27-minute color film of Cmdr. Shepard's flight into space last May in the famed "Freedom 7" capsule. This will be the first public showing of the film in this area. It was released by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The film will be shown each hour in Room No. 115. The show will be open Friday from 4 to 9:30 p.m., Saturday from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. and Sunday from 2 to 7 p.m.

More than 20,000 persons are expected to visit the show during the three-day period. Door prizes will be given away daily. Prizes of admission to the entire 3-phase show will be 50c for adults, 25 cents for children.

SBA Will Ask Many Questions At Local Office

VIRGINIA BEACH — The Small Business Administration has announced that it will open a temporary office in Virginia Beach to aid residents who suffered property damage in last week's devastating storm.

Persons wishing to make loans must visit the SBA office here which will be located at the corner of 19th street and Arctic Ave. The office is scheduled to open at 8:30 Friday morning.

Virginia Beach City Manager W. Russell Hatchett said SBA representatives told him they expect to have all loan applications processed and in Washington within 30 days.

What is some of the information required of the applicant for a SBA loan? How will such a loan be paid back, monthly, semi-annually or annually?

Here are some of the questions contained in the SBA loan application form that will be available at the Virginia Beach office starting Friday.

1. Address where loss occurred.
2. Type of disaster.
3. Amount of loss. This can be estimated.
4. Insurance collected, if any.
5. Loan requested.
6. Have you applied to Red Cross or any relief agency for assistance?
7. Have you ever been bankrupt?
8. Describe use to be made of loan.
9. Can you obtain an endorser or guarantor for the loan?
10. Location of property.
11. Describe property and use thereof.
12. Is property fully paid for?
13. Amount owed on property.

Ruritan Minstrels To Open Wednesday For Four Nights At Princess Anne High School

PRINCESS ANNE—On March 21st thru Saturday, March 24, the Princess Anne Ruritan Club will unveil to the people of this area one of the most gala and colorful musical shows, packed with comedy, ever to be presented to a Tidewater audience. A complete new stage is under construction to bring to real life the true setting of the original minstrel days.

The stage, under the management of Richard Absalom, with Bob Stenzhorn as his technical assistant, will glow in color as the old time show boat pulls into the dock.

Many hours of work are being put forth by the scenery and set design chairman, Whit Voliva, with the help of Charles Cashman Jr. to make this staging different from any other that has been seen before the art and color design is under the direction of Henry White whose talents have added greatly over the past few years to the color of the scenery.

The sound effects and lights will once again be under the direction of Charlie Spence and Maynard Allen.

Due to the unprecedented success of last year's show an extra night has been added and for the first time in its history will play for four nights at Princess Anne High School. The show, written and directed by John S. McFall Jr., a veteran of many shows previously, will prove itself to be another outstanding evening of entertainment.

Tickets may be purchased from any member of the Ruritan Club or from the following locations: Oceana Drugs, Malbon Motors, Kellam & Eaton Insurance Co. at Virginia Beach, County Commissioner of Revenue Office at the Court House, or London Bridge Supply Co.

Supervisors Urged To Clear Water Problem

PRINCESS ANNE—The water situation came up before the Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors again Monday when Julian Rashkind, president of the Tidewater Association of Home Builders, urged the group to make a decision soon on the water problem.

He read a prepared statement indicating that further delay may effect the economic "well-being of Tidewater Virginia". The TAHB's plea is directed toward a solution that will benefit all of the builders and developers, the statement said. Rashkind pointed out that home building is the largest non-governmental industry in Tidewater, requiring services of subcontractors, utilities, advertising agencies, financiers, building suppliers and home furnishing stores.

"When the water supply is absent, the builders and developers must stop... the payrolls of tens of thousands are eliminated or substantially reduced... The effects of employee layoff are just beginning to be felt and a continuation of this situation will have a tremendous impact on unemployment."

Norfolk submitted a water contract to Princess Anne County recently offering water service for 25 years on the condition that the county will not establish its own system during that period. No action has been taken on the contract.

Rashkind urged the board to act now on the problem, but added that if a permanent solution will be time-consuming then try and seek a temporary and immediate solution for the problem.

Lynnhaven Supervisor James Darden told State Highway Department representatives he hoped the state would take steps to eliminate flooding in North Virginia Beach. In the recent storm, flood waters remained until runoff ditches were dug to the Atlantic Ocean.

Bayside Supervisor Carroll G. Clough told the highway officials the same problem prevails in Ocean Park. Both Ocean Park and North Virginia Beach lie along U.S. 60. The supervisors were told that the Southeastern Regional Planning Commission is preparing a drainage plan for North Virginia Beach.

Storm Pictures In This Issue

The Sun-News this week is publishing a full page of special storm pictures. These pictures are to be found on Page Three of this section of the paper.

In addition to the pictures there are several news stories pertaining to the tidal wave and storm that struck unexpectedly last week. The damage, destruction and devastation to the area is graphically told in the pictures.

The Sun-News has printed an additional 3,000 copies of this issue and will be happy to handle the mailing of the paper to friends and relatives of its readers. Send 10c and the correct address of the person to receive the paper to the Sun-News office, 3108 Pacific Avenue, Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Many of the pictures to be found on Page Three were furnished by Simmons Photo Service at 23rd Street and Atlantic avenue. This firm has announced that it has many pictures of the storm, in addition to those appearing in this paper, and that they are available at one dollar per print, size 8 by 10.

Next week the Sun-News plans to publish pictures of the rebuilding now underway.

OFFICIAL THANKS

TO THE CITIZENS OF THIS AREA:

The officials of the City of Virginia Beach and the County of Princess Anne wish to take this opportunity to publicly thank all individuals, organizations and branches of the military for the fine cooperation and the many man hours devoted to the work of rehabilitation necessary following the storm of March 7, 1962.

We believe the spirit of cooperation and the generous efforts of all our citizens has materially eased the burden of digging out and rebuilding that lies ahead.

Rapid Cleanup Of City, County Follows Storm

VIRGINIA BEACH—More than 500 men were hired Monday by the Virginia Employment Commission for the massive clean-up job along Virginia Beach's storm-ravaged shoreline. By Tuesday the project was so successful the crew had been cut down to about 150.

IRS Holding Forum Here On Storm Tax Loss

VIRGINIA BEACH — Persons in the Virginia Beach area who suffered property damage in the storm will have an opportunity next week to learn what they must do now to deduct these losses on next year's income tax.

Representatives of the Internal Revenue Department will hold a meeting at Virginia Beach High School Thursday at 7 p.m. to inform storm victims on what steps must be taken now to prove their loss.

City Manager W. Russell Hatchett released a statement Tuesday advising all persons making repairs to homes and/or property to have the damaged photographed before the repairs are made.

COOPERATION WAS KEYNOTE OF WORK AFTER THE STORM

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

VIRGINIA BEACH—Cooperation was the key word in the storm disaster last week: cooperation between civilians and military personnel, cooperation between charitable and community organizations and cooperation between neighbors and strangers.

At the first outbreak of the storm military personnel began filing into Virginia Beach. A week later they were still hard at work.

Military Assistance
Ft. Story dispatched equipment and men to North Virginia Beach for the mass evacuation. More than a dozen DUKWs shuttled back and forth as a ferry service, school bus and transit line for residents who were stranded by the flood.

Oceana Naval Air Station provided 88 persons to help with the evacuation, discourage looting in damaged homes and move furniture. Wednesday from 53rd street down to 2nd Street.

Capt. C. K. Harper, Oceana commanding officer, contacted Mayor Frank A. Dusch immediately and offered the base's assistance. Lt. Cmdr. S. D. Blythe was set up at the Virginia Beach Fire Department with radio facilities and Lt. Omer T. Culwell manned a roving truck to radio spot news back to a communication control center at the Office of the Day shack. Executive Officer Robert Stanek was at the central reporting point and Cmdr. Thomas F. Mushyn was command duty officer during the day of the storm.

The Virginia Beach-Princess Anne Rescue Squad kept an ambulance stationed at strategic points for emergencies. Three stretcher cases were carried out within 30 minutes Wednesday morning. Most of the ambulance runs were for heart cases but there were also a couple of brand new mothers and two expectant mothers.

Fortunately the only mishaps were skinned shins.

Little Sleep
The Virginia Beach Fire Department called all hands to duty Wednesday morning and they remained on duty, with only a few hours sleep, until Sunday. Electrical shorts caused fires up and down North Virginia Beach during the flood, some were handled by the Ft. Story facilities, others were controlled by fireman who traveled in by DUKWs.

The only casualty during this period was a dog bite suffered by a fireman.

If anyone deserves a word of praise it is the members of the Virginia Beach Volunteer Firemen's Ladies Auxiliary who worked side by side with their men saving food to the volunteer workers.

Between Wednesday and Thursday they prepared and served 5005 gallons of soup, 100 sandwiches, 80 meals and over 700 pints of milk.

Their emergency food was stationed at 51st Street from early in the morning until late at night, serving occasionally for a trip to the store.

P. A. Plaza Shopping Center Opening Today

PRINCESS ANNE PLAZA — The gigantic Princess Anne Plaza Shopping Center will have its formal opening today with a round of activities that will carry through the weekend. The opening comes a little more than a year after initial plans were drawn for the mammoth shopping center complex.

John Aragona Enterprises & Larsson Realty Corporation teamed with the architectural firm of Paul D. Woodward and Associates in designing and building the center.

The center will eventually house almost every conceivable retail outlet. At the present time there are approximately 17 firms located in the shopping center.

Tonight the evening's festivities are scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. with Poop Deck Pappy headlining the entertainment.

In addition to Poop Deck's comedy act, the bill includes Tim and His Little People, beloved puppets of local television audiences; Kay Wilkins and her daring baton act during which her batons are afire as she dances; Arnie Anderson, Tide-water vocalist, who will be with Jay Ward and the Debonaires to provide musical entertainment; the Whipdoadit Indian Dancers, who do a specialty dance routine with live snakes.

Special exhibits will be featured: a Nike missile, provided by the Kempsville National Guard; an F-11 Grumman Tiger Supersonic Day Fighter (USN); an astronaut suit; a radar control panel display; and Curtis Estes, of Norfolk, with his National Championship Hydroplane.

Horace McManus, as Poop Deck Pappy, will host the entire show. McManus is well known in Tidewater for his many public appearances. McManus, a native of Mississippi who was reared in Washington, D.C., came to WAVY-TV at that station's inception in 1955.

Having attended Guilford College, he originated the concept of the character he portrays and built a show around himself. In addition to his many responsibilities in television, McManus is both an actor and director for the Portsmouth Little Theatre, coordinator for the 1962 Portsmouth pageant, and actor for the Norfolk Little Theatre.

McManus receives much of his inspiration from his three children who are at the top of his list of fans.

Hair Care Hints Given Ladies

If you're like most women, having your hair done at the parlor really gives you a big lift. You come away feeling prettier, smarter and gayer. However, professional attention more than once a week gets to be an expensive proposition. That's why it's so important to learn how to shampoo and set your hair at home, in between visits to the hairdresser.

Here are some brief hints to help you with some hair care:

- Invest in proper equipment—the right sized rollers, clips, setting lotion and spray.
- Set aside enough time to do the job properly, a couple of hours at least.
- Ask your hairdresser to show you how to brush out set and tease hair.
- At night, pin in small curls around your face and on the back of the neck.
- Be aware of new hair products on the market and use them, such as Tussy's new Special Formula Shampoo for tinted and bleached hair.
- Next time you're due for a present, ask for a home hair dryer.
- Don't put off getting that new permanent. If funds are low, ask a friend to help give you one at home.
- Practice the daily ritual of one hundred strokes.
- Keep on hand some pretty little velvet bows to decorate your hairdo. These will encourage you to keep your hair clean and pretty.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Clinton Carpenter recently returned to their Bay Colony home after spending a week at The Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles, Calif. While in California, they visited Mrs. Carpenter's niece, Mrs. James Idleman and Mr. Idleman in Sun Valley.

Mr. Thompson's sister, Miss Mary Lou Thompson of Avon-by-the-Sea, N.J., to Harry William Gramann.

Mr. Gramann is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Demarest Gramann of Deal, N.J.

The wedding will take place June 3 in Oakhurst Methodist Church, Oakhurst, N.J.

Miss Thompson is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thompson of Avenel, N.J. She graduated from Asbury Park High School and attended Asbury Park Business College. She is employed by Steinback Co. in Asbury Park.

Mr. Gramann is a graduate of Asbury Park High School and attended Simpson College in Iowa. He is attending Monmouth College in Long Branch, N.J., and is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha social fraternity.

8-Year Old Gives Birthday Money To Aid Victims

VIRGINIA BEACH — Little Martha Owens turned eight years of age last Wednesday, a day long to be remembered for its violent storm and bitter devastation.

With storm conditions leaving little opportunity to provide gaily wrapped birthday gifts, Martha found herself with the big sum of four dollars, her very own birthday money that could buy doll clothes, coloring books and other pleasures little girls enjoy.

But as news reports throughout the day brought in the grim tally of the storm's destruction, Martha realized that she could not spend her money on such trivial things when there were people all around her who had lost everything they owned.

By Tuesday her mind was made up. She would donate the money to the people whose homes had been destroyed.

Martha met with Virginia Beach Mayor Frank A. Dusch at City Hall Tuesday morning and presented him with the money—one $1 check, two crumpled dollar bills and some coins. By mutual agreement, the money was forwarded on to Chincolague Mayor Robert N. Reed.

"They need it worse than we do," Martha said. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Owens of Bay Colony.

The little girl's compassion and generosity toward the storm victims could well be symbolic of the general attitude that prevailed throughout the ordeal. Everyone seemed eager to share what they had with those who were stricken. Homes were opened to evacuees, food and clothing items were donated and thousands of men and women gave of their time and efforts to ease the destruction loss.

mined and crumpled nearly its length, will cost anywhere from $1.1 million to $3.5 million.

These figures were quoted at a special meeting Tuesday between City Council and federal and state authorities. City Council estimated that it will require $1 million to restore the sand and $2.5 million to repair the concrete boardwalk and a section of wooden bulkheading.

Col. J. D. Snow, district Army engineer, Norfolk District Corps of Engineers, submitted a $1.125,000 estimate for Virginia Beach while another figure for Princess Anne will be discussed later at a special meeting of the Board of Supervisors.

Officials have estimated that it will take 45 to 60 days to complete the repair work at Virginia Beach.

Sand Coming Back

While bulldozers, tractors, pumps and men were busy along the ocean front, Mother Nature was doing her part to correct the damage she had done.

Civil Defense Coordinator

Ben Wroton said Tuesday that favorable winds and tides were bringing sand back to the beach.

Work in the residential sections was also well under way. Many of the damaged homes between 40th and 60th Streets were in the process of being braced and misplaced sand was being shoveled back under them.

Some of the homes were so badly damaged that their owners had no choice but to tear them down.

Between the Cavalier Beach Club and 60th Street there were 15 demolished homes and more than 20 badly damaged ones.

A Red Cross bulletin stated that the storm destroyed 13 homes, damaged more than 50 per cent of 15 others and caused some damage to 56 in Croatan, Chesapeake Beach & North Virginia Beach.

Estimates on the damage to Sandbridge Beach, one of the worst hit stretches, have not been made yet.

Gov. Albert S. Harrison Jr. on a tour of the area last week, commented that Sandbridge "looks as if someone had stamped on top of a box and kept stamping until it was crushed."

Club Survives Storm; May 1 Opening Date

VIRGINIA BEACH—Just two short weeks ago the Cape Colony Club held a gala re-opening party to show off its completely redecorated interior that had taken six weeks to complete.

Thursday morning the new bandstand and canopy lay desolate on the beach, the lovely new drapes flapped crazily in the wind and the deep pile carpeting stretched, sodden and limp, over the crushed dance floor and broken foundations.

Violent ocean tides had pulled the supports out from under the beautiful refurbished club, causing one end of the dining room and bar to cave in and leaving the building at the mercy of the onrushing water.

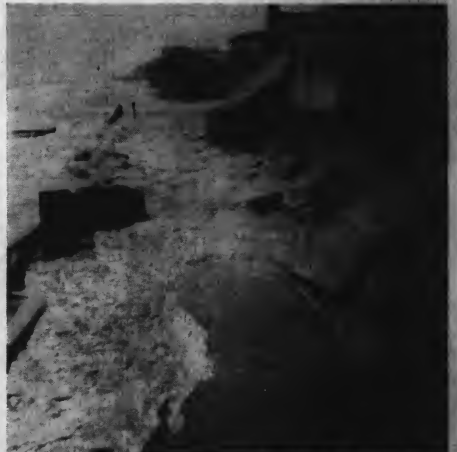

The sun terrace and poolside patio, cabanas, and outdoor snack bar were gone.

The club's board of directors held an emergency meeting Friday morning to survey the damage and determine what could be done.

The solution? Why, get busy, of course. In no time crews were busy clearing away the debris that once was the terrace and dining room wall to make way for the repair workmen.

Monday morning C. Aubrey Taylor, promotional director, announced to the Sun-News: "The Cape Colony Club will be open for business by May 1."

The lavish Las Vegas Party, planned Friday night, will be postponed but within a few weeks the club will be back on its regular fun-packed schedule.

The Storm Brought Out The Best In Friends, Neighbors

The full story can never be told of the spirit of cooperation among friends and neighbors and of the volunteer services rendered by countless organizations and agencies after the storm of last week struck. It would be impossible to list individuals and groups because the full list could never be compiled.

One of the finest contributions made in the rescue operations that followed was the outstanding work of the military groups, which would include every branch of the Armed Forces.

But, it would be most difficult to single out any one group when it comes to the cleanup operation that followed the storm.

The county and city civil defense groups have received much praise for the smooth handling of the crisis. It proved the need of this fine organization and it also demonstrated that it has been well organized.

In summary, the area took it on the chin last week, but the demonstration of togetherness of the citizens of this area once again points up the fact that Virginia Beach and Princess Anne is made up of people unequalled, in our opinion, anywhere in the world.

Governor Harrison's Visit And Optimism Comes At Good Time

The visit of Governor Harrison to Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County on Sunday following the devastating storm that struck this community on Wednesday brought encouraging and optimistic words from the Governor of Virginia.

After a tour of the damaged area of the Beach and the county Governor Harrison gave assurance that he would "cut red tape" and give the "fullest cooperation" in digging out and rebuilding.

The Governor, like most persons, said that "you have to see it to believe it." This was after his tour that carried him from the North Carolina line to Chincoteague. Governor Harrison told local officials that the state relief agencies have been given almost unlimited authority in helping this area.

The optimistic note was struck by Governor Harrison when he stated that the beach would be back in shape within 45 days and that, in his words, "Virginia Beach would rise finer than ever."

Governor Harrison has struck an optimistic note in the aftermath to probably the worst storm ever to strike here and it seems to be contagious. Everyone is optimistic and with that spirit this community will rise above this catastrophe and when the summer comes we will have a fine beach and we will have our usual number of summer visitors.

It's Show Time Again

It is that time again. Next week the popular Ruritan Minstrel Show will open for a four-night stand at Princess Anne High School. The show opens on Wednesday night.

The annual minstrel show sponsored by the Princess Anne Ruritan Club has become a fixture in this area and each year seems to be a little better entertainment than the year before. From all reports this year's production bids fair to uphold the tradition of the Princess Anne Ruritan Minstrels of the past.

The show comes at a good time. The area is digging out from a devastating storm and there has been much personal and public suffering. The minstrel show next week should provide many laughs and will help lend a light touch to what has been a grim situation.

The Sun-News highly recommends the Princess Anne Ruritan Minstrel Show. The shows will be presented next Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Its all local talent and most entertaining.

SPRING

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the world is threatened by the scourge of war which twice in our lifetime has brought untold sorrow to mankind and now would most certainly accomplish the complete destruction of all that we hold dear.

AND WHEREAS wars begin in the minds of men; in the fears, hatreds and suspicions that frustrate the purposes of peaceful co-operation; and in the misunderstanding of peoples who are prisoners of their national propaganda,

AND WHEREAS the President of Rotary International has invited all Rotarians in 124 countries to make a concentrated effort to promote and advance world understanding among the people of their communities during the week of 18-24 March, 1962.

AND WHEREAS the Rotary Club of Virginia Beach has determined to respond to this invitation with programs and projects in co-operation with the Rotary Club of other countries that will bring to the people of their communities and ours a better knowledge of each other's lives and a renewed determination to advance the cause of world understanding.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Frank A. Dusch, mayor of Virginia Beach, do hereby proclaim the week of 18-24 March, 1962, as and do urge all the people of Virginia Beach to co-operate wholeheartedly with the Rotary Club in its purposes. I also call upon the press, clergy, schools libraries, radio, and television of this community to lend their full support.

IN WITNESS thereof I hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the city of Virginia Beach to be affixed.

FUNERALS

MRS. FRANCES DALE DAVIS LONDON BRIDGE—A funeral service for Mrs. Frances Dale Davis, 41, of Rt. 1, London Bridge killed in an automobile accident near Hertford, N.C., was held in H. D. Oliver Funeral Apartments Wednesday at 2 p.m.

The Rev. Edward Taylor of Francis Asbury Memorial Methodist Church officiated. Burial was in Rosewood Memorial Park, Bayside.

A native of Asheville, N.C. she lived in this section 19 years. She was a charter member of Francis Asbury Memorial Church and a member of Ocean View Chapter Order of Eastern Star.

Surviving are her widower, Raymond R. Davis, and parents, Bob and Mrs. Bonnie Penland Dale.

SBA Will Ask

14. To whom owed.
15. Holder of legal title.
16. List collateral offered for loan.
17. Amount of life insurance owned.
18. Name of employer.

These are just some of the questions that must be answered when applying for a Small Business Administration loan. It would be well for applicants to review their finances before visiting the SBA to expedite their application for a loan.

Supervisors

In other actions, the supervisors approved a plan to build a $195,787 sewage disposal plant to serve the Princess Anne Court House area. There was no opposition.

They also heard a delegation from North Thalia Civic League oppose rezoning of property on Virginia Beach Blvd. to a depth of 1,000 feet. The Hurst and Watson property would be rezoned from residential suburban to limited commercial. The board approved a rezoning to a depth of 500 feet.

YWCA Luncheon Attracts Big Crowd

VIRGINIA BEACH—More than 80 members and guests of the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne Chapter of the YWCA attended a luncheon meeting at the Virginia Beach Methodist Church Thursday at 12:30 p.m.

The luncheon was sponsored by the "Ladies Day Out" committee and was served by members of Circle No. 8 of the church.

Guests included Miss Edna Westerstrom, executive director of the YWCA, Dr. W. Kenneth Haddock, pastor of the church, Mrs. Haddock, Mrs. Betty Curran, Home economist for Vepco, and Mrs. Elizabeth Deal, county home demonstration agent.

Many paintings by members of VED Ryan's art classes were exhibited. Dr. Haddock gave the invocation and Mrs. D. Murray Malbon, chairman of the sponsoring committee, introduced the chairman of the nominating committee, Mrs. S. W. Ferguson, who presented a slate of officers.

Officers elected were Mrs. T. Correll Barry, chairman; Mrs. J. L. Strole Jr., co-chairman; Mrs. Stanley A. Phillips, recording secretary; & Mrs. S. R. Brochenbrough, corresponding secretary.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Sun-News:

Sir:

Beach erosion over the past twenty-odd years has caused a direct economic crisis for oceanfront real property owners in the business sector of Virginia Beach. A constant and increasing vulnerability to storm-caused tidal action has for years had a proportionate blighting effect on the said sector; property owners were, in the main, reluctant to make more than token improvements, lenders were unable to make construction loans and insurers were unable to offer adequate coverage without, extremely high premiums. Among other results of such blighting effects, Virginia Beach, generally, has increasingly attracted more of the type of vacationer it didn't want and fewer of the type it did want and had received prior to the beach-erosion-caused blight becoming acute.

Since the recent tidal-caused devastation of the Virginia Beach ocean frontage, it would seem imperative that private enterprise, civic leadership and public authority must team up in an effort to resolve this crisis and, instead of merely seeking government aid to "re-store" the beach, the boardwalk-bulkhead and the oceanfront buildings, I believe the aforementioned team might well investigate other solutions.

For example, and briefly, the said team might undertake setting up a commission to study the physical feasibility of removing the existing boardwalk-bulkhead and all buildings on the east side of Atlantic Avenue from Rudee Inlet to 40th Street; the area thus cleared to then be made a promenade-park buffer-beachfront to be owned by the City.

If the physical feasibility of such clearing could be satisfactorily proven, the commission could then make an economic feasibility study of condemning all privately-owned real property east of Pacific Avenue from Rudee Inlet to 40th St.—with certain obvious and logical exceptions—between Atlantic Avenue and Pacific Avenue, such as the Post Office, Mayflower Apartments, etc.

The formula for making condemnation awards to effected property owners could be related to the existing appraisal values of such properties as they are now carried on the tax records.

The building sites between Atlantic Avenue and Pacific Avenue, now greatly increased in value and safety to investors and insurers, could then be offered for sale by the commission, and the proceeds used for making condemnation awards; any deficit experienced could be financed by issuing the commission's, or City's, bonds which could be retired from the additional taxes flowing from the value-increased, block-deep oceanfrontage between Rudee Inlet and 40th Street.

Also, The oceanfront crisis in North Virginia Beach would seem now to impose a compelling reason for the planning authority to seriously study the feasibility of developing Holly Boulevard (which lies, generally, parallel and two blocks to the west of Atlantic Avenue) from 83rd Street to 31st St. This would, if built, create, among other things, a greater amount of "oceanside" property and would more than compensate for the relatively diminished value of real property that will most likely result on the oceanfront property for some year to come.

Editor, Sun-News:

Dear Sir:

I deeply appreciate the space devoted to the Atlantic Fleet Amphibious Force in the Sun-News of February 21.

It was particularly pleasing to see the comments in "Editorial Speaking", and the proclamation by Mayor Dusch.

Such mention had special meaning to the nearly 17,000 men of my command, as well as to their families. These Navy-and to carry hot coffee and sandwiches to the military personnel on duty.

The Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County Police Departments had a most difficult task during the storm's wake—the apprehension of looters. By Monday several adults and juveniles had been brought in for looting damaged homes and taking beer, champagne and other items from the nearly demolished Surf Rider Restaurant.

By the first of the week looting complaints were just beginning to snowball as people began returning to their homes only to find valuables gone. The work of the Police Department is just beginning.

More than 300 Virginia National Guardsmen stood in bitter winds to patrol the beach against looting and bothersome sightseers. Headquarters in the Alan B. Shepard Convention Center, the men worked on a patrol schedule of three hours on duty and six hours off around the clock.

The Guardsmen moved out of the Convention Center Wednesday morning as the center staff hurriedly prepared for this week-end's 1962 Greater Virginia Beach Boat Show.

Evacuees of the storm were also housed at Convention Center the first night of the storm where they were cared for and fed by volunteer workers of the American Red Cross.

To All, Thanks

The list could go on and on and still someone would be omitted. Every person who contributed to the disaster program, no matter how small the job might have seemed, had a part in getting the community and its residents back on their feet in record-breaking time.

men are hard workers. They have to be! Our ships and their crews have far-flung commitments to fulfill in a troubled time of international turbulence. Sometimes there is little, if any, glamour related to the day-to-day routine of operational deployments. This is why we amphibians sincerely appreciate the recognition you gave us in your newspaper.

Please express my personal thanks to your staff for the splendid salute to the Amphibious Force.

Sincerely,

A. G. WARD

The Postage Stamp Picture

"Washington Addressing the Constitutional Convention" is a family painting to millions of Americans who remember a version of it on a 1937 U.S. postage stamp. In the mid 19th century Junius Brutus Stearns painted a number of scenes illustrating the life of Washington from which popular color lithographs were made. Four of the original paintings, including "The Marriage of Washington," are in the permanent collection of the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts in Richmond, the gifts of Colonel and Mrs. Edgar W. Garbisch.

SPORTS

KEGLER'S KORNER

By "PAPPY" IRISH
"THE BACK SEAT BOWLER"
A back seat driver is a curse, but a back seat BOWLER is certainly worse. There is always one at every game, you can't mistake him—they're all the same.

He takes a seat in the spectator's row, and begins to coach you before you throw. "Get over a little—you're too far to the right, now throw the ball with all your might."

"Your hook is too sharp — don't turn your wrist, you dropped the ball, that's why you missed." "Your stride is wrong, you're way off par—get back a little, but not too far."

"Watch the head pin, not the floor, you've got to hit it in order to score." "Throw the ball harder, it's much too slow, don't touch the foul line with your toe."

Your nerves get tense — you're strung like a fiddle, you used to start smack in the middle. Now you're starting next to the rack, and starting your approach far to the back.

You let go of your ball and start to mutter, there it goes straight into the gutter. "Get over, get back, don't lob your ball, don't turn your wrist, watch out or you'll fall."

"Your balls too slow, your strides too long," it runs through your head like a "banshees" song. You can not get a strike or even a spare, your average is dropping — you'd like to swear.

When the game is over — you're worn and tired, when along comes the Coach you never hired. "How come, you ask if you bowl so good, you don't join a team and knock down some wood?"

"ME BOWL!" he says with great surprise, "I've never tried, I've got bad eyes!"

I don't believe a tag line is needed here. Everybody knows at least one of the above "kibitzers". Let's hope they read the ode and that a word to the wise is sufficient. These COACHES have just gotta' go.

NICK RINALDI PRESENTS

A special attraction at the Rinaldi Plaza Bowl, March 19, 20, 21. A free bowling clinic for the ladies will be given by one of Brunswick's Staff Champion Bowlers — Doris Porter. Free instruction classes will be at 10:00 A.M. and 1:00 P.M., Monday through Wednesday. There will be free door prizes, free coffee, free nursery care. Register early or call to attend. Miss Porter will bowl after each class with a (not yet selected) kegler from one of our ladies leagues. Come on out and at least have a clutch of coffee.

WTAR-TV

"Pin Busters" Program

Yes, Mom and Dad — your child can now become a TV Bowling Star—just like Curtis Kemp, the five time winner in the Bantam Division. All they have to do is register, bowl a game and affix the score on the application, give the slip to our counter personnel and we will do the rest. They can enter as often as they bowl. Who knows, folks? You may have a future Don Carter in the family. This contest is open to all youngsters in the Bantam, Junior and Senior Divisions of the A.B.C.

RINALDI PLAZA BOWL TO ADD DUCKS

Nick Rinaldi, President of Rinaldi Lanes, Inc., has informed this scribe that plans are in the making to add 16 Duck Pin Lanes to the present establishment. He feels that both games will offer double the pleasure of bowling to the residents of the surrounding areas. The projected date for the start of the Duck Pin season is Sept. 1, 1962. Leagues are now being accepted for the 1962-63 season. Tell your duck pin friends.

TWENTY-TWO 200 GAMES BOWLED

The pins were flying Wednesday night—storm or no storm—but 18 members of the Business Men's League registered twenty-two 200 games for the evening. 600 series were tossed by J. Chisholm, R. Potet and B. Ja-Juett. The highest single game was a 247 rolled by Potet.

ST. GREGORY'S LEAGUE

A 213 by C. Swope and a 214 by D. Santivasi helped pave the way for a 4-0 victory for St. Gregory over St. Jude. Swope added a 181-193 to his 213 and wound up with high series for the afternoon with a 587. Santivasi's 214 was high game. St. Bonaventure made it 3-1 over the Holy Smokes. R. Sybers of the losers rolled a 203 game with his 524 series. Los Cinco Ladrones took 3 out of 4 from St. Aquinas—J. McDonnell had high game and series for this contest, 179-487. Jim Cuidon collected a 213 game at the time his running mate rolled a 207. Jim had a 547 series as his team, St. Martin, took the measure from St. Ignatius, 3-1. St. Joseph's, after dropping the first game to the Holy Ghosts by 25 pins, came back with a bang and took the next two and total pins for a 3-1 victory.

JOHNNIE'S GIRLS

With Rolly Moubout knocking down 472 pins for her series—high game 176 — The Jokers rubbed the Alley Cats for the wrong way scoring a 4-0 win over the Tabby's. The Sleepers were only playing "Possum" in their first game with Bay Jewelers, and took it by 3 pins. The Jewelers then proceeded to clobber the "Gals of the Morpheus" winding up a 3-1 winner. Jinx Chisholm was high in the series department with 480 pins. Terri Blankenship rolling for the Navettes bowled a 188 for the day's high as her team lost to the Queen Bees, 3-1. The Lady Four came to life today and made it 3-1 over the King Pins, Virginia, Barbara, Bernice and Peggy all had good solid 400 sets.

SUNDAY NITE MIXED

In making it 4-0, the Capitol Auto over the Lonesome Four, Joe Preetag gave his winning teammates the big push with his high series of 564, in which he bowled a 214 game. Bill McLaughlin was the spark plug for the Four Aces, rolling 171-136-232-539, assisting in the 3-1 win over Buddy's Texaco (love that gas). The Lucky Four also made it 3-1 over the Wayside Homes—Ralph Cerino, of the short-enders, had 184-176-191 for 551, a good night's shooting. Wayne Henderson, of the L-4's had 155-174-188 — 517. "Ells Bells" got real greedy and grabbed it all 4-0 from the Easy Marks. Bill Williams of the EM's had a 472 series. The Liskey Printers and the Flintstones split 2-2. Ray Craven was high in this match scoring a 208 in his 536 series. Bunny Millers team also split 2-2 with the No Trump quartet—Lou Rosenbaum scored a 201 game. The Imps and Jube's Gulf wound up 2-2. Sandy Wingfield rolled high for her team 194-484, and Russ Middleton had a 182 in his 532 series. The Markettes made it 4-0 over GEX Paint. The Pea Pickers, with the inspirational assistance of Tom Myatt's 185-181-162-528, made it 4-0 over the GEX Auto Team. Paul Retherford of the losers rolled a 180. The Smart Alecks were just that and took the Chapman's 3-1. Mary Ford of the S.A.'s blasted a 204 game—and she was substituting yet.

GUYS AND DOLLS

The Nittie Tibblers and the Bottoms Up Teams smashed and struck the maples with such vehemence as to enable them to win their matches 4-0. The fight for total wood was a tough one for both teams, but they made it. (Both teams won on a forfeit.) Team No. 1 chalked up a 3-1 victory over Davis & Lee. Freddy Pink rode again — he had 210-200-169 for 579, the high game and series for the night. Bob Reeves of the losers had a high of 189. The Birchwoods, with J. B. Boland absent, took 3 out of 4 from Team No. 9—C. Giebler rolled a 188 high

Six Man Football Gains in Popularity

By J. F. BRYANT JR.
Virginia Beach Sports Club

VIRGINIA BEACH — Last week in this column I briefly discussed the merits of six and eight man football as opposed to eleven man football.

I did not intend for the comparison to be taken beyond the youth level. It goes without mention that 11-man football is a part of the American way of life, and rightly so. My comparison was offered only to point out the complications that are ever present in the eleven man game.

King Fathered League

Virginia Beach was without a program until Claude King took it upon himself to organize a league. Undertaking a job of this size was almost too much for one man to accomplish but through hard work and cooperation King got the job done. Since King is no longer in this area, the Sports Club had undertaken the expansion and improvement of the present league.

We realize that the community is in need of a youth program and football is the logical place to start — with basketball and baseball to follow.

A program of this kind should be of concern to all of the citizens of the area, and especially those who have boys who may some day participate. This program is not just a Sports Club project, it is a project that we should all contribute to no matter how small the contribution may be. Our problem may be many but not of such magnitude that we can not solve them.

Equipment, coaches, fields, officials, teams and money are just a few of the problems that will be faced. The last item, money, will go a long way in solving most of the problems, but we feel that participation will be necessary in order to make the league a success.

In closing for this week may I say one thing—bowl at the house of your choice, but BOWL! Encourage the young folks to become Keglers too. And, also—patronize the merchants you know that sponsors bowling teams. "I thank you." (An old K.C.B. 30) the old timers will remember those initials.

The league will furnish pants, shirts, socks, shoes, and equipment for all games. If a team has a sponsor we will supplement the equipment needed to outfit the squad.

I might mention here that if there are organizations in the area who would like to sponsor teams they may do so by contacting this writer for further information. Each player will furnish his own shoes.

Coaching will be done on a voluntary basis without compensation. It is our belief that a job of this kind is a pleasure to the individual who participates and a great deal of enjoyment and personal satisfaction is obtained.

Teams will choose their own coaches and if they are unable to find a coach the league will attempt to provide a suitable person. There is nothing more gratifying than to coach a young team and watch the improvement that is made by the individual and to follow them as they move on to high school and college athletics.

The training that these boys receive at this level is invaluable to them as they grow older and it is our job to see to it that they are given the proper training.

Rec Program Awards Day Is Creating Interest

Jim Brown's expectant appearance at the Recreation Awards Day event, March 22, 1962, has stimulated play for the county recreation teams.

Each community is vying to receive one of the awards to be given during the Awards Day ceremony when the leading ground gainer for the Cleveland Browns speaks at Union Kempsville high school.

The outstanding games played last week were the playoff of the In the Midget League, the Seatack Little Devils. The Shooting Hawks defeated the Little Devils by a score of 32-17, to take first place in the Midget League, on Friday. On Saturday, the C&K Shooting Hawks won their game over the C&K Black Hawks, while Seatack Little Devils had a bye. In the Jr. High League, the action was between the C&K Golden Hawks and the Seaboard Brown Bears. The Golden Hawks defeated the Brown Bears by a score of 38-25, placing the Golden Hawks in first place with a 7-1 record and the Brown Bears in second place with a 6-2 record.

However in the High League, the Seaboard Grizzley Bears redeemed the loss of their smaller team by putting up a battle that has not been witnessed in the gymnasium before. The Grizzley Bears held the Blue Hawks scoreless for 9 minutes while they scored 15 pts. The only point allowed was a foul shot. There were 13½ minutes of play before the Bears allowed the Hawk a field goal.

Top Bowlers Appearing at Plaza Bowl Next Week

PRINCESS ANNE PLAZA — Doris is one Porter who can carry her weight.

In tenpin bowling circles, Miss Porter is highly regarded not only as a top-notch instructor, but also as a consistent performer.

A former tenpin "Bowler of the Year" in Southern California, Miss Porter, who will be appearing at the Rinaldi Plaza Bowl, 111 Plaza Trail, Lynnhaven, Virginia, at 10 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, March 19, 20 and 21, has won the Southern California Match Game Tourney and the Los Angeles City Championship team.

In recognition of her sparkling performances on the coast, she has been named to the Southern Cal. All-Star and the All-Western teams five times respectively.

A couple of Miss Porter's best performances have come in losing causes, however, she was runner-up in the WIBC All Events competition in 1961 and in the All-Star Tourney of 1962.

She is one of the more than 125 big leaguers who promote tenpin bowling with nationwide appearances. During her appearance at the Rinaldi Plaza Bowl on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, March 19, 20 and 21, Miss Porter will give free instructions to women who have bowled very little or never before at 10:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.

All women who would like to enroll in one of the 6 instruction classes are urged to contact the Rinaldi Plaza Bowl, Phone 341-1313 or 341-1314 and make a reservation. A maximum of 80 reservations will be accepted for each session.

Seahawks Elect '62 Co-Captains

VIRGINIA BEACH — Johnny Arendts and Tommy Ayers have been elected co-captains of the Seahawks, the Virginia Beach High School football team, for the 1962 season.

Johnny was first string All-Tidewater guard last year and Tommy received wide recognition for his blocking in the full-back position.

Saturday's Games

Hawks 53, Blue Angels 18
Lions 30, Beachcombers 27

The Hawks won the Linkhorn League championship with a rout of the Blue Angels in the final game of the season. Buddy Matthews surprised everyone including himself by racking up 20 points to tie the single game League record held by Bill Mayo. (Everyone, that is, except you know-who!) Bill got 12, Travis Jackson got seven. Let's skip all this. All the Hawks played great ball all year and are truly The Champions. Blue Angel Doug Compton hit for 10 of his team's 18 points. We'd say this boy is a right fair country basketball player! Wonder if he can play baseball too? John Evans, Buddy Sidwell... all you boys fought hard and played well.

We've seen few games as rough as the battle of the Lions and the Beachcombers. Those boys were all out there to win.

For sure, Fred Jordan's seven out of eight foul shots is some kind of a record. He just could not miss and seemed more astounded with each successful try! Mike Strickler got 12 jts. and played his usual fine brand of ball. Beachcomber Cush Dobbs just about knocked himself out with 11 points and a terrific game. Craig Waring, Gregg Baker... in fact, all you boys really put out.

This has been a good season for a fine league. We'd like to speak for everyone and thank the men who made it possible for our sons to play basketball. Particularly, we mention Hugh Mayo, who with all the headaches in such an undertaking as this, found solutions to the many problems and still calmly kept his sanity.

To the players, we say "well done." Your spirit, your skill, your sportsmanship, are admired. Good luck in your next sport. This season has been more than fun.

Thunderbird Major League

Sealy Posturepedic took over undisputed leadership in the league this week by virtue of a very impressive win over Va. Beach Transfer. Rolling games of 907, 936, and 976 for a grand total of 2819 they scored a clean sweep over the truckers. Bob Beck was the big gun with a 637 series including games of 226 and 223. Neil Boucher also got over the 600 barrier with a fine 603.

Team No. 3 moved into a tie for second place by taking Team No. 8 all four points. While not quite as hot as the Sealy team, they fired a very respectable series of 2754 with games of 950, 875, and 929. Don Schaeffer came up with another good series of 630 with games of 198, 228, and 204. This was Don's second 600 this week and he came back on Wednesday with the Commercial League & knocked out a third. Good bowling in any man's league. Chuck Runyon with 563 and Clarence Husk with 543 added the other better scores for Team No. 3.

Coaches Sporting Goods moved up a couple of notches in the standings by taking 3 out of 4 from Kelly Supply. This of course, gives Kelly undisputed reign over the cellar. Jim Johnson and Ray Dixon provided most of the scoring punch with 583 and 584 sets. The losers were once again led by Jim Drews with a 578, including a nice 237 game. It probably shouldn't be mentioned as it will give away the mediocrity

Little Theatre Is Holding Tryouts

VIRGINIA BEACH—Tryouts for the Virginia Beach Little Theatre's forthcoming production of "The Philadelphia Story," to be presented the first week in May, will be held Monday and Tuesday nights.

The cast list includes Dinah, age 15; Tracey, a lovely girl in her twenties; Margaret, sophisticated soul in her forties; Sandy Lord, man in his mid-twenties; Uncle Willy, over 50; Mike Connor, late twenties or early thirties; Liz Imbrie, mid-twenties; George Kilridge, early thirties; Dexter, man of 28; and Seth, a suave 50.

Tryouts will be held at the Green Room, 18th Street between Pacific and Arctic Avenues at 7:45 p.m.

Rudee Apartments Change Owners

Leo E. Biley, well-known Va. Beach businessman, has announced the sale of the Rudee Motel Apartments on Rudee Inlet at the south end of the beach to Anne and Tom Ellis of Goodspeed Road.

Built in 1950 by the late Dewey Weddle, the structure of 100 of the few efficiency type of accommodations on the beach. Included with the sale is the residence located on the same property which was built in 1958 by Mr. Biley. Located on the highest point of natural land at Virginia Beach, both structures escaped any damage in the recent storm disaster. Tom Ellis formerly operated Ellis Oil Company at Virginia Beach before joining the Tidewater Oil Heat Association as Executive Vice-President. Anne Ellis is well known in local bridge circles and is currently teaching bridge at the YWCA. The sale price was a reported $110,000 and was handled by George W. Syer.

of the other games, but Ray Dixon rolled a 247 in his 584 set.

The remaining match of this position night between Chix Restaurant and Tastee Freez was postponed. Probably because of the frequency with which Tastee Freez has been losing lately, and a dread of letting Chix add to the humiliation.

METABOLIC: The typical history of a patient with a kidney infection is the sudden appearance of back pain (especially in the flanks), urinary frequency and discomfort, and fever. These develop over a one or two-day period. Initial complaints may be quite mild; however, and the diagnosis may be in doubt for a while.

Examination of the urine will reveal evidence of infection—including inflammatory cells, albumin and bacteria. One of the sulfa drugs is usually prescribed. In most cases, these give improvement in a very few days. The patient generally is asked to take the sulfa drug (or an antibiotic) for a week or longer, and this is usually sufficient.

Recently it has been shown that in some cases, a kidney infection such as described above will not completely clear up on proper medication but will continue to smolder for a prolonged period of time. This can lead to a chronic kidney infection—which is very difficult to heal—or eventually to a serious complication.

The next problem is how to detect the kidney infection when it isn't completely cured. What is being done now with all suspected patients (some being more likely candidates than others) is to re-examine the urine at periodic intervals for several months or years. This examination includes special methods of bacteria detection.

My advice, therefore, is don't take kidney or other urinary tract infections too lightly. Rather, follow the prescribed treatment as long as advised and return for checkups as often as necessary. This is suggested for every patient with a kidney infection but it is especially important for those with recurrent infections.

Air Force Now Accepting Some Non-Graduates

Thousands of 17-year-old, non-high school graduates throughout Virginia can now take advantage of Air Force technical and educational opportunities, when for the first time in many months the Air Force lowered its enlistment eligibility requirements.

Previously, all 17-year-olds were required to have a 10th grade education before they were eligible for enlistment. The new ruling means that a 17-year-old may now enlist, regardless of the educational level he attained, providing he can pass Air Force entrance requirements.

"We expect more than 300 young men will realize the importance of our reduced enlistment requirements and take immediate advantage of them," said the local U. S. Air Force recruiter.

"If these young men are looking for a skilled trade, we have more than 400 job opportunities open to them. If they want to complete their education, a high school education through a Doctor's Degree is available to them in the Air Force at reduced costs, in many instances free," the Air Force representative stated.

The sergeant pointed out that the present ruling is not expected to be permanent.

"We can probably enlist persons in this category for a maximum of two or three months and I urge all eligibles to make application to make certain they are accepted," he concluded.

The local Air Force recruiting office is located at 759 Granby St., Norfolk, Va. Phone MA 2-0350.

SURFSIDE '62

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

The old saying that "behind every man there's a woman" was certainly never more true than during the storm disaster that hit Virginia Beach last week.

Women played an important part, behind the scenes, gaining very little recognition for the work they were doing and will continue to do until everything is back in order.

Step into City Hall, where Civil Defense Headquarters is housed, and you will see what I mean:

BUSY, BUSY

If ever there was a busy place, that's it. Phones are ringing, and there is a steady stream of city officials, National Guardsmen, Army personnel, clean-up workers and private citizens—all seeking pertinent storm data.

Seated at the front desk, catching the blunt of the chaotic activity is a dark haired, attractive woman who remains calm and efficient despite her busy surroundings. This is Mrs. Eileen Oliver, secretary to the mayor, city manager, and city sergeant. "People keep asking, 'who is Mrs. Oliver?'" she laughed Tuesday in between phone calls.

Mrs. Oliver's slightly husky voice was the one that broke into radio and television programs last week to announce "This is Mrs. Oliver at Civil Defense Headquarters at Virginia Beach..." She brought to the public bits of CD information such as the beach being closed to sightseers and the necessity for preparing against typhoid at North Virginia Beach. Her voice soon became familiar to Tidewater residents.

Until her rather recent marriage, Mrs. Oliver was Eileen Beagle. It is the name change that has confused people. Mrs. Oliver has been a stalwart at City Hall for a number of years and is well-known by most Virginia Beach residents. The phone rang. "Civil Defense Headquarters," she answered.

"Who's speaking," the man asked. "Mrs. Oliver."

"How long have you been there?" "I've been here forever!"

Also absorbing much of the hustle and bustle is Mrs. Grace Swertfeger, located at a desk in a back office where the traffic is slightly less but nonetheless hectic.

The phone in this office keeps as busy as the other one as people call for Civil Defense assistance and her typewriter pounds away on public announcements and various reports.

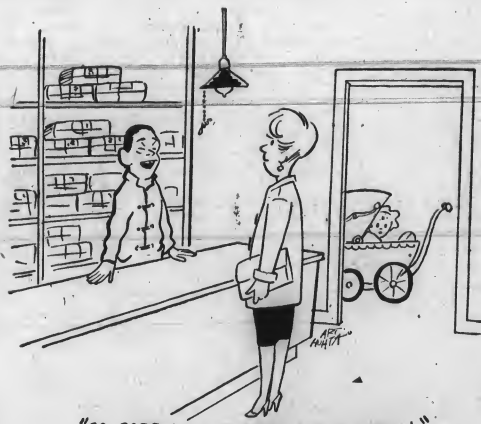

There are many other women working on the gigantic program at City Hall and though space does not permit individual recognition they deserve as much praise as the men who are straining to get the beach back in working order before the season.

Some of the women have come in from Princess Anne Court House, where their duties fell in lieu of the more important one at City Hall. Others have stepped in from various offices in City Hall to give a hand when the going is rough.

Few, if any, have enjoyed the luxury of a lunch hour since their work began. There simply isn't time. Their work must be done immediately, nothing can be delayed. Every report is typed and filed and every important telephone call is registered.

When the storm is a thing of the past the Civil Defense will have a complete record of the entire proceedings, step by step, thanks to this group of hard-working gals who didn't mind giving up lunch hours or working under the most hectic conditions.

"We haven't minded," Mrs. Swertfeger commented. "It was the least we could do."

Should Girl of 15 Be "Tied" Down?

By C. D. Smith

THE WEEK'S LETTER: "I am fifteen and so miserable I don't care what happens to me. There are several good reasons why I feel this way. "Don't you think a girl of 15 who is a sophomore in high school is old enough to date, double-date, or triple-date? A boy asked me to go to the school homecoming dance last year—triple-dating—and my mother would not let me go. Lots of boys tease me and say I'm just a little kid because I can't go around with the other girls my age and do what they do and this makes me feel left out. When I am talking to some boy, another boy will come up to us and say, 'I wouldn't advise you to talk to her. She's 'mama's little girl.' or they'll sing 'rock-a-bye-baby' and this is ruining me because when my parents will let me date I won't be able to get one. And another thing, they won't let me date until I'm 18. Don't you think it wrong for them to tie me down like this? They make me stay home all day on weekends and after school when I could go over to my girlfriends and just talk or spend a night at their house. A girl I have known for 10 years wants me to spend a night at her house and my parents won't let me. I have never spent the night anywhere except at my cousin's house.

OUR REPLY: Your situation is not unusual. In fact, it is rather ordinary—and necessary. Your parents are responsible for your welfare. They have an obligation to prepare you for the day when you will be "old enough."

Certainly, a girl should be allowed to date before she is eighteen; but a girl of fifteen should not be "untied" and left with no supervision.

Your parents won't let you spend the night away from home because they know that you wish to get away from home and supervision—and that is where boys would enter the picture. Be patient; talk to your parents. Have them take you to parties or dances, if necessary... and your time to date will come.

If you have a teenage problem you want to discuss, or an observation to make, address your letter to FOR AND ABOUT TEENAGERS, NATIONAL WEEKLY NEWSPAPER SERVICE, FRANKFORD, ET.

News for Veterans

A huge number of the veterans holding National Service Life Insurance have not taken advantage of the opportunity to buy low cost total disability income riders to their GI policies. This rider was first offered in 1958, and since that time only about a fifth of the policyholders have applied for the rider.

Policyholders who have bought the rider and who become totally disabled from any cause before age 60 will receive a monthly income of $10 for each $1,000 face value of the insurance. Payments will continue for the duration of the disability regardless of its length. After 60 the rider ceases to exist for disabilities incurred after that age, but continues to pay for total disability arising before age 60.

Veterans whose age at nearest birthday is 40 or under may get the rider without a physical examination. Those older are required to use the VA medical application form filled out with an examination by a VA doctor or personal physical.

About 750 Virginia veterans and widows of veterans have had their pensions suspended because they failed to return their annual income questionnaires. The checks of more than 1000 other veterans and widows have also been stopped because the income cards they sent in were incomplete or incorrect.

The 750 persons of the first group face not only the loss of their monthly pensions but, for many of them, the repayment of all pension money received during 1961. A new regulation this year provides that when a questionnaire is not returned the VA will declare an overpayment for the preceding year and will institute action to recover that entire year's pension.

Prompt action by those who have not returned their questionnaires is very important if the pensioner expects to avoid paying back all of last year's pension, and get back on the VA pension list if still eligible. Although the deadline was January 31, 1962, the VA will still accept late questionnaires and either release the pensions or take such other action as is necessary. Actually the VA is giving these delinquents another chance in about 10 days by mailing them a second 1961 income questionnaire.

Laff Of The Week

"Sorry there's no money in it, but maybe you'd like to look at the pictures of my kids."

Man's Existence Depends Largely On Productive Use of Water

The artificial application of water to the land for increased plant productivity, is as old as recorded history — and remains a problem even in today's technological world. Man's very existence has always depended on the successful use of water. The Bible records the relation of water to vegetation growth. In Genesis it says: "And a river went out of Eden to water the Garden."

Through the ages, man's ingenuity has progressed from primitive water ditches and hand-dipping to present-day hoses, sprinklers and underground systems. Water control, storage and distribution had its earliest beginnings about 6,000 years ago along the Nile in Egypt with primitive canals and reservoirs.

A comparable application of these ancient methods was found in the early Indian civilization in the Southwest where water was then and still is vitally essential to existence as well as agricultural and industrial development. The forerunner of modern methods dates from the advent of the Mormons in Utah. Today, this verdant valley and others throughout the West are glowing tributes to artificial watering of the land.

However, watering alone is not the complete answer to realizing the maximum potential growth, health and beauty in plant life. Feeding at the roots is the real life source, and plants absorb nutrients from the soil only when the required nourishment is available in solution. Modern water sources, treated, as they often are to comply with human health requirements, are frequently found to be deficient in one or more soluble feeding elements.

Replacement of these essential elements has usually depended upon application of various home fertilizers, often entailing laborious hand-mixing methods, close attention to formulas and use of time-consuming, spreader-type applicators. In addition to watering. However, as thousands of home gardeners know, there has existed a need not only for an easier and simpler way to "do the job," but a more effective, more easily controlled system.

Today, fertilizing need be no more trouble than simply watering. For example, and interesting new idea, the "Water-feeder"—brain-child of a Berkeley, Cal., manufacturer — combines scientific control of fertilizing with the complete simplicity of periodic lawn and garden watering. The "Water-feeder" can be attached directly to the faucet to permit use of any type of watering equipment; soaker, sprinkler or end-of-hose sprayers.

A low-cost fertilizer applicator, this product utilizes a handy, accurately pre-measured cartridge of plant food which dissolves in the water and is thus dispensed evenly to avoid areas of "burn" due to heavy fertilizer concentration. Since the nutritional needs of lawns and flowers are not always the same, this same company has produced these capsules in two separate formulas: one for the high-nitrogen needs of lawns, leafy shrubs and trees; the other for the phosphoric acid needs of flowers, flowering shrubs and vegetables.

This "feed as you water" concept is not only horticulturally sound, but encourages the regularity of both water and food supply to the betterment of the plants, lawns, flowers, shrubs & trees. They, like humans, thrive best on regular feeding rather than occasional heavy "meals."

A wealth of romance and history lies behind this fascinating subject. The ancient concept of aiding and abetting natural elements has indeed come a long way since those early days along the banks of the Nile.

News for HOMEMAKERS

Articles Prepared by the Princess Anne Extension Service

ACCESSORIES AROUND THE CLOCK

The well-dressed woman of today believes a wardrobe of fewer clothes, well chosen as to style, use and quality is less expensive, easier to care for and helps develop her personality better than a wardrobe of less style and quality but a larger number of articles. She believes that variety in dress may be achieved successfully through skillful use of accessories.

Accessories complete a costume and express the personality and taste of the wearer. They include hats, shoes, gloves, handbags, scarves, jewelry, belts, handkerchiefs, flowers, perfume and collar and cuff sets.

Accessories can add life and interest to an otherwise dull or tiresome costume. They are chosen for their beauty in design and color as well as for their usefulness. For this reason, it is easy to look overdressed if too many are used. If you do not need an accessory for its usefulness or its color accent, leave it off. Simplicity in fashion usually means well-constructed lines, beautiful materials, subtly blended colors and skill and imagination in combining them.

The smartly dressed person selects accessories in scale with her size. A large, heavy-looking purse or hat does not complement the small, dainty person. The tiny hat with dainty trimming is not becoming to a large person.

Choose accessories for the individual and occasion for which they are to be used. They should emphasize good features or minimize poor ones. Hands that are large will go unnoticed if plain, neutral or dark-colored gloves are worn. Colored gloves or gloves with decoration call attention to the same large hands, but they may be just right for the woman with small hands & wearing a dark suit that needs an accent of color. If each accessory is chosen correctly for a carefully thought-out purpose, it fits with the garment into a harmonious costume for the wearer.

FASHION HITS FOR LOOKING SMART

Accessories prove costly if they are good for only one or two wearings. You will choose more wisely if you heed these fashion hints:

Expensive accessories, such as hats, shoes and handbags usually should be the same color as the basic garment; varied colors can be used in smaller, less expensive accessories. Good leather bags, gloves and shoes are a mark of a well-dressed person, and should be considered as investments which outlast and look good longer than several cheaper ones.

Choose accessories that are simple in line and neat in workmanship. A few pieces of costume jewelry of real semi-precious stones cost no more than a lot of imitation jewels and are in better taste. In selecting costume jewelry, look for modern and conventionalized pieces rather than naturalistic, and with a design smoothly finished.

Bright-colored wardrobes call for subdued accessories. If bright-colored shoes and bag are your choice, they usually need to be worn with navy, black, neutrals or harmonizing pastels.

The effect usually is spotted if more than two bright-colored matching accessories are worn at one time. One bright-colored accessory often is smarter than two with the other accessories harmonizing in color.

If a brilliant hat is worn with a black dress, wear dark shoes and bag. Gloves may match shoes, hat or bag in neutral colors or they may be selected in a harmonized color when either hat, bag or shoes are bright in color.

Hats, shoes or bags, when worn with multi-colored print, plaids or other designs, should be of a solid color. Keep them simple in design. The smart shopper buys accessories that are suited for the places she goes.

If in doubt about an accessory being correct for the occasion, leave it off. An all-black ensemble often demands a soft touch of color to relieve the monotone and light up the wearer's complexion.

Before buying accessories, try them together with the costume they are to complement. A slight change in shape, color and size may make or destroy that "smooth look of elegance."

Princess Anne Happenings

By Leslie Russell

This past week at Princess Anne High School was one of havoc with few hectic moments to spare from tides to tests. For some of the students, it was a week of disaster as the high tides in the Virginia Beach area heavily damaged or destroyed their homes.

Leslie Russell

Hearty congratulations to those students of PA who were selected to the Tidewater Scholastic Team for this past semester. These members are Fred Keene, Mary Fran Hughes, Mitchell Brody, Nancy Gotwald, Paul DeRocher, Jay Ferguson, Bob Henderson, and Tommy Yancy.

Miss Nancy Gotwald, Princess Anne senior, was awarded a gold plaque for her chance to compete for a scholastic achievement and a scholarship sponsored by the Ledger-Dispatch annually.

Nancy, selected as "Most Intelligent" by her class, has been very active in her high school career throughout the various activities at P.A. As vice president of the Beta Club, Nancy is a member of the Keyette Club, the National Honor Society and has attained an "A" average. Among other many activities, Nancy was also a member of the homecoming court and a contestant finalist in the "Miss Princess Anne" contest. Nancy plans to attend William and Mary next year. Congratulations to one who certainly deserves it!

It was a wonderful weekend for the Keyettes who attended The National Keyette Convention at the Admiralty Hotel. After first registering, a talent show was held with skits presented by the different clubs. The girls who were from all over the state of Virginia, the state of Maryland, and the Washington, D.C. area then joined together in a coke party.

P. A. Junior Wins
On the main agenda last Saturday morning was the election of the National Keyette officers. After much deliberation, Miss Jan Baker was elected president; Miss Marnie Foote, vice-president; Miss Nancy Foy (PA Jr.), recording secretary; Miss Sharon Gorey, corresponding secretary; and Miss Anne DeRocher, treasurer.

Nancy, who was elected recording secretary, was also recently awarded another honor—Princess Anne's Most Outstanding Junior Girl of the Class of '62.

Nancy has participated in nearly every activity at Princess Anne. She is a varsity cheerleader, member of the Keyette Club, member of Trinity Tri-Hi-Y, member of the Beta Club, member of the SCA, member of the ANNUAL's staff, and last but not least, Nancy is to be the editor of the Peerage, Princess Anne's annual next year.

ATTENTION! The class standings of Princess Anne High School have been announced!

Top Students

Miss Nancy Gotwald and Miss Josephine Jones are the valedictorian and salutatorian of the class of '62.

Of the 80 honor graduates, here are the top '25: Nancy Gotwald, Josephine Jones, Elaine Thornton, Mitchell Brody, Lynne Martin, Carolyn Danner, Nita Capps, Grace Bamforth, Pat Plevyak, Waylon Webbon, Pat Mahoney, Della Cameron, Steven Rose, Shelby Grimstead, Forest Paradise, Vickie Moore, Gall Morgan, Barbara Standford, Steve Millard, Linda Farmer, Anne Powell, Herbert Cartwright, Elizabeth McGinnis, Faye Fisher, and Clifford Brown.

With spring in the near future, we hope, the golf schedule of Princess Anne High School has been announced.

April 3—Warwick—at Elizabeth Manor.

April 13—Hampton—at Hampton.

May 1—Virginia Beach—Cox—at Cavalier.

May 4—Norview-Cradock—at Kempsville.

Good luck, Cavalier golfers.

There is to be a new face among the faculty of PA upon the departure of Mr. Ronnie Davis, biology teacher, who is leaving for Marine Officers Reserve Training. Mr. Pat Lyons, who is a graduate of Duke University and William and Mary, will teach the biology course. For Mr. Lyons, Princess Anne is his first teaching job. Mr. Lyons who student-taught at Norview Junior High School is a golf enthusiast and a past football player at Duke University. Good luck, Mr. Lyons!!

Mrs. Gilbert Keene Is New President Of Cape Henry Woman's Club for 1962-63

PRINCESS ANNE—The Cape Henry Woman's Club held their Annual Club Meeting, Thursday, at the Princess Anne Country Club.

The Club History was read by Mrs. H. O. Freeman, Historian.

Mrs. R. H. Steinhilber, Music Chairman, accompanied Mrs. George Langdon and Mrs. A. V. Anderson, who sang two selections.

Mrs. Roy Ivey, Health Chairman, presented Mrs. Virginia Lloyd, visiting nurse for Princess Anne County. She told the club of the various phases of work being done in the Health Department and many of her experiences as a Health Nurse.

The new officers for the year 1962-63 were installed by Mrs. Foster I. Gilbert, First Vice-President of the Tidewater District, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs.

The following were installed: President: Mrs. Gilbert Keene; First Vice-President, Mrs. Arthur B. James; 2nd Vice-President, Mrs. George Webber; 3rd Vice-President, Mrs. John Collins; Recording Secretary, Mrs. John Parker; and Treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Stith. The Eighth Birthday luncheon will be held April 5th at Steinhilber's Thalia Acres Inn.

CHESAPEAKE BEACH AND OCEAN PARK MOPING UP AFTER STORM

The residents of Chesapeake Beach were fortunate during the storm last week. Water came up in about 35 homes, bulkheads, anchor fences, lawns and underpinnings of homes were washed away but according to a survey only one home was badly damaged and that belongs to Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Lester, on Ocean Avenue and the waterfront. They were forced to flee when the waves washed out the underpinnings and foundation. They are hard at work restoring it but in the meantime they are not able to live there.

The "green house" is still standing on the beach! After each hurricane or bad storm everybody rushes down to the beach to see if the "green house" is still there. It is built on the beach and is much nearer the water than any other house—hence the concern. It is built on piling and the waves wash under it. The only thing about it is that the residents used to come across a sand dune to the house and at last—the dune is not there anymore, in fact the house is just sitting on a very wide beach and it will be necessary to get a ladder up to the front door to get in!

The Chesapeake Beach Volunteer Fire Department and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Fire Department took care of thirty-two persons Wednesday night who had to leave their homes on account of high water. A disaster shelter was quickly assembled in the Fire house.

Since the storm the Volunteer Firemen of Chesapeake Beach and Ocean Park and all the Companies in the County have been hard at work pumping water from flooded areas, patrolling the area to keep looters away and the Ocean Park Fire Department have been furnishing the residents with fresh drinking water and Saturday a typhoid clinic was quickly set up in the Ocean Park Fire Station to give all residents of the area typhoid shots.

Ocean Park being so much nearer the Lynnhaven Inlet suffered much more damage than Chesapeake Beach. According to a survey 24 homes were demolished. Sunday there was still a great deal of water trapped around numerous residences. But things are progressing as quickly as can be expected when a community is faced by such a gigantic task. Our hat goes off to all the Volunteer firemen who have worked tirelessly on this "mop-up" project.

CLUB '56' AUXILIARY

NORFOLK—The Ladies Auxiliary of Club '56' had its regular monthly business meeting Tuesday night at the Amphibious Base.

Plans were made to have Mrs. Ella Johnson, a beauty consultant, come to the next social meeting, March 20, and explain how to use cosmetics to the best advantage.

The purpose of this club is to aid, assist, and promote a friendly and sympathetic relationship among the service wives of E5 or E6. For further information, please call Mrs. Robert Hill HO 4-4402 or Mrs. Fred Sims, UL 5-8703.

cancelled because the Chamberlain Hotel, where the meeting was to be held, was surrounded by two feet of water, will be held Tuesday, March 27, at the Chamberlain Hotel. Registration is at 9:00 A.M.

By LYN CONNELLY
WILLIAM INGE'S award-winning play and top grossing motion picture triumph provides the format for ABC-TV's new and exciting series, "Bus Stop". Set in the community of Sunrise, "Bus Stop" tells the stories of people of the town and of the strangers who, passing through, are caught in the momentum of suspenseful action... The series will use many guest stars, and providing a continuity of week-to-week interest will be a top flight group of "regulars" headed by Marilyn Maxwell, Rhodes Reason and Joan Freeman.

Grace, played by Marilyn Maxwell, is a beautiful woman whose Bus Stop Cafe is a haven, stop-over and community center for the men and women of Sunrise and the travelers as well... Grace is a woman of tender compassion and earthly common sense, eager to reach out and help a fellow human being... Reason plays Sheriff Will Mayberry, a handsome, warm-hearted law officer whose prime concern is protecting the community.

Joan Freeman brings understanding, charm and beauty to the role of Elma Gahinger, the promiscuous waitress at the Bus Stop Cafe who is blossoming into full womanhood under Grace's wise guidance... Dealing with highly charged human drama, "Bus Stop" stories are realistic and revealing... The programs' basic theme of the "stranger passing through" is a perennial favorite in literature and films.

Is College Education Important?

THE WEEK'S LETTER: "Mother and dad insist we children go to college to further our education. Could you tell me why it's so important? Do all parents feel this way?"

OUR REPLY: Unfortunately, thousands of parents desire college educations for their children, yet are unable to manage it financially. If your parents are able—or willing through sacrifice—to send you to college, you should consider yourself extremely fortunate.

A college education is important. In many well-paying fields, a college degree is a job requirement. A college graduate can expect a higher salary for his services than a high school graduate. The average employer believes the college grad better qualified to accept responsibility and is willing to "pay the difference," even though a high school grad might creditably perform the same job at less pay.

Specifically, the college student can direct his training toward a particular profession. He may become a doctor, dentist, or a lawyer.

On the other hand, let us assume there is a "family business" which you will take over some day. Why worry about the future if it's all mapped out for you? You should worry about it. If you hope someday to have something to pass on to your own children, you will have to be able to keep pace in this competitive world. Education enables you to do your best whatever you do.

Times have changed since mom and dad were youngsters. Only a small percentage of high school grads were lucky enough to go to college then. Now going to college is the dream of high school graduates everywhere... and it is a dream that may be fulfilled by the student who is capable.

The MIXING BOWL... IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food fads and fables... for practical, down-to-earth recipes that please both palate and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

Low In Cost—High In Pleasure

Some of the world's best recipes have been money savers—corned beef and cabbage, pot roast and lamb stew for example.
Here is a new economical cake recipe that should become a favorite because of its delicious pudding-like texture and light chocolate flavor enhanced by several popular spices.

Thrifty Chocolate Spice Cake

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------------|
| 1 cup sugar | 1 1/2 cups sifted flour |
| 2 squares semi-sweet chocolate or 1 square
unsweetened chocolate | 1 teaspoon baking soda |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon |
| 1 tablespoon butter | 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg |
| 1 cup raisins | 1/2 teaspoon ground clove |
| 1/2 cups water | 1/2 cup coarsely chopped walnuts |

Combine sugar, chocolate, 1/2 teaspoon salt, the butter, raisins, and water in heavy saucepan. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly.
Simmer 5 minutes without stirring. Cool thoroughly. Meanwhile, measure sifted flour, add soda and spices, and sift together. Add flour and nuts to the cooled chocolate, stirring until all flour is incorporated. (Do not beat.) Pour into a greased 8-inch square pan.
Bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) 40 to 45 minutes.

Serve cake warm. Top with a dollop of softened cream cheese or whipped cream and your favorite sauce. Makes 9 servings.

Sure it's almost St. Patrick's Day again! Time to take out the old shillelagh, strike up the harp and celebrate the wearin' of the green. And what is more Irish than a kettle of Irish Stew? The Irish make it with potatoes and cabbage—so I'm told.

This time let's use the little cabbages from California—Brussels sprouts—wearin' the green of the day.

Lamb riblets, strips of the breast, would be another suggestion for a St. Patrick's Day Feast with potatoes and parsley added for a one-dish meal.

The above dessert will be grand finale for St. Patrick's Day meal.

Irish Lamb Stew

- 2 pounds diced lamb shoulder
(lean as possible)
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 quart bouillon
1 can (1 lb.) whole white potatoes (drained)
1 can whole carrots
(drained)
1 package (10-oz.) frozen
California Brussels sprouts —thawed
1/4 teaspoon basil
6 teaspoons all-purpose flour
1/2 cup water

Sprinkle lamb with salt and pepper. Melt butter or margarine—add lamb and cook over medium heat, stirring occasionally until brown on all sides. Add bouillon. Cover and cook over low heat until sprouts are tender. Combine flour and water thoroughly—gradually add to stew—stir gently and cook until thickened.

I like to cook sprouts separately in salted water and then add—it's easier to keep them whole.

You may add an onion when cooking the lamb, adds flavor,
I think.

Lamb Riblet and Potato Salad

- 1 1/2 lbs. lamb riblets
1 medium sized onion
1 can whole white potatoes drained and sliced
3/4 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1/4 cup vinegar

In skillet, heat 1/4 cup oil, brown lamb on all sides, add onion and cook 5 more minutes —stir occasionally. Drain off drippings, if necessary so as to not have too much grease, add 1 cup water and cover, cook over low heat until lamb is tender, add potatoes, salt pepper and vinegar. Cook for 15 minutes longer, stir frequently.
Sprinkle with parsley.

YWCA Urging Member Drive

VIRGINIA BEACH — Ladies were urged this week to renew their membership in the YWCA, if it has expired, or to take out a new membership to aid in carrying out the many Chris-

The National Outlook

Everyone knows that the total population of this country increases week by week, month by month, and year by year. The rate of growth varies, but it is persistent. It appears reasonable to assume, therefore, that our labor force necessarily would grow by about the same proportion.

But this assumption is not correct. There is a relationship between population increase and labor force growth, but it is far from fixed or even approximately steady.

Only about 40 percent of our population is in the labor force at all, even in June and July when the total is the largest of the year. Between the high and low of the year there is now a difference of about 4 million. But from year to year the growth varies widely. For example from 1955 to 1956 the increase was 1.7 million and 1957 showed a growth of only 400,000 over 1956.

The labor force figure includes the armed forces. In addition we have a civilian labor force tabulation, and this is the one against which the percentage of unemployment is calculated. From this point of view it is the really important figure.

This deserves emphasis because in January of this year the civilian labor force was 100,000 below January 1961. That is an amazing development, and doubly so since last March the total was 1.3 million above March 1960.

Among those who work extensively in this field this decline is to be accounted for by the following:

First, the calling up of reserves by the military reduced the civilian labor force by almost an equal number. This means simply that the reservists were in the civilian labor force, and most of them had jobs.

Second, the first session of the present Congress amended the Social Security Act to enable men to retire at 62. A surprising number of men have elected to take advantage of this early retirement, and almost all of them have left the civilian labor force.

Third, fewer women entered the labor force than is normally expected. No one knows why this was so, but the statistics leave no doubt that this is what happened. No one knows, either, whether this is the start of a new trend, or a short-term aberration.

Fourth, the labor force figures and the data on the civilian labor force are estimated from a scientifically selected sample, and this makes monthly comparisons rather dubious. The Department of Labor prefers to use quarterly comparisons, and says specifically that such figures "are more reliable than data for specific months". This does not mean that there is carelessness in the compilation of the figures. There is not.

But in any calculation of this magnitude it is desirable, if possible, to allow for errors to average out. When the February figure on the civilian labor force appears we probably shall find that it shows an increase over January.

As mentioned earlier it is the civilian labor force against which the rate of unemployment is calculated. Had we got the normal, or expected, increase over the past twelve months the rate of unemployment would have declined slightly more than it did, granting the number of persons without jobs did not change. Actually, of course, it is probable that the number of out-of-work would have increased by approximately the additions to the labor force.

P. A. Historical Groups to Meet

PRINCESS ANNE—The Princess Anne Historical Society will call a meeting at Eastern Shore Chapel parish house Sunday at 3 p.m.

The meeting is being held under the auspices of the membership committee with a view to try to double the membership of the Society, which must be strong to carry out the important work entrusted to it.

This work is to assist in the preservation of historical material and old homes of the county dating from the 17th, 18th and 19th centuries.

At this meeting Mrs. W. R. Miller Jr. and Mrs. L. Crawford Syer will show a unique collection of colored slides of many of these charming old homes. Some are in good hands. Some have already disappeared before the devouring bulldozers of the new housing developments. Others are in a sad state of neglect. Still others have been included in roads zoned for commercial development.

Princess Anne County may lose a cultural asset, also a tourist attraction far more valuable than all the modern means devised to draw vacationers to this area.

Everyone wishing to help with this work on behalf of these ancient houses should attend the meeting Sunday and become members ($2 and up) of the Princess Anne Historical Society.

King's Grant P-TA Sponsoring Dinner

KING'S GRANT — King's Grant Christian Day School Parent-Teacher Fellowship will sponsor a dinner Friday at 7:00 P.M. at the school.

The dinner will be followed by an auction of donated items from local merchants and some "white elephants."

Tickets for the dinner may be obtained from Mrs. J. F. Miller, 497-7182 or Mrs. Richard McCrea, 497-1432. Adult tickets are $1, children's 50 cents. The menu will include turkey, potato salad, vegetables, rolls, coffee or tea.

The Fellowship will hold a regular meeting Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

RETIREMENT SCHOOL MAJOR: WHAT TO DO

"MAYBE you have written something like this before, but it would have been back a few years when I thought the sort of column you write was silly. Well, it's serious to me now and I need advice on setting up a retirement course in an Adult Education School. Can you give me guidance?"

Determine first whether you want a course for people already retired or for people about to retire. If the former, your pupils will be mainly lonely oldsters who attend because it is somewhere to go. The 60-to-65 years group, with the pension still to come, is busy looking under the bed, and will be more apt students.

Have classes two evenings a week if you can. Once a week doesn't hold together. Six weeks is too short. Three months would do better. Two-part courses of three months each would be fine, and effective.

Make the "Major" in your retirement course the "What To Do" lessons. You could divide these into three segments: Jobs; Volunteer Civic Activities; and Learning.

In the Jobs category pupils would be assigned to find job openings in the community—by contacting employment agencies, personnel managers, bosses of small business houses, etc.

The jobs to be sought should be evening or weekend jobs so the pupils, since they are still working, could take them. For the Volunteer Civic Activities, the instructor, with a few phone calls, can find spots in charity work, etc., for as many pupils as he has. During the evenings when the pupils do not attend classes, they should fill the volunteer jobs.

For the Learning candidates, it is suggested that they be seated at the rear of the room to do nothing and be asked nothing. They will just watch the others.

The "Minor" in the retirement course might be these: Wills—A half-dozen lessons will be needed, showing who needs a will, what wills can and can't do and the state laws governing them. A member of the local bar association may be guest instructor... probably for free.

Life Insurance—Maybe three lessons will be sufficient, with local insurance executives—again for free—telling the many ways the pupils can convert their policies into methods more appropriate to their pension years.

Investments—Most of the pupils wouldn't be bothering with a retirement school if they had more than $10,000 or so. Therefore, a savings executive of a local bank or an executive of a local savings and loan association would make the best instructor. For free.

Health—Seek as instructors not doctors and not officers of the American Medical Association, but Blue Cross and Blue Shield officials, officials of any insurance company dealing with health insurance.

Louisiana Stamp Is Picture Of Mississippi Riverboat

The 4-cent Louisiana Statehood stamp, to be first placed on sale on April 30, 1962, at New Orleans, La., was designed by Norman Todhunter, artist member of the Postmaster General's Stamp Advisory Committee.

The central subject of the stamp honoring the 150th anniversary of Louisiana Statehood is an old riverboat belching fire and smoke, churning up the Mississippi River, seen at dusk through riverbank trees which drip Spanish moss.

This stamp, measuring 0.84 by 1.44 inches, arranged horizontally, will be issued in panes of 50, with an initial printing order of 115,000,000. It will be printed on the Glori presses in three colors. The wording "LOUISIANA," across the bottom of the stamp, the fire spitting from the smokestacks, and the setting sun are vermilion red; the riverboat and riverbank elements are deep moss green; the lettering "1812-1962", to the left of the design, and "U. S. Postage 4c", to the right, are cobalt blue. The lettering, by Jerry Mullen of New York, is appropriately old fashioned.

Collectors desiring first day cancellations of the 4-cent Louisiana Statehood stamp may send addressed envelopes, together with remittance to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed, to the Postmaster, New Orleans 12, Louisiana.

Each envelope must be marked, in pencil, in the upper right corner, indicating the number of stamps to be affixed (singles, pairs, blocks, etc.). An enclosure of medium weight should be placed in each envelope and the flap either turned in or sealed. The outside envelope to the Postmaster

What's different about Rambler's rustproofing?

It goes all the way up to the roof. Only Rambler has Deep-Dip rustproofing—entire body immersed in primer paint right up to roof—plus 8 other body rustproofing steps.

What's different about Rambler's brakes?

They stop when other brakes can't. Double-Safety Brake System has tandem master cylinders. If front brakes fail, rear brakes still work and vice versa. Self-adjusting brakes standard, too.

What's different about Rambler's headroom?

It's greater than any other American car's. Rambler Classic and Ambassador VS beat all other makes in front-seat headroom (even Cadillac)—can seat six 6-footers easily.

What's different about Rambler's muffler and tailpipe?

They won't rust out. Ceramic-Armored muffler, tailpipe guaranteed against defect as long as you own your new Rambler. If either rusts out, collision damage excepted, a Rambler dealer makes free replacement.

What's different about Rambler's prices?

They're America's lowest. Only Rambler brings you America's lowest suggested retail prices for convertible, 2-door and 4-door sedans and wagons—all quality-built with Rambler excellence.

5,000 VOTES OF THANKS TO VEPCO CUSTOMERS

... from the VEPCO men and women who battled to restore electric service under the buffets of last week's system-wide storms.

The patience shown by electrically stranded customers was truly wonderful. The 5,000 men and women of VEPCO want you to know that you have their heartfelt vote of thanks.

We want you to know, too, that every one of us did his or her level best to shorten the often serious inconvenience you suffered. From the onset of the first storm, office workers manned all phones 24 hours a day to receive your trouble calls. But even so, we know many of you faced the discouragement of repeated busy signals as the record volume of emergency calls swamped the lines.

The storm was one of the most devastating and widespread winter storms ever to hit this area. With emergencies facing many parts of the VEPCO area, we borrowed line crews from other areas. And every crew worked night and day to repair and clear the lines.

As Reddy Kilowatt says, it was "tough going." We know it was even tougher for you. Again our thanks for all your patient understanding in this major emergency.

PRINCESS ANNE SHARE-THE-FUN CONTEST HIGHLIGHTS NATIONAL 4-H CLUB WEEK

The Kempsville Junior High School auditorium was the setting for a very entertaining display of Princess Anne County 4-H Club talent last Friday night. Performances coming under the headings of vocal, dancing, instrumental, and general entertainment, provided a variety show which was enjoyed by a sizeable group of Princess Anne County 4-H Club supporters.

VOCALS

Steven Hilton, representing the Courthouse School Club, took first place honors with his black face version of "Plant A Watermelon on My Grave." John Moulton, from the Courthouse School Club, placed second with his gay "20s version of "Whistle a Happy Tune." Sharyn Land, from the Courthouse School Club, placed 3rd with her solo of "Sound of 'Sound of Music'." Other performers in the vocal category include: Roseanne Ange, doing "Rose, Rose, I Love You"; Patricia White, "America, Our Heritage"; Paulette Fenton, "He's got the Whole World in His Hands"; and the Courthouse 4-H Chorus doing "Climb Every Mountain."

DANCING

INSTRUMENTAL

Robin Dunn, from the Rideaway 5-H Club, took top honors in the instrumental contest with her piano solo of "Prelude in C Minor." Second place went to Ann Buffington, from the Courthouse School Club with her solo of "Skip to My Lou." A tie for third place honors was shared by Judy Barco, from the Virginia Beach Clavers 4-H Club, & her piano version of "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," and Billy Knight, Bobby Venner, and Malcolm Gregory, from the Courthouse School Club, with their instrumental trio version of "Moonlight Echoes." Other participants in the instrumental division of the Share-the-Fun Contest included Joan Skidmore, doing Exodus, Pat Behrens, doing Spinning Song, Prudy Rank, doing "Bells of St. Mary's," Vickie Green, doing Peasant Dance, and Kathy Posy, "Grandfather's Clock."

Awards for the winners will be presented in the form of scholarship certificates at the County 4-H Club Achievement Program which occurs in May.

AGENT TAKES OFFICE

Mr. Jack M. Tyree has been named State 4-H Club Agent. He is a former 4-H Club member and 4-H All-Star from West Virginia. Mr. Tyree received his B.S. degree from West Virginia University, his M.S. from Cornell University, and had done graduate study towards his doctorate. In 1940, Mr. Tyree began work as County 4-H Club Agent with the West Virginia Extension Service. He has held continuous employment with the Extension Service, except while a member of the Armed Forces and doing graduate study. He joined the Virginia 4-H staff in 1950, as Associate Agent.

Mr. Tyree is a state 4-H Club worker who is not unfamiliar to many of our Princess Anne

4-H DEMONSTRATIONS AND JUDGING TEAMS CONTESTS TO BE HELD IN APRIL

The Southeast District 4-H demonstration and judging contest will be held on April 14, at the Bolling Junior High School, in Petersburg, Virginia. 4-H Club members will compete on a district level in the following project areas: Public speaking; Electric, Livestock Conservation, Forestry, Tractor operation, Beautification of Home Grounds, Sheep Shearing, Poultry production, and automotive care and safety.

The Dairy Judging will be held on April 28, with the East Central District, at Farmville, Virginia. Livestock Judging will be held in Isle of Wight County, on April 14. Poultry and Egg judging will be held May 12, at Warsaw, Va. Land Appreciation will be held in Petersburg, on April 14. Interested 4-H Club participants should refer to the 4-H Awards handbook for time and instructions or demonstrations. We would also like to have some of our older 4-H boys and girls to help in assisting with these events. 4-H Club members with past experience in the District Contest could be of much assistance to us in the areas of presiding, judging, or generally helping make this contest a successful event. I would appreciate very much if any of those club members who would be interested in helping with these contests would contact me at the County Agent's Office, and at that time I will be most happy to give you further details.

PLANS UNDERWAY FOR VPI AGRICULTURAL EXPOSITION

All those 4-H Club members and other youth who are interested in the schools of agriculture and Home Economics at VPI, should make plans to attend the Annual VPI Agricultural Exposition, which is to be held on May 4 and 5. I have had the privilege of working on the Agricultural Exposition Committee while attending VPI, and feel that this particular program is so designed that an excellent total picture of the VPI Campus and schools of agriculture can be obtained by the visitor. Many educational and entertaining events are planned for this 2-day exposition. Included in the program are: tours of the campus, the little International Livestock Judging Contest, a VPI baseball game, and many other entertaining events. I would encourage all those high school students interested in VPI to attend this exposition, if it is at all possible.

Bruce Murphy Posts Passing Grade for Bar

BRUCE G. MURPHY

RICHMOND—Bruce G. Murphy of Virginia Beach, who is attending the University of Richmond's T. C. Williams School of Law, has passed the Virginia State Bar Examination. The University of Virginia graduate, son of Mr. W. L. Murphy, Jr., was among 77 per cent of the law school students who took the exam and passed.

Murphy is also a graduate of Virginia Beach High School and is married to Mrs. Lu Ann Murphy. He is a former secretary of the T. C. Williams Student Bar Association.

Murphy was a dean's list student at U. Va. and a member of the V-Club and Lambda Pi. He is also a member of Delta Theta Phi legal fraternity.

Security, prosperity, and peace are what Americans want most. Buying U.S. Savings Bonds regularly is a positive step in that direction.

From Agnes Miedel, Scottsdale, Pa.: I can remember Alexander Bell's telephone invention, anchored on our kitchen wall, only one to a family and twenty-two rural families sharing the same line.

The telephone came in brown only, an oblong box, a crank on one side to ring central and to summon any neighbor by ringing two long and one short, etc.—telephone directory unused.

A mouthpiece protruded from the front of the box, about six inches, and was adjustable. The receiver on the side was lifted gently from the hook to be sure no one was using the line before ringing neighbor Jones. However, if neighbor Smith was gossiping to neighbor Brown, you thought "I'll just rubber for a few moments before replacing the receiver." Before the two were through conversing, every receiver in the community had clicked. Neighbor Smith would remark to neighbor Brown, "I suppose it's that Mrs. So and So Let's give her an ear-full."

You heard more news on the telephone than you could find in the local paper. Widow Hinds was running around with Farmer Jake's hired hand. Mitchum's cow jumped the fence into Marion's corn field—biggest feud since Hatfields and McCoys. Neighbor Stanly won't enter her quilt in the county fair. The judges didn't do right by Grandma Speck's ginger bread recipe last year.

Today, we have private lines, a phone in every room, matching color schemes and dialing from coast-to-coast—and catch up on the latest from the afternoon bridge club.

VIRGINIA BEACH, VIRGINIA, THURSDAY, MARCH 15, 1962

Mrs. Mason Is New JWC Head

VIRGINIA BEACH — Mrs. C. Samuel Mason was elected president of the Junior Woman's Club of Princess Anne County when the group met last week in the Home Economics Room of the Virginia Beach High School.

Other new officers include Mrs. V. K. Almond Jr., first vice president; Mrs. Robert Fentress, second vice president; Mrs. E. P. Lanning, third vice president; Mrs. Peter Scoppa, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. W. Craft Jr., recording secretary; and Mrs. James A. Murphy Jr., treasurer.

An outline for the 1962 Follies, to follow a "Seaside '62" theme, were announced by the general chairman, Mrs. Fentress. She announced that a representative of the Jerome Cargill Co. of New York had already met with the chairman and plans are underway.

Mrs. Donald Hood, president, and Mrs. Mason were named delegates to the state convention and Mrs. Almond and Mrs. Fentress were elected delegates.

A. B. Midgett of the Virginia Beach - Princess Anne County Rescue Squad showed a film on "Rescue Breathing."

MALIBU CIVIC LEAGUE

MALIBU—The Malibu Civic League met recently at the Lynnhaven - Little Neck Civic Building with the president, Charles Warburton, in charge of the meeting.

It was announced that a new garden club has been formed in Malibu and Mrs. Donald Brittingham was named hospitality chairman for the league.

A fire committee was formed to make up and send fire information to all Malibu residents. Albert Helbestine was named chairman of this committee and Mrs. Theodore Langs and Ralph Garner were appointed to assist him.

Cavalier Beach Club After the Storm

GIRL SCOUT GROUP COMMITTEE MEETS

VIRGINIA BEACH — The monthly meeting of the Princess Anne District Girl Scout Committee was held Friday morning at the home of Mrs. Ethel Dill on 525 Highpoint Avenue, Virginia Beach.

Fifteen members were present, including Miss Sherry McCormick, District Adviser, and Mrs. D. E. Holland, District Chairman.

Plans were made for the District-Wide Rally to be held in May. Mrs. F. P. Jordan of the Diamond Springs Neighborhood was named chairman of the Rally Committee, and Mrs. J. L. Craig, of the Kempsville Neighborhood was named co-chairman.

Business As Usual At Popular Club

VIRGINIA BEACH — The Cavalier Beach and Cabana Club, long a landmark on the Virginia Beach scene, lost its outside dance floor, terrace and ocean front cabanas during last Wednesday's storm. But Friday the club opened for business as usual, ignoring the summer facilities that lay battered and strewn along the beach.

The portion of the club that housed the winter operations had been completely untouched by the storm's fury.

A full clean-up crew went to work Sunday clearing up the debris and tearing down the wreckage. And while this was being done a group of architects, contractors, building suppliers and club personnel made plans for the immediate rebuilding of a new and even finer club.

Open On Time

Before noon Monday, a group of 40 workmen, bringing bulldozers, cranes, tractors and other heavy equipment, got underway with the rebuilding plans. They will work around the clock to have the club ready for its summer opening date, May 19.

But meanwhile, back in the clubhouse, everything is going along as usual: duplicate and party bridge luncheons are held every Thursday, buffet and dinner dancing is held every Sunday evening and there is dancing to the music of John Derieux and his orchestra every Saturday night.

Not only are the regularly scheduled events progressing there are even a few special events coming up.

A St. Patrick's Day Dance will be held Saturday, starting at 9:30 p.m. Hats, pipes and all the trimmings, with plenty of green in the decorations, will set the mood for a "Dinty Moore Dinner" and other Irish favorites to be featured in the Captain's Table. Reservations must be made by calling GA 8-4321.

The following Saturday, March 24, the Kaye Quintet, one of the state's most popular musical groups, will provide music for dancing and will also appear at the Sunday Buffet on March 25th.

LOCAL YOUTH MADE CADET LT. COLONEL

Cadet Leonard H. Barrell, Jr., a student at Hargrave Military Academy, has been promoted to the grade of Lieutenant-Colonel in the Cadet Corps, according to an announcement made by the school.

Lt. Col. Barrell is the top officer of the battalion group at the school. He began the current school year as Cadet Battalion Major.

Barrell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard H. Barrell, who resides in Bay Colony, Virginia Beach.

Future Business Leader Awards To P.A. Group

PRINCESS ANNE — At the Regional Meeting of the Future Business Leaders of America, held March 10 at the Norfolk College of William and Mary, the Princess Anne Chapter received four "outstanding" ratings on entries in contests.

"Outstanding" ratings were received for a bulletin board display, the chapter scrapbook, and an exhibit. An essay written by Pat Meekins was judged "outstanding", and Iris Wright won second place in the spelling contest.

These entries will compete at the State FBLA Convention in Roanoke on April 27-29. The Chapter's Parliamentary Law Team, composed of five members, received a second place rating.

Approximately two hundred FBLA members from twelve schools in the Tidewater area attended the meeting.

Delegates to the meeting from the Princess Anne Chapter were Annis Leveridge, Pat Meekins, Carolyn Clark, and Linda Gwaltney. Pat Long, Sara White, Nancy Woodhouse, and Jean Bayles served as alternates.

Other members attending the meeting were Martha Calk, Iris Wright, Pat Baker, Louise Macomber, Lois Barnes, Pam Birdsong, and Betty Mulder. Mrs. Helen Walton and Mrs. Kathleen Edmondson, sponsors, accompanied the members.

BRAY TO SPEAK

KING'S GRANT—Judge Jerry Bray Jr. of Corporation Court of South Norfolk will speak on the Spong Commission at a meeting of the King's Grant P-TA Monday at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Girl Scout Troop No. 534 will present a brief history of scouting.

The general public is invited to attend this meeting. Refreshments will be served.

Post Office Employees Are Recognized by Community

The tie-clasp and cuff-links, bearing a miniature replica of the space capsule, "Freedom 7", were presented as an expression of the appreciation felt by city officials for the time consuming efforts extended by Mr. Barco and Mr. Jackson which resulted in obtaining approval from the Post Office Department for the use of the special cancellation hub at the Virginia Beach Post Office.

Mr. Barco and Mr. Jackson initiated and submitted the idea for the special cancellation and employees of the Virginia Beach Post Office paid for it themselves.

Since law forbids the use of a living person's name or advertising of a city, the cancellation could not bear the name of Commander Shepard or Virginia Beach. After much thought by the Virginia Beach Post Office employees, it was decided to use the title, now well known over the world by collectors, America's First Space Flight "Freedom 7".

The special cancellation was used at the Virginia Beach Post Office from May 20th through August 31st. During this time, request were received from all parts of the globe for the special cancellation. In fact, postmaster J. T. Crosswhite, Jr., said today, he still receives occasional request from collectors in distant parts of the world, for the special cancellation.

why?

Week after week carefully tabulated figures published in "Automotive Market Reports" show that Chevrolet trucks are worth more in resale value.

If you were a professional used truck buyer, why would you pay more for one make than another?

There may be several reasons, but among them would be:

1. A greater demand for the product
2. A more desirable product for resale

So if used Chevrolet trucks consistently bring higher prices at auctions all over the country, it means that their quality features pay off for you not only as long as you own them but also when you are ready to trade them—double-wall cabs, doors and side panels, roof insulation, select wood floors, reliable and economical engines, real rugged tailgates, a suspension system that helps prolong truck life.

See your Chevrolet dealer for a quality '62 Chevrolet Jobmaster truck.

"Automotive Market Reports" is a weekly authoritative publication which reports the average prices paid for used trucks and cars by professional buyers at auctions all over the U.S.

Your Social Security

Today fifty million working people have worked long enough under Social Security to be insured against loss of earnings because of a severe disability. Are you one of them? Severe illness or disability may strike any one of us at any age or at any time. Here are some facts you should know about your disability protection.

A disabled worker may qualify for monthly benefits for himself and his dependents if he has worked long enough under Social Security (at least five years out of ten years in which his disability began) and is so severely disabled that he is unable, in the words of the law, "to engage in any substantial gainful activity."

An important aspect of the disability program is that all applicants who apply for Social Security disability insurance benefits are also considered for vocational rehabilitation services. As a further rehabilitation incentive, the Social Security disability law provides for a trial work period. Disability beneficiaries may receive their monthly benefits for as long a period as twelve months while they are attempting to return to gainful employment.

Any disabled person should contact his local Social Security office to inquire about his rights. This is particularly important for people who have long standing severe disabilities. Such individuals may lose some monthly benefits if they do not file before June 30, 1962.

Another important phase of the Social Security disability program is the availability of childhood disability benefits for the adult disabled children of retired, disabled or deceased

RICHARD A. PELLETIER

Army Pvt. Richard A. Pelletier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell R. Pelletier, 10 Haven rd., Lynnhaven, Va., completed the eight-week pole lineman course at The Signal Training Center, Fort Gordon, Ga., February 23.

Pelletier was trained to install and maintain open wire, lead-covered cables and field communication wires.

He entered the Army last October and completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S.C.

The 18-year-old soldier attended Princess Anne High School. Before entering the Army, he was employed by Harry's American Service Station in London Bridge.

workers whose disabling condition occurred prior to age 18.

For further information, contact your local Social Security office for a copy of Booklet No. OASI-29, "If You Become Disabled". This pamphlet describes in detail your rights as well as the requirements necessary to qualify for benefits under the disability provisions of the Social Security program.

HERZER STUDENT IS TALENT EVENT WINNER

NORFOLK—Stuart Steingold, piano student of Clifford Herzer of Virginia Beach, won first place in the Key Club Talent Contest Friday night at the Golden Triangle.

Stuart is the 16-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. Meyer Steingold of the 6000 block of Newport Point in Norfolk. He also won the essay contest.

A student at Granby High School, he has just been named the school's "Outstanding Student" and nominated as the most intellectual in the Senior Class Hall of Fame.

Stuart played the "Pathétique Sonata" by Beethoven as his winning number. He competed with a classical guitarist, a pantomime company and two other pianists.

The Key Club Convention was sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and brought more than 1500 Key Clubbers from all over the state.

New Lutheran Church Planned For Lynnhaven

REV. KENNETH A. PRICE

LYNNHAVEN—The Rev. Mr. Kenneth A. Price has recently moved to Lynnhaven where he will begin work to organize a Lutheran congregation in the developments around the Princess Anne Plaza Shopping Center.

Price moved here from Warrenton, Virginia, where he organized a congregation and lead it through its first building program. He is a graduate of the Lutheran Southern Seminary in Columbia, S.C. & Roanoke College, Salem, Virginia.

He was born in Blacksburg, Va. and is married to the former Miss Joe Safrit of Lynchburg. They have two children, Mark and Virginia.

The new mission will be supported by the Virginia Synod and the Board of American Missions of the United Lutheran Church in America. The first task of Mr. Price as the mission developer will be to survey the area involved as to the potential and interest of the people.

Regular worship services will be started in the near future from a temporary place of worship. It is anticipated that the congregation which is to be organized may have its own church building in several years.

Mr. Price states that he is delighted to be in this new field and trust that another church may be planted. He will be glad to talk with you about the church. You may come by the parsonage at 10102 Sunnybrook Lane in King's Grant or phone 341-1100.

Day School to Present Plays

VIRGINIA BEACH—On Friday at 8:30 p.m. the Country Day School will present its annual evening of plays and chorus at the Linkhorn Park School on Laskin Road. The Rev. Henry Morgan will direct the chorus, and the plays will be under the direction of Mrs. William Sills.

Caroline Horton, a senior at Country Day is in charge of sets and properties, assisted by members of the Senior Class. Carole Anne Evans, also a senior, is in charge of tickets.

There will be three plays this year—"The Ugly Duckling," a fantasy by A. A. Milne; "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals"—a musical version of the Sir James Barrie classic, with music and lyrics by Mark Bucci and David Rogers; and as an "extra" a surprise presentation by Mary Douglas and Laura Lambe, assisted by Wing Todd.

The cast of the Ugly Duckling includes Laura Lambe as the King; Lee Valentine, the Queen; Susan Crommelin, the Princess; Jeanne Matthews the Prince; Ann Bennett, the Chancellor; Betty Lou Burton, Dulcibella the lady-in-waiting; Carlo, Judy Huck; and an Attendant, Charlotte Morton.

The play is strictly make-believe. The scene is the Throne Room of the Palace. The King and his Court are of any country from any story-book, in whatever costume you please. It is a bright and colorful comedy.

"The Old Lady Shows Her Medals" has Lynn Church in the title role of Mrs. Dowe, the Old Lady. Others in the cast are Anne Rix as a minister, Mary Douglas, Carol Bayne and Julie Whitehurst as cronies, and an innovation in the presence of a real live "boy" in the part of Private K. Dowe of the Black Watch Regiment. Bentley Anderson, a student at the College of William and Mary in Norfolk has been in many plays with the Masquers and the Norfolk Little Theatre, but this is his first singing role. He has commuted to rehearsals several times a week, and is a good trouper.

Mrs. E. H. Church is accompanist and musical advisor for the "Old Lady," and Sandy Deacon is prompter. The music is catchy and haunting and will send the audience home humming.

Poster Contest Winners Named For Sight Week

NORFOLK—Today, the Tidewater Chapter of the Women's Auxiliary to the Virginia Optometric Association in conjunction with "Save Your Vision Week", March 4-11, has announced its winners in the area poster contest.

The theme of the posters, "Save Your Vision" was thoroughly covered by many entries from 5th & 6th graders throughout the Tidewater area.

Whitehurst, Marjorie Woods. The chorus program will include: "My Favorite Things" from "The Sound of Music" by Rodgers-Hammerstein; "On the Street Where You Live" and "I Could Have Danced All Night" from Lerner and Lowe's "My Fair Lady"; "Camelot" from the musical of the same name by Lerner and Lowe; and "You'll Never Walk Alone" from "Carousel" by Rodgers & Hammerstein.

Local schools were well represented in the win category with 1st place award going to Betsy Sheahan of 18 E. Kings Rd., Lynnhaven, entered as a 5th grade pupil of Kings Grant School, and a tie for second going to Laurin Hogans 6th grader of Seatack Elementary School and Ricky Kerns of Magruder School in Hampton, Virginia. Cash awards will be presented the winners by the Auxiliary.

Winners in various areas throughout the State will compete for 1st place poster in the State in May at the annual joint Convention of the Virginia Optometric Assn. and the Women's Auxiliary.

Judges for the Tidewater Area were Dr. George Hall, Norfolk Optometrist and member of the State Board of Examiners in Optometry, Mrs. Margaret Johnson, President of the Norfolk Artists Assn., and Mrs. Robert A. White, President of the Tidewater Auxiliary to the Virginia Optometric Assn.

BEACH ARTIST IN INDIANA SHOWING

MUNCIE, Ind.—Walter Thrift, Virginia Beach artist, has been accepted in the 8th annual Drawing and Small Sculpture show in the Ball State Teachers College gallery.

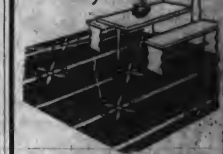

Judge of the show is Frederick Arnold Sweet, curator of American painting and sculpture at the Art Institute of Chicago. Coming to Muncie from all parts of the United States, the entries totaled over 500 drawings and 150 sculptured pieces. Out of this record number Sweet chose 204 drawings and 60 sculptures.

Thrift's entry is an ink and collage entitled "Plateau Canyon No. 5".

Thrift is one of the greatest of all human virtues. And the thrift habit comes easy through regular purchase of Savings Bonds thru the payroll savings plan.

"WHY PREPARE FOR EASTER...?"

"The Call From Jerusalem"
Jesus steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem.

In these days of preparation for Easter, our spirits are quickened and we become conscious of an uneasiness, like Peter we prefer to follow Jesus in this season "far off". Surely we need to prepare for Easter, for it is more than a day in the Christian calendar. Easter is a state of the mind, a mood of the spirit, and a soul stirring and shaking time. In our preparation we need to hear "the call of Jerusalem," as it beckons us to come meet the Saviour of the World, the Lamb of God slain from the foundations of the world.

Phillips Brooks has said, "Every true life has its Jerusalem, to which it is always going up. A life cannot be really considered as having begun to live until that far-off city in which its destiny awaits it, where its work is to be done, where its problem is to be solved, begins to draw the life towards itself, and the life begins to know and own the summons." Sometimes the call is dimly heard and the city dimly seen, but for Jesus it was loud and clear.

Jerusalem is upsetting, whenever Jesus appears in lives he starts a commotion. People are haunted by his ideals, his words strike deep into the bedrock of lives, for we must choose either for Him or against Him. Fittingly we come to Easter washing our hands like Pilate, to be rid of this nuisance. Life would be so much easier and simpler for us, if he had not come to challenge us with his words and demands, many say, but he did come, he did die, but he did rise again on the third day, and we must choose.

The call of Jerusalem is a call to spiritual preparation. Jesus prepared for his Easter, there was a very definite timing, we hear him saying, "My hour has not yet come." Then as though the curtains were rolled back, the hands of time having reached their appointed moment, the cradle of Bethlehem having reached its full meaning, the revelation completed, the dedication at Jordan at last ready, we hear him saying, "My hour has come." The preparation made, the time drawing near for his eternal offering, his faced turned toward Jerusalem, his words echoing, "I must work the work of Him that sent me while it is day, ere the night cometh" and I must have this work done. He was sent to "finish something and dared not stop until it was finished. His "Call from Jerusalem" rang loud and clear. The disciples felt it was the time when he would institute the Messianic Kingdom on earth, they still had not realized His Kingdom was a spiritual Kingdom of the redeemed of the Lord, "and not of this world."

Jesus had already begun to drink of the cup, Gethsemane and prayer, Calvary and his painful suffering and sacrificial giving of self, would let Him drain it to the last bitter drop. The events begin to unfold, the greatest drama of history is played, and the doors of heaven are opened, and man finds salvation in this love displayed upon a Cross. THE CROSS, the shameful becomes blessed, the despised becomes hope, a means of execution becomes the eternal altar of the Son of God, and man becomes recipients of the new birth.

We see Jesus a long way before us, he goes beyond anything we have ever or will ever hope to experience. We may feel perfectly fitted to hear his words from the hillside as he spoke the Sermon on the Mount, or stand close as he blesses the little children or cures the lame. But to come to the point that we profess to have shared his Passion is a different matter. For there is that "pitiful distance of human weakness," between our supplications and his. Sincerity demands that we not claim too much of His for ourselves; for in our preparation we must admit how far off we follow. We stand by Peter as he denies his master upon the steps to the palace and feel comfortable; we come with Judas into the garden and see the Kiss of betrayal; we sleep with the disciples beneath the trees while Jesus sweats as though it were drops of blood; we jostle in the crowd and see him stumble beneath the weight of the Cross and watch the Cyrenian as he carries the Cross for the master, and wish we had the courage to do the same; at the noon hour, we cringe in fear as the sky turns to midnight at midday and the heavens close themselves for they cannot bear the sight of the Son of God in His suffering. Yes, we follow afar off, on the periphery of the crowd we stand, daring not to get too close.

Mrs. Biiley Completes Crusade Chairmen List

VIRGINIA BEACH — Mrs. Leo Biiley, an active worker in the Princess Anne Unit of the American Cancer Society, has been named chairman for the 1962 Cancer Crusade, according to Crusade Chairman Dr. Howard Kahn.

Other chairman appointments announced by Dr. Kahn are Alfred Craft Jr., clubs and organizations; L. C. Brennan, special events; and Nelson Davis, colored division.

Mrs. Biiley's division covers the memorial gifts to the American Cancer Society as tribute to friends and loved ones. It is a means of providing living memorials that will benefit others.

These contributions support a large portion of the ACS's program of research, education and service, Dr. Kahn said. Each gift helps educate the public on the need for early detection, supports service programs for those stricken with the disease and gives material aid to laboratories and hospitals developing cancer research.

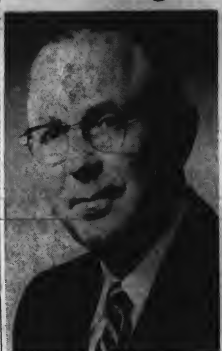

In the plan for memorial giving, an attractive and dignified card is sent to the family of the deceased bearing the name or names of the donor and the name of the person honored. The donor receives an official receipt.

Memorial gifts may be mailed to the Princess Anne Unit of the American Cancer Society, 2803 Pacific Avenue.

When sending a memorial gift it is important to include: (1) the name of the individual in whose memory the gift is made; (2) the full name and address of person or persons to whom the memorial card is to be mailed; and (3) the sender's name and address. If it is a group gift, include the names of other contributors.

The Princess Anne Unit has forms available which may be used in the remittance of memorials and they may be picked up at the Unit's office at 2803 Pacific Avenue or interested persons may contact Mrs. Biiley.

Palmer Is Now Sales Manager

HAROLD T. PALMER

The Virginia Chemicals and Smelting Company announces the promotion of Harold T. Palmer to sales manager, refrigeration department.

Mr. Palmer joined the refrigeration department sales staff in July 1943 and was later promoted to assistant sales manager. Through his 18 years' experience he has gained valuable knowledge of the air conditioning, heating and refrigeration industry and the refrigeration wholesaler of parts and supplies, the distribution channel for Virginia's line of quality products in this field.

Mr. Palmer is an active member of the American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air Conditioning Engineers; Air Conditioning, Heating and Refrigeration Industry, and Refrigeration Service Engineers Society. He will continue to reside in Linlier at Virginia Beach, and will work from the company's executive headquarters & plant in West Norfolk.

Hubard Reports On Safety Meet

"It was an extremely interesting and worthwhile meeting," J. Douglas Hubard, Safety Engineer, Oceana Naval Air Station, said today after his return from the President's Conference on Occupational Safety in Washington.

The 3,500 conferees heard from Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, Astronaut Major Leroy G. Cooper, Jr., Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg, and more than a score of other leaders from State and local government, business, industry, and education during the 3 days of sessions March 6, 7, and 8.

In addition to the four plenary sessions of the Conference, Mr. Hubard, took part in one or more of the eight Workshops on the specific phases of safety in which he was most interested. The Conference scope ranged from safety on the launching pad for the Astronauts and the thousands of workers required to put them into space, to safety on the loading docks of the Nation's trains and ships.

"We heard from experts in the various fields, and were able to exchange ideas and techniques with others from over the country and from other industries," Mr. Hubard said.

LEGAL NOTICES

ADVERTISEMENT

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Princess Anne County Water and Sanitation Authority at the office of Mr. Richard J. Webbon, Secretary-Treasurer, Princess Anne County Water & Sanitation Authority, Princess Anne Court House, Virginia, until but not later than eleven o'clock a.m., E.S.T. March 27, 1962, at which time they will be publicly opened and read aloud, for furnishing all labor, tools, equipment and materials, and doing all work in connection with the construction of the following work:

LOCATION—The location of the work covered under this contract is at Princess Anne Court House, Virginia.

TYPE OF WORK—The work to be done consists of Sanitary Sewerage System and comprises the construction of a gravity sewage collection system, a sewage pumping station, a sewerage force main, and a sewage lagoon as shown on the Plans and described in the Contract Documents prepared by Frank D. Tarrall, Jr. and Associates, surveyors and Engineers.

The Proposal must be submitted on the proposal forms included in the Contract Documents.

Each Proposal must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check made payable to Princess Anne County Water & Sanitation Authority, equal to 5% of the amount of the Proposal, or bid bond equal to 6% of the amount of the Proposal or be covered by an annual bid bond in the amount of at least 6% of the Proposal.

The Princess Anne County Water and Sanitation Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive any informality in bids. In case of ambiguity or lack of clearness in the statement of prices in the bid form, the Authority reserves the right to consider only the prices written in or to reject the entire bid.

No bids may be withdrawn for a period of thirty (30) days after the scheduled closing time for receipt of bids.

Any contractor submitting a bid on this project amounting to $20,000.00 or more, must insert the following statement in his bid over his signature: "Registered as a contractor under Chapter 7 of Title 54 of the Code of Virginia of 1950. Certificate No. _____."

Bidders must enclose with their Proposals, in a separate sealed envelope, complete information as to experience, equipment and financial condition of the Contractor. Failure to submit this statement will constitute basis for rejection of the bid.

The Advertisement, Proposal, Instructions to Bidders, General Conditions, Performance Bond, Specifications, Plans and other Contract Documents may be examined at the office of Frank D. Tarrall, Jr., and Associates, Surveyors and Engineers, 101 North Plaza Trail, Virginia Beach, Virginia, and at the office of the Princess Anne County Water and Sanitation Authority, Princess Anne Court House, Virginia; the Builders Exchange, Monticello Arcade, Norfolk, Virginia; the Builders Exchange, 8th and Franklin Streets, Richmond, Virginia; and the Virginia Branch, Associated General Contractors of America, Inc., Hotel King Carter, Richmond, Virginia, and Dodge Plan Room, 905 W. 21st Street, Norfolk, Virginia.

Copies of the Contract Documents may be obtained from the office of Frank D. Tarrall, Jr. and Associates, Surveyors and Engineers, 101 North Plaza Trail, Virginia Beach, Virginia, upon deposit of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) for each set. The full amount of the deposit for one set of Contract Documents will be refunded to each General Contractor submitting a bona fide bid; providing the Plans and Contract Documents are returned in good condition within ten (10) days after the opening of the bids. One-half of the deposit will be refunded to non-bidders and bidders other than General Contractors, providing the Plans and Contract Documents are returned in good condition within ten (10) days after the opening of the bids.

It shall be understood that all documents referred to in this Advertisement shall be carefully examined and read and are all hereby made a part of the Proposal.

Rotary Urges Better World Understanding Among People

At a time when the world is torn apart by rival doctrines, scientific advances, exploding populations, and rising expectations among the newly developing peoples, better understanding among all peoples is an urgent need.

There are several examples of enlightened leadership in the world today, which can lead to improved understanding. One of the most significant is the proclamation by the president of Rotary International of the week of 18-24 March as World Understanding Week. "Today's crisis," he says, "is tomorrow's opportunity," and as the leader of more than a half million men in more than 11,000 Rotary clubs in 125 countries, he can rightfully call attention to opportunities of creating understanding among all peoples of the world. World Understanding Week calls for a simultaneous effort by everyone to focus on activities and characteristics which tend to unite the peoples of the world rather than divide them.

Rotary International, now in its 87th year, has pioneered in numerous activities to create world understanding. In 1947-48 an international exchange fellowship program was established by The Rotary Foundation for the purpose of giving outstanding graduate students a year of study abroad. Since then 1,452 students from 71 countries have studied in 50 countries. The Rotary Foundation

READ ABOUT IT

I just heard that A. C. Brown, dairy farmer at Woods' Corner, is a celebrity. A story of Brown's dairy operation will soon appear in the Progressive Farmer.

EVER HEAR OF A COMPLAINT?

Well I have, and the V.P.I. Dairy Science Department will soon. In fact at 9:30 a.m., Saturday, March 17th, at the County Agent's Office at Princess Anne, all dairymen who are on either the DHIA or O.S. Testing Program will have an opportunity to question the Dairy Department about anything that's a problem.

Do you have a problem?

Notes from Your COUNTY AGENT

By E. R. "DICK" COCKRELL, JR.

I heard somewhere that you can't help matters by worrying about matters you can't help.

Minimum Corn Tillage Hot

March 22nd is educational day for Princess Anne Corn Growers. Minimum corn tillage is new. So new that only one acre has been grown in Princess Anne. This was produced two years ago by Alva Malone in an Extension Demonstration. Farmers want and must have information on this new method which will reduce cost of production from $5.00 to $15.00 per acre.

Two Meetings To Be Held

In order that you know all the facts, I have scheduled two meetings on Minimum Corn Tillage. Both meetings will be on March 22nd. Both meetings will be upstairs at the Princess Anne Courthouse Fire Department Building. Both meetings will have the same information presented. The difference is: one will be at 1:30 p.m., the other at 7:30 p.m. This will allow you to come to the meeting most convenient with you.

Subjects To Be Discussed

PRODUCTION METHODS
Mr. W. W. Lewis, Extension Agronomist from VPI will discuss through the use of slides, the actual method of production, the economies which include the tremendous reduction in cost plus equal returns.

CHANGE IN EQUIPMENT

Most of you already have the necessary equipment to plant under this system. However, a few minor changes of little or no actual cost are necessary. Mr. Easley Smith, Extension Agricultural Engineer from VPI, will show you through slides these actual changes.

WEED & GRASS CONTROL

The best weed control man that I know, anywhere, Mr. Allen Kates, also from VPI, will discuss in detail the control of weeds without cultivation. The magic weed killer, atrazine, its use, control of weeds and grass, and cost will be covered thoroughly from both minimum tillage and the conventional method.

ARE YOU A CORN GROWER?

If you are, it will be downright unfortunate if you do not attend one of the meetings. A good corn grower must know what's going on in other areas, adapt this information to his own area and farm, and then try it on a limited scale to give it full evaluation.

Board of Agriculture to Meet

All members of the Princess Anne County Board of Agriculture will meet Thursday, March 15th at 7:00 p.m. at the Pine Tree Inn to formulate the Agricultural Extension Program for the next year.

The board will hear a report on the accomplishment of Extension Service during the past year, general recommendations from the executive committee and the committee reports.

Commodity reports of plans will be presented by Walter Menden, Ralph Frost, Al Mackay, A. E. Williams, Charlie Mason, and Bob DeFord. Joe Burroughs, Chairman of the Board, will preside.

MORE DOLLARS FROM CORN

Corn can be sold for considerably more per bushel if sold through hogs or steers, rather than as cash corn. The future of corn growers in Princess Anne seems to depend on how good a livestock man you are, or can be.

We must change our ways if we are to maintain our place in the Agricultural world. Before changing, you must have the best available information. Information of the right kind is the key to success.

The Agricultural Committee of the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce is now making plans for a farmers school on feeding corn to livestock for more dollars. This school will most likely be presented during the summer months. Watch for further announcements.

LOSS

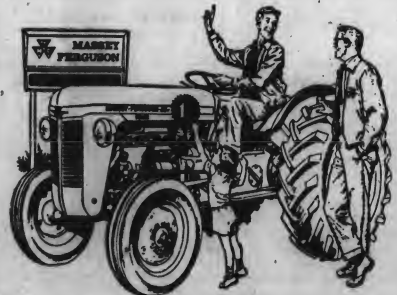

The County is saddened at the loss of Gordon Simmons, Manager of the Norfolk Cooperative Milk Producers Assn. His great contribution to dairymen and to the Association will always be remembered.

Guernsey Breeders To Meet

Stanley Farms of Princess Anne will be host for the annual meeting of the Southeastern Guernsey Breeders Association on March 16th at 3:30 p.m. It will be my pleasure to appear on the program at this event to discuss the "Promotion of

Something Must Have Been Amusing

Water Problem Is Being Eased

PRINCESS ANNE—County officials met with Norfolk leaders last Thursday to decide the fate of six builders who have been waiting for water service since the merger campaign last Oct. Norfolk agreed to turn on the water for developers who already have their applications in but pointed out that this will not set a precedent for new housing developments.

The number of developers jumped from 5 to 6 when it was learned that the application for Pembroke Manor had been overlooked earlier.

The other five subdivisions to receive water service include Bartow Heights, Lake Smith Terrace, Carolanne Farms, section III; Carolanne Farms, section IV and V and New Kempsville Drive, a portion of Huntington in King's Grant.

The agreement must be endorsed by the Board of Supervisors and Norfolk City Council before the water can actually be turned out. This action is expected to take place in the near future.

Attending the meeting from the county were Sidney S. Kellam, city and county political leader; Ivan Mapp, commissioner of revenue; Robert L. Simpson, Commonwealth's attorney; Paul Brown, county board chairman; John V. Fontress, clerk of circuit court; and Richard J. Webbon, executive secretary of the county board.

Attending from Norfolk were Mayor Fred Duckworth; City Manager Thomas F. Maxwell; S. Carlisle Morrisette, public works director; and Samuel W. McGinn, assistant city attorney.

Local Groups To Aid False Cape Victims

VIRGINIA BEACH—There were many persons affected by the recent storm but probably none as hard hit as the families residing near False Cape, south of Virginia Beach.

Their plight has been recognized by a group of Virginia Beach citizens who have set up a special "False Cape Disaster Committee." As a spokesman for the group stated "they need money."

Victims are about 8 or 10 families who make their livelihood fishing the waters off the Cape. They have lost homes and just as important their fishing nets and gear. The Red Cross has supplied clothing and other items. The special committee now seeks funds to put these people back in business for the spring fishing season.

The committee is seeking cash donations. Contributions should be directed to the False Cape Disaster Committee, care of the Postmaster, Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Ruritan Minstrels Once Again Proves Popular Entertainment

The Princess Anne Ruritan Minstrels opened last night at Princess Anne High School before an enthusiastic crowd of hundreds of people. The stage showed the effects of many hours of hard work by the staging staff of Henry White and Whit Voliva as it gleamed in the brilliance of lights and color.

The show itself bounced to the music of many famous songs of years gone by such as: "Ida," by Pete Scoppa, "Baby Face," Frank Malbon, "The Big Bass Viol," Sanford Moore, along with many others by the Princess Anne High School Chorus under the direction of Clark Graves.

Without a doubt the hits of the show is Rag Time Piano of Phil Johnson and the Dixie Land Band along with Ira Jacoby and his tenor Banjo.

Interlocutor V. A. Etheridge keeps the show moving at a fast pace and as always the 10 Veteran End Men keep the audience in its merry frame of mind with their many stories and insults at each other. Another attraction is the soft shoe dance with Sarah Sadler and George Mullen as he does the famous song, "By the Light of the Silvery Moon." The Dixie Dancers under the direction of Miss Sadler have been in rehearsal since January and their routine of the cake walk and other dances add greatly to the overall of the show.

The show will close on Saturday night, March 24 after its four-day run. Tickets for all performances may be purchased at Oceana Drugs, Malbon Motors, Ivan Mapp's Office at the Court House, London Bridge Supply Co. and at the door if seats are available. Curtain time for all performances is 8 p.m.

Everyone seems to be having a good laugh at the Virginia Beach Boat Show last weekend. If you haven't recognized the famous person at right, he is Navy Commander Alan B. Shepard Jr., the Beach's famous resident and the first American astronaut to rocket into space. Astronaut Shepard and his family visited the boat show last weekend in the Convention Center. That's Louise Shepard at the left with daughter Juliana and niece Judith Ann. In the center is Albin R. Mailhes, Chamber of Commerce president, and next to him is William B. Lillyman, director of the convention center. (Boice Photo)

First Visit

Virginia Beach Astronaut Views Boats And Convention Center

VIRGINIA BEACH — Navy Commander Alan B. Shepard Jr., and his family visited the Alan B. Shepard Convention Center, Friday night to officially launch the annual 1962 boat show and the crowd was thrilled with the presence of the first American astronaut to enter the fringes of space.

It was the first visit to the convention center by the American astronaut since his adopted "home town" named the aluminum dome in his honor following his historic flight into space last May 5.

Commander Shepard was accompanied to the show by his wife, Louise, his daughter, Juliana, and his niece, Judith Ann. His visit was arranged jointly by Albin R. Mailhes, Chamber of Commerce president, and William B. Lillyman, director of convention sales.

Approximately 200 persons were on hand to greet Astronaut Shepard and his party Friday night. They were beaming and gave their hero a polite round of applause.

Shepard's visit to the show was the beginning of a most successful three-day showing of the latest pleasure boats and accessories, according to Lillyman. No final count of the number attending the show were released, but it is believed that between 7,000 and 9,000 persons visited the center over the weekend.

The show was not only a success but many observers felt that it showed the public that Virginia Beach can bounce quickly from a storm or hurricane. The National Guard had moved out of the Convention Center just the day before, the boat show opened. They had been stationed in temporary quarters there ever since the sudden storm of March 7.

The visit of Shepard to the show was probably his last official or semi-official function here since he and the other six Astronauts will move to Texas within the next two months.

For a complete story on the new principal, see page 1-B of this edition of the Sun-News.

"I am highly honored by this appointment," Davis said late Tuesday. His replacement at Woodstock has not yet been announced.

The new school will accommodate grades 8 through 10 and will ultimately become a full-scale high school. It will have 48 teaching stations and about 1500 pupils.

Three New Schools

School Supt. Frank W. Cox also told the Board that three new county elementary schools, each with 28 classrooms to take care of about 3,000 students, will open in the fall.

The schools will be built with $1.5 million in federal funds made available to the county under Public Law 851, applied in areas where large numbers of federally connected children attend public schools.

One school will be in the Aragona Village area, another near Malibu on Virginia Beach Blvd. and the third on Great Neck Road, Cox said.

The first school will be located near Pembroke Manor, which adjoins Aragona Village. It will take care of pupils from the manor and relieve the congestion in Aragona and Lufford Elementary Schools.

The Malibu School will take in children from that housing development and from Princess Anne Plaza.

The school on Great Neck Road will relieve Linkhorn Park and John B. Dey Schools by accommodating students from Trantwood, Wolfsware Plantation, Point O' Woods and others in that area.

The target date for bids has been set for the April 18 school board meeting.

Red Cross To Close Storm Office Here

The local American Red Cross disaster headquarters at the Alan B. Shepard Convention Center will close its registration for storm assistance Saturday.

The unit has received 16 registrations for aid, three of which are for complete rehabilitation.

SBA Office At Beach Has Been Busy Center

Small Business Administration disaster field office here has, through Tuesday, had 187 interviews with loan applicants and sent out 188 applications, field manager C. Raymond Shaw reported Wednesday.

The office is located on 19th Street across from the Alan B. Shepard Convention Center. A representative from this office serves Manteo each Monday and Tuesday at the court house and Hampton each Wednesday, at City Hall.

Processing 17

To date they have received 17 applications filled out and completed, Shaw said. These applications are being processed.

Loans are available at 3 per cent interest on maximum 20-year terms to cover any tangible loss not covered by insurance. There is no limit to the amount of the loan.

Applicants are eligible for loans up to six months after the date of the disaster but are not eligible if they are able to cover losses out of their own resources.

Beach School Leads Area In College Students

VIRGINIA BEACH—Virginia Beach High School had 72.8 per cent of its students attending college in 1960-61, the highest percentage in the public school system in this area.

The percentages were compiled by the Virginia Education Association based on figures from the State Department of Education.

Virginia Beach was also among the five lowest of the city systems in the entire state to have students drop out before graduation. The local school only had 2.5 per cent to drop out during 1960-61.

Princess Anne County schools came in fourth in the number of students attending college with a 44.2 percentage.

KEMPSVILLE SCHOOL CHILDREN COLLECT MONEY

KEMPSVILLE — A P-TA spokesman of Kempsville Meadows Elementary School reported Wednesday that the children of that school collected $120.72 for the county-wide drive by youngsters to help the storm-stricken residents of Chincoteague.

CITY, COUNTY VOTE TO UNDERWRITE PART OF FEDERAL GRANTS

VIRGINIA BEACH—In special sessions Monday and Tuesday Virginia Beach City Council and the Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors voted to underwrite up to 10 per cent of the federal aid they will receive for storm damages.

Speaker

Richard S. Holland, newly appointed State Highway Commissioner for the Suffolk District and vice-chairman of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel Commission, is scheduled to address members of the Virginia Beach Hotel, Motel and Cottage Assn. at a luncheon-meeting today at 12:30 p.m. The meeting will be held at the Cavalier Beach Club.

Virginia Beach has asked for $3.5 million and Princess Anne has asked for $2.5 million in federal aid to rebuild beaches and bulkheads damaged by the March 7 storm.

The requests will be made by the state to the Federal Office of Emergency Planning. The state guarantees up to 10 per cent of the total figure, but in order for each locality to be eligible for the federal funds they must agree to underwrite 10 per cent.

Most of the Virginia Beach appropriation will be used to rebuild the concrete boardwalk.

Work Underway Meanwhile, while the city awaits the federal funds, City Council has started filling in behind the boardwalk and restoring the lawn areas in order to prevent further erosion and to get the boardwalk back in shape as soon as possible.

The City Council is doing this on their own, a spokesman said, and it will not interfere with the federal funds.

Princess Anne County will use its federal aid to restore sand dunes and beaches from the North Carolina line to Little Creek Naval Amphibious Base.

School Children Raise $2000 For Chincoteague

VIRGINIA BEACH — The school children in Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach public schools dug into their pockets Tuesday to come up with more than $2,000 for the residents of storm-ravaged Chincoteague Island.

A check for $2,012.88 will be presented to Chincoteague Mayor Robert N. Reed in person today by 8-year-old Martha Owens, who started the drive last week when she donated her own birthday money to the cause.

Martha, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Owens Jr., 153 Wythe Lane in Bay Colony, will be accompanied by her second grade teacher at Linkhorn Park School, Miss Jacqueline Kellam.

The letter states: "Honorable Mayor: I am happy to report that the children of the City of Virginia Beach and the County of Princess Anne, some twenty four thousand of them enrolled in the public schools, desire to have a small part in bringing some measure of relief and comfort to the children of Chincoteague and their parents. They have translated this desire into positive action in a one day collecting of a sacrificial offering which they are pleased to hand to the Mayor of the Town for distribution through the constituted channels as his discretion may dictate."

"The idea of a children's sacrificial offering for the relief of the children of Chincoteague was inspired by a second grade pupil, Martha Owens of the Linkhorn Park Elementary School. After having made her own sacrificial offering, she requested that other children be given an opportunity to express their sympathy to their neighbors across the Chesapeake Bay."

"It is the fervent hope of the children of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne that their gift may be some assistance in relieving the distress brought on by the recent storm and that other children may be motivated to act similarly."

"Our kindest thoughts and best wishes are extended to you in these days of unusual tribulation."

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

A Rapid Recovery Taking Place
Here After the Big Storm

The steady stream of sightseers to Virginia Beach the past weekend must have been surprised to find the city still here after reading accounts in the newspapers of the havoc wrought by the great storm that struck so suddenly on March 7, 1962.

By their surprise it is not to say that there are not many scars left by the high tides and wind of that storm. The storm's ill-fated visit has left many scars that will require time to heal, but on the surface the city and area is doing a magnificent job of digging out and rebuilding.

Just as the rescue operations and the disaster work accomplished immediately following the storm was highly commendable and laudable so, too, is the splendid job of rebuilding and getting back into business.

City and county officials, particularly, are to be congratulated on the fine work that they have done in coordinating the many details of getting the area back in shape. There has been a minimum of delay in securing heavy earth moving equipment and in caring for every single area of the city and the county. We know it has been no small task and we think these officials should know that their fine efforts have been recognized by the citizens and residents of the area.

As the Governor has said and as several other persons have been quoted as saying: "We will rise above the effects of the storm and will shine brighter than ever."

The rebuilding is well under way and except for areas on the oceanfront the casual visitor to the area could not now tell that we had a storm just two weeks ago.

'A War Fought With Oil'

There is a new element in the cold war — "a war fought without rules or quarter on a global scale, a war fought with oil." Thus reports Petroleum Today.

In a word, Russia is flooding the free world with its surplus oil — undermining the economies of free world nations and threatening the defensive security of the Western Alliance. It's an ironical fact that within the NATO alliance itself, member nations today rely on Russia, the possible aggressor, for a substantial portion of the petroleum so essential to modern military operations.

In outline, the story is this. From 1950 to 1960, Soviet oil production increased more than three times, and much greater production is anticipated. Russia — with few automobiles and coal its major heating fuel — has little need for this oil. So, she can use her vast surplus as an economic and political weapon. She sells abroad — especially to the new and developing nations — at deliberately slashed prices. She will barter, accepting goods instead of cash. She asks West Germany only half the price for oil that she asks her satellite East Germany. She offers such aids as the building of refineries to process her crude.

Once a nation has placed its reliance on Soviet oil imports, prices are apt to be hiked abruptly and arbitrarily — even when they are being reduced to lure orders from other nations not yet within her oil orbit. The pressures on oil-hungry nations are heavy, and the Soviet oil threat is one of the gravest cold war developments.

Luckily, the threat seems to be recognized by this country and other Western powers. Steps are being planned to meet it. It is a complex problem, presenting a grim array of difficulties. But it is a problem that must be solved if the Western alliance is to survive, and the Soviet global offensive slowed.

While Rome Burns

"Sometimes an honored institution can be so generally accepted that it's completely overlooked by the public," says the Murray, Utah, Eagle.

"Prime examples of this are the railroads... Even the throaty horn of a diesel blends in with other sounds so that we scarcely take passing note."

"It's accepted that railroads are as timeless and as certain as the mountains... But they aren't... They need desperately the help that could be afforded them by Federal legislation. For some unknown reason, the pleas for help advanced by railroad spokesmen have met a deaf ear in Washington... It's a sad status (when) Congress seems ignorant of the problems confronting these vital transportation links of our land."

"Railroad... legislative goals are to establish a national user-charge commission to collect fees for commercial use of tax-built facilities. And to end discriminatory state-local property taxes. To shorten tax write-off period for new investment to stimulate plant modernization. Repeal 10 per cent excise tax on travel. Remove restrictions that prevent carrier diversification. Repeal regulatory exemption given trucks hauling agricultural goods, or extend this to the railroads. Repeal the exemption given barge lines hauling commodities in bulk — or extend it to the railroads. Keep rate regulations from being used to deprive the public of benefits of low-cost transportation."

Unless the intent of Congress is to force government ownership of the railroads via legislative strangulation, relief must come soon.

County Sites In Running For 4-Year College

PRINCESS ANNE—Three of the four sites being considered by trustees of Virginia Wesleyan College for location of a college are within the boundaries of the new City of Virginia Beach.

The three sites are the Wood tract, 400 acres on Centerville Road just west of Stumpy Lake, astride the Princess Anne County-Norfolk County line; the Sawyer tract, about 400 acres off Holland Swamp Road near Rosemont Road; and the Smith tract, about 200 acres next to the City Farm, both in Princess Anne County.

Although selection of the site has reportedly been made, announcement of its location has been delayed until legal matters can be settled, a spokesman said.

It is possible that the announcement will be made May 16 when

Auto Victim In Serious Condition

PRINCESS ANNE—Walter G. Hynson, Jr., 19, USN, Little Creek, remains in serious condition in Portsmouth Naval Hospital.

Hynson was struck by a car Sunday on Route 13 near Diamond Springs. Princess Anne Police said the sailor may have been lying in the road before he was struck.

Another county accident victim, Leroy Foreman, 71, of Rt. 2, Hickory, remains in fair condition today in Norfolk Community Hospital. Princess Anne police said Foreman, a bicyclist, was struck by a car Saturday in Land of Promise, Blackwater.

the trustees have again scheduled a meeting.

The fourth site under consideration is the Compas tract, 400 acres near Bowers Hill in Norfolk County.

HOME BUILDERS TO MEET NEXT TUESDAY

President Julian Rashkind of the Tidewater Association of Home Builders announced that the March Membership Meeting, of this Association will be held on Tuesday, March 27th at the Monticello Hotel, Colonial Room, starting at 6 p.m.

The guest speaker will be Mr. Frank H. Miller, General Manager and Chief Engineer of the Hampton Roads Sanitation District Commission. His topic will be, "Building & Service Plans of the Hampton Roads Sanitation District."

As a part of Cancer Progress Year, the American Cancer Society is stressing the fact that about 700,000 cancer patients, diagnosed and treated in the last five years, will live to enter the ranks of those saved. This means that there are 1,800,000 Americans cured of cancer, but 700,000 will not be formally listed as saved until they have been free of symptoms five years after treatment.

State C of C

Gov. Harrison Listed
For Norfolk Speech

NORFOLK—Gov. Albert S. Harrison Jr. will be one of the featured speakers at the 38th annual meeting of the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce scheduled in Norfolk on April 12-13 at the Golden Triangle Motor Hotel.

Gov. Harrison will speak at the luncheon session on April 13 and will review actions taken at the recent state legislative session.

Other speakers at the meeting include Roy H. Thompson, international publisher of London, England, who will address the annual banquet on April 13, and Arch N. Booth, executive vice president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, who will address the commercial organization breakfast on April 13.

In an afternoon symposium, "It's Your Business", on April 13, state officials will explain how laws enacted by the 1962 Virginia General Assembly will affect business. Participating in the discussion and their topics will be Robert Y. Button, attorney-general, "Highways and Industrial Development"; C. H. Morrisett, commissioner, Department of Taxation, "Taxes"; J. Eldred Hill Jr., commissioner, Virginia Employment Commission, "Unemployment Compensation"; Edmond M. Boggs, commissioner, Department of Labor and Industry, "Labor"; and M. E. Evans, commissioner, State Industrial Commission, "Workmen's Compensation".

The annual meeting opens on April 12 with afternoon committee sessions. A Virginia Forward dinner follows with the election of directors and a talk by State Chamber Executive Director Verbon E. Kemp on "How Come and So What?"

In addition to Thomson's speech at the annual banquet, the State Chamber's Distinguished Service Award will be presented to James L. Camp Jr., vice chairman of the board of the Union Bag-Camp Paper Corp., Franklin. A special award will be presented to Dr. Walter S. Newman, president of Virginia Polytechnic Institute. Presenting the awards will be Henry Clay Hofheimer II, chairman of the board and president of the Southern Materials Co., Inc., of Norfolk and chairman of the Chamber's Distinguished Service Award Committee.

On April 14 the directors will meet and elect officers for the forthcoming year.

Two Ordered Held
For Grand Jury

VIRGINIA BEACH—Two men accused of looting a restaurant the day of the storm were ordered held for grand jury action after a hearing Monday in Virginia Beach Police Court.

Patsy R. Claccia, USN, 19, was charged with grand larceny and Terry Jennings, 20, of the 1200 block of Cypress Ave. was charged with being an accessory to the grand larceny.

The pair are charged with taking two pistols, beer and champagne from the storm-torn Surf-Rider Restaurant.

Ocean Front
Home Owners
Being Advised

VIRGINIA BEACH — The secret of protecting ocean front homes from storm damage is in the foundation, according to information being mailed today to ocean front home owners.

Signed by City Manager W. Russell Hatchett and Richard J. Webbon, executive secretary of the county board of supervisors, the flyer contains "suggested preventive measures to reduce future storm damage."

You will, of course, consult your own architects, engineers and contractors," it points out, "and we have no intention of substituting for them. We merely wish to present to you suggestions and recommendations for your consideration."

Much of the information compiled in the leaflet was supplied by B. M. Stanton, whose own home was badly damaged in the March 7 storm.

The types of foundations that withstood the storm the most successfully were wood piles, concrete piles (reinforced with steel rods) and extended footings, base of the house that extends some distance into the ground below the floor sills.

The flyer gives several examples of how these foundations helped certain homes survive the storm and points out what some homes are doing to prevent future damage.

C&P Storm Expense
May Exceed $100,000

The devastating storms that hit the state during the week of March 5 were costly ones for the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Virginia.

Preliminary estimates for restoring and rehabilitating telephone service is expected to cost over $1 million.

Over 20,000 C&P customers with 32,500 phones were affected by the storms. Hardest hit was the area from Culpeper to Fairfax where close to 14,000 telephones were out of service during the week. Final summaries show that Richmond had 11,000 phones out of service while the Eastern Shore, Tidewater and Peninsula sections had some 7,000 phones affected.

In the central and northern portions of the state the heavy wet snow, falling trees and broken limbs accounted for much of the damage to C&P's telephone plant. Winds and high water were responsible for the heavy damage in the eastern part of the state.

The Western Electric Company supply house in Arlington rushed wire, cable and other materials into the various areas by air and other forms of transportation.

In the north central area some 360 poles had to be replaced, 56,000 feet of cable and over 400,000 feet of wire were strung. In Richmond more than a half million feet of drop wire (wire leading from the pole to a house or business) were needed to restore phone service.

More than 1000 C&P maintenance and construction men were on the job almost constantly during the week in order to get the service back in operation as quickly as possible. Most men have returned to the home offices.

Traffic volume for local, long distance and information in many localities where C&P operates, was up more than 50% over normal during the height of the storms. Operators worked long hours as a result of increased calls from anxious relatives and other seeking information.

During the week, long distance service was temporarily curtailed to many points in the state due to damage to such facilities as the submarine cables under Hampton Roads which limited long distance service to and from the Tidewater area. Unusual steps were taken to repair these cables affected by moisture and sea water.

At the height of the storms some 39 C&P central offices were working on temporary emergency generating power which is kept on hand by the telephone company for just such emergencies. The flooded island of Chincoteague was without telephone service for about 24 hours, until emergency radio equipment was flown in by helicopter to re-establish telephone communications to the mainland.

A telephone company spokesman has stated that the company was most appreciative of the understanding and patience of affected telephone subscribers during the period of heavy telephone usage and when telephones were out of service.

FUNERALS

MRS. EDITH WALKER

VIRGINIA BEACH—Funeral services for Mrs. Edith Walker, who died last Wednesday night in a Norfolk hospital, were held Friday afternoon at the Unitarian Church in Norfolk with the Rev. James Curtis officiating.

Mrs. Walker was born in Danville, Va., but had been a resident of Virginia Beach for many years. She was the widow of Samuel Walker and was a member of Unitarian Church.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Edith Field of Water-ton, Conn.; two sisters, Miss Seal Gregory of Danville and Mrs. Anne Culbertson of Richmond; and six grandchildren.

Mrs. Orion Burroughs James

PRINCESS ANNE—Mrs. Orion Burroughs James, 84, died in her home at Sigma in Princess Anne County Friday afternoon and funeral services were held Sunday at graveside in Willowood Cemetery. Hollomon-Brown Funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

A lifelong resident of Princess Anne County, Mrs. James was the widow of Alonzo Edward James and daughter of Eugene E. and Mrs. Blanche McAlpine Burroughs. She was a member of Eastern Shore Chapel.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Belle J. Brock of Oceana; a son, Alton B. James of Sigma; a sister, Mrs. Selma G. Jerome of Galax; three brothers, F. A. M. Burroughs of Pungo, Eugene Woodall Burroughs of Virginia Beach and Victor Alton Burroughs of London Bridge four grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

ROBERT P. WALLACE

WILLIAMSBURG—Funeral services for Robert P. Wallace will be held at Bruton Parish Church in Williamsburg at 3:00 p.m. today.

A native of Fox Hill, Va., Mr. Wallace was on the board of directors of the Williamsburg Restoration for a number of years and was very active in civic affairs.

He had a great number of friends in the Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County area.

SPORTS

KEGLER'S KORNER

By "PAPPY" IRISH

Nick Rinaldi Lanes Inc., announced this week that 16 duck pin lanes will be added in time for 1962-63 season play at the Plaza Bowl. Mr. Rinaldi feels that under the present set-up that the small ball tosser is being discriminated against, and that both ten and the short pin game should be made available to the residents of the surrounding communities.

When asked for a qualification for his decision his reply was, "Some people like 'X' brand of bread, others like 'Z' brand—previously there was only 'X' brand and the 'Z' customers had to take 'X' and like it—so, by the addition of duck pins both types of bowlers are made happy." So if it is "X" or "Z" you prefer—we will have it!

Reservations for spots in the duck pin leagues are now being accepted. Choice times and days will be available to the early bird. For information on duck pin leagues call 341-1313.

"LO BOWLERS" MIXED HANDICAP TOURNAMENT

March 31 and April 1 are the opening week-end dates that kick off the five week end-play of the "Lo Bowlers" Mixed Handicap Tournament. Guaranteed prizes amount to $475.00. In addition to First Prize of $200, second prize $100, third prize $50, an added award of $25 will be given to the high couple weekly. Contest runs each week-end through 28-29 April. Teams may bowl anytime the house is open for business. Bowl as often as you like, provided it is with a different partner. Handicap is based on 200 scratch—men 80%, ladies 90%. Although this is a house tournament, ABC playing rules will prevail. Averages (authenticated) must be as of January 31, 1962, and the highest held in any league. Entry fee per couple is $6.50. Contestants will bowl 3 games across 2 lanes.

SPONSOR PATRONAGE

The bowling teams you see keeling in skirts that bear a certain merchant's name and address, have been sponsored in our house for a purpose. That purpose is to remind the bowlers that when in need of certain items they, the sponsors, are ready and willing to serve you—perhaps even at a discount, already! But, really, folks, they are the silent partners in this business of furnishing bowling pleasure for the Keglers. The cost to some sponsors runs as high as $200 and $300 per year. So we urge you to look around on your next league night, or when you are open bowling, and memorize the names on the shirt backs of the players—and "When in the Mood to buy—Give One of them a Try." In any case, when ever possible, make it a point to patronize the bowling team sponsor.

ser. Think it over. Serious Tragedy Averted. (Your chuckle for today.)

The other evening a rather wild looking individual was seen standing at the front entrance with a double barreled shot gun cradled in his arms. Inquiry revealed that he was waiting for his wife who was bowling with some man—not a friend of the family—and was going to shoot them both. We grabbed the mike of the loud speaker system and informed everyone of the situation—and suggested that the couple referred to, use the side door to make, an exit and thus avoid serious consequences. Nine couples left by the side door! Whew! (Joke over.)

Now to the rest of this stint—some will be happy, some will be sad—some bowled good—and others bowled bad—but fun they came after—and fun they had—that's bowling.

SKIRTS AND SKITS

The Neathery's—Mel and JoAnn, and the Willoughby's—Joe and Virginia—copped all the high honors in the contest between the Lester Construction Co. and the Sooners, as the latter team went down 3-1 from the onslaught of L.C.C. High series went to JoAnn with a 453 for the ladies, as hubby Mel took the men's high series with 497 pieces of maple. High individual games were scored by Virginia Willoughby for the gentle sex with a 175, while spouse Joe picked up wood to the tune of 198 for his game.

Johannes Girls

After the smoke cleared away following the tussle between the Bay Jewelers and Queen Bees, we find that in the 3-1 loss to the Bay Jewelers group, Lorraine Spadoni registered the league's high individual game with 190 pins. In tapping out a 3-1 win over the Alley Cats, the Lazy Four came up with high team game and series—636-1715. Alice Rodes sparked her team, the Navettes, to a 3-1 victory over the Sleepers in scoring an individual high series of 511 pins. The King Pins saw no humor in dropping 4 points to the Jokers—their 55 pins per game handicap was about 55 pins short. But shucks, these girls sure have fun.

The Teachers League (3-R League)

Thalia took over Kempville No. 2 by a score of 4-0. Although Helen Spence graced the winning team, I'm going to keep her in after school if she don't start

"following thru"—perhaps, a little eraser clapping is in order! The girm of Gilbert, Bennett, McGuire, and Oglesby found the going pretty rough as Kempville No. 1 rode rough shod over them 4-0. Kempville No. 1 scored the days high team game and series with a pin total of 618-1827. To back up a little—Steve Chipak rolled individual high game and series for Thalia, 194-551. Kempville III made it 4-0 over Aragona No. 1, and Aragona No. 2 repeated by the same 4-0 over Linkhorn Park. Now may I be excused teacher—until next week?

Business Men's League

Aragona Pastry forfeited (4-0) to Conservant. Four to nil winners were—B. C. Rook Throwners over the Ebonites; Bowl Weevils over the Hamilton Funds. Three to one victors include Lafayette Builders over Stages Mobile; Bol-Mac Construction over Orr's Florists; N. G. Nears over Eastern Auto; Greyhound Lines over the Pin Pointers; Harry's Amco over Hanna's Gardeners; Southern Materials Co. over K and G T.V.; Burroughs Bel Air over the Terry Builders. High individual game was bowled by Brother Jugo with a 234, as Tex Clifford parlayed a 202-210-209 for 621 pins. High team game and series honors were taken by the Rock Throwers, 981-2645.

Guys and Dolls

The reporting on this league's activity is tough—no one has a first name. I don't know if F. Smith or L. Smith is man or woman or woman or man. Holy Cow, kids, use first and last names—give ole "Pappy" a break. Anyhow, the Wholly Rollers made it 3-1 over Davis and Lee, scoring high team series in the process—1781. The Nittie-tibblers broke a front tooth on the Rothfuss-McCoy quartette, dropping all 4 points to the greedy four. The Lost Four won all four by a forfeit! Team Nine had a fine time, taking 3 out of 4 from Team 6. The Birchwooders spanked the Bottom's Up 3-1, as C. Giebler collected 585 pins for high individual series. E. T. Miller's 216 game was high for the night.

Thursday Nite Mixed

Again I'm having trouble telling the men from the ladies—but from where I'm sitting—and I could be wrong—it looks as if Rozanne Redd, for the ladies, had high individual series with a score of 510. In the high game division it was Bobbe Middleton's 209 that did the trick. On the masculine side of the picture we see Bobbe's better half, Russ, being an old copy cat and being afraid he might have to do the dishes if friend wife beat him, score a duplicate 209—now they can do the dishes together. In the individual series department it was Artie Watkins 540 that was tops. The won and lost round down goes this way—Team 8 over Team 1, 3-1; Artie W's four made it 4-0 over Larry P's team; also coming up with a 4-0 victory was Team 12 over the Gutter Dusters; it was 3-1 for Team 13 over Oceana Drug. The Woodchoppers won all 4 points; and Team 11 took 3 out of 4 from Team 7. Team 12 ran off with team honors with 741-2024.

Tech Reps League

The Butter Balls took both high team and series honors with their 804-2294 as they doused the Flame-Outs 3-1. The Gutter Balls made it 3-1 over the loose Misfits. The Jet Stars zoomed to a 4-0 victory over the Pin Topplers—and again it was Norma Meek leading the way with a 198-189-159—546 besting not only her lady opponents, but also the men for high individual game and series for the evening. Love that Norma type anchoring job. (Don't mind me Albert.) Mel Rush was the "Big Man" in the male division scoring 192-503 for high game and series. Team 1 dusted the Phantom pants 4-0 utilizing their 91 pin handicap to good advantage. The Woodchoppers took 3 out of 4 from the Unpredictables.

Sunday Night Mixed

The Lucky Printers needed "Pappy's" old Shamrock last Sunday when the Lucky Four made it 4-0 over Lee's team. You can't beat a Shamrock as a tail-man to forstall misfortune. GEX Auto took all the starch out of the Smart Alecks by chalking up a 4-0 win. GEX Paints split 2-2 with the No-Trumps. The Flintstone sproved too hard to crack and sparked their way to a 3-1 win over Zybyk's Gulf Service Station four. The Four Acts removed the clapper from the Ells Bells after the first games loss and took the next 3 by a safe margin. The Markets gave the Lohesone 4 a one game lead then decided to stop such foolishness—results, 3-1 over the anti-social quartette. Overcoming a 68 pin lead after dropping the first game to Wayside Homes, the Pen Pickers with the assistance of a 32 pin handicap, came back to take the next two and total pins making it a 3-1 victory. Easy Marks and Capitol Auto Sale divided the spoils 2-2—Lew Colinski rolled a 205-541. Buddy's Texaco poured on the gas and took 3 out of 4 from Bunny Miller's Four—Bill Keith of Buddy's chalked up a 222-544. The Imps were a big too hot for the Chapman's and walked off with a nights hard won 3-1. Seven pins decided the issue on total maple. High team game and series were recorded in favor of the Four Aces 678-1909. Individual honors go to Bill Keith for high game, 222, and to C. DeLeuw for his 562 series.

Rinaldi Plaza Bowl Majors

Eight six hundred series and 28 200 plus games were bowled Tuesday night by the 30 participants—two teams postponed their matches. Although losing 3-1 to Kraus Construction Co. Pilot Lift Insurance Co. managed to establish an individual high game with Bob Bond's 246, as Stan Nishimoto collected 667 pins for the nights high individual series. Kraus rolled high team game and series with 1060-2991. There were 14 200 games bowled in this match. Pappas Body Shop stopped Coaches Sporting Goods cold and took all 4 points. Mike Ciminez rolled a 613 series as Jim Caldwell chalked up 222-203-171 for 596. Frank Loner and Dick Rust had 600 plus series. The match between Laran Realty and Childress Motors wound up 3-1 in favor of the C.M.'s. Ken Leach bowled 232-187-228—647.

F.O.P. League

Due to not having surnames on the league sheets, I am unable to give individual credits where due. Team results are as follows: Team 8 bested Team 1 four to nil. Team 6 won 2 and split even on total pins over Team 2. Team 3 made it 3-1 over Team 7 and scoring high team game and series in the process. Team 5 took four by forfeit from Team 4.

Wednesday Nite Ladies

High individual game honors went to Sybil Glisson for a 192. Melva Grimstead copped high series with 181-158-158—497. High Team game was bowled by the Lucky Strikes as they were going down 1-3 to Grimstead Market, the team incidentally registered a high series of 1768. Burroughs made it 4-0 over Lucas Atlantic.

Lo-Bowlerettes

The Misfits split 2-2 with the Gutter Balls. The M.F. aggregation picked up 559 pins for high team game, and the G.B.'s tallied 1571 for high series. Flossie Hallowell had high individual game and series with 125-157-189—471. The firm of Reizki, Brooks, Putter and Hensky made it 3-1 over the Pin Topplers.

St. Gregory's League

High game and series were bowled by Ray Nickols of St. Jude's. He had 190-182-222—594 and sparked his team to a 3-1 win over St. Aquinas. In rolling the high team game of Virginia Beach Transfer continued the humiliation of Tastee Freez by taking 3 out of 4 this week. It seems that one win is all the ice cream vendors can eke out no matter what. The truckers came up with high team series of the night in spite of having one bowler short. Jim Wolcott was high man with a 599 series and just missed getting a triplicate having games of 200, 200, and 199. Jim Vrabec and Paul Holder along with a new member of the team, Phil Hendy, all added good 500 plus series which was just too much for Tastee Freez. The losers put a full team on the lanes for the first time in weeks with Ed Krause's return from a sea voyage. He fired a nice 579 in spite of his lay-off. Walt Pool contributed a 571 and Lee Amundson shot 591 in the losing cause.

The Holy Ghosts took Los Cinco Ladrones 3-1. M. Bockelman bowled a 144-142-210—496. St. Joseph went all the way and sunk St. Bonaventure 4-0. Gregory Lanspery had 508 for his series.

Weatherly Heads Richmond Race Field For '250' Run

Joe Weatherly, currently NASCAR's top man in the Grand National point division, will head the 25 car starting field in the second annual "Richmond 250" to be run at the Virginia State Fairgrounds track in Richmond, Va., Sunday, April 1.

Weatherly, winner of the first annual "Richmond 250" last September 10, will defend his "250" title in the 250-lap—125 mile late model classic over the fast Richmond track against the strongest field in NASCAR history.

Sealy Posturepedic continues as league leaders. This week taking Coaches 3 out of 4. Glenn Holloman was high for the winners with a 565 series. Neil Boucher showed up too late for the first game but still rolled two good games of 189 and 204 and just might have had a good series. For the losing Coaches, Jim Johnson was again high with a 546. His new ball must have something to do with his recent good bowling.

Kelly Supply for a change came out the winner in a match with Team No. 8. Jim Drews started off with a good 224 first game but suffered a collapse & barely hit 500 for a series. Dad John Drews was high man for Kelly's with a 518. For the losing squad Tony Kizis came up with a fine performance, shooting a 543. Tony has been saving this series for a long time and it's too bad he wasted it in a losing cause.

There were ties for the top score this week, both Doris Spencer, Beach Travel, and Betty Bird, Coaches Sporting Goods, rolled 190. In second place was Amante Carlquist, Bay Island, with a 188 game. Fridley's Gift Shop had high team game, 736, and high team set with 2078.

Rifle-Pistol Club Holds First Shoot

The Princess Anne Rifle and Pistol Club fired their first annual Smallbore competitions last Sunday. Competitions consisted of three matches with a field of competitors in classes I, II, and III.

Class I honors were captured by Ed Thornton who scored 569 while Long fired 501 for second place. Joe Voss (Club secretary) rolled up a grand 731 for Class II honors, and Downing seconded him with a fine 688. Class III went to Bill Newsum with 681 while Ritter took second place with a very close 645.

In addition to Class II honors, Joe Voss captured the High Scorer honors with his score of 731. Trophies will be awarded the winners at the monthly club meeting in April.

The entire field battled a strong cross-wind, but all competitors managed to come up with some fine scores. The next match will be a pistol match, fired on the club range at 8 a.m. Sunday, April 8. Visiting competitors and spectators are invited to attend.

Last Supper Drama Will Be Presented Here April 15

VIRGINIA BEACH — Harold B. Kellam, Chairman of the official board of the Virginia Beach Methodist Church, announced today that the Virginia Beach Church has arranged with the Elm Avenue Methodist Church of Portsmouth for the presentation of the "Living Dramatization of the Last Supper," on Palm Sunday, April 15th, at 8:00 P.M. in the Alan R. Shepard Convention Center.

Chairman Kellam said "We feel that our church is most fortunate in being able to secure this outstanding religious drama to present to the people of our community, particularly significant at the Easter season."

The script for the drama was written by Elm Avenue Methodist Church minister, Rev. Ernest K. Emurian and features members of the official board of that church. It has been presented on 15 occasions since it premiered on Palm Sunday night in 1954. Since that initial production, it has been in constant demand throughout Virginia, North Carolina, Maryland and D.C., and has attracted thousands of viewers.

CARDINAL GARDEN CLUB

BIRDNECK POINT — The March meeting of the Cardinal Garden Club of Birdneck Point was held at the home of Mrs. Gordon Potter, Vice Admiral A. A. Antrim spoke on the care and propagation of lilies and peonies and told the members of the many different kinds of lilies.

Plans were made for the Club's Ways and Means project, a fertilizer sale, which was held on Saturday, March 17, at the Cardinal Road entrance to Birdneck Point.

Club members would like to thank all their friends and neighbors who helped to make this project a success. Proceeds will go into the Beautification Fund of the club.

The April meeting will be held in the garden of Mrs. M. K. Crockett on Lake Smith.

SURFSIDE '62

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

One of the area's most popular sight-seeing trips is the beach-buggy ride down through Sandbridge, Washwoods and on to the North Carolina line. I had an opportunity to make this run Friday but it was no sight-seeing trip.

Three Red Cross representatives, Mrs. Pearl Mallory, head of the local chapter, Mrs. Nancy Batchelder, one of the unit's most active volunteers, Art Bodkin, field representative from the Lynchburg area, and myself joined five National Guardsmen in making an inspection of the storm damage in the fishing village of Penny's Hill, about three miles south of the old Washwoods Coast Guard Station.

Loaded in two Army Jeeps, we left Convention Center about 7:30 a.m. full of vim, vigor and plenty of enthusiasm. After hitting the first 4 or 5 washouts, I knew this would be no picnic!

Traveling in our Jeep were Mrs. Mallory, Mr. Bodkin, Mrs. Batchelder, Capt. Luther D. Melton Jr., of Portsmouth, all of whom came through like troopers, and yours truly, who came through like a bouncing ball with not enough bounce.

In the other Jeep were four other Guardsmen from Portsmouth, 1st Sgt. Charles W. Kelly, M/Sgt. George E. Howard, Sgt. Horace V. James and Sp4 George F. Carroll Jr.

The men were the last of the 350 National Guardsmen who had aided Virginia Beach during the storm turmoil. They had been assigned by Maj. Gen Paul M. Booth, Adjutant General of Virginia, to stay behind as security to clean-up, direct traffic (if necessary) and assist in other disaster duties. They were a tremendous help to the Red Cross.

"FRIENDLIEST TOWN"

All five men were most appreciative of the way Virginia Beach resident had treated them during their emergency stay. They had their meals at the Normandie Cafeteria and Bill Dekker had graciously offered them rooms at the Bel Harbour Motel.

But, back to the trip. In between bounces I did manage to see some lovely sights—thousands of gleaming conch shells (with a smell all their own), old ship wrecks, and gaunt cypress knees, ebony from the wear of the tides.

What we found in the fishing villages were not pretty: small homes torn from their foundations, furniture scattered along the beach, cars buried in sand and pitifully few belongings of stricken families laid out in the sun to dry. You can look at the lovely homes along Virginia Beach broken by the storm and grieve for the owners but the destruction of the tiny homes along the beach make you aware of total devastation. Many of those families lost everything in the world they owned. That was why the Red Cross was there—to help them get back on their feet.

It was a trip long to be remembered and one I am glad I had an opportunity to make—even if Mrs. Mallory did offer me a pair of crutches and I had to stand all week-end.

The Red Cross has often been criticized but after seeing what they did, and are doing, for those families, I for one, will always come to their defense. And the National Guard also deserves recognition, they furnished a great deal of furniture and supplies to help about 8 families set up housekeeping again.

DON'T FORGET

Just in case you have forgotten, let me remind you that the Princess Anne Ruritan Minstrel Show is underway now through Saturday at Princess Anne High School. This is one event that draws capacity crowds each year and should not be missed.

Also, women in the area might bear in mind that Women's Housing Conference, sponsored by the Tidewater Association of Home Builders' Auxiliary, to be held Monday night at Princess Anne High School. Even if you are not considering building a home, you will get many decorating ideas from Neal Thomas' Decorating Seminar.

If a clap of thunder or a boom from the Dam Neck guns sends a big shaggy dog scotching through your front door, please let me know. It's probably "Prince," our devoted family pet who followed the boys to school Tuesday and got lost somewhere along the way. The boys last saw him in the vicinity of the A&P Store on Laskin Road. He is sorely missed at the Phillips' house.

VIRGINIA BEACH, VIRGINIA, THURSDAY, MARCH 22, 1962

Housing Conference To Have National Editor As Moderator

PRINCESS ANNE—James M. Lange editorial director and vice president of "Practical Builder" magazine, is the third national editor to accept the position of moderator for the First Women's Housing Conference.

Lange will join John Ingersoll, editor of "American Home," and Mrs. Judith Newman, editor of "House and Garden," in moderating panels of local women who will discuss the various aspects of homebuilding.

Scheduled Monday
The conference will be held Monday at the Princess Anne High School auditorium, starting at 6 p.m. with a decorating seminar by Norfolk decorator Neal Thomas. The event will be sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of Tidewater Association of Home Builders and Climatemakers.

Lange has spent 36 years editing industrial publications, 25 of which have been with "Practical Builder." During this time he has originated such industry campaigns and programs as "True Economy House," a nationwide competition seeking design and construction ideas for lower cost housing; "Builder Business Management Program," to stimulate better procedures among builders; "Home of Living Light," a project designed to make use of daylight and artificial light in home building; and many others.

He is author and collaborator of many technical manuals, consultant to manufacturers and builder groups and recipient of the Achievement Award from the National Association of Home Builders and winner of other industry awards.

The three editors will stay at the Thunderbird Motor Lodge on Atlantic Avenue during their visit here.

Scholarship Money
At the Conference, Mrs. W. E. Witt, president of sponsoring association, will present a check to a representative of the College of William and Mary in Norfolk for a scholarship to be awarded a deserving student interested in some phase of home building.

JAMES M. LANGE

Television personality Warren Hull will serve as master of ceremonies and refreshments will be served at 7 p.m. Co-chairmen of the Conference are Mrs. Horace Filer and Mrs. Henry Rodgerson.

More than 1,000 women are expected to contribute their ideas on home building through questionnaires. The results of these forms will be used to design the Ideal Home, a model to be displayed at the annual Home Show later this spring.

Tickets are available from the Tidewater Association of Home Builders Auxiliary and reservations must be made in advance.

COMMUNITY LEAGUE SEEKING MEMBERS

BAY COLONY—Residents of this area have been notified that the Cavalier Park Bay Colony Community League is again conducting its annual membership drive.

A mailed flyer pointed out that the League's regular activities include:

- Maintenance of a deputized auxiliary police unit for emergency use throughout the area.
- Sponsorship and partial support of a life guard at 47th Street.

- Installation and maintenance of street signs.

- Installation and maintenance of traffic safety signs.

- Printing and distribution of a Cavalier Park Bay Colony street directory.

- Supervision and enforcement of area building restrictions.

- Continuous efforts to improve roads, drainage and other state and county services.

Membership checks may be mailed to League Treasurer P. W. Root, 172 Wythe Lane, Virginia Beach.

Kempsville School To Hold Discussion

KEMPSVILLE — The Parent and Family Life Education Committee of Kempsville Meadows Elementary School will hold a discussion period Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the school library.

N. W. Morris, principal of Kempsville Junior High School, and J. W. Littleton, principal of Princess Anne High School, will speak on "Making Plans for High School."

All parents are urged to attend.

The immediate goal of cancer control in 1962—Cancer Progress Year—is the saving of 200,000 lives. That is the number of people who could be saved by earlier diagnosis and prompt treatment, according to the American Cancer Society.

An immediate health checkup will contribute to this goal.

Mrs. Juanita Dickson Heads Realtor Week Plans Group

VIRGINIA BEACH—Planning for the annual Realtor Week celebration started here today with the announcement by Mr. Homer W. Cunningham, president of the Virginia Beach Real Estate Board, that Mrs. Juanita Dickson would head this year's committee in charge.

The annual observance of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, of which the beach and county board is a member, is scheduled for May 20-26.

Mrs. Juanita Dickson is a past president of the local board and is on the State Board of Directors. She will be assisted by Mr. Frank P. Whitehurst, Mr. David A. Miller and Mr. Burks Withers, Jr.

According to Mr. Cunningham, the twenty-one Realtors in Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County will join with thousands of colleagues across the nation for the celebration, which is being held in conjunction with the 100th anniversary of the Homestead Act.

"This act is one of the greatest single steps ever taken by a nation to make possible widespread real property ownership," Mr. Cunningham said, "and it is fitting that Realtors, who have been so instrumental in advancing this principle, should join in the celebration."

The Homestead Act made available millions of acres of public land to private ownership and settlement. It was passed by Congress on May 20, 1862, and led to one of the most colorful and important eras in the development of this country—the winning of the West and the settlement of a territory equal in extent to Great Britain and France combined.

Realtors and other groups and associations are observing the occasion along with the United States Department of Interior. A special U.S. Commemorative postage stamp, which will be available on May 21, will be issued to mark the centennial.

Mr. Cunningham explained that the purpose of Realtor week was to make better known to the public the services offered by Realtors and to point up the differences between Realtors and others in the real estate business.

"Realtors are members of the National Association of Real Estate Boards," he said, "and only they are entitled to use the term. We are subject to the rules and regulations of NAREB, observe the standards of conduct and it sets, and are entitled to receive the benefits—many of which are passed on to our clients—of local, state and national association."

The term REALTOR, Mr. Cunningham pointed out, is registered with the U.S. Patent Office, and its exclusive control by NAREB has been upheld by numerous federal and state court decisions. "Today, NAREB ranks as one of the largest trade associations in the country," Mr. Cunningham said, "with a total of 70,897 members in 1,418 real estate boards."

The board president announced that plans for the local observance of Realtor Week are now being completed and all members will take an active part in the program.

"World Understanding"

'Search for Peace' Topic Of Beach Forum Speaker

VIRGINIA BEACH — The Christian Council of Virginia Beach will present the first of a series of public forums at the high school auditorium on Monday evening, April 2. Dr. Edwin Milton Wright, spokesman for the U.S. State Department, will deliver an address titled "Points of Tension in the Search for Peace."

Dr. Wright, who is head of the Department of Career Studies, Foreign Service Institute, has spent most of his distinguished career in the Near East and South Asia as a State Department representative. He will discuss the political, social and economic problems our country is encountering in the search for world peace, and the conflicting aims of western society and Communist imperialism.

Following the feature address, a panel of Virginia educators and religious leaders will discuss specific issues raised by Dr. Wright. Makeup of the panel will be announced prior to the forum. The Reverend John D. Keister, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd, will represent the Christian Council.

Founded in 1960, the Christian Council is an interdenominational, civic-service organization of Protestant clergymen and laymen in which many local congregations are represented. Present chairman is the Rev. Richard Woodward, minister of the Community Chapel.

The forum will be held from 8 to 10 p.m., April 2. There is no admission charge and the general public is invited. Following the lecture and panel discussion, refreshments will be served by a committee from the Friends Meeting.

Would Be Lawyer Is Principal of Woodstock School

(This is one in a series of articles to appear in this paper each week on the men and women who serve as principals of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County Schools.)

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

PRINCESS ANNE—Woodstock Elementary School Principal Jefferson Davis wanted to be a lawyer. He planned to practice with his father, a Corporation Court Judge in South Norfolk.

But fate has a way of changing the best made plans and Davis found himself in the world of textbooks and busy children rather than law books and troubled clients.

After graduating from North Carolina's Elon College, which he attended on a football scholarship, Davis attended law school for three years at the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg. It was here he met his lovely wife, Janet.

Course Was Challenged

The summer following his third year of law, Davis and Janet were married, and the plans seemed well on the way toward completion. That was when Fate stepped in. A major operation for a serious war wound changed his way of life. He was unable to finish the little schooling he needed to pass the Virginia Bar exam.

He accepted a position as social studies teacher at Kempsville High School, planning to stay but one year until he got his feet back on the ground.

"After teaching a few months, I realized I was where I belonged," he said. "It was the most challenging and rewarding thing I had ever done and I had no desire to leave it. I guess things have a way of working out for the best."

Davis' law training, however, has not gone to waste. He often finds it valuable to him in his work. He hopes some day to complete his schooling and pass the Bar exam — "Not that I would ever want to practice law. I just want to complete what I started."

Night classes on his master's degree at the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg leave him little time for hobbies, but Davis is interested in many things and usually keeps busy "until I drop at night."

He maintains a workshop at his South Norfolk home and keeps it busy making much of their furniture and remodeling the exterior of the house. He and his wife hope to move to Princess Anne County this summer and he is already enthused over additions and changes to the home they will buy.

Since their preference is Early American motif is Davis' gun collection and many of his own oil paintings as well as an entire set of china he painted. But all of the couple's combined efforts are not on the house. They also raise azaleas, starting with tiny cuttings and developing them into large, healthy plants. This year they have successfully developed 1000 plants and have had as many as 2000!

After leaving his Kempsville position he went to Princess Anne High School, where he remained for two years until he accepted the assistant principalship at the now extinct Ocean School. He became principal of Woodstock five years ago when the school was opened.

And on his office wall is a old-fashioned telephone, the wooden type with a crank on the side. This phone is connected to a similar one in a sixth grade science class. Last year's class gave it to him, and this year's class is installing it.

"We have a great time talking back and forth on the telephone," he laughed.

Mrs. J. B. Maddrey, President, appointed Mrs. Everett P. Seay, Mrs. Edgar H. LaRose and Mrs. W. T. Byrns, as a nominating committee. Mrs. Maddrey and Mrs. R. F. Rhodes, will serve as Delegates and Mrs. Seay and Mrs. Byrns as Alternates to the Tidewater District Meeting Golden Triangle Hotel April 10th.

Judges from the Countryside Garden Club awarded blue ribbons to Mrs. W. C. Griffin, Mrs. Cecil H. Reed, Mrs. Everett P. Seay, Mrs. R. F. Rhodes, Mrs. Edgar H. LaRose, Mrs. Wm. E. Anderson and Mrs. J. B. Maddrey.

The American Cancer Society reports that today almost all deaths from cancer of the uterus can be eliminated as a result of newly developed preventive and diagnostic techniques. Only a few years ago uterine cancer was the leading cause of death from cancer among women. That's why the Society urges all adult women to have a health checkup, including a pelvic examination, each year.

Combine Spaghetti and Clams for Lenten Meal

NO doubt your looking for something different and truly delicious for Lenten meals. With a little effort and imagination you can serve meals fit for a king during this meatless meal season.

SPAGHETTI AND CLAM DELIGHT... a tempting combination of canned Italian style spaghetti, minced canned clams, and celery... is a "must" on your menu. The spaghetti itself... is spicy and spectacular... is a rich blend of tangy tomato sauce and three fine cheeses... Romano, Parmesan and Cheddar. It definitely has that Italian touch. Clams add that personality touch!

For a crisp accompaniment... serve a mixture of salad greens with an oil and vinegar dressing. Then for the bright final touch combine canned pear halves and orange slices for a contrast delight.

Spaghetti and Clam Delight
1 cup chopped celery
1 tablespoon chopped onion
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 can (1 1/2 ounces) Italian style spaghetti
1 can (7 1/2 ounces) minced clams, drained
1 teaspoon lemon juice
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
In a skillet or saucepan, cook celery and onion in butter until tender. Add spaghetti, clams, and lemon juice. Heat, stirring gently now and then. Garnish with chopped parsley. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

1 1/2 cup chopped onion
1/2 cup butter
1 1/2 cup water
1 8-oz. can tomato paste
1 cup canned tomatoes
Pinch oregano, marjoram, thyme and basil
1/2 teaspoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper

In 1/2 stick butter or margarine saute' onions and mushrooms and garlic until tender. Add water tomato paste, tomatoes, seasonings and simmer for 2 hours. Stir from time to time, add extra water if seems to thick. Serve generously over piping hot spaghetti.

Here's another suggestion for having a meatless meal and still keep your family happy. It's a pretty big order - hope this will help - It will serve about 4.

SPAGHETTI GENOA
2 12-oz. packages frozen
1 onion, chopped
1/2 cup butter
1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1 lb. Mozzarella Cheese (chopped)
1/2 cup grated Provolone cheese

Cooked spaghetti for 4.
Defrost spinach.
Melt butter in large skillet, add spinach, seasonings and onion - cook few minutes, add chopped mozzarella cheese and stir until cheese melts. Serve this over the hot cooked spaghetti and top with grate Provolone.

Cooking the mozzarella is still something of a novelty, since this cheese has not been generally available until recently. It is fast becoming a favorite of homemakers all over the country.

1 pound mushrooms (sliced)

Home Builders Urge Remodeling

Julian Rashkind, President of the Tidewater Association of Home Builders announced that Leonard L. Frank, President of the National Association of Home Builders, has proclaimed April Home Remodeling Month.

Frank said that April is a good seasonal time for the thousands of families who live in older but sound homes to plan and start projects to make their homes more beautiful, comfortable and functional through major modernization.

The Long Island, N.Y. home builder said that NAHB members throughout the country will participate in observance of the month. He said that while home builders are always ready to consult with home owners on remodeling projects, they will make a special effort in April to advise on all the new and improved materials that can be utilized for the modernization work.

Frank declared that home remodeling has become a major movement in all parts of the country. He said that thousands of families living in older homes are planning additions or renovations to make them more attractive, convenient and livable.

Security, prosperity, and peace are what Americans want most. Buying U.S. Savings Bonds regularly is a positive step in that direction.

Congratulations Beta Club! Virginia Beach's honor society took second place in skit competition at the Roanoke convention. They were awarded a $300 prize which will be used in a scholarship fund for a worthy senior.

Members attending the convention were: Sue Camp, Dorothy Jennings, Alice Moore, Connie Tillet, Tarrall Brennan, Hazel Tucker, Judy Blum, Cheryl Scruggs, and chaperone James M. Helmer.

The Beta Club will no longer exist due to the change over to the National Honor Society. This change will mean a $0.00 average for entrance into the club. The Beta Club has accomplished many fine things and the club will be sorely missed.

This weekend two members and the sponsor of the S.C.A. Council will leave for the State Convention. Kitty Boaser, Mari-lu Jard, and Mrs. B. H. Darst will represent V.B. Kitty is running for the State Office of vice-president. V.B. wishes her the best of luck.

V.B.H.S. is proud of her high-stepping, hard-working band. They won a rating of first division superior in the State Band Festival Saturday. They were in the league with Maury, Granby, Norview and Suffolk. Second division ratings of excellent went to Great Bridge, Blair, South Norfolk, and Princess Anne among others. Third division went to Churchland. We are very, very proud of all of the band members that participated.

Virginia Beach High School will contribute to the observance of Library Week with a contest to be held to judge the most original poster following the theme, "Read and Watch Your World Grow". Judges will be Sue Camp, Toddy Garrison, Hazel Tucker, and Stella Morris. Prizes will be awarded to the first and second place posters that will be entered into competition with other schools in the area.

NBC Declares Stock Dividend

The board of directors of National Bank of Commerce, meeting jointly Wednesday with the advisory board, declared a regular quarterly dividend of 8 1/4 cents per share on the bank's outstanding stock.

John S. Alfried, Chairman of the Board, and R. Cosby Moore, President, said the dividend is an increase of 2 1/4 cents per share over 1961 regular quarterly dividends.

In view of the increased rate on savings effective January 1, 1962, Alfried and Moore stated that bank earnings were satisfactory and in line with estimates made in advance of the increase.

"The increase in savings interest rates, effective January 1, 1962, has resulted in a substantial increase in savings deposits," they said. "Including the increase in savings, deposits have averaged on a daily basis, $5 million more than for the comparable period a year ago. However, loans are averaging $1 million less than last year."

"If earnings permit the continuance of the present dividend rate during the remaining three quarters of the year," they continued, "the annual dividend would represent an increase of 10 cents per share and the 18th consecutive year of dividend increases."

The dividend is payable on April 2 to shareholders of record March 16.

Art Group Plans To Acquire Building

VIRGINIA BEACH — The Virginia Beach Art Association held a special meeting Tuesday to set up plans to acquire a building site for an Arts Center in this area.

A building committee was given the authority to secure the property and obtain an architect to draw up plans. The committee consists of Mrs. Robert K. Molloy, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Winder, Mr. and Mrs. Madison Garage, Capt. George Fee and Mrs. Gordon Atwill. Mrs. John Anderson, president of the Association, will serve as an ex-officio member.

The Art Center, when completed will offer a small theatre which can be used for Little Theatre groups, lectures, special films and other community projects. There will also be facilities for art exhibits and club meetings.

A drive to purchase a building site is expected to get underway in the near future.

FLORIST DESIGNERS

FIELD DAY SET

VIRGINIA BEACH — On Wednesday, April 4th, from 10 to 6 p.m., the entire premises of the Virginia Beach Florists on Laskin Road will be given over to a Designers' Field Day in Flowers, sponsored by the Virginia Beach Garden Club.

With the beautification of Virginia Beach as its main objective, the Virginia Beach Garden Club invites flower lovers from far and wide to come and look and learn.

There will be Eighteenth Century arrangements entered by member clubs of the Virginia Beach Council of Garden Clubs and the Garden Club of Norfolk, competing for the Elizabeth Harrison Coke award given by Mrs. Preston Hix.

Talks on flower arranging techniques and equipment will also be presented and there will be demonstrations carrying out designs in flowers and utilizing these techniques and equipment. Door prizes will be given and refreshments served in the peaceful green-walled patio with its charming garden statuary.

The contribution is only a dollar and the performance is continuous. The public is invited.

About 87,000 cancer patients will probably die in 1962 who might have been saved by earlier diagnosis and better treatment, according to the American Society.

EAT A GOOD BREAKFAST TO START A GOOD DAY

Eating a good breakfast is a good start for the day. Studies have shown that workers who skip breakfast are more likely to be absent from work than those who eat a good meal before work.

As the morning goes on the hungry ones grow less efficient. After lunch they do better for a while; then they slow up again.

What is true for these workers is true for homemakers, weight watchers, teen-age girls, and everyone else. Those who eat a good breakfast have a better chance to do a day's work well than those who neglect breakfast. Children are more likely to do well in studies and games.

Here's a 3-point test of good breakfast:

1. It gives you protein, vitamins, and minerals—materials needed to build and repair the body and to help keep you healthy.

2. It provides fuel for body energy.

3. It tastes good.

A doughnuts - and - coffee breakfast fails the test on point 1. It leaves far too much for other meals to make up.

A fruit juice-and-coffee breakfast goes only part way toward point 1. It's short on Point 2 also. Between supper and breakfast there's at least a 10-hour stretch. Breakfast should provide its share of energy foods.

There's no hard-and-fast rule on how big a good breakfast should be. But for most people, and particularly for children, it is sound to have one-fourth to one-third of the day's food at breakfast and to include a good source of protein, such as eggs, meat, or milk.

What's in a Good Breakfast?

Here are some patterns, all the way from light to hearty:

LIGHT — Fruit — cereal or bread—milk to drink — other beverage if desired.

AVERAGE — Fruit — cereal or bread, or both — egg—beverage.

HEARTY — Fruit — cereal or bread, or both — eggs with meat, such as bacon, sausage, or hash, or fish — beverage.

Let's take these patterns apart to see what a good breakfast does for you.

FRUIT—Fruit is in every one of these breakfasts, mainly for these reasons:

Fruit gives zest to meals.

They keep up normal body functions.

Some fruits are outstanding for vitamin C.

Breakfast is the best time to make sure of some food rich in vitamin C. If you don't have some at this meal, you're likely to fall short of your daily quota.

Citrus fruits are rich in vitamin C. An orange, half a grapefruit, or half a glass (4 oz.) of orange or grapefruit juice — fresh, frozen, or canned—goes far toward meeting vitamin C needs for the day.

If you squeeze citrus juice, use it unstrained — to get the most vitamins and minerals for the pulp.

Tomatoes, fresh or canned, are also good vitamin C providers, and may take over this job when they are easier to get than citrus fruit. It takes about three times as much tomato juice as orange juice to give you an equal amount of vitamin C.

Strawberries, cantaloupe and some other fresh fruits are valuable for vitamin C, and can take a turn providing it when they're in season and when variety is wanted.

CEREALS, BREAD — Cereals and bread give protein, iron and other minerals, vitamins, and food energy. An active worker or a growing child can have a heartier breakfast by eating both cereal and bread. Choose whole-grain, enriched, or restored kinds, for they have added values in B-vitamins and minerals. Butter and margarine used with bread help out with food energy and with vitamin A.

MILK — Without a regular supply of milk in meals, it's hard to get enough calcium — an important mineral for bones and teeth—and the B-vitamin riboflavin. Milk is also a good source of top-grade protein.

Normal, healthy adults need a pint or more of milk in some form each day. Young children should have 3 to 4 cups; older

Canadian Prairie Looms as Good Nesting Grounds for Ducks

Prospects for a good nesting season for ducks and geese in the Canadian prairie provinces which produce the majority of our continental waterfowl, were heightened during the month of February when snowstorms dumped more snow across a major portion of the breeding area, according to word from Ducks Unlimited recently.

Most of the Canadian waterfowl breeding area is now enveloped in a deep freeze, Edmonton's reading on February 28th being 42 below zero. A solid frost seal extends throughout the provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, where Ducks Unlimited maintains more than 600 "duck factories", and it is the hope of the internationally famous waterfowl conservation organization that the 4-year drought which seriously affected wildfowl populations may be broken.

In some sections of the breeding grounds, particularly in Manitoba, there is more snow now than in 1960 and 1961 and, in some local areas, more snow than has been evident in five years. Snowstorms early in February were nullified by warm weather in some local areas which encouraged soil absorption and ultimately created a better frost seal with the advent of normal colder weather. Additional snows later in the month, which dropped 6 to 19 inches in Southern Manitoba, as well as lesser amounts in the other two provinces, were augmented by further snows starting on the 22nd which dumped up to 7 inches in an area along the Alberta-Saskatchewan border where it was needed most. This latter precipitation narrowed the drought area by another 100 miles, but there is still no run-off in sight from Hanna, Alberta, south to the United States border.

A quick thaw, with seepage and soaking kept to a minimum, would enhance the run-off potential and increase water in the natural sloughs and potholes of the Canadian prairies which produce millions of waterfowl when conditions are right.

According to the American Cancer Society there will be some 520,000 new cancer patients (diagnosed for the first time) in 1962. The Society says that a least one half of them could be saved by early diagnosis and prompt treatment.

EGGS, MEAT, FISH — Eggs, meat, and fish as well as milk, provide high-grade proteins for body building and repair, and they have mineral and other values besides. Building foods of some kind are a "must" in the day's eating and one or more should appear at each meal.

SOMETHING HOT—Summer or winter, there's something hot, as a rule, in a good breakfast—a hot beverage, or hot cereal, for example. Something hot is cheering and gives you a sense of well-being.

Something Different
For Breakfast

Most folks like a change now and again. Here are a few ways to get variety—and maybe surprises—into breakfast.

Mist fruits — berries with sliced peaches, for instance, or sliced bananas with oranges — for a change of flavor, and when you haven't enough of one kind to go around.

To add interest to cereals, top with favorite fruits—fresh in season, or frozen, canned, or dried. Fruits go well with both hot and ready-to-eat cereals.

Sprinkle grated cheese over eggs to be baked, or combine with scrambled eggs for a different flavor treat.

Scramble eggs with tomatoes. To serve 6: Beat together 6 eggs and a cupful of cooked or canned tomatoes. Season, and cook in a little fat over low heat, stirring constantly, until as firm as you like it.

JESUS— VOLUNTEER OR VICTIM?

By Rev. B. Sidney Sanders
Rector, Eastern Shore Chapel

The times in which we live have been called by modern day writers as the "Age of Anxiety." It is a world marked by constant pressures from every side. It is a world in which each of us finds our lives continually beset by problems, tensions, anxieties, and vague fears.

Unfortunately more and more of us are succumbing to these pressures. Rather than remaining in control of our lives we find our lives are being controlled by forces outside of us. We find ourselves being driven this way and that by the pressures which bow down upon us. We call ourselves, when our marriages fail, or we do poorly in our job, or our children disappoint us the "victim of circumstances." We find that we are more and more controlled by our emotions, and by the pressures upon us. We have lost a sense of guidance within our lives.

It is well, then, to look within our own lives to see if these tendencies exist there. And, if they do, we may regain our perspective simply by thinking for a few moments about the life of our Lord. Here is pressure such as you and I will never know. The pressure of great crowds of people wherever He would go; the pressure of His disciples' blindness of heart; the pressure of the contempt and rejection of the religious leaders of His day; the final and ultimate pressure of the slow and agonizing death of crucifixion. Here is One who could have been labeled The Victim of circumstance at all times.

Such, however, was not the case. Despite the tremendous external pressures on the life of our Lord; despite the failings of His Disciples; despite the horror of the cross, Jesus remained in complete control of His life from the beginning to end. No victim He; rather a Volunteer who gave His life for you and me.

How did our Lord gain this complete control over His life in the face of such tremendous pressures? How did He remain calm and in control of the circumstances about Him not only up to; but through His agonizing hours on the cross? How, in the midst of such horrible physical pain was He able to pray for those who crucified Him, "Father, forgive them for they know not what they do?" How was He able to turn His heart outward in love toward those who caused His agony and those who stood watching it; rather than inward on Himself?

Surely the answer is found as we see Him on His knees in the Garden of Gethsemane. Surely the answer is found in His complete surrender of self to God's will. It was because He gave Himself to God totally that He was able to control, rather than be controlled by constant pressure of events that bore on Him from every side.

Each of us will lose our lives. We may lose them grudgingly to circumstance fighting death every step of the way. We may be a victim of life. Or we may volunteer our lives to Him. For if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; and whosoever will lose his life for My sake shall find it.

lose them, as Christ did, by spending moments of quiet in which God gives us the strength to give ourselves totally to Him. For if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; and whosoever will lose his life for My sake shall find it.

lose them, as Christ did, by spending moments of quiet in which God gives us the strength to give ourselves totally to Him. For if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; and whosoever will lose his life for My sake shall find it.

COMMERCIAL GILT
SALE REPORT
You have read here about the tremendous commercial gilt sale which was recently held at Courtland. You might be interested that 225 gilts averaged $66.62 per head. Thirty-two boars averaged $133.57, with the highest boar selling for $215.
This was a Yorkshire boar, bred and raised by Mr. Richard Ellis, one of Virginia's County Agents.

NEED A BULL?
Last Saturday I was down at Ralph Frost's looking at some of his beef cattle, and he has some excellent Hereford bulls, both horned and polled, which you may choose from. These bulls are highly bred and are reasonably priced. Drop by my office if you are in the need for a bull, and I will go with you to help you select one.
Mr. Ernest Edmondson, bought one of them last Saturday.

THOROUGHGOOD GARDEN CLUB HEARS TALK ON CAMELIAS

The Thoroughgood Garden Club met Wednesday night, March 14, at 8:00 p.m. at the Thoroughgood School.

The speaker for the evening was Mr. Alan Hoffheimer, who talked to the club on the planting, feeding and care of camellias. Mr. Hoffheimer cautioned the club not to plant camellias too deep. Which is one of the main reasons for losing a bush. He also instructed them in the proper procedure of taking camellia specimens.

Ribbons for arrangements were awarded to Mrs. J. A. Jordan, Mrs. C. L. Owens and Mrs. C. E. Treake.

Ribbons for horticulture were awarded to Mrs. E. E. Braunbeck, Mrs. LaVera Hayden and Mrs. C. L. Owens. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. E. G. Keene, Mrs. N. C. Chandler, Mrs. L. R. Humphrey, Mrs. L. W. Tilt and Mrs. H. T. McCoy.

OCEAN PARK WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS AND ELECTS OFFICERS FOR COMING YEAR

The Ocean Park Woman's Club met Wednesday, March 15, for their regular meeting. But due to the fact that the disaster equipment was still housed in the Ocean Park Clubroom, where they usually meet, the ladies journeyed to Brownley's on the Little Creek Road, for lunch and their business meeting and program.

Thomas R. Scully, from the Trust Department of the National Bank of Commerce talked to the ladies on the importance of making wills. The ladies were interested listeners and asked many questions on the subject. And asked how they could make appointments to make wills and to see if the wills they had already made were valid.

The following officers were elected for the coming club year: President, Mrs. C. A. Farmer; vice president, Mrs. W. H. Twiford; recording secretary, Mrs. E. F. Sellers; corresponding secretary, Mrs. C. J. Hiller; treasurer, Mrs. B. I. Waters; chaplain, Mrs. C. E. Everett; historian, Mrs. Michael Henry.

TWO MEMBERS OF OCEAN PARK ART CLASS WIN RIBBONS IN DISTRICT

Two members of the Ocean Park Woman's Club Art Class received ribbons at the Tidewater District Competition recently held at the Chamberlain Hotel. Mrs. Elsie Hunsinger, who just started painting in September, received a blue ribbon for a pastel and a red for a charcoal drawing. Mrs. Doris DeBusk received a blue in the District for her still life.

The Ocean Park Woman's Club has had a very successful Art Class working under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth D'Auria, well known Norfolk artist and teacher. There are twelve in the class and they meet Thursdays at the Ocean Park Fire Station.

MRS. "JERRY" MEDLOCK WORKS TIRELESS DURING DISASTER

I am sure there were many "unsung" heroes during the recent Ash Wednesday storm. One of the storm workers at the Ocean Park Fire Station, who stayed on duty from the time that the first disaster warning went out until way into Saturday night, was Mrs. Raymon Medlock, better known as "Jerry".

She worked untiringly keeping hot coffee made for the firemen and everyone else, feeding the flood refugees who sought shelter from their flooded homes, heating bottles for babies, and trying in every way possible to make her self useful during this trying time.

When the feeding and cooking was over she stayed on to help register the residents in the area who came to the Fire Station for their typhoid shots. Needless to say when she finally went home Saturday night no one had to "rock her to sleep". Congratulations "Jerry" on a job well done.

Mrs. Medlock is a member of the Ocean Park Woman's Club and is currently serving as president of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Ocean Park Volunteer Fire Department. She and her husband, Ramon, make their home at Ocean Park.

The wise man builds his house upon a rock. But he builds his financial security upon U.S. Savings Bonds.

THE warm morning March sun brightens the tinge of green on the distant hillsides. A searching hawk sets his wings and spirals about the sky. A raccoon picks his way gingerly along the bank of a rippling stream. Nature's children, some weary of cold and ice and snow and sleet, and some filled to the brim with winter's sleep, come forth to welcome spring.

Officially, of course, spring does not arrive until March 21. But, the calendar doesn't mean a thing to the furred and feathered creatures of the world outdoors and they follow no timetable from spring to spring. They know "spring is sprung" when that warm morning sun quickens the blood flow and creates an impulsive desire to be out and doing things.

And so it is with another outdoor citizen—the fisherman. Whether he is the type that "moth balls" fishing gear with the first frost or the hardy, year-round fisherman or jig fisherman, every angler knows that March is the time to get set for another fishing season.

When the big streams are high and rolling, fish will make springtime feeding forays up smaller tributaries. The angler who knows where and when to fish these small streams usually has fish for supper.

Melting snow and spring rains raise the level of many man-made impoundments up to and above timelime. This situation, combined with a mixture of clear and muddy waters, creates "jiggin" water for the bass fisherman.

And, in the cool, clear streams of the deep south, fish begin to find their appetites again. It doesn't really matter how a fellow goes after them—fly rod, spinning rig, or just a long cane pole.

VIRGINIA: IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF PRINCESS ANNE COUNTY ON THIS DAY OF MARCH, 1962.

IN THE MATTER OF ADDING SEABOARD, PUNGO AND BLACKWATER MAGISTERIAL DISTRICTS OF PRINCESS ANNE COUNTY, VIRGINIA IN THE HAMPTON ROADS SANITATION DISTRICT ORDER

On this day came the Petitioner, The Board of Supervisors of Princess Anne County by Counsel and presented its Petition declaring that the governing body of the County desires to have all of Seaboard, Pungo and Blackwater Magisterial Districts added to the boundaries and the jurisdiction of the Hampton Roads Sanitation District under the provisions of Chapter 66, Section 1, paragraph 48 of the Acts of Assembly, Regular Session 1960, and pursuant to the unanimous action taken by said Board of Supervisors on Monday, February 26, 1962 by Resolution, a copy of which was filed with this Petition.

WHEREFORE, it is ordered that such Petition with Resolutions attached thereto be filed: And it is further ADJUDGED, ORDERED and DECREED that on Monday, May 14, 1962 at 10:00 a.m. in the Courtroom of the Circuit Court of Princess Anne County, Virginia a Public Hearing will be held on the question of the addition of territory to the Hampton Roads Sanitation District.

Said Petition excluding signatures is hereby set forth in full. The territory proposed to be added is herein after described in paragraph Third (3) of Petition in the following words:

PETITION
To the Honorable Judges of Said Court:
Your Petitioner, the Board of Supervisors of Princess Anne County, Virginia, respectfully shows unto this Honorable Court:

1. That they are the duly elected and qualified members of the Board of Supervisors of Princess Anne County, Virginia, and as such constitute the governing body of said County.

2. That at a regular meeting of said Board of Supervisors of Princess Anne County held in the Courtroom of the Princess Anne County Court on Monday, February 26, 1962, at 10:00 a.m., the said Board by unanimous action passed a Resolution requesting the area of Princess Anne County not already within the Hampton Roads Sanitation District to be included within the boundaries and the jurisdiction of said Hampton Roads Sanitation District. A copy of said Resolution is hereby attached and is to become a part hereof.

3. The governing body of Princess Anne County desires to have the following territory added to the Hampton Roads Sanitation District pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 66, Section 1, paragraph 48 of the Acts of Assembly, Regular Session 1960:

COUNTY 4-Hers PREPARE FOR DISTRICT CONTESTS

Senior 4-H Club members throughout Princess Anne County are now making plans for the 4-H District contests which will take place in Petersburg, Va., on April 14. Some of the preparations now being made are as follows:

County contests for all Home Economics Projects for Junior and Senior members will be held on Saturday, March 24, at the County Extension Office, beginning at 9:00 a.m. 4-H Club members participating in these contests, should bring all the equipment which they will need to carry out their particular demonstration. Any 4-H Club member wishing to participate in the contest should notify my office immediately.

All 4-H Achievement records are due in my office by March 30 for the County Achievement Contest. Any 4-H Club members who are not well underway in completing their project record books should give this matter immediate attention, and have the record books completed by March 30, in order that they may compete in the County Achievement Record Contest, as well as receive the recognition which is due them.

Workouts have already begun with the 4-H Land Appreciation team and the Junior and Senior Livestock Judging Teams. For the next two weeks, these particular 4-H Club members will be given extensive instructions and repeated practice in their particular project judging field in order that they may be well prepared to compete in the District contest on April 14.

The training of a Junior Livestock Judging Team is quite valuable to our 4-H Club program in several respects. First of all, a good deal of this training is provided by the Senior Livestock Judging members who have already received training in this project area. This provides an excellent opportunity in Junior leadership for the Senior Club members. It is also very good to have our younger boys learn the procedures and get some practice in livestock judging, in order that they may have a good background when they are old enough to be eligible for the Senior Livestock Judging Team.

March 24, has been set aside for a Fitting and Showing Demonstration for the Junior Steer and Heifer Project members. On this date, all of the 4-H Club members participating in this project will have the opportunity of observing demonstrations and then to actually practice in the proper procedure of fitting and showing the particular animal that they are working with at this time. This is all done in preparation for the Junior Steer and Heifer Show, which is held in Portsmouth, Va., in May.

4-H CLUB STATE RECORDS DUE APRIL 1

All 4-H Club Achievement Record books that are to be entered in State competition are due in the State 4-H Club Office by April 1. We would like very much to have as many members as possible who have sufficient background in 4-H Club work to complete a project record book, to do so, and to enter into the State competition. In past years we have had Princess Anne County members who were State winners and also have received National recognition in this area.

I will be most happy to supply anyone who is interested in the State Record competition with the needed information, forms, and suggestions for assembling the 4-H Achievement Record Books. Anyone interested should respond immediately.

BEGINNER SEWING MEMBERS LEARN TO MODEL
Approximately 35 girls enrolled in the 4-H Beginner's Sewing Class are learning to model the garments which they have made while enrolled in this project. On Saturday, March 17, under the supervision of Miss Lois Erdman, Assistant Home Demonstration Agent, the girls were given instruction as to the proper procedures in modelling.

DIFFERENT NAMES, BUT THE SAME STORY

They have different names — 4-S in Brazil—4-C in Haiti—4-D in Iran—4-T in Vietnam—3-P in Italy—and 5-C in Cuba, but the goals of 4-H type clubs in more than 70 countries around the world are much the same.

In Argentina, the symbols of the Clubes Rurales Juveniles are 4-A.

Vietnam, Turkey, Surinam, Paraguay, Nepal, Libya, Laos, Jordan, Israel, Indonesia and the Ryukyu Islands are among the newest clubs, all beginning since 1950.

Germany has a membership of 150,000. France has 300,000; Finland, 60,000; Canada, 74,000; Japan, 245,000; Korea, 143,000; the Philippines, 118,000. Tiny Libya, one of the newest clubs, has 35 members.

The United States now has 2 1/2 million 4-H Club members and we are equally proud of all of the foreign countries who are following the same pattern to build character, citizenship, morality, and all the many other qualities needed for a foundation for our leaders of tomorrow.

"It's one thing to itch for something, and another to scratch for it."

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The place of the Minimum Corn Tillage Meeting has been changed from the Princess Anne Volunteer Fire Department to the New County Court Room, which is located directly behind the old Courthouse building, at Princess Anne, Virginia.

The time of the meeting will remain at 1:30 in the afternoon, and 7:30 in the evening. The same instructions on Minimum Corn Tillage will be presented at both meetings.

Corn producers will want to attend one of these two to learn how they can save in production cost $5 to $15, depending upon their conventional method of producing corn. New information on this method will be presented along with the economics of this method, in addition to changes necessary to the equipment which you now have on your farm, and the use of new weed control materials.

This is the kind of information that good corn producers will need to have to be able to make proper adjustments in their farming operations. To be competitive in the future, we must be able to adapt new methods on our own individual farms and adapt them rapidly.

GOOD MANAGEMENT IS THE KEY

Lime fertilizer and the proper seeding of recommended mixtures are the practices that make possible the treasure chest full of good pastures, but M. R. Adams, of Princess Anne,

Virginia, says that good management is the key that opens the lid of the chest.

Adams follows the recommendations of the Extension Service in seeding permanent pastures. And, he adds that extra special touch of management that makes the difference between a really good pasture and just pasture.

Adams management of pastures goes like this: first a soil sample comes into my office for lime and fertilizer recommendations. Lime is applied and plowed down. Fertilizer is applied and disked in and final preparation of the seed bed is made.

On Adams Bladen, a poorly drained organic soil, a mixture of one and one half pounds of ladino and 14 pounds of certified Kentucky 31 fescue does a good job for his cow and calf herd.

There are five pastures of ladino fescue which are grazed rotationally. In addition, there is one field of fescue which provides additional winter grazing. All permanent pastures receive 600 lbs. in February of either 5-10-10, 2-12-12 or 0-14-14, depending upon the ratio of clover to grass. The field of fescue only, gets an additional 600 lbs. of 10-10-10 in the fall. This fescue is not grazed or cut for hay. Rather, it is allowed to grow through the fall until all other forage is gone. This year, cows put in the fescue field the last week in December are still there, and will provide sufficient grazing until new grass starts.

To fill in a cover crop of rye and crimson clover is seeded on crop land which adds extra forage in the fall and spring months.

Mr. Adams says, "By putting into my pastures all the ingredients recommended by the Extension Service, plus a dab of my own management, I am able to graze my cows 12 months of the year. Brother, that beats baling hay!"

SHEEP SHEARING TO STARTS APRIL 9th

We have arranged with the usual commercial sheep shearers to come to Princess Anne County to shear our sheep during the weeks of April 9th. Sheep producers to submit to this office at once the number of sheep you desire to have sheared so that your flock can be fitted into the shearing schedule. The price will be 60c per head, or $8 per flock, whichever is the larger.

Incidentally, the outlook for wool appears to be good this year. Present prices seem to be ranging about 6c above last year and is expected to hold steady.

We will be arranging for the usual County wool pool in connection with the Southeastern Virginia Pool at an early date, and producers will be notified of pool arrangements.

POULTRY MEETING SET

On Monday, March 26, at the Suffolk Hotel, starting at 9:30 a.m., and running through 3:30, there will be a meeting for poultry producers, equipment dealers, power supply engineers, vocational agriculture instructors, seed dealers, poultry committees and other interested in poultry on the subject of Invermout Control in Poultry Houses.

This is the hottest subject in poultry today, and poultry producers are encouraged to participate in this meeting to determine for themselves how production costs can be lowered and how net profit can be increased.

A detailed program will be forthcoming to each poultry producer in the county.

County, City Act

Water Solution Becomes Final

PRINCESS ANNE—Final action to supply Norfolk water to six long-dry county housing developments came this week when both the Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors and Norfolk City Council formally approved an agreement to honor the six water requests.

This agreement will not obligate Norfolk to provide water to new developments until negotiations on a proposed 25-year water contract with the county have been completed.

The Supervisors passed a resolution stating they would make no further requests for more water main extensions from Norfolk until a permanent agreement has been approved by both governing bodies.

The six developers had made application for water last fall before the merger campaign started. Areas soon to receive the water include Bartow Heights, Lake Smith Terrace, sections of Carolanne Farms, New Kempville Drive, a section of King's Grant and a section of Pembroke Manor.

A four-man committee, representing the new City of Virginia Beach, which becomes effective Jan. 1, was appointed this week to study the long-term water contract proposed last month by Norfolk.

The committee consists of Richard L. Webbon, executive secretary of the Board of Supervisors; Robert L. Simpson, County Commonwealth's Attorney; W. Russell Hatchett, Virginia Beach City Manager; and George Vakos, city attorney.

"This group will meet with Norfolk City Manager Thomas F. Maxwell, Director of Public Works S. Carlisle Morrisette and other city officials to work out a long-term contract acceptable to both parties."

New Budget Approved by Supervisors

PRINCESS ANNE—A budget for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1963, passed on first reading by the County Board of Supervisors Monday, will surpass last year's budget by nearly $700,000.

The record $12,444,715 figure proposed for this year exceeds last year's budget by $699,115. However some of this difference, comptroller Giles Dodd said is due to the transfer of one fund to another rather than cash outlay so that the actual increase is only $361,244, most of which will be used for schools.

Schools Big Item
Almost $6 million of the new budget will be used for schools. Three new plants are scheduled to open in the fall. The federal government will contribute $2,570,000 and the State of Virginia will provide $3,816,280 toward the new budget and much of this will be used for schools.

There will be no increase in the tax rate, Richard J. Webbon, executive secretary to the Board of Supervisors, said, but the recent storm damage "may indirectly require some adjustments in the tax rate of the affected districts."

An increase in the Planning Commission budget will provide for the aerial survey and mapping of the southern end of the county.

Webbon announced that the county may build a separate building to house the telephone switchboard that is now located in police headquarters.

The Board also approved a $325 monthly appropriation to pay for a second dog warden for Princess Anne County. No one has been named to the post.

K. of C. Group In 80th Year

VIRGINIA BEACH—"Eighty years of service to God, Country, and Fellowman" is the slogan adopted by the Knights of Columbus as they observe the 80th Anniversary of the Order's founding.

Grand Knight Anthony Thomas, head of the fraternal benefit society's council in Virginia Beach, announced that the local council has joined its one million brothers in devoting the entire month of March to the celebration of the 80th Anniversary.

While the Order was founded on March 29, 1882, "the Knights of Columbus Council No. 4632 of Virginia Beach was established on June 4, 1958, and will celebrate its own fourth anniversary this year."

"We are proud of our record to date in this community and look to the years ahead for increasing service in civic leadership, public welfare, educational development, and religious integrity," said Mr. Thomas. "We are grateful as well for the cooperation which our fellow citizens have accorded us in accomplishing our goals in the short time our council has been in existence."

Review Goals
The goals of the order were reviewed at the March 21 meeting of the Council. Members heard again of the founding of the Order by the Rev. Michael J. McGivney in New Haven, Conn. It was this young Catholic priest's original thought to form an organization for Catholics which would adopt as its chief aim the protection of the family on the death of the bread winner.

In addition, the 4 principles of Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism were established as guides to govern the personal

Financial Aid For Chincoteague

Little Miss Martha Owens, a second grade student at Linkhorn Park Elementary School here, is shown presenting a check in excess of $2,000 to Mayor Robert Reed of Chincoteague Island. Miss Owens started the fund when she donated four dollars of her birthday money to help the victims of the Ash Wednesday storm on Chincoteague. Her teacher Miss Jacqueline Kellam stands next to her above while Senator E. Almer Ames is to the back of the picture and Virginia Beach Police Chief Reeves E. Johnson proudly looks on.

Replaces Holland

Sidney Kellam Is Named To Tunnel Commission

Sidney S. Kellam, Virginia Beach-Princess Anne political leader, will assume his place on the Chesapeake Bay Bridge and Tunnel Commission on April 1, succeeding Richard S. Holland, who resigned because of a possible conflict with his new duties as a member of the State Highway Commission.

Kellam

Holland tendered his resignation at a meeting of the bridge-tunnel body last week and Princess Anne Circuit Court Judge Robert S. Wahab, Jr., appointed Kellam to succeed him. Holland's resignation becomes effective April 1 and Kellam's appointment becomes effective at the same time.

Governor Albertis S. Harrison, Jr. recently appointed Holland to the State Highway Commission for the Suffolk District and this prompted Holland's resignation from the CBBTC. "It appears to me," he explained, "it was never intended there should be two members of the Highway Commission on this body."

Burgess E. Nelson of Shenandoah County, another member of the highway commission, is a member of the bridge-tunnel body, as required by law.

Holland's resignation appeared to come as a surprise to Lucius J. Kellam, chairman of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel Commission. "We'll miss you," the chairman said of Holland. "Your counsel has always been wise and sought. Losing you here may mean we are gaining a friend on the Highway Commission."

Kellam, Holland's successor, is well known and is a leader in area, state and national political fields. He serves as Democratic National Committeeman for Virginia and is a political leader throughout the State.

Mayor W. Fred Duckworth is Norfolk's representative, while G. A. Treake, a leader in Norfolk County political affairs for many years, represents the county.

City Manager J. C. Biggins of Newport News is that city's representative, while Milton T. Hickman, chairman of the Va. State Commission of Fisheries, Virginia Beach Bridge Players Win Area Title

Two Virginia Beach bridge players have won the Norfolk area North American Rubber Bridge Tournament championship and their scores will now be reviewed by a panel of famous judges in the national competition.

The champions are Mrs. George R. Alcorn and Mrs. C. H. Walker, who defeated Dr. & Mrs. Sidney P. Helfer of Norfolk in a thrilling match last Thursday night at the Norfolk Bridge Center.

The two teams put on a lively match in the final round which was witnessed by a large and enthusiastic audience. The two teams had survived among 80 semi-finalists in Wednesday's play.

Alvin Landy, Charles Goren and Richard Frey are serving as judges in the nationwide competition.

Four top pairs — a winning pair and alternates from east and west of the Mississippi — will be determined. The two winning pairs will be invited to go to Chicago to meet in the national finals.

Governor Thanks Oceana Air Station

A letter was received from the governor of Virginia, Albertis S. Harrison, Jr., expressing his appreciation for the cooperation of the personnel of the Oceana Naval Air Station during the recent emergency.

Personnel of the Oceana Air Station were on the scene of the Virginia Beach disaster lending a hand to the Civil Defense officials in evacuating stranded citizens, preserving order and discouraging looting of homes and offices.

The governor also expressed particular appreciation for the assistance he received from Oceana in making a helicopter tour of the coastal area on March 11th.

Minstrel Show Will Resume This Weekend

Roy L. DeHart, president of the Princess Anne Ruritan Club, has announced that the "1962 Ruritan Minstrel Show" will be presented again Friday and Saturday, March 30 and 31, at Princess Anne High School.

The extra presentations are the result of the overwhelming response accorded the show during a four night run last week. The production played to overflow crowds last Wednesday through Saturday. An additional 600 persons were turned away because of a lack of seats. DeHart said he regretted the inconvenience caused the many persons who were not admitted because of crowded conditions.

All tickets, regardless of date, will be honored either Friday or Saturday nights. Tickets will also be available at the box office on the night of each performance. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

Boardwalk Work 'Within Week' Is General's Belief

Admiral McCain Tops Speakers At Cavalier Here

Adm. John S. McCain Jr.

VIRGINIA BEACH — "Cooperative Action for a Better World" will be the theme of a three-day Virginia Home Economics Association meeting to be held at the Cavalier Hotel Thursday through Saturday, April 5-7.

One of the keynote speakers for the affair will be Rear Adm. John S. McCain Jr. who will discuss "The New Four Ocean Challenge." Until a high appointment in Washington recently, Adm. McCain was Commander Amphibious Training Command of the U.S. Atlantic Fleet.

Appearing with Adm. McCain on Thursday's program will be short welcomes by Virginia Beach Mayor Frank Dusch and WTAR-TV personality Warren Hull.

Ensign R. A. Ritz will arrange a tour of the Naval Amphibious Base and a Navy ship later that day.

Dr. Dorothy S. Lyle, president of the American Home Economics Association, will speak on "The Challenges of the Home Economics Profession" Friday at 9:30 a.m.

One of the nation's foremost authorities on textile and fabric care, Dr. Lyle is the author of "Focus on Fabrics," an authoritative text on fabric maintenance, and is presently director of consumer relations for the National Institute of Drycleaning at Silver Spring, Md.

Dr. Lyle will also speak on "Consumer Problems Stimulate"

Lodge after Gen. Wilson, William Patton, area director of the Federal Office of Emergency Planning, Col. J. D. Snow of the Norfolk District of Army Engineers, and city and county officials made a tour of the damaged beach and boardwalk.

"I have visited Virginia Beach many times in the past," Gen. Wilson said, "and I'm sorry to see the clobbering your beach has taken."

Emergency Work Only

He pointed out that the work to be done will be an "emergency measure" which should offer protection for at least 10 years. "Locally, you may want to go for a 100-year protection but a disaster restoration is to replace only what was there before."

Present plans to restore the boardwalk call for bulkheading with crossotied piling sheeting and replacement of the concrete panels to add strength.

Emergency measures to replace sand and dunes on the damaged beach will get underway as soon as engineers can complete their surveys. Gen. Wilson said he hopes the work will be completed in August before hurricane season.

The work in Princess Anne County will "be limited only by what was there before," he said. The Army Engineers plan to pump sand onto the beach, drawing it possibly from Crystal Lake and Lynnhaven Inlet, building up dunes with bulldozers then "let nature take its course" in replenishing the beach.

"In essence, we plan to put back a feeder beach at the south end," Gen. Wilson said, "so that erosion will build it up."

30' Beach
"The beach was deficient to begin with," Col. Snow pointed out, "but we plan to build an emergency beach with a beam 30 feet wide, 7 feet above low water level, which will approach what was there before."

The artificial dunes are expected to be 20 feet across the top, 40 feet across the bottom and two feet high.

The ideal answer to pumping the sand would be to bring it from the ocean floor, Gen. Wilson said, but the Army Engineers have not found the way to do it. A study is being made on it, he pointed out.

"We've studied jetties, too," he said, "but we have found that the best way is to put the sand on the beach and let nature help us."

The new dune line is expected to extend from Chesapeake Beach around the shoreline through Sandbridge.

Duplicate Bridge Winners Are Listed

The winners in the Virginia Beach Duplicate Bridge Club which plays each Tuesday night at 7:45 p.m. in the Jefferson Hotel were announced Wednesday.

East-West winners were Mrs. E. K. Walsh, Mrs. M. F. Clegg, 1st place; Mrs. M. K. Keady, Mrs. R. J. Webbon, 2nd place. All area bridge players are invited to the weekly meetings of the club.

Communist Chinese Problem is Bar To World Disarmament

VIRGINIA BEACH—"Somehow we have got to break the barrier with the Communist Chinese. Disarmament is impossible without it," Sam Levering of Ararat, Va., founder and present director of The American Freedom Association, said at a double speaking engagement here last Thursday.

"One of the ways to get to them is with food," he pointed out. "These people are hungry and have already shown an interest in food from America. But it is up to the American people to do something about it."

Mr. Levering spoke to the Virginia Beach Rotary Club at 7 p.m. and to the Friends Meeting at 8 p.m.

One of the best ways for the American people to help with this cause, he said, is to work through organizations. He has been working for many years with Quaker groups in promoting better understanding in Communist controlled countries.

Keep Govt. Out

"Volunteer groups are the most important thing in a Democracy," he said, "if we can keep the government out of it."

He told the Friends Meeting of touring India while serving as one of 77 delegates from 298 non-Roman Catholic denominations at the World Council of Churches last year in New Delhi.

"Most Indians are living on 22 cents a day," he said. "This affords them only one meal a day of wheat flour pancakes."

From the Russian delegates at the Council he learned much of the Christian movement in that country.

"We should encourage the Christian Church in Russia. How else can we achieve world peace? From the Russian Christian delegates I met in New Delhi I gathered that they have had to choose between Communism and God. I believe they have chosen God."

"There are only two ways to deal with the enemy—one is to obliterate them, destroy them. The other is to make friends out of them so that we can live on the same planet in peace. We must learn to love each other in spite of the differences we may have."

A horticulturist by profession, Levering taught fruit growing at Cornell University for several years before devoting full-time to his own successful orchard and to his own successful attendance of

James Cleared In Auto Death

PRINCESS ANNE — A manslaughter charge against Harold W. James Jr., 24, 102 Robin Road, Va. Beach, was dismissed in Princess Anne County Court Monday.

He had been charged in the death of Mrs. Josephine Watson, 44, 100 Cedar Circle, Thalia, assistant controller of Norfolk Redevelopment and Housing Authority.

She was fatally injured in a February 21 collision when she attempted to pull out into Virginia Beach Blvd. at Kellam Rd. She died in DePaul Hospital Feb. 25.

Judge J. Davis Reed dismissed the charge Monday when witnesses testified that James was in the proper lane, not speeding, and there was no evidence of negligence on his part.

Local Leader Attends Cancer Board Meeting

VIRGINIA BEACH — Mrs. Paul Dolgins, district director of the First Congressional District, Virginia Division, of the American Cancer Society, attended a meeting of the state's Board of Directors of ACS last Thursday in Richmond.

Mrs. Dolgins reported that of the 64 organized units, and 38 partially organized units in the state, the Princess Anne Unit is rated in the top 10 for the services and programs it offers.

She stated that nearly $45,000 in ACS grants was presented to the Medical College of Virginia. A grant of $20,000 went to the research program that is already in effect and an additional $24,926 was given for research in tumor immunity.

A $500 grant went to Dr. John J. Salley, DDS Phd., associate chairman of the College's School of Dentistry, to help establish a rehabilitation clinic for patients receiving facial surgery as a result of cancer. This is the only clinic of its type in the state.

Mrs. Dolgins also said that a new film has been made available to the medical profession by the ACS entitled "Cancer Detection: Proctosigmoidoscopy in the Doctor's Office." There is another new film for public education entitled "Lif Story", which must be approved by the Medical Society for local showings.

EDITORIAL SPEAKING

Words Are Promising, But They Won't Build A Beach Back

There have been many words lately on the rebuilding job to be done in rehabilitating the Virginia Beach oceanfront, but so far the matter has merely been discussed and discussed. What is needed is money and actual rebuilding to start.

The latest information seems to be that the engineering work is well underway and that the Army Engineers are preparing to let a contract, or contracts for the actual work. It was indicated, at one point, that the contract would be let to a single contractor but it is believed that local officials have convinced the government people that time and the size of the job to be done will require the efforts of a combination of contractors. At least, this is what we have gathered from press conferences and private conversation with local officials.

It is understandable that those of us afected by the storm would count the days and that they might seem like months, but the probable impatience is brought on by the closeness of the summer tourist season. The Oceanfront must be in shape for the summer and every day counts.

Government officials have been most optimistic on the help we are to get in the way of disaster relief, but the main point at the moment is that the work begin immediately and that these funds be made available so that contractors can be given the go-ahead to rebuild the oceanfront.

As we have said it is a case of local impatience, probably, for the Army Corps of Engineers and other government agencies have been most helpful to the community and the area. We are just anxious to see the work started and completed and we are confident that it will be done in short order.

Storm's Unsung Heroes Deserve Recognition For Their Work

The Ash Wednesday storm that struck with such relentless fury is now history and many would like to block out the memory of that day and the anguish and anxiety that resulted from the high tides and wind, and we would be the last to want to remind our readers of that day but there are, at times, some things that should be brought to our attention.

It is fairly well known that the community in general and various groups in particular performed unforgettable acts of mercy and rendered invaluable aid to those fellow citizens who were adversely affected by the storm and its high water.

Over the years coastal residents have been noted for their ability to absorb the shock of powerful storms emanating from the ocean and others have marvelled at their ability to build back and in a sense to come back for more. As an aftermath to this destruction seems to come a fresh, new spirit of confidence, cooperation and desire to recreate that which has been destroyed.

In the recent storm much of this spirit was exemplified by our Post Office employees who carried on their daily tasks against great odds. At the height of the storm the local Post Office personnel were able to deliver approximately 85 per cent of the mail with no major delay. In some instances mail carriers waded in hip boots to deliver mail to residences at a time when a letter from a friend or a member of the family meant so much.

The Post Office set up an emergency general delivery section for those evacuated from their homes. Clerks and carriers worked many long hours manning stations at the Post Office to render service for those calling for mail.

Postal employees here truly demonstrated the spirit of confidence, cooperation and the desire to serve during the recent storm. Our hats are off to them for a job well done.

FUNERALS

HERMAN A. HALL, SR.

NORFOLK—Funeral services for Herman A. Hall Sr., Norfolk County truck farmer and father of Beverly J. Hall of Virginia Beach, were held Sunday at Berea Cemetery at Great Bridge.

He was a member of the advisory board of the National Bank of Commerce, the board of the Virginia Truck Experiment Station, Diamond Springs, director of the Association of Virginia Potato and Vegetable Growers and a member of Oak Grove Methodist Church. For many years he served on the Norfolk County School Board.

Other survivors include his widow, Mrs. Maybelle Hearing Hall; another son, Herman A. Hall Jr. of Great Bridge; five sisters, Mrs. W. B. Pentress and Mrs. W. E. Hudgins of Pentress, Mrs. W. N. Jones, Mrs. H. C. Paxson of Great Bridge & Mrs. C. J. Charnock of Lynnhaven; a brother, Colonel L. Hall, chairman of the Norfolk County Board of Supervisors; and four grandchildren.

Capt. Albert Leonard Bonney Sr., PRINCESS ANNE—Funeral services for Capt. Albert Leonard Bonney Sr., 75, a native of Princess Anne County, were held Friday afternoon at Holmon-Brown Funeral Home with the Rev. W. A. Moon Jr., pastor of Charity Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Capt. Bonney, a conductor of Norfolk & Southern Railroad for 48 years until he retired in 1952, was the husband of Mrs. Mary Dozier Bonney and son of William W. and Mrs. Mary M. Bonney. He died in a Williamsburg hospital Wednesday.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Bettie Noyes of Back Bay, and Mrs. Elva B. Malbone of Prin-

Wins District Award

Mary K. Ferebee First Place Bland Winner

VIRGINIA BEACH — Mary Keys Ferebee, the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Ferebee, was named first place winner in this district in the Bland Music Awards.

The District competition was held March 23 at the Fraternal Order of Police Club in Kempsville. The Bland Awards are sponsored by Lions Clubs throughout the state.

Miss Ferebee, who represented the Virginia Beach Lions Club, played the piano selection "Taranella" by Scarlatti as her winning number.

A student at Country Day School for Girls, Miss Ferebee is also a music student of Bristol Hardin.

She will now compete with other district winners who will then go to the state level. The state winner will receive a $1,000 scholarship.

The 24D District that Miss Ferebee heads consists of 6 zones with 43 clubs in the Tidewater area.

The annual music contests are held in memory of James A. Bland, writer of more than 700 songs. One of his most popular ones was "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia."

lives of member Knights. These goals still provide the inspiration for thousands of projects which have made the Knights of Columbus famous throughout the western hemisphere.

Growing Membership

Virginia Beach Council No. 4632 has grown from an original membership of 44 men led by Mr. William H. Fantone in 1958 to a present strength of over one hundred. Some 20% of the membership is on active duty with the Navy.

As part of the Anniversary celebration a special message recorded by Supreme Knight Luke E. Hart was broadcast by radio station WBOP on Sunday, March 18. Certificates of service were awarded to each of the past grand knights at the March 21 meeting. In addition, a past grand knight's pin was presented to Cdr. William J. Hepfinger, USN, grand knight from July to December of 1959.

While the month of March was specifically set aside for the 80th Anniversary observance, the entire year of 1962 will be devoted to a schedule of heightened activity by the Knights of Columbus.

"Columbianism," said Mr. Thomas "embrace many fields, and we of Virginia Beach Council accept the challenge of the coming years in promoting religious, civic, patriotic and humanitarian activities."

The librarian, Mrs. J. V. Lumpkin, gave an interesting talk on the valuable library books owned by the club and stressed the importance of members using them more.

Three newly-admitted members were welcomed into the club, Mrs. Max Daughtry, Mrs. L. S. McDaniel, and Mrs. A. B. Sietoff. They also won ribbons for their first flower arrangement. Women's Conference

Fresh New Housing Ideas Exchanged By Ladies At Meeting

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

PRINCESS ANNE—The Women's Housing Conference Monday night turned out to be a highly successful affair with more than 500 persons attending to get opinions from editors of leading magazines on building ideas.

The audience also had an opportunity to voice their own opinions in questionnaires that will be turned over to the Tidewater Association of Home Builders. The results will be compiled in a model of the "Ideal Home" to be displayed later in the Home Show.

A decorating seminar conducted by Norfolk Decorator Neal Thomas proved to be an informative discussion on what fabrics and colors should be used in what type room.

Use Many Colors
"Don't decorate with the idea it's going to be the last thing you ever do," he told the group. "Use stimulating colors . . . you've grown up when it comes to wall-to-wall carpeting, venetian blinds and draw drapes. They are no longer a necessity. Let the lovely woods of flooring show and try using dark stains on the wood rather than the usual light finish."

Thomas' lecture was highlighted with lovely fashions from Rose Hall and elaborate floral arrangements from Herbert Harrell, Florist. TV star Warren Hull served as master of ceremonies.

The round table discussions on housing, conducted by three editors moderating panels of 30 local women, could well be boiled down into the comments of one panelist who stated that "it may be a disappointment to builders but all we women want is a good old-fashioned house that is sound and comfortable."

Judith Newman
The panel of 10 led by Mrs. Judith Newman, associate editor of architecture for "House and Garden" magazine discussed dining rooms, kitchens and bathrooms.

Some of the features homes should have, she said, are: BATHROOMS—larger rooms and more than one in the house; compartmented rooms separating the lab and stool from the shower; slate floors rather than slippery tile and plastically treated wood panels; and laundry chutes in two-story homes.

KITCHENS—lower cabinets and more storage space for appliances; more counter tops; simple materials and patterns; water coolers for youngsters; and back doors leading into the yard.

DINING ROOMS—a necessity to homes because it promotes better manners and better eating habits; make the rooms more useable by having space for a desk or sewing machine; and more practical materials on the floor around the eating area.

John Ingersoll
John Ingersoll, editor of "American Home" magazine, conducted the second discussion on windows, floor plans and neighborhoods. This panel out:

FLOOR PLANS—more dressing areas should be provided near the bedrooms; larger foyers with the coat closet away from the entrance; more wall space, unbroken by windows and doors; pantries off the kitchens; more combined kitchen-recreation rooms; and replace glass sliding doors with "just plain doors."

WINDOWS—Use picture windows only if there is a view; place windows so that the middle bar is not at eye level when seated; do away with steel casement windows and use the old-fashioned type; and always have windows over kitchen sinks.

NEIGHBORHOODS—this was not discussed because it is an "individual" thing but all agreed that privacy is important.

John Lang
The third panel, moderated by John Lang, editorial director of the "Practical Builder" trade magazine, covered air conditioning, heating and other points. Some of the points made included:

AIR CONDITIONING—a split opinion on which is preferred, a central system in a fairly sealed house or separate units in certain rooms; most agreed that year around air conditioning makes the home more dust-free and comfortable.

HEATING—hot water baseboard heating, which eliminates "cold spots," was the unanimous preference.

OTHER POINTS—acoustical plaster and sound conditioning in children's rooms and play areas; plenty of counter space and shelves in laundry rooms to fold and stock clothes; lighted closets; and soft lights throughout the house to "flatter women over 21."

When the panelists were asked "what would you have if money was no object" they came up with "dumb-waiters, sun porch off the bathrooms, larger fireplaces, big closets with space for everything; crystal chandeliers; music room; & sewing room."

The event was sponsored by the Tidewater Association of Home Builders' Women's Auxiliary and Climatamakers.

PRINCESS ANNE—Senator E. Almer Ames will speak to members of the Princess Anne Ruritan Club Tuesday when they meet at King's Grant Elementary School at 7 p.m.

Sen. Ames will discuss the 1962 Legislature session. He will be introduced by William P. Kellam, program chairman.

On the same program will be Dr. Floyd M. Anderson, executive director of American Institute of Family Relations, who will speak on "A Man's World." The young doctor was enthusiastically received last year when he spoke to the Utah State Association. Before joining the AIFR he was associate professor in the Department of Human Development and Family Relationships at Brigham Young University.

Later that afternoon Dr. Anderson will speak on "The Emotional Foundation of Effective Homemaking."

Saturday's morning session will be highlighted by a speech on "Modern Concept in Nutrition and Education" by Dr. Philip L. White, director of the Department of Foods and Nutrition for the American Medical Association.

Also that morning will be the presentation of the Nancy Carter Award, an achievement Award named after the nationally known home economist, and the naming of "Woman of the Year," an award sponsored by "Progressive Farmer" magazine.

The afternoon session will have another talk by Dr. White on "Progress Report of the AMA Plan for Teaching Nutrition in Public Schools."

THALIA GARDEN CLUB

THALIA—The Thalia Garden Club met recently at the Thalia Methodist Church with the president, Mrs. H. O. Freeman, presiding.

Mrs. E. K. Land, Mrs. R. A. Ellis and Mrs. W. H. Stith were elected to the nominating committee and will bring in a slate of officers at the April meeting.

The club voted to hold the annual luncheon on May 16th, at the Lafayette Yacht and Country Club, Mrs. J. L. Craig will be chairman.

Mrs. H. O. Freeman and Mrs. E. K. Land were elected delegates to the Tidewater District, Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs, spring meeting to be held on April 10th.

Mrs. W. M. Gresham, guest speaker, demonstrated the making of lovely table arrangements, that could be used for both formal and informal affairs.

Judges from the Westview Garden Club, Mrs. D. C. Brown and Mrs. Jack King, awarded a gold ribbon to Mrs. Otis Bray and Mrs. C. H. Bungard.

Other ribbon winners were: Mrs. W. H. Stith, Mrs. N. P. Amato, Mrs. D. D. Goff, Mrs. R. A. Ellis, Mrs. H. O. Freeman, Mrs. E. K. Eakes, Mrs. R. S. White, Mrs. D. S. Willard, Mrs. E. K. Land, Mrs. M. G. Stephenson and Mrs. J. L. Craig, Jr.

Hostesses for the meeting were: Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. Graydon Early and Mrs. E. K. Eakes.

Today's longer life expectancy calls for more social security insurance, pensions, annuities, and U. S. Savings Bonds.

EAST OCEAN VIEW GARDEN CLUB

The East Ocean View Garden Club held its regular monthly meeting at the East Ocean View Presbyterian Church on March 20, 1962.

Mrs. W. Henry Owen and Mrs. L. S. McDaniel were appointed as delegates to the Tidewater Federation of Garden Clubs spring meeting to be held at the Golden Triangle April 10.

The librarian, Mrs. J. V. Lumpkin, gave an interesting talk on the valuable library books owned by the club and stressed the importance of members using them more.

Three newly-admitted members were welcomed into the club, Mrs. Max Daughtry, Mrs. L. S. McDaniel, and Mrs. A. B. Sietoff. They also won ribbons for their first flower arrangement. Other ribbons were won by Mrs. W. Henry Owen, Mrs. J. V. Lumpkin, Mrs. L. B. White, Mrs. George Vergakis, and Mrs. M. O'Shaughnessy.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. H. Gillis and Mrs. Cecil Presson.

Funeral Services For Capt. Albert Leonard Bonney Sr.

PRINCESS ANNE—Funeral services for Capt. Albert Leonard Bonney Sr., 75, a native of Princess Anne County, were held Friday afternoon at Holmon-Brown Funeral Home with the Rev. W. A. Moon Jr., pastor of Charity Methodist Church, officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Capt. Bonney, a conductor of Norfolk & Southern Railroad for 48 years until he retired in 1952, was the husband of Mrs. Mary Dozier Bonney and son of William W. and Mrs. Mary M. Bonney. He died in a Williamsburg hospital Wednesday.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Bettie Noyes of Back Bay, and Mrs. Elva B. Malbone of Prin-

Confident Air Exists In New Spirit of Cavalier Golf Club

BIRDNECK POINT—The Cavalier Golf and Yacht Club has undergone many changes during the past year, both legally and physically, but what has emerged promises to be one of the top facilities in this area.

A few stormy sessions accompanied the club's first big change when it broke its ties with the Southwestern Development Corp. and branched out on its own to operate as a non-profit, membership-owned club.

It was a great undertaking for the limited membership but when the deal was finalized January 1, there were 170 stockholders to serve as the charter member of the new plant, which changed its name from a country club to a golf & yacht club. It is now owned by the Cavalier-Birdneck Land Corp., made up of the charter members, who lease the facilities to the non-profit membership.

Membership invitations were being sent out last week to a limited number of persons and the membership will close at 300.

The history of this club reads like a chapter out of a story book. Back in the days prior to 1926, what is now known as Birdneck Point and Birdneck Acres was nothing more than vast farmlands and scattered farm buildings. The two sections were not divided.

A young man by the name of Richard Crane came to this area with a fortune to spend in any way he saw fit. The son of the owner of Crane Plumbing Co., a wealthy manufacturing firm, he held $1 million his father had given him to get him "out of his (the father's) hair." In 1926 Crane bought the property of Birdneck.

About the same time another development was taking place that played an important part in the club's history.

Mr. Laskin, who built the Pinewood and Traymore Hotels and the old casino that is now known as Seaside Park, was beginning to feel the loss of patrons going to the 14th Street Casino rather than his amusement center. Since the only street into Virginia Beach, 17th ended near his competitor, Mr. Laskin felt the answer to his problem was to build his own road to funnel the business his way.

So, with his own money, he built what is appropriately known today as Laskin Road which not only brought the traffic into the north end of the beach, but also divided Crane's Birdneck property.

When this road came through Crane decided to "jump on the bandwagon" and built the golf course and develop the property. He built Cardinal Road into an avenue lighted with street lamps.

Crane hired Arthur Banks, a true golf fanatic, to design the course and Banks chose to pattern each of the 18 holes after holes on famous courses all over the world. The 18th hole, for instance, is copied from one on St. Andrew's Course in Scotland.

This is one of the reasons the Cavalier golf course has always been so highly acclaimed by famous golfers and brought top-notch tournaments to this area.

Crane chose to give the golf course and Birdneck property to the Cavalier Hotel Corporation in 1928, free and clear, with the only stipulation that the hotel must operate it until 1970. If it was abandoned, the entire business would revert back to Crane's estate.

The Cavalier Hotel Corp. built the present clubhouse and made it into a golf and country club. The original plans called for an elaborate building with a three story wing, with big, majestic columns, on the west for the men's quarters and a similar wing on the east for the women. But the depression caused the plans to be abandoned and a much more unassuming building replaced it.

The Southwestern Development Corp. bought the entire Cavalier holdings, which included the hotel, beach club and golf club, in 1959 and operated it for a year under lease to members until last fall when the members purchased it.

The big pilot wheel that stands at the doorway of the clubhouse was given to the club in 1948 by a member, Linwood G. Eugley, who had received the wheel from the owner of Moon Shipyards to be used in Eugley's Ocean View home.

The wheel, which was dismantled from the last side-wheel ferry between Staten Island and New York, was too large for Eugley's home so he donated it to the club. Today the wheel, with crossed golf clubs, has been adapted as the insignia of the Cavalier Golf and Yacht Club.

The boating facilities at the club started in 1947 when members, out of their own pockets, dredged a ditch into a canal that gave them access to deeper water. This dredging is still done each year through contributions and it is estimated that over $50,000 has been spent on this project.

The yacht division is separate from the golf club by having its own Commodore, an office held this year by Ray Cassett. This division, however, comes under the jurisdiction of the club's Board of Governors, presently headed by Frank Malbon, president.

The Cavalier's yachting facilities offer the only club in the country where visitors or members can step off their yachts onto the first tee of the golf course. The club is well-known throughout the country and holds reciprocal rights with many other clubs listed in Lloyd's Yachting Directory.

Visitors may use the yacht facilities free the first day, if they fly their own bugee. The Cavalier yacht facilities include 74 slips that can be increased to 110, a station wagon donated by Holt Buick Co. to transport visitors in and around Virginia Beach where they can restock their supplies from local merchants, a mechanic available for engine repairs and eight motel rooms off the clubhouse.

The Yacht Division, which boasts about 40 members, will hold Opening Day Ceremonies May 12 with a flag raising, cocktail party and dinner. All visiting yachts will be guests of the Cavalier. Over 100 notices have been mailed out in a 100-mile radius.

Though one of the top golf courses on the East Coast, the Cavalier course still has many improvements in the planning stage. The Board of Governors recently signed a contract to replace the 18 greens with T-28 Bermuda grass and hope next year to improve the fairways.

The clubhouse, too, will undergo many changes.

Grier Brovard was recently secured as club manager. His past experience includes the management of the Charlotte Country Club, the Graystone Inn of Roaring Gap, both in North Carolina, the Coquina Hotel in Ormond, Fla., and the Oakmont Country Club in Oakmont, Pa.

The dining room will eventually be enlarged to include a dance floor that will extend over the waters of Linkhorn Bay and bands will be brought in for special events. Dancers are presently being held at the club about every three weeks.

Sports for the whole family include the swimming pool and shuffleboard court and plans are being made for tennis courts to be located off the 17th fairway.

The Board of Governors include Malbon, T. Lewis Johnson, vice president Burks L. Hamner, secretary; Claiborne Bryant, treasurer; Lloyd Burton, E. H. Church, Robert Davis, Thomas W. Howard, Charles A. Kimnach, Edward Myers and Thomas T. Pitkin.

Auto Victims Remain Critical

VIRGINIA BEACH — An 18-year-old girl remains in critical condition today in Portsmouth Naval Hospital with injuries received in an accident Friday night near Camp Pendleton.

The victim is Joyce Ann Robinson, daughter of William L. Robinson, USN, of the 400 block of "A" Court.

County police said Miss Robinson was injured when her car went out of control at a curve on the back road to Camp Pendleton and struck a utility pole.

Walter G. Hynson Jr., 19, USN, Little Creek, is also still in critical condition today at the hospital.

Hynson was struck by a car March 18 on Route 13 near Diamond Springs.

Ocean Park Woman's Club

OCEAN PARK — The Ocean Park Woman's Club Fine Arts & Education Department held its monthly morning coffee at the home of Mrs. Rhoda White last week with twelve members attending.

The program was presented by Mrs. Michael Henry on "The Youth Corps".

Motions were made & passed for:

(1) The group to become a member of the Princess Anne Historical Society whose main purpose at this time is to acquire the three surrounding acres of "Pembroke House", for if they can do this the house itself will be a donation. It is hoped that "Pembroke House" will be to Princess Anne County what The Meyer House is to Norfolk.

(2) A donation of $15 will be sent to the Tidewater Hearing Impaired Pre-School Children's Association. It is understood that William & Mary has permitted the use of one of their buildings for teaching these children to hear and speak so that they may enter school with children not so handicapped. Expensive equipment and qualified teachers to teach lip reading, plus volunteers to drive some of these children to and from school is in great need.

"Your Electric Dryer saves its cost in about 24 months"

When a VEPCO Home Economist calls on a new dryer owner, she's happy to show the most efficient ways to use it. Because a rightly used Electric Dryer is a real money saver. It can save a typical family at least $125 a year, according to a study reported by the American Home Laundry Manufacturers' Association. For among the many families studied, those with dryers needed to buy only half as many linens and children's clothes as families using clotheslines.

That means the Electric Dryer you get now can save you its cost in about 24 months. And it will still be there to give you years more of savings... plus cleaner clothes and freedom from drudgery. Better get your Electric Dryer this month, at an extra $15 saving.

VIRGINIA ELECTRIC and POWER COMPANY

Before April 1st $15 OFF installation of ELECTRIC DRYER or WASHER-DRYER!

Make a new installation or replace a non-electric dryer in your home, rented house or separately-metered apartment. If in accordance with the terms of the VEPCO Offer, VEPCO will pay $15 on actual installation of any Electric Dryer or Washer-Dryer you buy from an AUTHORIZED LIVE BETTER ELECTRICALLY APPLIANCE DEALER. Ask VEPCO for name of one near you, and see him for the details of this offer.

Kid Football Is Strong Builder of City's Youth

By J. F. BRYANT JR.
Va. Beach Sports Club

The youth of this community should be developed for they will be our leaders tomorrow. In order to get a well rounded man you must spend time and money on him in his youth to help the development. Athletics is one means by which we as citizens can help in the over-all development. Today in this area we are definitely lacking the facilities needed for the development and training of these youngsters. By organizing and running the 6 and 8 man football leagues next fall I feel that the Virginia Beach Sports Club will be doing its part in making our community a better place for our youth to grow up in.

I have often heard it said, "If only I were young again". I grant you it would be nice provided we knew what we know now about youth. Each of us has our own personal problem as adults, but we must remember that youth has its problems too.

These problems may appear trivial to us but to him they are magnified many times. If the boys in this area are going to be expected to conduct themselves as gentlemen we must help them by providing the play grounds, gyms, supervision and organized leagues needed to help avert some of the nervous energy and tension that builds up as a result of adolescent worry and lack of recreation areas. I realize that this may sound like an adult reprimand, but let's face it, it is our duty as adults to provide the facilities and we are not doing our job as it should be done. We as citizens should all stop and think. What are we doing to help mold the boys of this area into men? Do we have an organized athletic program? Can we do something about it? We of the Sports Club feel that part of the answers lies in the formation of the 6 and 8 man football leagues. If anyone else has any suggestions or would like to help in the project, they may do so by contacting me or any member of the club.

TOURNAMENT TO STAR

O.K. folks, here it is—a mixed doubles contest that gives the "jo bower" a chance to "get in to the money." March 31st and April 1st marks the opening weekend of a five weekend tournament. $475 in awards are guaranteed—but all prize monies collected will be returned to the contestants 100%. An additional $25 award will be made each week to the highest couple for that weekend. Lanes will be available each weekend from 9:00 A.M. Saturday thru Midnight Sundays—bowl any time during this 39-hour period—enter as often as you like provided you change partners each time.

DUCK PIN BOWLERS—ATTENTION—

Reserve a spot now for your September league play. Sixteen lanes will be installed no later than August of this year at Rinaldi's Plaza Bowl. Some of the leagues that are forming are Church Leagues, Business Leagues, Mixed Leagues, Merchant's Leagues, Housewives' leagues, and many others.

SKIRTS AND SHIRTS

The Hilltoppers, Sooners, Coasters and the Lester Construction Company teams ran over their opponents by a 3-1 margin of victory at their last meeting. Their victims were the Pencil Pushers, Last Chance, Davis & Lee, and the Pinbusters. Joe Willoughby scored a 194 high for the men. JoAnn Neathery blasted a 190 game in her series total of 460 pins. Tom Myatt rolled high series for the men at 525.

LO-BOWLERS GROUP

The Misfits collected 1578 pins and high team series in defeating the Pin Toppers 3-1. Marilyn Jacobs of the short enders rolled a high individual series of 419. Dorothy Retzke of Stage Mobile knocked down 173 pins for high individual game as her team mates assisted in downing the Gutter Balls 3-1. The gasoline merchants also took high team game for the session with a 565.

THURSDAY NITE MIXED

Nationwide Insurance took 3 out of 4 from Frere Jacques School and picked up 2009 pins for a high team series. The Vina duo, George and Rose had series of 596 and 498 respectively. Ruby Watkins chalked up a high game of 183 for the ladies. Point O' Woods rolled over Team No. 3. The Gutter Dusters made it 4-0 over the Pee Bees—Bill G. had a 521 series and Walt H. scored a 550. Team 8 topped Team 7 by a 3-1 margin—Russ Middleton and Bob Beals scoring 200 plus. The Woodchoppers behind the 529 series of Joe Gutierrez and the 506 of Hank Stenson took the series 3-1 over Team No. 13. Ed Miller of the losers bowled a 183 game. Team 12 dropped their first game by 15 pins to Team 11, but came back to take the next two and total pins. Rozanne Redd of the vanquished had a 178 in her 457 series. Inspired by Marvin Becker's 190-173-171—534, the Prim-Valet beat Ocean Drags.

P. A. TEACHERS

Behind the inspired bowling of Frank Weinmeister the Goof Balls made it 4-0 over the Gutter Dusters—Frank's high game was a 197. The Comarts made it 3-1 over the Woodchoppers—Charlie Gilbert rolled a 158-189-177—524. Team No. 2 set Team No. 6 down 3-1 as Jim Spencer put together 189-184-181 for an individual high series of 554. The Outcasts came home with a 3-1 win over the W-8's—Jack Thompson registered a 490 series.

JOHNNIE'S GIRLS

JoAnn Neathery for the Bay Jewelers sparked her team to a 4-0 win over the Alley Cats. JoAnn's 142-168-178—480 gives her high individual honors. McNulty, Stewart, Fiore, Spadoni and company, combined their bowling talents and routed the Lazy Four 3-1. Barbara Reeves had a rollicking game of 164. The Navlettes upset the hopes of the King Pins by taking 3 out of 4—15 pins separated the two teams series wise.

F.O.P. LEAGUE

Team No. 8 took 4 games by forfeit from Team No. 4. Also taking 4 was the Baker-Ford combination all the way over Aveyard, Messina, and Myatt. Paul Baker ran 169-216-179 games into a 564 series and top honors in both game and series. Mary Ford registered high series for the ladies (435) and Del Messina's 168 was top game. Team No. 2 made it 3-1 over Team No. 7 and Team No. 5 repeated the performance over Team No. 1.

BUSINESS MEN'S LEAGUE

Two hundred and seven pins were just too many for Orr's Florist to overcome and K & G TV proceeded to roll one of the nights high team series of 2567 and a 3-1 win over the Blossom Boys. The top high game series was rolled by the Bowl Weevils who had a 2570 and a 4-pt. victory over the Rock Throwers. The Pin Pointers picked up 3 pts. at the expense of Aragona Pastry. THUNDERBOLT BOWL

Thunderbolt Major League

With no sign of letting up as the league approaches the home stretch, Sealy Posturepedic increased their lead by taking Team No. 8 three out of four. Glenn Holloman with a 586 and Neil Boucher with 547 provided most of the scoring punch. For the losers Mal Bishop fired a respectable 559 and Ron Glass added a 549.

Team No. 3 gave up their hold on second place by dropping three to Tastee Freez. Artie Watkins was high for Team 3 with a 523 series. For Tastee Freez, Ed Krause with a 547 and Walt Pool with 545 were the big guns. Ralph Johnson managed a 533 as he begins his recovery from a prolonged slump.

And Kelly Supply pulled themselves out of the basement at the expense of Coaches. For Kelly, Charley Bollen fired a 570 and Jim Drews a 534. But for Coaches, nary a 500 set was rolled. This puts them on the bottom of the heap.

Chix Restaurant and Virginia Beach Transfer were forced to postpone due to traveling bowlers.

County Student Gets Honor Scholarship at U. of Va.

BROAD BAY — Timothy E. Barrow, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garland E. Barrow of 203 Blueberry Road, Broad Bay Colony, has been awarded an honor scholarship at the University of Virginia in Charlottesville. He is a senior at Princess Anne High School.

Barrow

A total of 21 outstanding high school seniors—15 of them from Virginia—have been named to receive Regional scholarships, the University's highest scholarship for outstanding academic achievement and potential.

Another 18 students, one of which is Barrow, will receive Honor scholarships, the second highest scholarship for academic achievement and potential awarded by the University.

Regular one-year scholarships from the University will be made to 28 other outstanding high school seniors who competed for University Regional and Honor awards.

Of the high school seniors who were named scholarship winners, 54 are from Virginia. The University Regional and Honor scholarships were established in 1952 in honor of an alumnus, Philip Francis duPont of Delaware, whose bequest in 1928 set up a trust from which about $240,000 in scholarship funds are available annually.

One Regional and one Honor scholarship is granted to the out-of-state districts of Atlanta, Ga., Baltimore, Md., Birmingham, Ala., Charleston, W. Va., Memphis, Tenn., and Philadelphia, Pa. One Regional scholarship is granted in each congressional district in Virginia.

and 15 scholarships are awarded at large. Many one-year awards also are made under the duPont fund.

Stipends range from $1,000 to $5,000 for four-year awards for out-of-state students, and from $1,000 to $4,000 for four-year awards for Virginia students. The increased amount for out-of-state students is to cover the additional tuition charge for non-Virginians.

High school students were screened by regional committees composed of University alumni, on nomination by high school principals, and on the basis of grades, class standing, test scores, leadership abilities and extra-curricular activities, character, and industry. Financial need is also a factor in determining scholarship winners.

Scholarship winners were chosen from five nominees screened from each Virginia district and two applicants from each out-of-town district.

Announcement of the awards was made recently by the University Committee on Scholarships, Loans and Employment, which interviewed nominees and selected the winners.

"Every year the quality of students applying for scholarships increases," said Dr. B. F. D. Runk, dean of the University and chairman of the committee. "This year selection of the young men to receive scholarships was exceptionally difficult, as the caliber of each was excellent."

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene P. Lanning of Virginia Beach will go to Washington, D.C. this week-end to tour the White House with the Virginia Chapter of American Institute of Interior Designers.

Boy Scouting

By MIKE COURAIN

Troop 61 of Virginia Beach held a court of honor at the Galilee Episcopal Church on Wednesday, March 21, 1962. The ceremony started with the pledge of allegiance and the boys that were to receive the Tenderfoot Award marched in. The Scoutmaster, Mr. Wood, explained the meaning of scouting and the requirements of the Tenderfoot Scout.

The following boys received the Tenderfoot award: Allen Johnson, Peter Pages, Robert Stivers, George Haines, Herbert Smith, Chester Spence, Gary Spence, Robert Naw, Peter Marcos, Brian Hall, Steve Goranson, Craig Corder, Gary Corneal, Ted Watts and Rodney White.

Mr. Wood then explained the meaning of the second class badge and the requirements of that rank. The boys that received that award were Dean Ballard, Luke Mosley, Duncan Currie, Charles Hinkle, Peter Vele, and Billy Woodhouse.

After explaining the requirements of the first class rank to the parents and the scouts, Mr. Wood presented the award to the following boys: Ricky Haycox, Eddie Ritter, Welton Anderson, Stewart Beamon, Cockey Bagbey, Jay Robertshaw, Billy Wood, and Walter Fountree.

Mr. Fritz, the assistant scoutmaster, then presented the following merit badges to these scouts:

Michael Jenkins, Home Repairs; Mike Keville, Scholarship, Public Health, and Pioneering; Mike Courain, Home Repairs & Camping; Billy Wood, Home Repairs, Camping, Life Saving and Marksmanship; John Milner, Camping; Jeff Bowman, Marksmanship and Citizenship in the Community; Jay Robertshaw, Camping; Ted Goranson, Camping; Charles Ansell, Automobiling and Chemistry.

Then Mr. Fritz presented the Camping Merit Badge by Mr. Wood.

Whispering Pines Garden Club

VIRGINIA BEACH — The Whispering Pines Garden Club recently saw a demonstration on corsage making presented by Mrs. W. M. Gresham.

The club holds its March meeting at the home of Mrs. G. M. Atwater with Mrs. E. P. Crockett as co-hostess. Twelve members were present.

Blue ribbons for horticulture were awarded Mrs. S. W. Ferguson and Mrs. S. H. Howard and Mrs. L. B. Crockett.

NASCAR's Elite

In '250' Classic

RICHMOND — The starting field for this Sunday's running of the second annual Richmond '250', reads like the who's who of NASCAR's elite, late model division.

Joe Weatherly in a 1962 Pontiac is defending champion by virtue of his win of the first Richmond '250' last Sept. 10.

Other top Grand National drivers that make up the 25-car starting field include, Ned Jarrett, reigning Grand National champion of NASCAR, in a 1962 Chevrolet, and Rex White, 1960 Grand National champion, in a '62 Chevrolet. In the Pontiacs are Jim Paschal, Cotton Owens, Ralph Earnhardt, and Jack Smith. Richard and Maurice Petty will drive 1962 Plymouths, Buck and Buddy Baker 1962 Chrysler 300's, and Fred Lorenzen and Nelson Stacy 1962 Fords.

Time trials at the Virginia State Fairgrounds, Strawberry Hill track in Richmond will start Sunday at 1 p.m. The starting field will take the green flag at 3 p.m. for the 250-lap, 125-mile Championship classic.

Today one cancer patient in three is being saved. In 1937—25 years ago—only one in seven was saved. The gain in lives saved amounts to many thousands each year.

Camp Fire Girls Entertain Guest

GREAT NECK — Camp Fire Group Tandra had as their guest recently, Miss Jill Mowen, a former Camp Fire Girl a 9th grader at Virginia Beach High School.

Jill told the Tandra group how she earned her Camp Fire Honors and taught the group several Camp Fire songs.

The Tandra group is comprised of fifth and sixth grade girls from the John B. Dey School. Guardian for the group is Mrs. Grover Gregory.

Mrs. Field Will Head Cancer's Residential Unit

VIRGINIA BEACH — Mrs. John W. Field Jr. has been named residential chairman of the Cancer Crusade for the Princess Anne Unit of the American Cancer Society. The announcement was made this week by Crusade Chairman Dr. Howard Kahn.

Meeting Today

A kick-off coffee for the residential program, scheduled for April 10, will be held today at 10 a.m. at the Alan B. Shepard Convention Center for district chairmen and volunteer workers.

Guest speaker will be Sidney S. Kellam, State-Crusade Chairman, and Morrill M. Crowe, vice president of William P. Poythress & Co., a Richmond drug manufacturer. Both speakers will be introduced by Dr. Kahn. Mr. Crowe, a resident of Richmond since 1939, has been very active in that city's Cancer Unit, having served as Crusade Chairman, chairman of the Crusade Planning Committee and vice president of the unit. He is also well-known there for his Community Chest work and many civic activities.

Housing Group To Offer Scholarship

PRINCESS ANNE — At the Women's Housing Conference Monday night at Princess Anne High School, Mrs. William Witt, president of the sponsoring Tidewater Association of Home Builders Women's Auxiliary, received a $1,000 check to be used for a scholarship.

Mrs. Witt turned the check over to Dr. Louis V. Webb, president of the Norfolk College of William and Mary, who will use it for the education of a deserving student.

Miss Mildred Clark of Washington, D.C., women's advisor to the National Assn. of Home Builders, presented the check to Mrs. Witt who was national president last year.

The money is given each year to the past president of the national association to be used in the area she represents.

with Mrs. Field on the residential solicitation include: Mrs. Robert Timms, Mrs. J. W. Parrett, Mrs. R. E. Barnes, Mrs. J. E. Sanders, Mrs. G. M. Reed, Mrs. Russell Grubbs, Mrs. A. K. Nuckols, Mrs. J. Curtis Payne, Mrs. Herman Bonney, Mrs. George Wadsworth, Mrs. A. M. Murphy, Mrs. S. W. Ferguson, Mrs. William P. Kellam, Mrs. James E. Marable and Mrs. F. C. McCune.

Day Camp for Girls Is Planned for Great Neck Site

GREAT NECK — Mrs. Gerry M. Ashburn announced recently that she will convert Great Neck Stables, a 25-acre farm on the shores of Broad Bay, into a Day Camp for girls this summer.

The hours will be from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., five days a week, starting June 11 with two six-week sessions ending August 31. The camp will be available for two age groups: the pre-teens, ages 8 to 12, and teen-agers, ages 12 to 18.

Special Classes
Though sports will be optional, the camp will offer complete courses in horsemanship, golf and tennis with a qualified teacher for each. Other sports will include archery, volleyball, badminton, softball, ping-pong, horseshoes and "bowling on the green."

Outdoor excursions will offer fishing, crabbing, picnics, nature studies, field trips, hayrides, tournaments and horse shows. But when bad weather prohibits these the young campers may enjoy handicrafts, games and movies.

Added attractions will be a charm session, dancing, slimtics, fashion shows and beauty tips so "girls can be girls," Mrs. Ashburn said.

All divisions will be carefully supervised and a nurse will be in attendance at all times. All counselors are also qualified in first aid.

Transportation Furnished

Transportation will be supplied from designated points in Norfolk, Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County starting at 8 a.m. and returning by 2:00 p.m. Lunches of milk, sandwiches, and fruits will be served.

Attire for the camp will be shorts, tennis shoes and a straw hat, Mrs. Ashburn said, and girls taking horseback riding must have jodhpurs and hard sole shoes.

Persons interested in the camp may contact Mrs. Ashburn at HO 4-3028 for further information.

Three Courses Offered At Girl's Camp

Mrs. Gerry Ashburn's Summer Camp for Girls will provide classes in horsemanship, tennis and golf. Pictured with Mrs. Ashburn (left) are equestrienne Mimi Cooke, golfer Susan Tipler, tennis player Mary Motley and instructor Mrs. Nancy Batchelder. (Photo by Simmons)

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

It's no wonder that the Princess Anne Ruritan Minstrel Show will present command performances this Friday and Saturday nights at Princess Anne High School. Last week's four shows drew such large crowds that about 600 ticket-holders had to be turned away from lack of seats.

The minstrel draws larger crowds each year and it's easy to understand why. Home talent is always a drawing card and the talent that makes up this show is exceptional. Each performer turned in a job that was almost professional though most of them were businessmen who only take to the stage once a year.

To spotlight one would be an injustice. They were all excellent.

"HOT MUSICIANS"

The youthful "Chesapeake Bearcats," made up of Al Morris on the trombone, Bill Weaver with the clarinet, John Chambers on the tuba, Phil Eddy on the cornet, Harry Hunt at the drums and Phil Johnson at the piano, gave out some of the hand-clapping, feet-stomping music I ever heard.

Phil also came back with a couple of wonderful honky-tonk piano numbers and Ira Jacoway's banjo selections were out-of-this-world.

If there was a star of the show it was the scenery and sets, handled by Whit Voliva and Henry White and the lighting by Maynard Allen. Using only iridescent paints on the backdrops and special lighting effects, the sets could change from a moving riverboat scene to twinkling stars with the flick of a switch.

Perhaps the highlight of the show was the City Council skit, taking place in "you know what city," where Mayor "Duckfeet" lead his "Council-manics" in voting on a no-water project in a certain county. This went over big with the audience, many of whom were waterless housing developers.

Kept in line by Interlocutor Jack Etheridge, sparkling white in his satin suit, the All Star Endmen proved to be talented wits as well as accomplished vocalists.

OLD FAVORITE SONGS

Show Director John McFall sang "Pretty Baby"; Pete Scoppa did "Ida, Sweet as Apple Cider"; Les Lam (who does a wicked twist) did "Wrap Your Troubles in Dreams"; John Skillman burst out with "How Come You Do Me Like You Do"; Joe White sang "Red, Red Robin"; Murray Malbon did "Cuddle-Up-A Little Closer"; and Frank Malbon (a real ball of fire) did "Baby Face".

Premier Endman George Mullen did a grand job on "By the Light of the Silvery Moon" and showed his dancing talents with a soft-shoe-shuffle with Sarah Sadler, who, incidentally, trained all the dancers in the show.

VOICELESS ENDMAN

The one disappointment was the silence of the other Premier Endman, Graham Dalton, who lost his voice and had to perform in pantomime. Perhaps Mr. Dalton will be back in shape for Friday and Saturday. Also missed was Richard Kellam who was sick and could not perform. He, too, may make it this week-end.

The songs of Clark W. Graves were very good and his duet with Miss Jean Farrow on "Bess, Yo Is Ma' Woman" brought a great round of applause.

Another act that must be mentioned was the "Hambone, Hambone Where You Been" number by Dick Lowery and Joe White, where the men used nothing but their slapping hands as background accompaniment. It was excellent.

Everything about the show was good and the club spared no cost in presenting a lavish production.

For those of you who missed the first performances, you are fortunate to have a second chance to see it. Try to make it Friday or Saturday. You won't be sorry.

For those of you who might be interested, "Prince," the big, shaggy dog I mentioned as being lost in last week's column, is home safe and sound. Mrs. Harold Webb of Birdneck Point, a friend and reader, called to say she had a dog and could he be mine? He was. And to the Webb family, the Phillips' family publicly says "thanks" for taking such good care of our devoted pet during his 3-day stay at your house.

Mrs. Foster Gilbert New Head of Women's Clubs

Mrs. Foster I. Gilbert, Virginia Beach, was elected president of the Tidewater District, Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs, at the 40th annual spring meeting of the group held at the Hotel Chamberlain, Old Point Comfort, on March 27th.

Mrs. Gilbert is a member of the Woman's Club of Princess Anne County.

Other officers elected were Mrs. John T. Kellam, Jr., only 1st Vice President, Mrs. Otis B. Gregg, Portsmouth, 2nd Vice President, Mrs. G. V. Bradshaw, Norfolk, 3rd Vice President (Director), Mrs. Walter L. Thomas, Newport News, Recording Secretary, and Mrs. Jesse Jones, Newport News, Treasurer.

Clear skies and low tides replaced the Ash Wednesday flood waters which had caused cancellation of the meeting at the earlier date. Three hundred and forty-one clubwomen attended the business meeting at which, in addition to the election of officers, the by-laws of the district were revised to enlarge the nominating committee from 3 to 5 members and the budget for the 1962-63 year was approved. Reports on outstanding community work were given by presidents of six clubs, among which was Mrs. Donald E. Hood, president of the Junior Woman's Club of Princess Anne County. Mrs. Hood reported on her club's activity in promoting physical fitness programs in local elementary schools. Membership of Tidewater District

LINLIER CIVIC LEAGUE

LINLIER — At a recent annual meeting of the Linlier Civic League the following officers were installed:

William J. Meagher, president; William A. Wood III, vice president; William L. Myers, secretary; Hoyle H. Miller, treasurer; and directors, A. R. Hassler, W. R. Brewer, J. O. Campbell, J. H. Grahame, W. G. Ashburn and A. W. Snow Jr.

After the business meeting and the introduction of new members was over, refreshments were served by Mrs. Snow.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB OF PRINCESS ANNE TO HOLD "FAVORITE RECIPE DINNER"

PRINCESS ANNE — The Jr. Woman's Club of Princess Anne will hold its annual "Favorite Recipe Dinner" Tuesday at 7 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William Myers, 38 Caroline Drive in Linlier.

Each member will bring her favorite prepared dish for the dinner and the written recipes will be added to the club's file.

was reported as totalling 5,067 members in 46 senior clubs and 19 junior clubs.

Installation of officers took place at a luncheon following the business meeting and was performed by Mrs. Alvah E. Riggs, 2nd Vice President of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs. Final installation of Mrs. Gilbert as district president will take place on April 12th in Richmond at the annual convention of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs to be held April 10-12.

Mrs. Norman L. Brown, who will retire from office after the Virginia Federation convention, presided over the district meeting. She was presented with a gift of a pair of silver candleabra and a silver candle snuffer at the close of the meeting. Presentation was made by Mrs. Gilbert who cited the achievements of Mrs. Brown's administration and the appreciation of the district clubwomen who gave the gift.

VIRGINIA BEACH, VIRGINIA, THURSDAY, MARCH 29, 1962

Letter Carriers Install Officers

VIRGINIA BEACH—At an installation dinner held Friday, March 23 the following were installed as officers of Branch 2819 National Association of Letter Carriers:

Doyle E. Patterson, President; R. E. Padon, Vice-President; Alfred Y. Butler, Treasurer; Philip Klompus, Secretary; R. S. Johnson, N.B.A. Clerk; L. A. Price, Sergeant at arms; G. C. Main, Trustee 3 year term.

Mr. R. L. Seery, past president of the Norfolk branch installed the new officers of the Virginia Beach local. A gavel and base made by Mr. R. S. Johnson, a member, was presented to the incoming president.

Mr. Seery recently attended the salary conference held at the Statler-Hilton Hotel, Washington, D.C. and gave an interesting report of the results and expectations of this rally.

Mr. E. L. Shean, Assistant Post Master, Virginia Beach gave a speech concerning plans for the expected build up resulting from the rapid growth of this section of the city and county. This was followed by a question and answer period.

Williams Principal

Mrs. Archer Described As Gentle But Firm School Administrator

(This is one in a series of articles to appear each week in this paper on the men and women who serve as principals of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County Schools.)

By RUBY JEAN PHILLIPS

BAYSIDE—"Sometimes I wish I had 50 arms," Mrs. Lourena Sears Archer, principal of Bettie F. Williams Elementary School, said. "All of these children want to be loved and hugged."

The slightly greying, matronly woman has a great capacity for affection and spreads it generously among the 1,000 students in the school. Her office is filled with tokens of affection for her—several bouquets of bright, yellow jonquills from students and a large potted plant from the parents.

"There is nothing like the children's little beaming faces when they handed me those flowers," she said. "And my face was beaming, too. I love my children."

Can Be Firm

But, when the occasion arises, Mrs. Archer can also be a stern disciplinarian, not only with the youngsters but with the faculty

Mrs. Lourena Sears Archer and others working in the school.

Since the school was not yet completed last fall, the school term got under way while workmen were still busy in the building. This often created problems for the principal. One worker commented to the custodian that "Mrs. Archer got pretty stern with me about this job."

"You're lucky," the custodian told him, "sometimes she can get really tough!"

But sternness mixed with kindness can be a great gift, especially when dealing with children, and Mrs. Archer has this ability. The youngsters respect her authority.

"Are you the boss of this school," a third grade boy asked her recently in the hall. "Yes, I am," she told him. "Well, you're a pretty good boss," he replied.

Though she has some teaching experience behind her, most of Mrs. Archer's 30 years in the education field have been in administration, mainly because she "loves being a principal."

Disciplining the children, naturally, causes her concern because she realizes the importance of being fair. But she has a very significant method of guidance.

Asks Guidance
"It may sound old-fashioned," she said, "but I believe in prayer. This always solves my problems. I believe, also, that we need to evaluate ourselves often; ask ourselves if we are doing the right thing and doing to the best of our ability."

A native of Princess Anne County, Mrs. Archer's childhood was patterned around the responsibility of chores. Today's children don't have this opportunity because of their suburban living and this creates problems, she feels.

"Children now don't have enough to do. They have too much leisure time and become restless. Maybe school year around would help. I don't know. But they need some way of getting rid of their excess energy."

Education was always her chosen field. Even as a child she enjoyed "teaching" her playmates from a book in a school of "let's pretend."

She realized her ambitions after receiving a bachelor's degree in elementary school education from Hampton Institute, where she has also done some graduate work. She became head teacher in a small school, then principal of a six-teacher school and before her appointment at Bettie F. Williams was assistant principal in charge of the elementary department at Princess Anne County Training School, now known as Union-Kempsville.

She lives with her husband, Edward, and their foster daughter, Joan Bernice McDade, in

Prince of Peace Church Acquires Building Site

KING'S GRANT — Prince of Peace Lutheran Church has completed negotiations for the purchase of its permanent location at King's Grant. The property is situated on a lake just north of Virginia Beach Blvd., at the intersection of King's Grant and Little Neck Roads, and contains approximately five acres.

Prince of Peace has become rapidly established in the area. Services were begun on March 19, 1961, at the Happy Days Day Nursery, on Laskin Road, adjacent to the Linkhorn Park School. Purchase of the site came just a few days after the first anniversary service. The congregation currently serves more than thirty families from the Princess Anne County-Virginia Beach area.

At the same time the site was purchased, the congregation commissioned Milton Prassas, of Washington, D.C., to design the buildings which will house Prince of Peace. Included in the plans will be a sanctuary, educational facilities for Sunday School, and a Christian Day School, which is planned for the future. Although no date has been set for the groundbreaking, it is hoped that construction will begin during the summer months.

Prince of Peace is a mission congregation of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod, and is served by The Rev. J. Elmer Medley, Pastor. Congregational officers are: Fred Behning, Chairman; Herbert Frosch, Secretary; John Fairchild, Treasurer; Robert Peterson, Elder; and William Hoblet, Stewardship Chairman.

Until such time as the building program is completed, Prince of Peace will continue to worship at the Happy Days Nursery, on Laskin Road. Services are held each Sunday morning at 8:30, with Sunday School and Bible Class beginning at 9:30 A.M. Lenten Services are conducted Wednesday evenings at 8:00 P.M.

WORLD MISSION WEEK BEING OBSERVED

VIRGINIA BEACH — The Virginia Beach Community Chapel's fourth annual World Mission Week has been underway since Sunday and will continue this week with outstanding guest speakers.

Scheduled for tonight is the Rev. Bob Evans who was born in Africa of missionary parents, was a naval chaplain of the Anzio and Salerno beachheads and is a missionary statesman and founder of Greater European Mission.

Friday's services will present the Rev. Richard Tompkins, a veteran missionary to Thailand under the Christian and Missionary Alliance.

The 11 a.m. service Sunday will be conducted by the Rev. David Adeney, associate general secretary of the International Fellowship of Evangelical Students. The 7:30 p.m. service will be conducted by Rev. Evans.

The Rev. Richard Woodward, pastor of the Community Chapel, has extended an invitation to all interested persons to attend the services.

KEMPSVILLE P-TA
KEMPSVILLE — The Kempsville Meadows Elementary School P-TA will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. and will observe a room visitation night.

Parents will visit the classroom from 8 to 8:30 where they will view class work and meet with the teachers then gather for a business meeting in the cafeteria at 8:30.

Norfolk Joan is attending college in Norfolk and working part-time at the Community Hospital. She hopes to go into the field of food planning.

Reading is Mrs. Archer's hobby by preference but she also enjoys travel, having made trips to Mexico, California, Canada and other interesting places.

Va. Beach Lodge Celebrates Fiftieth Year of Service

VIRGINIA BEACH — There were many distinguished Masons present, at a special communication held Saturday night March 10, 1962 in the Virginia Beach Masonic Temple, to celebrate the fiftieth year of the Virginia Beach Lodge No. 274, A.F. & A.M.

Most Worshipful Edward H. Cann, Grand Master of Masons in Virginia was in attendance with other members of the Grand Lodge. They were: Most Worshipful Brother Archer B. Gay, Grand Secretary; and Right Worshipful Walter N. Chinn, Grand Marshall. Four Past Grand Masters were present to assist in the celebration—Most Worshipful Brother Willis V. Fentress, honorary member of Virginia Beach Lodge; Most Worshipful Brother Edmund C. Glover, immediate Past Grand Master; Most Worshipful Brother Charles M. Flintoff, and Most Worshipful Brother Archer B. Gay, Grand Secretary.

Also present was Right Worshipful Brother Gilbert J. Taylor, District Deputy Grand Master of the 35th District, Past Master of Norwalk Lodge.

The visiting Worshipful Masters were recognized and they were from the oldest and newest Lodges in the 36th Masonic District. They were: Worshipful Brother Sterling Montgomery, Master of Princess Anne Lodge No. 25, and Worshipful Brother Ira McCloud, Master of Lynnhaven Lodge No. 220, which is the newest and was constituted on the night before, March 9, 1962. There were 19 Past Masters present from Virginia Beach Lodge and other lodges.

Worshipful Brother Arthur B. James, Worshipful Master of Virginia Beach Lodge presented a history of the Lodge starting with the year the Lodge was constituted in 1912 when Worshipful Brother W. W. Galt was Worshipful Master, and who later became Grand Master of Masons in Virginia. The history was ended with the introduction

RECREATION THEME OF P-TA MEETING

A program on "Recreation, Present and Future, in the Va. Beach-Princess Anne area" will be presented April 2 at a meeting of the Linkhorn Park School P-TA.

It will be under the direction of Mrs. Robert C. Goodman, chairman of a recreation survey committee for the Health Welfare Recreation Planning Council of the United Communities Fund.

She will introduce the following panel of speakers: Harold S. Whitehurst, athletic director of the Princess Anne County Recreation Department; Garland A. Wood, local chairman of the Southeastern Virginia Regional Planning Commission; and Gordon Basskin, principal of Linkhorn Park School and member of the recreation survey committee.

Each speaker will give a brief talk, followed by a question and answer period from the audience.

10 Gallons

Henry Jaffe Heads Toward Blood Goal

Henry Jaffe is a man who sets personal goals for himself and his latest may form the beginning of a national group throughout the United States. It could eventually reach the four corners of the world.

Jaffe, for some years, has donated ten gallons of blood to the American Red Cross but until recently it appeared that he would be thwarted in reaching this goal because of the age rule. It seems that he started too late in life and the cut-off age would be 59.

Jaffe has long been concerned with the difficulty the Red Cross blood program has in meeting its quota and he has set up a regular schedule for himself. Most of his donations are made in Suffolk where he formerly resided. He now lives in Virginia Beach at 42nd and Oceanfront.

Some twenty years ago during World War II Jaffe would board a bus and make regular trips to Petersburg to donate blood. In addition he gave many pints of blood to Dr. Frank Morkindled a desire to ultimately rise by direct transfusion several years ago. Available records in Petersburg verify his giving there and with the pints of blood given to Dr. Morrison and subsequent donations Jaffe is well on his way to reaching his goal of ten gallons and more.

Jaffe is interested in many charitable and civic activities but his desire to help through the Red Cross blood program is one of his pet projects. At the moment Jaffe has his eye set on the ten-gallon quota.

When he reached the ten-gallon mark Jaffe has plans to start a nationwide club for those who have passed the same mark. He says it will be America's most exclusive club. Knowing Jaffe and his past efforts there is no doubt he will make it.

Easter Seal Parade Here Set for Sunday

VIRGINIA BEACH — Miss Harriet Ailstock, acting President of the Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County Chapter of The Virginia Society for Crippled Children and Adults, today announced an Easter Seal Parade will be held, throughout this area, over the weekend of April 1.

During this time over fifteen hundred volunteers will be delivering Easter Seals to the homes and will accept contributions to be used for the work of this Society.

Last year over 6,800 crippled children and adults were given medical assistance by the Virginia Society.

The Virginia Society maintains or supports 28 centers or services throughout the State, including Camp Easter Seal, a summer treatment center for handicapped Virginia children. Last summer 23 crippled children from the Princess Anne & Norfolk area attended this camp. About 83 patients in this area received medical services through the local chapters during the past year, in addition to the patients treated through

SPECIAL FILM AT OCEANA CHURCH

OCEANA — The film "Muddy Feet" will be shown at the First Assembly of God, corner East Lane and Virginia Beach Blvd., in Oceana, Va., Sunday night, April 1st at 7:30 p.m.

"Muddy Feet" is a story of a little girl and her pastor. A highly touching and dramatic real life story is presented and produced by the Gospel Publishing House of Springfield, Mo.

The real life pastor is Rev. L. A. Messick of Aruna, Colo., who took children to church in his car. The story depicts the work of a dedicated minister and his various ministries to his community.

Rev. Samuel D. Beiler, Jr., pastor of First Assembly, extends a cordial welcome to everyone to see this story.

LOCAL MAN JOINS INSURANCE BUSINESS

VIRGINIA BEACH — James B. McCaw, III, of Virginia Beach, has been appointed a representative of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company. He is affiliated with the D. Conrad Little Agency in Norfolk.

A native of Norfolk, Mr. McCaw is an alumnus of Hampden-Sydney College and Norfolk College of William and Mary. He is a member of the Princess Anne Country Club.

The MIXING BOWL...

IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK

SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food facts and fables... for practical, down-to-earth recipes that please both palate and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

What month is this? Why March of course—and Evaporated Milk News informs me, it's National Egg Month.

I couldn't let another week go by without telling you how to please your family with something special for Sunday morning breakfast, as well as for guests who maybe coming for a visit.

Chafing Dish scrambled eggs are ideal for brunch-style entertaining. They'll need only a stir or two during cooking and still turn out fluffy light and cooked just right.

Evaporated milk beaten in with the eggs gives them volume as well as adding to their food value and flavor appeal. Then, too there is frozen chopped chives and little cubes of cream cheese stirred in to dress them up in real party style.

Make Breakfast or Brunch
An Occasion with Chafing Dish Eggs

A chafing dish can make quite an occasion of breakfast or brunch especially when it is filled with this very special variety of scrambled eggs. Fluffy and golden with glimpses of white cream cheese and green chives showing through the eggs are appealing in appearance and doubly so in taste.

The eggs, together with evaporated milk, are beaten until light and foamy which assures good volume as well as the light moist texture that's most agreeable for scrambled eggs. A little salt and pepper and the chopped chives are added at this point, too, for the seasoning. Once the mixture goes into the pan it needs only one stir during cooking making this chafing dish method particularly convenient for entertaining.

Little cubes of cream cheese folded in just at the last add a final touch of intriguing flavor to these delicious scrambled eggs served with a flourish from the chafing dish.

Chafing Dish Scrambled Eggs

9 eggs
1 tall can evaporated milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon frozen chopped chives
1 tablespoon butter
1 pkg. (3-oz.) cream cheese
In a mixing bowl, add evaporated milk, salt, pepper, frozen chives to eggs. Beat until light and foamy. Pour boiling water to a depth of one inch in the water packet (outer pan) of a 1 1/2 quart chafing dish; place over heat. Melt butter in the blazer (inner pan) over the hot water. Add egg mixture, then cover and cook without stirring for 15 minutes. Stir once, cover again and continue cooking 15 minutes more. Cut cream cheese into small cubes and fold into eggs. Cover and cook just until cheese begins to melt, a minute or so longer.
Makes 6 to 8 servings.

This being Lent, you can go right on celebrating National Egg Month during April. You know eggs contribute excellent protein and important amounts of minerals and vitamins, especially iron, calcium, phosphorus, and vitamins A-B, (thiamine), B2 (riboflavin), D and Niacin. Eggs used in custards, puddings, etc. count as much as those in main dishes.

Creamed Eggs

6 hard cooked eggs
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 tablespoon minced onion (optional)
3 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce (optional)
2 cups milk

1 tablespoon minced parsley
Toast

1. Hard-cook eggs, then peel.
2. Partially fill base of double boiler with water; cover; bring to a boil.

3. Melt butter in top of double-boiler directly over heat, add onion and simmer until tender. Remove from heat. Add flour, salt and pepper. Mix well, add Worcestershire sauce.

4. Set top in place over boiling water. Slowly stir in milk. Cook, stirring until smooth and thickened, add parsley.

5. Cut eggs into slices, halves or quarters, which ever desired. Fold into sauce. Heat.

Serve on toast, top with crisp bacon if desired.
Another tasty way to serve them is to spread toast with Smithfield Ham Spread and then spoon over the creamed eggs.

Your Social Security

Since 1956, women have been able to start receiving reduced old-age benefits at 62. Beginning with August 1961, men may also choose to receive benefits between the ages of 62 and 65.

As in the case of a woman worker, a man who decides to take his benefits before age 65 will get less per month than if he waited until he was 65. A man who takes his benefits at age 62 will get about 80 percent of the monthly benefit that he would have received at age 65. The actual reduction factor is five-ninths of 1 percent for each month that a benefit will be paid before age 65.

Once a man takes his benefits at the reduced rate and has no further earnings before he becomes 66, he will continue to receive the reduced amount. This is true after he reaches age 65 for which his benefits were withheld because of his earnings from work, his benefits at age 65 will be automatically increased to take into account the months for which he received no checks.

In considering whether he wishes to apply for benefits before he reaches 65, a man will want to weigh a number of factors. These factors are: his health, whether he is employed, his earning power, and his family situation.

The age at which benefits can be paid to dependent husbands, widowers, and fathers of dependent workers, has been lowered from 55 to 62.

The dependent husband who takes his benefits at age 62 receives a reduced benefit of 25 percent whether or not he has an entitled child in his care. The dependent widower's or father's benefit is not reduced.

Any man between the ages of 62 and 65 who desires more information about how the Social Security Law applies to him is invited to visit the Norfolk Social Security Office or talk with the social security field representative when he visits his area.

AIR FORCE AHEAD IN RECRUIT RACE

RICHMOND—The Air Force is well ahead of its sister services in reenlistment rates, S/Sgt. Wm. Ball, local Air Force recruiter announced today.

During the first three months of fiscal year 1962, according to figures released from Washington, the overall reenlistment rate in the Air Force was 70 percent.

The other services overall reenlistment rates ranged from 33 to 50 percent.

"More than 90 percent of Air Force career airmen, normally those in the higher grades, are reenlisting and one-third of the first-term (four years or less) are re-upping," said Sgt. Ball.

This is a very impressive endorsement of "Satisfaction"—one of the Air Force's biggest selling points, the sergeant stated.

Today there are over 300,000 Americans under the age of 18 who have lost fathers to cancer; over 250,000 have lost mothers. The American Cancer Society says fathers and mothers owe it to their sons and daughters to have a health checkup this year.

NOW! NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE
PAYS 3% "PLUS"
DAILY INTEREST ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS!!!

A new day for Tidewater savers is here! Now for the first time in Norfolk, National Bank of Commerce pays 3% interest compounded semi-annually payable each and every day to savings account customers.

YOU GET "FULL" INTEREST

No more "interest periods!" Every day as sure as the sun rises, you receive interest on the daily balance of your savings account. You receive interest on every dollar you deposit even if it remains in your savings account for only one day.

WHAT THIS MEANS TO YOU

National Bank of Commerce realizes that savings accounts are "reserve funds" to be used when needed. By paying interest every day, you are not penalized when you make a withdrawal and lower your savings account balance during an interest period. Instead, your savings account balance continues to earn interest each day at the same rate.

HERE'S AN EXAMPLE

Suppose you are a regular saver depositing $25.00 a week. National Bank of Commerce is the only financial institution in Norfolk that will pay you interest on that $25.00 the first day it is deposited, and on every day thereafter until you draw it out. In addition, your 3% interest is compounded semi-annually.

IMMEDIATELY AVAILABLE

Your savings account funds are immediately available upon presentation of your passbook at any of the 17 convenient National Bank of Commerce offices.

Open a savings account today at your nearest Bank of Commerce office and start earning interest daily!

All of the Gospels tell us that Jesus Christ, when He was tried before Pilate faced those who were responsible for His crucifixion with a decision. It was a Roman custom to release to the Jews one prisoner each year and Pilate wanting to release Jesus faced the multitude with the question, "Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ?" Matt. 27:17.

The history of the human family was greatly influenced that day by the fact that the multitude chose Barabbas, a murderer, and not Jesus Christ the Saviour of the world.

It is interesting to reflect upon the fact that these people chose to have a murderer living and walking among them when they could have chosen to have Jesus Christ in their midst, performing miracles, healing the sick, raising the dead and preaching His wonderful gospel. We are forced to come to an incredible conclusion as we reflect upon this story. Those people did not want Jesus Christ in their fellowship. For some reason they felt more secure and comfortable with a murderer.

You cannot help but ask the question, Why? Why would any people prefer the company of a murderer to fellowship with the Son of God?

You might discover an answer to this question if you would read in the four gospels and as you do listen to the teaching of Christ as if you were there, if you could traverse the King James English and face your life squarely with His teaching you would understand why they chose Barabbas that day.

For example, in the fourteenth chapter of Luke's gospel Jesus talked about discipleship. He said there were just two kinds of people in this world. The people who put God first in their lives, ahead of possessions, other human beings, and even their own life were the salt of the earth. On the other hand those who made a profession of being Godly or Christian, but were guilty of putting other things before Christ were good for nothing, except to be thrown out and trampled under the foot of men.

If you read with understanding in the gospels during this Lenten season, you will discover that this "meek and mild" Jesus as He has been misrepresented to the world, was not mild at all. In His teaching He showed people the ugly truth about their selfish lives. He left them no middle ground. They either stoned Him or worshipped Him. Followed Him or crucified Him.

If you will face Him squarely upon the pages of Scripture He will show you the truth about your life. When He does you will be faced with a decision. You may not choose Barabbas, but you may very quickly choose a good murder mystery, or the book of the month, or television or anything but Jesus Christ. When you do I wonder are you very different from those who chose Barabbas that day? Whom do you choose?

TO COMMEMORATE 25 YEARS OF progress in the fight against cancer, the American Cancer Society and the National Cancer Institute have designated this year as "Cancer Progress Year." In this period the gain in lives saved from cancer has increased from one in seven to one in 3.

WILL JESUS ACTUALLY RETURN TO THE EARTH?

Here and there, America is building modernistic churches. No one's quite sure where the trend will lead... or whether it yet should be called a trend. But the thousands who have worshipped in these contemporary sanctuaries seem certain of this: The new architecture hasn't changed the age-old faith. Christianity has known many forms of worship, many terms of expression. But there has always been Unity underlying diversity. Christians worship the same God and Lord; they revere the same Cross; they search the same Scriptures. Through human architects who express their devotion in different forms, The Divine Architect is pointing all men to the spire of Faith.

Princess Anne High School Happenings

By Leslie Russell

It seems hard to believe that nearly seven months of school have elapsed and once again graduation is nearing. Excitement and tension, once again, are mounting at Princess Anne High School as the days go by with plans for the senior play, senior prom, and graduation being made.

This year, the senior class, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Johnson, is going to present three one-act plays, "Apartment to Share," "Submerged," and "Balcony Scene." The cast for "Apartment to Share" is Miss Tommie Tompkins as Leslie; Miss Pat Plevyak as Mary; Alan Nielson as Jean; Ronnie Goodwin as Terry;

Roger Provo as Mr. Popovitch; Tommy Edenton as Mr. Allen; Barbara Joquin as Mrs. Allen; Mike Little as Dean Benchley; Terry Bradley as policeman; and Linda Farmer as the maid.

In the cast of "Submerged," the roles are portrayed by Charlie Cramer as Brice; Mike Little as the commander; Bill Harris as Nabb; Scott Mathews as Shaw and Dick Gariott as Jorgenson.

In the final play "Balcony Scene," David Claude, Bill Benington, Brenda Womack, Phyllis Nelson, Gale Doss, G. Robert Jones, and Grace Bamforth present their talents in the roles of "a man," "his friend," "her daughter," "a mother," wife, "a gangster," and "a girl."

Recently, members of the drama class presented "The Boor" in the one-act play festival for which they received distinguished awards at the University of Virginia. Congratulations!

Congratulations to Miss Sandy Oliver, P.A. senior, who was just recently chosen to attend the annual Azalea Festival as an attendant to one of the Azalea princesses.

Tomorrow night the Varsity Club presents their annual Geek Week dance for which the girls must ask the boys. The dance is the finale of the initiations of the Varsity Club's new members.

This year, five junior girls have been selected for their outstanding achievements and leadership abilities to be delegates to Girl's State. Princess Anne's representatives to Radford College are Linda Gregory, Claudia Frias, Brenda Koon, Cheryl Marshall, and Jan Meades. Have fun, girls!

The Keyette Club officers for the forthcoming school year of '62-'63 were elected at their last meeting. The new officers are Dottie Colucci, president; Brenda Koon, vice-president; Leslie Russell, secretary and Connie Trueblood, treasurer.

There are three selling campaigns underway at Princess Anne right now. The SCA is sponsoring their annual magazine drive. Princess Anne students are selling subscriptions of all popular magazines.

The Journalism class of P.A. is selling plastic annual covers. So Cavaliers, if you want to protect your annuals, you better get in touch with a Journalism student, pronto!

The last, but not least, campaign going on is the Band's candy sales. The P.A. band is selling salt water taffy and peanut brittle to raise money for their band trip to Wilmington, N.C. The Princess Anne Band and Drill Teams were selected out of all of Virginia to play in North Carolina at their annual Azalea Festival.

Candidates from Princess Anne for the Norfolk Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y Council have been selected by the Princess Anne Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y Council. The nominees from P.A. are Mike Matton, president; Rena Fishal and Vernel Hensel, vice-presidents; Jane Harrison, secretary, Ruth Byrns and Leslie Russell, treasurer and Jerry Wood, sergeant at arms. Good luck, Cavaliers!

The District Forensics Meet is to be held April 4 at Deep Creek High School.

Contestants from Princess Anne are Jim Landis, and Susan Benbow, "Public Speaking"; Jimmy Flippen and Linda Farmer, "Prose Reading"; Brenda

By DARLA SUE DESKINS

Loraine Emily Garrison, better known as Toddy, is the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. (Pic) Garrison. Toddy is an active member and supporter of all of the numerous V.B.H.S. activities.

Clubs have been an active part of her social life. She is a past member of the Tri-Hi-Y, and the Teen Club.

Clubs have filled many hours of her busy schedule. She is a past member of the Tri-Hi-Y, and the Teen Club. Toddy feels that any job worth doing is worth the time and trouble it takes. It is obvious that her sense of responsibility has not gone unheeded. She is a past secretary of the Sophomore class, past secretary of the Dramatics Club, and past corresponding secretary of the Future Teachers Association.

Toddy's ability to organize and her artistic ability have served her well. She has decorated for the Beach Bowl, and this year was assistant chairman of that committee. As all good Juniors, she was active in the decoration for the Junior-Senior Prom.

Support of the Seahawks is one of Toddy's main interests. She has served as a cheerleader for four years. Two as Junior Varsity, and this year finishing two years as a Varsity cheerleader. Many are the not-too-interested Seahawks who have received a pep talk from Toddy on their responsibility to have good school spirit. It's nice to think that we still have a cheerleader who goes on cheering after the game is over.

Toddy is not only a spectator of sports, but a player. She attempts basketball, loves to swim, and is an avid bowler. She bowls at least twice a week and has an average of 125. Her proudest moment was her high score game of 168, something that most of us still dream about attaining!

During spare moments when she isn't on the go, she enjoys a good book, generally a history or adventure story. Toddy's schedule is not so very crowded that her school work has been neglected. She is a member of the Beta Club, the honor society at V.B.H.S. Although undecided as to whether or not she likes the twist, she still does a mean cha cha cha.

Toddy is well liked by both underclassmen and her Senior friends. This is most probably due to her vivacious personality and the time she takes with the individuals to laugh or to listen. She is still undecided as to what field she will pursue, but she is in hopes of attending William and Mary College of Norfolk. V.B.H.S. wishes this most personable girl the best of everything!

The next thing I like about them is their examples to other young people. They lead us to greater dedication to our country; they are, by their work indeed making this country a better one. As long as we have young people of these characteristics devoted with their hearts, their heads, their hands, and their health to do these things, American cannot be anything but successful."

"HORSE SENSE" TO BE SEEN BY 5-H'ers

The Rideaway 5-H Horse and Pony Project Club is scheduled to see a motion picture entitled "Horse Sense", at their next meeting which is to be held on Sunday, April 1st.

This film will be used by leaders Mr. & Mrs. Paul Creekmore to assist in instruction given to these club members in the care and safety practices of horsemanship.

WOODSTOCK 4-H'ers SEE C.D. FILM

A film strip on Rural Civil Defense will be shown the Woodstock 4-H Club as a part of their C.D. Club Project. This film strip, released by the U.S. Office of Civil Defense, is so designed that 4-H Club members can see how they can play an important part in an all-out civil defense effort. This group will also hear several 4-H Club speeches that are to be entered into the County 4-H Public Speaking Contest, which is to take on April 5.

It happened 100 YEARS ago

The oldest incorporated trade association in the country, the United States Brewers Association, was organized in 1862... the same year that

IN VIRGINIA, President Jefferson Davis was sworn in under the Confederate Constitution at Richmond (February 22nd). Throughout the state and all over the South, the event was toasted with foaming steins of beer.

For then, as now, beer was the traditional beverage of moderation—light, sparkling refreshment that adds a touch of Southern hospitality to any occasion. Virginians have always enjoyed the good fellowship that goes with every glass.

TODAY, in its centennial year, the United States Brewers Association still works constantly to assure maintenance of high standards of quality and propriety wherever beer and ale are served.

Notes from Your COUNTY AGENT

By E. R. "DICK" COCKRELL, JR.

Increased Hog Production May Hold Promise in Virginia

Virginia's hog inventory is down 40,000 head from last year and now stands at 628,000.

The state's 4,000,000 people consume 2,000,000 hogs a year. But, the sad fact is that only 27 percent of these animals are raised in Virginia on Virginia feed by Virginia hog producers.

Hogs are raised on 64,462 Virginia farms. In the south, the Old Dominion is outranked hog-wise by Georgia, Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina, Texas, and Oklahoma.

Population Increase

If our population increases to 5,000,000 by 1975, as expected, we will need 1,010,000 hogs produced and marketed in Virginia to hold our own with what we now do, percentage-wise.

Other states have seized the opportunity to profit by present margins in the hog business. Total hogs for the U.S. as of January 1962, were 56,900,000. This was three percent more than the 55,400,000 last year and four percent above the 10-year average. If it is good for everybody else to be important in hogs, it must be that we are overlooking a good bet, because all the corn belt states showed increases this year over last.

Perhaps it won't take long to overdo hog numbers. However, it seems to me that Virginia should build up its hog numbers in keeping with feed supplies and maintain a more or less level and even keel with this balance of pigs and feed in mind.

Numbers Up - Down

The pattern for hog numbers in the Old Dominion has been erratic. Numbers have ranged as high as 1,000,000 and down to 500,000. Hog numbers are, of course, affected by such factors as drought, depressions, war, and the likelihood of other types of livestock being more profitable at a given point.

Hog growers in Virginia are applying new technology, and change is being accepted and applied in pork production perhaps more fully than in the case of cattle and sheep.

Future Trends

Trends point toward more selling of live hogs on grade, more direct buying, more large feeding units, increased use of confinement rearing and concrete feeding floors, and a decline of small operations.

Graded quality feeder pig sales are becoming more numerous and important. Emphasis will continue on research for lean type breeding hogs. Farm slaughter still declines and contractual arrangements with feed companies, packers, and other distribution outlets have not progressed as rapidly as predicted a few years ago.

Final Analysis

In the final analysis, there will be only a few factors that decide who produces pork at a profit. The big one is how many pigs are saved and put on the market. Fertility of the breeding stock and the science of saving pigs is the essential base on which to build a profitable business.

The efficiency with which feed is converted to meat and the way it is influenced by disease and parasites and poor management will be the second major factor. A third is the grade of the finished product, and the fourth big item is the cost of keeping a brood sow, a year and the careful control of the items that run these costs up.

With the application of the best known technology through the number of sows now available in Virginia, we could be producing about 25,000,000 lbs. of pork additionally each year. This would build a brand new business right on top of the one we already have without increasing numbers in any way.

SEED CAN MAKE—OR LOSE MONEY FOR YOU

The seed you buy can make—or lose—money for you.

You may not really be saving money when you buy inexpensive seed. Furthermore, you may be preparing for a healthy crop of weeds.

Seed lots vary in quality and price. Some lots contain too much profit-robbing weed seed, inert matter, dead seed, or other crop seed. Other lots, of equal value, are priced differently.

When buying seed you want only live seed of the variety you select. Seed, sold by responsible dealers, will be properly labeled to show the purity, germination, weed seed, inert matter, other crop seed, and other factors which determine quality. Certification of seed is your insurance.

When you buy seed, variety should be your first consideration. The variety must be adapted to your soil and climatic conditions and have the characteristics you want. Otherwise, the chances of producing a profitable crop are doubtful.

HENS CAN WEAR OUT WELCOME IN FLOCK

Hens can wear out their welcome in the laying flock.

A study involving five different strains of layers in Virginia showed these results. Almost 16 percent of the eggs from flocks in the 14th month of production went into below "A" grade categories at federal-state grading stations. Furthermore, records show that production in a flock is usually down to 50 to 55 percent by the end of the 13th month of lay.

These studies, as well as those at other colleges, indicate that it is not usually desirable to keep a flock longer than 12 or 13 months of continuous production.

PRINCESS ANNE 4-H's BEGIN TRAINING FOR DISTRICT CONTESTS

The Junior and Senior Livestock Judging Team and the Land Appreciation Judging teams in Princess Anne County are now receiving extensive workouts in order that they may be well prepared to compete in the District Contest. This District 4-H Club Contest will be held in Petersburg, Va., on Saturday, April 14. The District contests will be composed of 4-H Club members from 16 different counties in the Southeastern District. Winners in the District contests will have the opportunity to enter into state competition at the 4-H Club Short Course which takes place at VPI in Blacksburg, Va., in June.

The Princess Anne County 4-H's are now going all-out and eagerly receiving all possible training in order that they may be well prepared to compete in the District contests.

The Junior Livestock Judging Team is now being trained by Johnny Joyce, who is a Senior 4-H Club member, and has had a good bit of experience in livestock judging. Johnny has competed in the District competition and is well qualified. The Junior Livestock Judging Team consists of Jimmy Johnson, Joe Moulton, Lee Durham, Jerry Moulton, and Butchie Parker. These boys are all familiar with livestock in that each one of them is now feeding out a 4-H Club steer. They are making very good progress in the livestock judging training and should be well prepared by the time of the District contest.

The Senior Livestock Judging team, composed of Gale Craddock, Al Basnight, Joe Moulton, and Johnny Joyce, are seeking revenge in the District contest this year as they were beaten out by a very narrow margin in last year's contest. These boys are putting much time and effort into the basic fundamentals of livestock judging, as well as extensive practice in the field of giving reason for their decisions. Half of the scoring in the District contest is based on the Club members' ability to justify his decision in placing one animal over another. The Club member must follow a set pattern for reason giving, and be able to convince the officials of his opinion of the placings.

The Land Appreciation Judging team, consisting of Dan Humphries, Tommy Chism, Joe Pecsek, Johnny Osmundson, and Tommy Conboy, are also beginning workouts for the District contest. These boys must be well-trained to judge the different types and characteristics of soil. A well-trained land appreciation judge must go into an extensive study of the different soil types and classes throughout the state, so that he will be able to compete in the contest at any location in which it might be held.

4-H's Participate in Fitting And Showing Demonstration

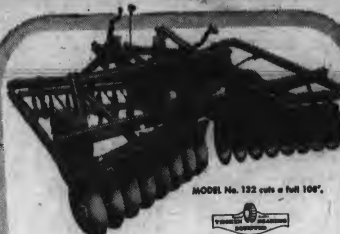

All of the Princess Anne County Junior Steer and Heifer project members, as well as other interested persons, took part in an all-day Fitting And Showing Workout on the farm of Mr. Ralph Frost, at Hickory, Virginia. These club members have learned every small detail including feet trimming, washing, combing, brushing, clipping, and so forth, in order that they may begin work on their steer or heifer which is to be shown at the Portsmouth Junior Steer and Heifer Show in May.

NATIONAL LEADERS RECOGNIZE IMPORTANCE OF 4-H

President John F. Kennedy: "I am sure we can count on you and 4-H Clubs everywhere to help us face the challenge that lies ahead. I would commend
